Towards Market Gardens, May 12. Fire at Williamsport.—A fire broke left wrist and arm with his pocket-knife, evidently in a vain attempt to reach the artery. The wounds inflicted were not serious, nor were there any marks upon his person to indicate certainly how death was produced. The Coroner's Jury rendered a verdict in accordance with the facts before them, that his death was caused by exposure and the effects of liquor. The dec ased was aged about 10 years, and leaves a wife and two children. He was an industrious, upright man; and but for the unfortuna habit which has wrecked the hopes of so many men, would have been a useful and many men, would have been a useful and respected member of nociety.
