Union Republican Nominations FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPPEME COURT HON. HENRY W. WILLIAMS.

OF ALLEGHANY COUNTY.

THE ROMINATION.

The Pittsburg Gazette in announce ng the result of the late Republican State Convention, thus speaks of the candidate for judge of the Supreme Court :---

THE NOMINATION.-Yesterday, at Williamsport, the Republican State Convention, on the ninth ballot, nominated Hon, H. W. WILLIAMS, of Allegheny County, for a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court, to be vacated by the expiration of Judge Woodward's term. This was hardly expected even by the most sanguine. The West has been so accustomed to slight in the selection of candidates for State offices, that while all desired few confidently hoped that the gentleman put forward in this District for Supreme Judge would be accepted. In selecting Judge WILLIAMS formed a wise thing. The West, for its chosen favorite, will roll up increased majorities, and in its own strength will secure his election, no matter what may betide the party in siastically received here, where perdealings, and an able and sound jurist, with extensive legal acquire-

He has robbed, oppressed and degraded his countrymen. He has led them into causeless war, and at the mointo causeless war, and at the moment of their inability longer to fight, has betrayed them to their enemies.

The testimony against Surratt begins to tell most conclusively against the mnn as participating in the proceedings which brought about the death of Abraham Lincoln. Unless the defense can bring very strong rebutting evidence, testimony to show that Surratt was not in Wash-Charlottesville, Va., gn Monday last, and ington city on the night of and the morning after the assassination, the verdict must be against the prisoner. It is true that circumstantial evidence of this particular kind, relating to local presence at a precise but remote period of time, is often extremely doubtful.
