SAD ACCIDENT.—An accident resulting from the careless use of fire-arms, occurred in Ulster, on Friday last. Four boys were endeavoring to discharge a revolver, which one of their number had loaded for the purpose of killing a woodchuck, when, after several ineffectual attempts to explode it, one of the boys by the name of Thomas Weight, said that they might point the revolver at his head, for it would not go off. Whereupon one of the lads by the name of Mozzison, playfully. pointed the weapon at WRIGHT and pulled the trigger, when horrible to relate, the revolver was discharged, the ball passing through WRIGHT's head, killing him almost instantly. Morrison was so shocked and frightened at the consequences of his carelessness, that he fied to the woods, and has not been seen since.

EDWARD OVERTON, JR., of this place. has been appointed Register in Bankruptcy under the late law. The selection is a good one, as Mr. OVERTON will make a prompt, efficient and impartial officer.

Accident. On Saturday morning last, while JESE A. WILSON with Miss BEE NICE KELLOGG, were descending the hill near Dushore, the wagon run into a gully in the road, and with such force as to throw the occupants violently to the ground. Miss Krinoco was taken up insensible and there is but slight hopes of her recovery. Mr. Wilson was also severely, but not dangerously injured.

Misses Carrers, at the old stand of of Fancy Goods and Millinery.

Horse and Buggy Stolen.—On Saturday night, May 15th, John Leonard, of deavour of the Executive Committee to Tiogs had a horse stolen from his barn, and make these meetings so pleasant and in-Joseph Link, in the same neighborhood, structive, that no Superintendent, Teacher lost a buggy the same night. The thief or Pastor of our county can afford to stay was pursued into Pennsylvania, overtaken, away. arrested, and is now a guest of Sheriff Truesdell. His name is Winfield, and he hails from Strait's Corners. - Owego Gaz.

SAFE ROBBED.—The safe of R. C. McNeil, Esq., General Stock Agent of the Erie Railway, whose office is at Campville, was broken open and robbed of $2,000 on Monday night last, $700 of which was in and finally succeeded in getting the money & Dittrich. They have on hand now the part at the First National, and immediate-largest and best stock of Pianos, Melodeons ly made himself scarce. He had been gone but a very little while however, when stranger No. 2 made his appearance, laying claim to the oxen and alleging that stranger No. 1 had stolen them from his stables the night previous, which statement being duly verified, Mr. Hiersteiner surrendered the cattle, and immediately despatched messages and messengers for the detention and arrest of the thief. George Bruce overhauled the villain in the town of Candor and undertook to arrest him, but he resisted, drawing a revolver and threatening to use it if not let alone, and thereby made his escape, several persons present refusing to aid Mr. Bruce in making the arrest. The name of this bold criminal is said to be George Rogers, (he gave his name here as Wm. Wheaton,) and hails from the town of Windham in Pennsylvania. He has served a term or two in a Pennsylvania Penitentiary, and we hope he may still be caught and be awarded a third term for this last chapter in his criminal record.

-The cattle were the property of Alfred Bowen of Warren township, Pa. P. S.—Rogers was arrested yesterday in Ithaca, and will be brought to Owego this morning. - Gazette.

LEONA, June 1st, 1867. Mr. Epron-Dear Sir: I noticed in the last issue of your paper, that G. B. Hubbard charges Abram O. Westbrook & Co. with having written, or caused to be written, a notice offering a reward of one hundred and fifty dollars for the arrest of certain parties. Now, Mr. Editor, I have no connection with, or k nowledge of, the exis tence of any such company as he describes. The charges he makes /against me are false! I hold myself amenable and responsible for all my acts, as I shall hold him. Whether he was misled into such a statement or done it intentionally, I do no pretend to know, being content with a statement of facts, leaving invective for those who make its use their capital stock

A Bold Villain.—On Saturday morning last, at about 7 o'clock, a stranger drove a pair of fat Oxen to the door of Washington Market in this village and offered them for sale, whereupon Mr. Hiersteiner bought them, giving his check on the National Union Bank for $250, the price agreed upon. The stranger went immediately to Front street to see if he could get town before the hour for opening the banks, and finally succeeded in certification.

"What a powerful tone." "So brilliant and sweet." "I never heard its equal." "The upper notes are so clear." "The bass has such power." "The action is perfect." "What improvements are now made in Pianos." "The most perfect Piano I ever saw." The above are the expressions of all that call at the New Music Booms and play the Mathushek Patent Piano Fortes. No better guarrantee can be given of the merits of these Pianos than that Wm. Dittrich, who has had 19 years the could leave town before the hour for opening the banks, and finally succeeded in certific to the could leave town before the hour for opening the banks, and finally succeeded in certific to the could leave to the could le Organs, Sheet Music, &c., that has ever been in this section of country, and are constantly receiving more. One of the Little Humming Bird Pianos is now on the way. Orders for Sheet Music should be addressed to J. H. DeWitt, Towarda, Pa. June 6, 1867.

Accident.—There was an explosion in Doct. Ayer's Laboratory, yesterday, which caused some excitement in the vicinity. Ayer's Pills are manufactured under an enormous pressure, in cylinders, like cannon, which sometimes prove too weak for the compressed forces, and burst with terrific violence. Fortunately, the pieces do not fly far, so that no one has ever been burt by them. The action is more like ice than powder; but it makes Pills which all the world acknowledge are Pills.—Daily he is no more. He came to Guilford a few Journal, Lowell.
