

News from all Nations.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—
Chicago will probably be made upon as the place for holding the next National Republican Convention.

The Navy Department will incorporate a limited number of engineers into the regular service. Persons who served not less than two years during the rebellion can make application for examination.

The Croton National Bank, in New York, was closed by the Governmental examiner, for not redeeming its circulating notes in lawful money on demand.

The printing of the impeachment testimony, which began some weeks ago, has been suspended for the present, and will not be resumed. A week previous to the assembling of Congress this was deemed necessary, in order to prevent any chance of its being made public before its presentation to Congress.

The yellow fever intermitts in New Orleans, during Monday number six, three.

The persons beat informed of the President's designs do not hesitate to assert that if the radical ticket is successful in Ohio and Pennsylvania, he will make a general decapitation of radical office-holders.

The Canadian Parliament will meet on November 6.

The large merchandise house of Buchanan, Horn & Co., of Hamilton, Canada, stopped payment on Monday.

David K. Sprague Jones, a confidante man, who has principally been engaged in obtaining jewelry or forged orders, has been arrested in Boston.

A child of a German emigrant, probably thrown off the train, was found recently at Canisteo Center. It seemed to have been about six months old.

Quite an alarming malady has prevailed at Bath among young children—a bloody dysentery. The disease is confined to a portion of the village east of Liberty St.

Mrs. Hollister, of South Danville, deserted by her husband four years ago, took arsenic and cut her throat with a case knife, the other day. She was probably insane.

A young female belonging in the family of Parker Kerr, of Kerr Valley, disappeared one evening, after she had been sent to drive home the ducks. A few days afterwards duck and girl appeared near Wellsville.

The Canisteo Valley Times says: Mr. Bailey, a shoemaker in the employ of William Richardson, fell dead in the streets of Albany last Sunday morning. Heart disease was supposed to be the cause of death. He had a wife and family, for whose benefit citizens contributed $100 to take them to friends in Canada.

General Grant has issued an order authorizing officers now absent from their commands, which are now serving in the Fifth military district, to remain absent until further orders, in order to avoid the risk of yellow fever.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has submitted to the acting Secretary of the Interior for approval the fourth list of lands, comprising 29,221 acres, according to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, under acts of Congress of 1862 and 1864.

The postage to Schleswig-Holstein and Dantzenburg by the Hamburg steamer is now reduced to the same rates as are now charged to Prussia.

The branch mint at Charlotte, N. C., is soon to be put in operation, but will only be worked for assaying purposes. It is said that the gold mines in North Carolina and contiguous States, which were neglected during the war, are being worked again.

In Kristenian America a sum of pure sulphuric acid over thirty feet deep has been discovered, and has been traced for a mile, near a good harbor, where there is an abundance of oak and fir timber.

The annual report of the cashier of the Bank of California shows transactions for the year amounting to over $62,000,000.

General Canby, commanding the second military district, (North and South Carolina), has issued an order prohibiting the provost courts from exercising jurisdiction in any case, involving the state of law, or in any civil cause where the fine exceeds $500. He has also signified his intention of modifying General Slocum's order closing the bar-rooms.

The flour mill of Bond & Polk, near Vincennes, Ohio, was burned on Tuesday. An immense quantity of wheat was destroyed. Loss $60,000.

Several buildings in London, Ohio, were destroyed by fire on Monday. Loss $40,000.

At the auction sale of Pittston coal in New York, prices ranged from $4 to $7 per ton.

In the Governor's Eye case, in England, an American officer deposes that Gordon entered into negotiations with him to purchase an armed ship and munitions of war.

Revolutionary demonstrations are reported to have been made at Viterbo, Italy.

The Emperor of Austria will visit Paris on the 20th inst.

The deaths from yellow fever in New Orleans, on Tuesday, numbered fifty-four.

The Crow Indians refuse to meet the Indian Commissioners at Fort Laramie in November.

The Merchant's Union Express Company's safe, at Brownsville, Nebraska, was robbed of $15,000 on Tuesday night.

Rear Admiral Dahlgren has reported to the Navy department the stations of the vessels belonging to the South Pacific squadron on the first of September.

An attempt was made on Saturday night to set fire to the Tribune building. A quantity of powder was found concealed in the editorial rooms, together with a half-burned candle. The incendiary has escaped.

A man named Mark Dempsey, traveling on a coal train, the Morris and Essex Railroad, slipped between the cars on Saturday night, and was literally cut into pieces. The dreadful accident occurred near Dover, N. J.

The trial of Dr. Thomas J. Turner, who was indicted with Dr. J. Edward Turner, for burning the Binghamton Institute Asylum in that city, having been in progress four days, closed Saturday afternoon.

The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. This second Dr. Turner with the defendant discharged.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—
Towanda, Thursday, Oct. 10, 1867.

THE ELECTION.

The election in this Mountain town Tuesday, passed off very quietly, light vote having been polled. As a consequence our last fall's majority for Geary is not reached. We have returns from but a small part of the County, far enough to indicate that the majority for Williams is from $2,90 to $4,00.

The following special dispatch that the State has gone Democratic, was received at Elmira last night, and is probably the later. The 15th instant was originally anticipated, the distance being given as exactly 1,000 miles. From government surveys it is ascertained that the distance between the two cities is really 1,220 miles. Weston engaged to walk the extra 26 miles if permitted to start on the 15th instant. At the meeting yesterday it was arranged that he should choose his time of starting. If he starts on the 15th instant he is to walk 1,000 miles, if he starts on the 16th instant he is to walk 1,220 miles. This walk is to be made within thirty days.

In compliance with his mother's request, he will rest on Sundays; and, therefore, the distance must be made in twenty-six days.

Gov. Swan has duly proclaimed the adoption of the new constitution of Maryland. He states the certified vote at 17,623 for 13,038 against the constitution, with 27 blank ballots, and declares that a majority of votes having been cast for the constitution adopted by the convention at Annapolis, on the 17th of August last, it will go into effect as the proper constitution and form of government of the State (overlapping the one now existing) on Saturday, the 5th of October.

The Ohio Wool Growers' association met at Dayton on the 25th, and declared in favor of the present tariff as passed, and that "present depressed state of the wool market is due to excessive importations of wool and woollens before its passage, rather than to any defect in the tariff or its enforcement."

A private letter from Fernandina, Fla., says the residence of ex-United States Senator Yulee was recently mobbed by negroes, and seriously damaged with stones and other missiles.

Hungary and its dependencies are about to be intersected by a network of railways. A canal is also projected between the Danube and the Theiss.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The National Intelligencer intimates that it is hardly probable Gen. Sickles will be gratified with a court of inquiry.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.

Several hundred workmen are now actively engaged in painting the exterior and renovating the interior of Buckingham Palace. The stonework is in many places quite decayed.

The will of General Scott provides that his property shall be divided among his three daughters. He leaves his Pulaski sword to the United States Military Academy, and his Mexican gilt sword to his grandson, Winfield Scott Hoyt. To his second and third daughters, Camilla and Marcella, he bequeaths each an equal third of what money falls due to his estate from his publishers.

The Assistant Treasurer at New York is prepared and has been instructed to issue three per cent. certificates, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, in denominations of $5000 and $10,000 each, for the redemption of the compound interest notes maturing in the months of October and December next. The accrued interest on all notes presented for such redemption will be paid in current.

The people of Louisville, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other western cities are contributing liberally for the relief of the destitute and distressed at New Orleans.