To those requiring under sets of teeth he would call attention to his new kind of work which consists of porcelain for both plate and teeth, and forming a continuous gum. The extent to which a charger can apprehend the perils of a battle field may be easily underrated by one who confines his observation to horses still carrying their riders ; for, as long as a troop horse in action feels the weight and hind of a master, his deep trust in man keeps him seemingly free from terror, and he goes through the figut, unless wounded, as though it were a field day at home but the moment that death or a disabling wound deprives him of his rider, he seems all at once to learn what a battle is—to perceive its real dan-gers with the clearness of a humano being, and to be agonized with horror of the late he may incur for want of a hand to guide him.

SODA WATER-WHAT-HOW MADE

Ordinary soda water is simply pure water, impregnated with carbonic acid gas that which causes also the sparkle in champagne and in natural spring waters. The gas was formerly made from the carbonate of soda -hence the name, to which, by the present process, it has really no title. Carbonate of soda, Rochelle and other salts, are often added in England after the water is charged the former

The water is cerated in fountains, ly black. On the northwest coast of process repeated until the fountain America an incision, more than two sustains a pressure of from 135 to tested—to double the possible strain -precludes anything of that sort in the present state of soda civilization.
The actual cost of soda water is thus only three quarter of a cent per gallon, wear and tear, rent, transportation and profit make the price to five cents.
