es plan for devote bad someth and from that is a francisc is

How sweetly on the balmy air

Heap on the coal here! don't it sting!

hear the robin's cheery song;
The Phebe calls th' awakening flowers,

And fast they flook, -ugh; how this strong

North-center rattles at the doors!

Her love in odorous—Well you bei!

All blooms the new-born year renews.

And warms to life the very stones ;

The sky's blue deepens, -Faith the blue

Have struck me to my marrow bones!

Warm efficence of the clods that yearn

What ails the fire? Will't never burn?

Hail, happy hours when green hills laugh

All flowers that blow-There, what a gale!

Dear Spring! the tenderest child of Time Thou whole delight of soul and eye,

Stay!-Hang the minx! if I must rhyme

THE OLD RED SLEIGH.

O Spring, I'll wait till next July!

There's too much blow and hail, by half!

To perfect greenness, --- shut that door!

Hail hopeful Advent! Prophet, hail

By dose suds so it dever abelia!

Sweetly to Hyacitithus tells

VOLUME XXIX.

WARD HOUSE TOWANDA, PA.

On Main Street, near the Court House.

AMBRICAN HOTEL,

Having purchased this well known Hotal or Bridge Blroot. I have refurnished and redited it with every convenience for the accessments tion of all who may patroniae me. He pains will be spared to inside all pleasant and agreeable. May 3, '96.—tf. J. S. PATTERSON, Prop.

LILWELL HOUSE, TOWARDS, PA.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

LEWIS . REHBEIN

TAILOR SHOP.

In Phimney's Building opposite the Reans House and solicits a share of public patronage. He is prepared to tat' and make garments in the most fashioushic style, and the most dura-ble manner. Perfect cathaloction will be guar-

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE

Townda, Oct. 1, 1868. A. G. MASON.

PRADFORD COUNTY

REAL ESTATE AGENCY,

H. B. MCKEAN, REAL ESTATE AGENT.

TIWENTY-FIVE YEARS EXPERI-

IWENTY-FIVE YEARS EXPERI
J. S. SENTE, M. D., would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Bradford County that he is permanently located in Towands, Ps., He would say that from his long and successful practice of TWENTY-FIVE YEARS duration
he is familiar with all the different styles of work done in any and all Dental Establishments in city or country, and is better prepared than any other Dental operator in the vicinity to do work the best adapted to the many and different cases that present themselves oftentimes to the Democrat and Lumber Wagons, at reduced prices. I have salarged my aloo, by adding a superior Paint and Varnish room. The differ-three weeks, or less, iministrator's & Executor's Notices. . 9 (1) Merchants and others, advertising their business, will be charged $25. They will to entitled to 4 column, confined exclusive ly to their business, with privilege of quarter Advectising in all cases exclusive of subscription to the paper. JOB PRINTING of every kind, in Plain dispatch. Handbills, Blanks, Cards, Parsphlots, &c., of every variety and style, printed at the shortest notice. The REPORTER Orrion has just been re-fitted with Power Prosses, and every thing in the Printing ine can be executed in the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. TERMS INVARIABLY CASH. ards. TEORGE D. MONTANYE, AT

E. W. ALFORD.

ALVORD & BARDER

TOVARDA, PA.

COCTOR EDWARDS. PERKINS May 28, 1867.--174 T. DAVIES, Attorney at Law, Towands, Pa. Office with Wes. Watkins, Esq. Particular attention paid to Orphans' Court business and settlement of dece-

Respectfully informs the citizens Borough, that he has opened a MERCUR & MORROW, Attorneys

M. at Lose, Towards, Pena's,
The undersigned having associated themselves
together in the practice of Lew, ofer their prolessional services to the public.
UI/YSSES MERCUR
P. D. MORROW.
March 9, 1865.

DATRICK & PECK, ATTORNEYS AT Law. Offices:—In Patton Block, Towards, Patrick's block, Athens, Pa. They may be nsuited at either place. II. W. PATRICK. apil3 W. A. PROL. B. McKEAN, ATTORNEY & a. Pa. Particular attention paid to business a the Orphans' Court. July 20, 1866.

OHE UNDERSIGNED HAVE

opened a Banking House in Towanda, under the name of G. F. MASON & CO.

They are prepared to draw Bills of Exchange, and make collections in New York, Philadelphia, and all portions of the United States, as also England, Germany, and France. To Loan money, receive deposits, and to do a general Banking business.

G. F. Mason was one of the late firm of Laporte, F and & Co., of Towanda, Pa., and his knowle ge of the business men of Bradford and adjoining Counties, and having been in the banking business for about fifteen years, make this house a desirable one, through which to make collections.

G. F. MASON IENRY PEET, Attorney at Late, Towan 12, Pa. jun27, 66. jan27, 66. LIDWARD OVERTON Jr., Attor-Aney at Law, Towarda, Ps. Office in the ourt House. July 13, 1865. TOHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Towards, Bradford Co. Pa.
General insurance and Beal Estate Agent.
Sounties and Pensions collected. N. B.—Ali Etusiness in he Orphan's Court attended to promptly and with care. Office first block outh of Ward House, up stairs. Oct. 24, 167. TOHN N. CALIFF, ATTORNEY

mail, addressed as above, will receive promp attention. Oct. 2, 1867.—6m DR. C. P. GODFREY, PHYSICIAN

DR. T. B. JOHNSON, TOWANDA,

HERSEY WATKINS, Notary
Public is prepared to take Deposition, Acknowledge the Execution of Deeds, nstruments, Amazyus and washes essent to before me.
Office with G. D. Montanye, corner Main and line Streets.

Towarda, Pa., Jan, 14, 1867.

DARSONS & CARNOCHAN, AT-R. PRATT has removed to State atriday of each week. Especial attention will a civen to surgical cases, and the extraction of eth. Gas or Ether administered when desired July 18, 1866.

D. B. PRATT, M. D.

NOCTOR CHAS. F. PAINE .- Of fice in Gouz's Drug Store, Towards, Pa-Calls promptly attended to at all hours. Towards, November 28, 1866. Office in Patton's Block, over Gore's Drug

n. mason, m. d. Henry oliver bly, m. d. ipril 9 1968-

DOWD MERKS-AUCTIONEER

K. VAUGHAN-Architect and al Architecture, such as laying out of ground ... &c. April 1, 1867.—1y.

rwell, Bradford Co., Pa., will promptly attend all business in his line. Particular attention liven to running and establishing old or dispa-lines. Also to surveying of all unpattented bis as soon as warrants are obtained. myl? B. FORD—Licensed Auctiones

TOWANDA, PA.,

CARRIAGES 11 CARRIAGES 11 W B. KELLY, Dentist. Office B. K. Kill. Y. Dentier. Unice over Wickham & Biack's, Towanda, Pa. All the various styles of work scientifically done and warranted. Particular attention is called to the Alluminum Base for Artificial Teeth, which is equally as good as Gold and far superior to either Rubber or Bilver. Please call and examine specimens. Chloroform or Ether administered under difection of a Physician when desired.

Aug. 6, 1867,—16. BURLINGTON CARRIAGE EMPORIUM OPEN AND TOP BUGGYS,

B. MOKEAN, REAL ESTATE AGENT. Offers the following Farms, Coal and Timber ands for sale:
Fine Timber lot, 3 miles from 'Towards, c. n-Fine Timber lot, 3 miles from 'Towanda, c n-taining 53 acres. Price $1,325, Farm in Asylum, containing 135 acres. Good huldings. Under a fire state of cultivation. Mostly improved. Price $6,000. Farm in West Barlingtom—on the Creek.— New house and bern. Under a fine state of cal tivation. 95 acres. Price $5,450. Farms in Franklin. All under good cultiva-tion. Good buildings. For sale chesp. Several very desirable Houses and Lots in Towanda.

EWELRY STORE AT DUSHORE

call and examine her present stoct of Sar and Summer Bonnets and Hats. Towards, April 14, 1868.* forms the citizens of Sullivan county that he as opened a Jewelry Store, is the building op-osite Welles & Ackley's store, Dushore, when a will keep on hand an assortment of DITTSTON COAL The under aigned will deliver to order in Towards, Pittaton Coal at $6 per ton, or $5 per ton at his yard in Wysox. Orders left at Taylor & Co. a JEWELRY, WATCHES, AND CLOCKS. Which will be sold as low as at any other place in the country. Particular attention paid to Watch and Clock Repairing.

To Give me a call, so many years experience will enable me to often existence. Wysox, April 2, 1868-1m.

THE OLD BLE TREE. the old aim tree is standing nov. When it stood so long age, said their "Till the aim in the west got low," And its branches reach as far and high, And the sky shore is as clear, But under it now no children play In the golden day of the year.

That full on the more grown seek. And the bees have leadly in the shade, Through the long bright summer's day,

There is not one left to day. And the waves and mountains high; and one has gone to the home beyond. Through the golden gates of the sky. And many a summers san

When the long bright day was done; And many an autumn wind has blown, And many a winter test O'er hill and vale its shroud of snow, Since the children met there last. And weary years will still move on. With their sunshine and their pain :

They will never meet again. And its portals are open wide; All meet on the other side.

green, and losing itself in the mur-murous foliage of the big maple trees; and so said the little clock in street, speaking in a sharp, melodi-

Valuable Farms, Mill Properties, City and Town Lots for cale.

Parties having property for sale will find it to their advantage by eaving a description of the same, with terms of sale at this agency, as parties for constantly enquiring for farms for.

In the came, with terms of sale at this agency, as parties for constantly enquiring for farms for.

"Why, Grover, you haven't accomplished a thing this morning," asid the old Judge, glancing keenly around through his antique silver bound spectacles. "I am afraid that the pretty girls at Squire Dockthorn's marry me! What has not this party last night were too much for marry me! What has put this your mental equilibrium."

"Well, you see, sir, I've been rath"You don't want to marry me!—"

Then what the mischief does this leter sorting the papers over," said Barry, a little sheepishly, "and I've

"Yes, sir." " May I ask to whom ?" "One was to old Miss Experience sell me—a regular clipper, giving the old hag a piece of my mind—and What could I have been thinking about ?"
" Hey ?" demanded the puzzled

you and I look over the papers toan idea as to what: the other letter his fragmentary sentence, he rushed contained! Every one is town knew out of the room to the little bay wis

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., MAY 28, 1868.

lefters at the tall deak behind the office door.

Judge Cornell knew just as well
what was in them as if he had read every word with his own eyes. But young people have a mistaken idea that old people don't knew anything.

Miss Ariel Browne sat in her room, busy with a complicated piece of bright-colored web-work that ladies
call "crochet," when Bridget tapped softly at the panels of the door.

"Please, Miss Ariel, a letter?"

"But Harry?" she said; with a

"But Harry?" she said; with a Bridget, and who can it be from property in the posterior and the brought it, and an impudent young spalpeen he is, for—

But here Bridget became conscious

she read the superpoription of the printed in two things. She would letter, and her heart beat, perhaps a like to have sold the school house pulse or two faster than was its wont. "corner lot," and she would like to have said that once in the course of is only that he drink what shall not her fifty-five years of life, she had harm him. There need be no quarrel but she broke open the missive with have said that once, in the course of a resolute hand and read : " ber fifty-five years of life, she had "Mr Dan Miss Brown: |"Rath | had an offer of marriage. er cold beginning !" she pented. I "However," said Miss Experience, must beg so decline all further nego "Ariel is very happy, and may be Ariel is very happy, and may be tiations with you. As you cannot things are best as they are !"

for a moment suppose I care to pos-sess anything so statefly worn down and good for nothing, it is uscless to waste either of our time in any more The First Dove-Curious Relief turn to you the papers you so unnecessarily took the trouble to send "The cold-hearted, presumptuous villain!" she sobbed. "Papers, in-deed! I suppose he means the note

"I will call this afternoon and re-

Yours, very truly,
H. GROVER."

I wrote him about the pic nic. Oh, how fool sh I have been, how abourd and I am rightfully punished for my folly l' But still Ariel wept on; when a girl of eighteen has built up a glittering castle in the air, whose foun-dations are laid in her own heart,

she cannot see it dashed ruthlessly

into ruins without a few natural

Meanwhile, Experience Browne,

cetat fifty well ripened autumns, was reading with no little astonishment.

the letter which Bridget's enemy, the

"Good afternoon, Miss Experience!

"Ain't you ashamed of yourself,

"May I look at it?"

Harry took the letter, and glanced

"Good Copid! what a blockhead

Excuse me, ma'am, but there

And without stopping to complet burst into tears.

frey de Bouillon presented him with tems to furnish working power to the three small fragments of flint chipped body for a longer time. Alchohol has from the Holy Sepulchre. Brought no such power.

Ir Adam had asked Eve for a kiss, dress before the Young Men's ChristSteals in the mellow breath of spring!

In Association of New York, discusThe breeze is full di-1 declare!

moderation do not shorten life; used in excess they do, however, producing great nervous irritability and ex-haustlon.

Milk and sugar ought to be used with both tea and coffee. Their nutriment appears to protect the system against over stimulus.

Man will have something to drink besides water. He is a drinking anwith pure lager beer and pure light wines, used in moderation. California wines are from very sweet grapes, therefore fermentation (which changes sugar into alchohol) makes them strongly alchoholic and into account

The liquors now drank are poison-ous. I have not seen a case of deliri-After mother had gone to bed nm tremens in hospital for years.-

not write much-either of us-and I closet and thinned it to my liking .- ask. Then I sat down and looked at the paper. Then I went to the stairs and write. This is what I wrote: DEAR MISS MARION :- I am a cow-the meeting.

It was a pleasant drive, and a merry dance and supper; but as the time went on, I felt glad that I had written the letter. For I could not have said what it said for me. It was at the last moment when we were driving our lives have been quietly happy tainments. A short time since during homeward that I mustered courage from that day to the present hour. to ask her for the little reticule she carried, as the other girls did, with a brush and some flowers in it, I think, well known to one of our friends re- restoratives close at hand for use,for they had to touch up the curis lates the following curious family ex She was borne into an antercom, and braids after the windy ride before the dance.

I am going to some city."
"Why?" she asked. "To make my fortune," I said. "For that girl—the school ma'm?"

sked my mother bitterly. "No," said I, "never for her."

"She did not accept me," I said.

swered. But she would not leave her home. But she would not leave her home, in that place he formed the sequeint and I went alone. In the frosty morn-suce of a young lady, and that, after and I went alone. In the frosty morning, as I turned to look back at the a short but happy countable, he make it willage, from the top of the stage, I ried her and returned to his home in saw the little children filing in at the little children, and raised a numerous glimpse of Hepsey's dress boyond—family of children, and in this thee. it. The school belt-was ringing; but He then awoke; it was broad day-me; so did luck or fate. In five years once seek out the beautiful creature mother wanted nothing but my pres- old lady believing there was supposi-ence. She would not come to me but al providence in it, and being hiso a she urged me to return to her. At first my heart was too weak to be trusted among those old familiar scenes. To have met Hepsey would have been too much to bear. But time helps us all. At the end of fi e years I wrote to my mother ! "I am coming home again, since you will not live here with me. Ex pect me to-morrow." And on the morrow I went. My mother had not altered much, but I troubled her. There were changes -old people dead. The tallest handwent up stairs and brought down my somest man I remembered had met He put up at the Kepler House and writing deak. There were some sheets with an accident and crawled about a began his search. For two or three writing desk. There were some sheets of paper and some delicate envelopes which had been there for months, stored within, and a silver pen and pen handle which had been a birthday present in my school days.

I took them out and the ink bottle also. The ink was thick, for we did with many windows and a cupola.

ask.
Idly I sauntered about the house, painted and refurnished now; and listened to see that mother was not idly in the evening of my second day Then I actually seated myself, the little red sleigh stood-the shabsquared my elbows, and began to by old thing, with a green patch on the cushions. ard. Not I hope, in one sense, but certainly as regards you. Yet, I no more I have loved you. Yet, I no more would have dared to say so than I friend when he died. Remember my

The sam't been touched since you And they pronounced it good. The day following they were married, and old Dobbin! How smart he used to at once commenced their journey.

With the sam't been touched since you And they pronounced it good. The day following they were married, and with the same in th evening I went once more to see her. his voice as he pinned the emblem "Such an odd relic of those foolish

"You never answered it Hepsey," said. "Will you answer it now?" "After all this time?" she asked. She said nothing and I kissed her.

perience:

the brother-in-law of my mother; my wife is the aunt of her own son ; my Mother knelt down beside me as I ounces, O'Connell's 54, Dupuytren's 58, and sary to say that the young woman est on a low stool. She put her hands Cuvier's 591. The ordinary weight is 45 ounces.

We think this extract from a modi-

STRANGE DREAM AND A WEDDING One of the happingt mon that ever journeyed a hundred miles from Michigan, took the Toledo express on Saturday, at Fremont, bound for Toledo and his home in Michigan. He told a strange story, of which the following is the substance : The Some weeks since, while at home in Michigan, he retired to rest after a hard day's work, and falling ascept dreamed a dream. He appeared to have taken a long journey from home, where he had been occased. for years, and had searcely lest sight of, and where he had lived "subsppy old bach," and never thought of mate rimony.

In that dream a vision appeared "And that's to part us?" she said. unto him. He affixed at a place in "Not if you'll go with me," I am Ohio, which was called Fremont. It appeared that soon after his strival it did not say, "turn again" to me, as it should have done, had I been such a prophet as Whittington.

I made my fortune. I had a coust in New York who was deep in the mystery of Wall street. He helped told her it was his intention to at

I was a moderately rich man. My of whom he had dreamed, and the firm believer in dreams, advised him by all means to go and find her out if he could, and if he couldn't find her to bring back an Ohio girl any way, "for you know," said suc, "the Ohio girls are right smart." So John packed up his little wardrobe and took the first train out for Ohio, and lost no time in reaching Premont

When he arrived at that place be was surprised to discover that the mother had not altered much, but I sign at the depot, containing the had grown a long, light beard; and name of the place, was an exact duwas a youth no longer—a fact which plicate of the one he had seen in his dream, and that 'the depot buildings in the place too. Girls were married and general appearance of the city corresponded exactly with his vision. with many windows and a cupola.

Who was the teacher? Was she his place in Michigan, and frankly brought the vinegar cruet from the there—Hepsey Harrow? I dared not asded her to share his lot with him. She said something about its being sudden; she would rather wait a few days before giving an answer; but he was determined to have it there at home, I went out to the shed where and then, and she finally said she was all his own. He ac companied her to her home, and that evening he told her fond parents all about it. "It ain't been touched since you And they pronounced it good. The would had you been a queen. Perhaps because I do no not cherish a hope that you like me.

"To morrow you and I will ride to.

"To morrow you and I will ride to."

"To morrow you and I will ride to.

"To morrow you and I will ride to."

"To morrow you and I wil on his coat, and went away mutter-Compass, square and gimlet. I do wish there was a saw though."-

Milwaukee Wisconsin.

A story is told of a favorite ianiaccustomed to have certain matters Our weddding was a quiet one, and in charge at various public entererience:
"I got acquainted with a young of camphor, and proceeded to rub widow who lived with her step her face and forehead, applying it to daughter in the same house; I mar- her nose to smell of. After awhile ried the widow; my father married she revived, and then he became conthe step daughter of my wife; my scious that there was something wife became the mother-in-law and wrong about the camphor. He much father; my wife's step-daughter is had evaporated; he applied his tonfather of my mother-in-law; my step- that he had been buthing his patient wife, has a boy; he is naturally my so stuck up by the attention that she atep-brother, but because he is the had to be sent home in a carriage.

have been in trouble lately." O no. mum, thank you, not at all," replied the young woman; "it's only for my late missus. I have been particularly fortunate in service mum. My three with them; so I got mourning given me every time." It is hardly necesshoad," was the reply of the late Bit Litchfield to a fallow traveller who an HIRAN Said a down East farmer grass-billiards mother. "I—" Then she burst into while you can, for after you take one bottle of my mixture you can t."

WE will this extract from a mount of the hired man who was working in the cal advertisement is about correct: "Cough this hired man who was working in the call advertisement is about correct: "Cough this hired man who was working in the call advertisement is about correct: "Cough this hired man who was working in the call will looks as if it might min. Speed of my mixture you can t."

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

ID

I would inform the public that I have secared the services of Mr. JAS. W. SMISON, formerly of Waverly, who has charge of the Painting Department, we are now prepared to do all kinds of Painting, having just received the largest and best selected stock of paints and warnishes ever brought into the county. Orders solicited and all work warranted. Bepairing done on the mest reasonable terms

MORTIMER VOSBURGH.

April 25, 1888—1,198. MISS GRIFFIN—Having enlarg-by enabled to furnish a larger assortment of goods than heretofore. Will the ladies please A large tract of Coal Lands in Tioga county. Towards, July 18, 1867.

Dushore, Oct. 9, 1667.

piatric

to the state of th And the soft wind murmurs with lenel E Bound, it of a stiffrage &

Having leased this House, is now roady to ac-commodate the Travelling stable. He pains nor expense will be speed to give satisfaction to those weaking give him a call-ar-Herth side of the public square, cast of Morony's new block (now building). Where the children tred to play with NEWS ROOM AND BOOK STORE Of all the hand of that dear old time. The undersigned having purchased the BOOK STORE AND NEWS BOOK of J. J. Griffith, respectfully invite the old patrons of the establishment and the public generally, to call and examine our stock They are parted new by many a mile, PASHIONABLE TAILORING And many a westy year has gone, Has past adown the golden west.

But there in the shade of the old elm tree, But there is a haven of quiet rest, May we one by one, at the Saviour's call,

Miscellaneous PROPOSING BY LETTER.

BY SHIRLEY BEOWNE. Eleven o'clock-at least so said the golden tide of sunshine, creeping over the velvety turf of the village Judge Cornell's law office on the Main

in the control of the

the most pleasing results during a process of the public for their fourteen years.

Being very grateful to the public for their liberal patronage herestofore received, he would say that by strict attention to the wants of his patients, he would continue to merit their confidence and approbation. Office in Beldleman's Block, opposite the Means House, Towands, Pa.

Dec. 20, 1867.—Sm.

Dec. 20, 1867.—Sm. staunch soil. The old lady must take at leisure to receive him." me for a very unsophisticated character indeed. Twonder, now, if blueeyed Ariel will ever be a wrinkled him, walked into Miss Experience's catamaran clutching after bargains. awful presence, with a bundle of title

Pooh! I should as soon think of a deeds in his hand, tied with the offiwhite plumed little dove being trans. cial red tape of his profession. formed into a greedy vulture !"

work the best adapted to the many and different cases that present themselves oftentimes to the Dentist, as he understands the art of making his own artificial teeth, and has facilities for doing the same. To those requiring under sets of teeth he would call attention to his new kind of work which consists of porcelain for both plate and teeth, and forming a continuous gam. It is more durable, more natural in appearance, and much better adapted to the gam tian any other kind of work. Those in need of the mane are invited to call and examine specimens. Teeth allied to least for years and oftentimes for life.

Chloroform, Ether, and "Mitrous Oxide" administered with perfect safety, as over four hundred patients within the last four years can testify.

ter mean, I'd like to know." written two letters this morning !" "Two letters ?" at it—its contents threw a new light upon the unaccountable state of af-Browne, about that lot she wanted to what an unmitigated, inexcusable, incomparable donkey it have been!

"Abem—that wasn't exactly a bu-contained! Every one in town knew out of the flow hopeleasty Mr. Harry Grover dowed parlor, where Ariel usually was in love with pretty Ariel Browns.

Judge Cornell had been young himself not so very many years ago it.

"It's just as well for the lad to ceremoniously in her face.

"It's just as well for the lad to ceremoniously in her face.

"Mail Judge Browne's a the door hanged marry and settle down," thought the old gentleman, "said Ariel will contain the property of the land the land of th tainly make as sweet a little wife as the pleading eyes of her lever human mortal could wish for "Your letter is quite sufficient, sir

Harry, frankly, "but you see Jadge Cornell was watching me, and "And that the title end of all mis-undefinitional between Harry Grover, and Ariel Browne, thenceforth, forevthat her young mistress was paying Cornell was watching me, and—"
no attention to her, and withdrew in to her department of the littlien,
there to indre her griefs in solitude, Ariel's cheek had turned as pink as the inside of a wild rose bud, as

Miss Experience was rather disap-

URREMONY AT PLORENCE. - Yesterday the annual ceremony of the flery dove came off with much eclas in the beautiful cathedral of Santa Maria del There used to be such, but now such Flore. This is a very ancient and patients come in crasy—raving; from curious usage, dating from the 11th the effects, not of alchohol, but of century. It is best known as the adulterated liquors. Ariel threw down the note and urst into tears.

Are cold-hearted, presumptuous

As between tea and coffee on one hand, and alchohol on the other, a certain tears.

The cold-hearted, presumptuous "madman of madmen"—was the best find that a young man liked tea and lance among the Italian paladins in coffee, because then he was not likethe crusade just 780 years ago, and ly to become fond of alchoholic was the first to plant the Christian drinks." Again, tea and coffee retard banner on Jerusalem's blood-stained the processes of waste in the system, walls. To reward his prowess God-to Florence, these were carefully pre-served in a golden pyx, and since America. The effects of it are well then; on every succeeding Saturday, known, yet its use does not necessa-in Passion week, a spark has been ly shorten life. Opium used as a struck from them to light the altar stimulant gives very pleasurable sen-candles in the cathedral. A lofty sations for the time, but these are folcar, or rather a tower upon wheels, lowed by a corresponding depression hung with fire works, and around the slough of exhaustion and misery basement of which are old paintings, which continues until the pleasure is post-boy, had brought for her.

"U-pon my word!" exclaimed Miss Experience, slowly and emphatically.
"The impertinent young fortune-hun!
The impertinent young fortune-hun his dream that he had met and marked to last the cushing harvest. What the prompt and perfect liquefaction of St. Januarius's blood is to the Neapolitan, the uninterrupted flight of the tin colombinatis to the Tuscan. If it sticks on the way, the prospect is bad, and half or drought or some other disaster must way, the prospect is bad, and half or drought or some other disaster must be expected. The Florence municipality thought it expedient to keep up the usage as its own cost. It is to be hoped it found its reward in the state of the meeting.

"She must marry a rich man or one on his way wealthward," I said. "She had been weeping upon her knee:

"Such an odd relicution, where he got state with the washington had." And I tuckled her into the sleigh and drove off to the meeting."

I took her hand. to be hoped it found its reward in the gratification of the multitude of peasants, uncouth but gentle, who, with next year. The brown-visaged rustics who swarmed in the cathedral have returned to their hamlets with bearts at case, confident of a first-rate vintage and copious corn crop. Italy has just now great, need that the anline terms and purpose and pump gorged with cistern water, after which a sealing plaster is put over his mouth and he is rolled in a barrel four or five times across the room, the choir at the same time singing the cold water some

"To put something in it, which you must not look at till you reach home,
I said.
"You arouse my curiosity," she said, "I shall look the instant I have ing the cold water some has just now great need that the anticipations should be fulfilled .- Florence Cor. London Times.

is no hatred of Christianity as such; taken out and given a glass of ciscally it is feared as an engine to cause term water, run through a clothes political change."

"She didn't dare refuse you," she lady constantly makes the mistake of having so much strength in the butter and so little in the coffee. Perhaps she is abort-

Wysox, April 7, 1868—12m.

CHOICE TOBACCO AND CIGARS
Harry needs thave been so mys—I need no further exponent of your cold the latter, without profusity, have reterious, scaling and directing his two meaning."

Cauchy the latter of your care, Adam, if you do."

Out West.

both haids clasped on top of his curly head, and looked out abstractedly into the slushing village street, humming an old tune under his breatha tune whose burden was "love, still love."

Plainly, Mr. Harry Grover was very little disposed for work that morning. And when, at twelve o' clock, Jindge Cornell came in, there was but a hopeless chaos of papers on the table to represent his young partner's maturinal labors.

"Why, Grover, you baven't accomplished a thing this morning."

Alm t you asnamed of yourself, makin love to
a sus, uncouth but gentle, who, with a affew evening since. He peaches on the Templars and gives the following curious foreigners, yesterday filled
the cathedral and crowded about it.
All went well enough to satisfy the most superstitious. At the appointed time, the pigeon started from the altar and shot along the rope, scattering sparks around, and, in spite of a
drizzle of rain, the fireworks crackled
of merrily. The gentle mob (Italian you be, just because she's got a little money! What do you take me for, hey? Don't stand starin there!— Walk out of this room, quick, or Pil ing sparks around, and, in spite of a
drizzle of rain, the fireworks crackled
of merrily. The gentle mob (Italian
rowds are generally extremely well
behaved) gradually streamed out of the Chrombard of the Templars
a few evening since. He peaches on the Templars
a few evening since. He peaches on
the Templars
a few evening since. He peaches
of the cathedral and crowded about it.
All went well enough to satisfy the most superstitions. At the appointed time, the pigeon started from the altar and shot along the rope, scattering sparks around, and, in spite of a
drizzle of rain, the fireworks crackled
of merrily. The gentle mob (Italian
rowds are generally extremely well
behaved) gradually streamed out of the Courch, and all was over until normal rowds are generally extremely well
the church, and all was over until normal rowds are generally extremely and
the Templars
a few evening since. He peaches of the c

and hung up by the heals till the was ter runs out: through his ears. He is then cut down and a beautiful young lady hands him a glass of cistern water. A cold water bath is then furnished him, after which he is shower led with cistern water. Monthly Magazine thus sums up the happy lot of the Japanese:
"Take the Japanese as a whole, high and low, rich and poor, they are the best fed, test clad, best lodged, least overworked and most genial and happy people on the face of the sand happy happy happy happy happ "Food is abandant and cheap—with squirt guns deluge him with cis-imaginary wants rare; and thus tern water. He is then forced to eat "Mother," I sa temptations to crime are less than a peck of snow, while the brothers with us, though the land is no Utopia. Stick his ears full of icicles. He is the land in the land of icicles in Japan. In the house of after which he is handed a glass of the very poorest, a Fifth Avenue belle water by a young lady. He is then might sit upon the matted floor with again gorged with distern water, and his boots filled with the same, and he admirably sewered; all offal and gat- is laid away in a refrigerator. The bage are removed for manure.

initiation is now almost concluded.

After remaining in the refrigerator for the space of half an hour, he is taken out and given a glass of ciscan half and containing in the refrigerator for the space of half an hour, he is taken out and given a glass of ciscan half and containing in the refrigerator for the space of half and place of ciscan half and given a glass of ciscan half and given half and giv

Why do you want it?" she ask-

"You arouse my curiosity," she also the daughter in law of my own of it, and found that all of its virtue ing the cold water song.

He is now taken out of the barrel

And as she spoke I had dropped on my shoulder and looked into my

"Mother," I said that night, "we am the brother of my own son, who must have some one to farm the place. is the son of my step-mother; I am son is the grandson of my father, and I am my own grandfather."

Mr. Jenkins wonders how his land-