The Mass Meetings to be held at Troy, Towanda and LeRaysville, next week, should demonstrate to our opponents that the people are thoroughly awake to the importance of the result of the pending election. Republicans of Bradford, do not fail to attend these meetings It is time that you aroused from your lethargy, and prepared for the great struggle on the second Tuesday of October. With the renegade Johnson, plotting the overthrow of your principles, the peril of the hour overshadows all the great daners through which we have passed Do not think because the National armies have triumphed over Rebel foes, that all is safe. The "price of Liberty is eternal vigilance," and if Freemen now permit Copperheads and Rebel sympathizers to control the Government, the blood and treasure of the Nation has been wasted in a fruitless struggle.

Rally! Republicans to these meetngs. Give one day to your Country, and make ready for the election. The able and eloquent Senator from Nevada, Hon. JAMES W. Nye, will address each meeting, and my, because he would disobey his there is promise that Attorney General BREWSTER, and other popular speakers will be present.
