TOBACCO BY A SMALL BOY.—Tobacco grows something like cabbages, but I never saw none of it boiled, although I have eaten boiled cabbage and vinegar on it. I heard men say that cigars was given to them on election day for nothing, was cabbage leaves. Tobacco stores are mostly kept by wooden Injuns, who stand at the doors and try to fool little boys by offering them a bunch of cigars, which are glued into the Injun's hands and in wade of good bles. Hope do not is made of wood also. Hogs do not like tobacco; neither do L. I tried to smoke a cigar once, and it made me feel like Epsom Salts. Tobacco was invented by a man named Walter Raleigh. When the people first saw NUMBER 21. him smoking they thought he was a steamboat, and as they had never
