MY CHILDHOOD'S HOURS My childhood! O, my childhood! Where are those happy hours I spent in joy and glads Within thy fairy bowers? Where are the friends that sported With me in life's young day,

And denced in youthful pleasure Those suppy hours away? Long dreaty hours of socrow Have slowly glided by, Since last I played and sported. Beneath thy genial sky;

And yet, in dreams, I see thee

For down the silent pest; As fair, and e'en as lovely, As when I shw thee last. And those I loved in childhood. Come througing round me now Which steals away the sadness That sits upon my brow. Once more we join in playing Upon the level phin :
