We regret that our limited space will not permit us to publish entire the able, clear and statesmanlike speech of Senator SUMNER, on this subject. He took the ground that, instead of removing any existing grievances, it left nothing but heart burnings, and therefore could not be considered a settlement of the pending questions between the two nations. It offered no semblance of compensation, and it could not be for the interest of either party that the treaty should be ratified. Examining it from beginning to end, he showed that it was merely for the York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, settlement of individual claims on North Carolina, South Carolina, Ala both sides, so that the sufferers by the misconduct of England may be counter-balanced by British blockade The Arkansas Senate has agreed ports, which had the effect of promaturely, and will have to do it over the passage.
