HAD NO FEAR OF STRALING YEARS -Napoleon in his Italian campaign, captured a Hungarian battalion.— The colonel, as old man, complained bitterly of the French mode of fighting, by rapid and desultory attacks on the flank, the rear, the lines of communication, etc., and concluded by saying that he had fought in the armies of Maria Thersa, in Germany, when battles used to be won in avstematic way.

"You must be old," said Napoleou. "Yes, I am sixty or seventy." "Why, colonel, you have certainly lived long enough to count years a little more closely."

"General," said the Hungarian, "I recon my money, my shirts, and my horses, but as for my years I know that nobody will want to steal them, and I shall not lose one of them."
