Ballou's Monthly Macazine.—This very popular and exceedingly cheap Magazine presents an attractive table of contents for December. Amethyst Wayne's charming story, "The Derwent Eyes and Hair," is completed; Mrs. Edson's exciting serial, "The Lady of Lindenwöld," is intensely interesting, while "Paul's Romance," by Miss Hale, and "My Darling," a poem, by James Franklin Fitto, are among the choicest of magazine reading. The illustrations are also remarkably good, making this one of the best numbers of Ballou ever issued.

TRIAL LIST FOR DECEMBER TERM,'67: Thailes A Heavener is Comfort 0 Gore. Is printed with the will be finely illustrated by Kilburn, and will appear in the new department, called "Our Young People's Story—Teller;" a popular author will furnish a charming story for Girls, while there will be at least a dozen other stories and poems of the highest literary excellence, and intensely interesting, all complete in the January number.

It will be seen from the foregoing that Ballou's Magazine for 1868 will eclipses its present excellence, while the extraordinary low price is retained. It is only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a number. Glubs receive it for $1.25. The proprietors have good cause for calling it "the cheapest magazine in the world." NEW INVENTION IN PIANOS!

The MATHUSHEK PIANOS, recently invented by Mr. Frederick: Mathushek (author of the principal improvements in pianos), differ from all others in having the strings cross the frame in both directions. This equalizes the atrain upon the frame, and insures greater durability and longer continuance in tune than can be had by any other method. The Bridge, also, runs the whole length of the sounding-board, an entirely new feature, which gives greater power and better tone than is found in any other instruments.
