In the lower counties of the The papers are very often almost filled with notices of sales. There, if a person wishes to sell or buy a farm, he makes use of the newspaper, and long columns of valuable properties are advertised | Such advertising might be very profitably employed here. We have advertised many farms, and in no instance, we believe, has the publication tailed to bring enquirers. That is all that can be expected from an advertisement, as its sale, of course, depends upon other considerations.

DENNIS MASON, who resides just above Columbia X Roads, on Thursday last, (says the Gazette,) while coming to Troy, met with a frightful accident. While coming down a steep hill, one of the horses not good at holding back, started rather suddenly and at that moment the fore-board of the wagon flew out, throwing Mr. Mason forward between the horses and whiffletrees. The horses being frightened ran down the gaged in the meetings. hill and shot from the road against a fence, throwing out those in the wagon injuring Mr. & Mrs. Mason somewhat and a sister of Mrs. Mason quite seriously. The two children escaped with slight bruises.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—The December number of this monthly magazine for boys and girls has been received. It is replete with fine stories, poetry, &c., all splendidly illustrated. The following are the contents: "Cast Away in the Cold;" "The Pacha's Son:" "Miss Emily Proudle Makes a Discovery;" "Round-the-World Joe;" "More About Swimming and Salt Water;" "Good Old Times;" "In Time's Swing;" About Some Picture Books;" "Prudy and the Pedier;" "Over the Wall;" "Pictures in the Fire;" "Music;" "Round the Evening Lamp;" "Our Letter Box;" &c., &c. -A splendid colored picture, entitled "Little Bo-Peep," is given away to every subscriber and purchaser of this December number. Ticknor & Fields, publishers, 124 Tremont street, Boston.

The Montour American noticing the prospectus of the new paper at Harrisburg says :--

"We are especially pleased with the high tone of the forthcoming paper, as indicated by the Prospectus. Among other reforms, it promises to discard all the obscene and doubtful advertisements that fill too many of our exchanges. We hall this, as a powof our exchanges. We hall this, as a pow-erful accession to the few, who reject, at any price, the trash of heartless speculators. Infact, beyond the Columbian of Blooms-burg, we know of no other paper in the state, that occupies the same ground, occu-pied by the Montour American, in regard to that class of advertisements."

The editor should have included in the ist, the "REPORTER." We claim to keep our columns freer from objectionable advertisements, than any other County paper in the State. The American publishes the lottery scheme of the "Washington Library Company," which we refused, but otherwe believe it is entitled to all the credit claims. We decline all patent medicine advertisements, and refuse to have any dealings, with city agencies. Their favors are unsolicited and their letters unanswered. So we smile We decline all patent medicine advertiseand their letters manswered, So we smile very complacently when we see our brother editors complaining of some agent who has swindled them.
