OUR MOTHER In all the languages spoken by man, from the Hebrew of biblical times to the guttural accents of the Red men of the new world; from the musical sounds of the Italian to the harsher tones of our own Anglo eaxon idiom-tue sweetest word is that name which sends a thrill to the heart as we pronounce it-mother!

What pen can describe the love of a child for its mother,- the holiest of all affections on this earth! It seems as if it were a spark of the divine love, placed in our heart by the creator of all things, to live there until the day when the soul leaving its mortal prison, shall ascend to the presence of Him who is all love. A nother's influence to lows her child through life. Grey headed men, bowed by age, speak with all the tenderness of an infant of the mother who, for half a century past, has slept in a cold grave, and their eyes, bleared by the sorrows of a long and eventful life, shed tears at the word, faintly heard, is "mother!" ence, it clings, as to an anchor of salvation, to that sainted affection whose existence pprifies the human

"A mother is a mother still, The holiest thing alive." If a mother's sainted love follows us thus through life what influence must it not have on us during youth?

Gallant boy, who feel your soul burning with the aspirations of m nhood, and who prepare yourself for the battle of life, look upon that kind mother; remember how many sleepless nights she has passed holding you in her arms, you her treasure, whom she disputed to grim death; remember that sweet smile, your reward when good, and those sorrowful eyes speaking silent reproof when you have erred : remember all this, engrave it in your heart and preserve it as a talisman that will protect you in the hour of dati-ger and temptations. And you, gentle girl, the constant companion of that dear mother, can you forget her lessons? Do you recollect when at her knees: you lisped your first prayer? how she guided your young mind and taught you to know and love God? How sweetly you slept with her blessing
