Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong desire to express their thanks to the crowd of friends who called on them on the 31st ult., and left so many tokens of their good will. The amount realized by the donation was over one hundred and ninety five dollars.-As words cannot express our gratitude, we will try to do it by our acts.

Do not forget that the Pkonix Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., is one of the cheapest and best companies in the United States. It is represented in this place by H.'A. BURBANE, who is ever willing to explain the workings of the company to all those who will call on him, at his office on State St.

Mr. A. Hart has opened a confectionery manufactory, and also a wholesale and retail business, in this place. Ho has on hand a splendid assortment of fine fresh candy, which he offers at reasonable prices, and the public to call and examine for themselves. Hist store is in Patton's Block, corner Main and Bridge streets.

The Republicans of Susquehanna County held their county convention a few days since and among other resolutions passed the following in favor of Mr. Grow for the Vice-Presidency:

Resolved, That Hon. Galusha A. Gnow, by his integrity of character, his ability as a latesman, his experience as a legislator and presiding officer in Congress, his unswerving devotion through a long period of public service to liberty and the rights of as lieutenant of the great commander in the final struggle for the Constitution and the Union. We do therefore earnestly urge his nomination for Vice-President of the United States.

W. J. TURRELL and W. H. JESSUP were chosen delegates to the State Convention,

TRIAL FOR MURDER.-Dr. John D. Durkin was found dead in his office in Scranton, on the 29th of last May, with a severe wound on the back of his head, and other less severe ones on his person. There was evidence of a struggle and he lay in his night clothes by the bed with his cane in his hand.

Suspición rested on a man named James Delemater who had been seen in Scranton the day of the murder and about the last of July he was arrested at Whitehall, N. Y., working on a saw-mill

His trial commenced before the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Judge Conygham Presiding with Associates Steele and Collins on Friday 24th January, 1868. The evidence was conflicting, but the Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of murder in the first
