YOUNG AMERICA FOR JANUARY There is always a great hurrah among the children when Young America arrives. Itsstories, its puzzles, its pictures, possesses an irresistable attraction, and induces lots of boys and girls to beg at bed-time for just half an hour more." The January number is the third issued since the enlargement, is one of the most interesting and attractive that has been published. Parents and teachers should bear in mind-that it is the only juvenile periodical that confines uself to sketches of an absolutely truthful, natural character. Publication Office, 838 Broadway, N. Y. At $1 50 yearly.

THE SIDEWALKS .- Attention cannot Ale too often or too pointedly called to the extreme danger of allowing snow and ice to remain on the side-walks. They are at present in a very perilous condition, and we limb will lead our citizens to promptness in temoving the danger. We have many gred and infirm citizens in our midst to whom trouble to keep the walks clear of snow and munications to Pettengill, Bates & Co. the if attended to in time.

A Social Gathering.—A little over th ree years ago Mr. ADAM INNES, with his fa mily, which is large and respectable, settled in our midst, and engaged in the business of tanning, and by his industry energy and perseverance has added greatly to the wealth and prosperity of our town, and by his many amiable and good qualities has won a large circle of friends, many of whom partook bountifully of his hospitality Tueslay evening, the 22nd inst; having been previously invited, for a house warming, as he has just completed his new house; which is one of the largest and most commodious dwelling houses in western Bradford. There were present between sixty and seventy of their friends and neighbors, who after spending the evening in the most plessant and agreeable manner possible, until about 12 o'clock, (Mr. Innes furnishing plenty of apples, cider, oysters, and many other things which were good and wholesome,) the guests separated for their homes, all highly pleased with the new house, their host and hostess, and praying be still more valuable, attractive and enterthat they may live many years to enjoy the cauties of their new home and that peace and prosperity may ever attend them in all their laudible undertakings.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.—
A dressing which is st once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Fuded or gray hair is restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed or the glands atrophied and decayed. ces which make some preparations danger-ons and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benint but not harm it. If wanted merely for a hair dressing, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cam-bric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it rich glossy lustre and grateful perfume. Prepared by Dr. J. S. Ayer & Co., Pracical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass. Sold by Dr. H. C, Porter Towards. & all Druggits & Dealers in medicines every Nov. 20, 1868.y A nice Christmas present for
