SLEEPING.

The violet eyes lie shaded deep,

Beneath the white lids closing,

The sweet red lips held half apart-

Smiles coming and retreating;

God bless and keep the little heart,

Within the white breast beating,

The tiny, restless, busy feet Lie still in credle nestling

As baby sleeps.

The clinging arm, full, white and sweet

Close out the burst of noise and glare-

Float gently through his dreaming. As beby sleeps.

And Heaven is lost, and Heaven is wor And joy gives place to grieving; The summer comes, the summer flies, And brings the autumn's glory—

While still my darling's violet eyes Repeat the same old story—

I sit and muse, while yet apace. The fature years are winging, I think what gifts of love and grace

Their hidden hands are bringing;

What paths the little feet may tread-What works the hands be moulding What crown awaits my darling's head,

When heart and soul, unfolding,

Ah! Hope has many a fairy theme.

From her sweet lips unfolding-

And life has many a golden dream,

But none so glad as those that rise, In light and beauty blending, To shine before a mother's eyes,

Above the cradle bending, While baby aleeps.

THUMENTY EVER YEARS EXPERT.

LENGE IN DENTISTRY.

J. S. SHIPH, M. D., would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Bradford County that he is permanently located in Towards, Pa., He would say that from his long and inscensful practice of TWENTY-FIVE YEARS duration he is familiar with all the different styles of work done in any and all Dental Establishments in city or country, and is better prepared than any other Dental operator in the vicinity to do work the best adapted to the many and different cases that present themselves oftentisms to the Dentals, as he undestands the art of making his own artificial touth, and has facilities for soing the same. To those requiring under sets of tests he would call attention to his sew hish owners which consists of porcelain for both plate and teeth, and forming a continuous gum. It is more durable, more natural in appearance, and much better adapted to the gum than any other kind of work. Those in need of the same are invited to call and examine specimens. Theth filled to last for years and oftentimes to life.—Chloroform, Ether, and "Bitrous Oxide" and insistered with perfect safety, as over four hundred patients within the last four years can testify.

The opportune visits of the sultan and the grand vizier to this country, and the representations of York, followed up, as they have been, by the energy, the wisdom, and the tact of Lieutenant Wayren and his admirable staff, have smoothed down Moslem prejudice, removed local opposition, and thus brought about opportunities for excavation and exploration such as never occurred before; and, besides, large mumbers of Arab laborers have been trained to the work, and are eager of this habit in the following mainer:
