C. F. Cross & Co., will soon open a Book and Stationery Store, in No. 3, Patton's block, formerly occupied as a clothing store by G. W. Coon & Co., They have already purchased a fine assortment of Books and Stationery, and will be ready to supply the wants of the reading and writing

THE MILLPORT TRAGEDY.—The affair has ended by Rogers having fled the country, it is said. It will be remembered that Rogers preferred charges against Miss Falls, his outraged assailant, and she gave bail to appear before the next Grand Jury recently in session at the Court House, to answer to the charge of an assault with an attempt to kill. By the non-appearance of the prose cutor the prosecution has ended, and as no indictment was found, the attorney of Miss Falls succeeded in quashing the complaint. These facts certainly extenuate the crime committed by Miss Falls, and confirm the charges laid against her seducer .- Elmira

RAILEOADS .- The Lehigh Valley railroad is being pushed on with commend able energy. The work in the rock bluffs just south of town will be practically finished by the first of May, and is to be completed ready for iron by the 15th,-the date, as we understand, fixed upon for opening the canal. The work between Port Griffith and Mill Creek will be quite light, and can be forwarded with rapidity whenever the road south of that point is so far completed as to require it. We can see nothing to prewent this route to Wilkesbarre and the citi being opened at the time first announced. August next .- Pittston Gazette.

WYOMING COUNTY .- The house of Mr. Norman Whitney, about two miles southwest of Factoryville, was burned last Wednesday morning, about nine o'clock. The fire was occasioned by the boiling over of a pot of coal tar, which was placed on the stove in the kitchen, by Mr. Whitney, to warm, in order to mend a leak in the roof. His face and hands were burned as he courageously lifted the flaming tar from the stove to the floor. He thought of a keg of powder, and immediately removed it from the house to a safe distance in the meadow. Everything else was burned,-The family escaped with the clothes which they wore only, for the fire spread so rapidly that in an incredible short time they were nouseless. The insurance is light, and the loss is estimated at over three thousand dollars. Mr. Whitney is abundantly able to rebuild and we presume will soon have another residence erected and comfortably furnished.

JUDGE KELLEY'S SOUTHERN TOUR. We learn from the Washington Chronicle, that the eloquent advocate of human free dom, Hon. William D. Kelley, of Pennsylvania, will leave Philadelphia on Friday next, May 3, for a political tour in the late rebel States. He will proceed to Wilmington, N. U., via Goldsboro', and from Wilmington direct to Beaufort, S. C. From thence he will go to Savannah, Ga., speaking there, and returning North by way of Charleston and Columbia, S. C., and thence to Greensboro', Concord, Salisbury, Charotte, Danville, and other points in the western part of the old North State. Judge Kellev's labors will begin in North Carolina about Monday, the 6th of May. Few truer or more eloquent advocates of the great gospel of all rights for all can be found than Judge Kelley, and we are sure that his proposed labors in this new field will be as beneficial as have all his efforts in the past. Judge Kelley is a member of the Union Republican Congressional Executive Committee, now doing so great a work in the South-

The New Albany (Indiana) Ledger, of the 13th inst., reports the arrest of a man who was once arrested in Cincinnati, on the charge of petit larceny, and upon whose person was found a bunch of burglar's keys, several forged checks, and various other suspicious papers. Among the papers was a song book, on the fly-leaf of which was for sale written the following: "My right name is Henry Javan Salisbury. I have two uncles, by the name of H. H.
