sor St. John's cheese factory, in Herrick, was burned on Wednesday night, last, by an incendiary.

An infant son of C. H. Mowry, of Meshoppen, aged about 14 months, was drowned on the 27th ult., in a spring of water near by the house of his father.

We regret to notice that our late townsman. A. F. Cowles, was one of the sufferers by the late fire in Williamsport. He lost his entire stock, and had no insur-

Agents for the various Insurarce Companies, having risks on property destroyed by the fire in this place on the 7th inst., have been here and settled all the losses, except one.

Nathau Chase, of Auburn, Susquehanna Co. was found dead near the road, above Meshoppen, on the 29th of June last. Is supposed to have died from the effects of intoxication.

In giving the notice of the land purchase of the Williamsport Lumber Company, last week, the types made us say "60,000 acres." It should have been var hundred thousand.

MR. Yost, late of the Columbia tomity Republican, is about to revive the Wyoming Republican. The loyal people of little Wyoming need a live paper, and Mr. Yosr is well fitted to supply their wants in this respect.

A correspondent informs us that a large amount of damage has been done to bridges, crops, &c., along Sugar Run, by-the recent freshet. The water was higher than it has been before in thirty Considerable damage was done to the Barclay Railroad by the recent freshet. One or two kridges were washed away, and other portions of the road dam aged. We understand that it will require from eight to ten days to put the road in running order.

Messrs. M. J. Long and G. L. Keeler have leased the store on the corner of Bridge street, (lately occupied by W. A. Rockwell,) and will open a Grocery and Provision Store about the first of September. They are both very worthy young men, and we have no doubt will receive a generous share of public patronage.

THE SUSQUEHANNA COLLEGIATE INSTI-TUTE. - The Rev. SAMUEL F. COLT has again been induced to take charge of the Institute, and will open classes on Wednesday, Sept. 18th, assisted by a full corps of instructors in the male and female departments. Full advertisement next week as to terms and the four Institute courses in English, Classic, Normal and Commercial brances.
