The annual convention of the Pro Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Penn-LIPS BROOKS, after which Bishop STEVENS. read his annual address, detailing his labors 1584. delivered 220 sermons and addresses, ordained 13 to the deaconate, attended three funerals, opened two churches, celebrated five marriages, installed one rector and laid one corner-stone. For over two months during the year he was incapacitated from attending to his official duties by reason of accidents and resulting illness. This hiatus made sad havoc with plans of labor he had marked out. Still he missed but a single appointment which he had made during the entire year. The Bishop referred to the extreme extent of the diocese, saying that it required more labor than any one man had the capacity to give. He spoke unqualifiedly in favor of a division of the diocess, but also stated that any agitation of the subject at the present convention was uncalled for and could produce no good result, since the success or defeat of the measure depended upon the General Convention. My opinion , that the interests of the Church would be much better served by the appointment On the assembling of the convention yesterday afternoon, quite a spirited discussion arose in reference to the election of the Standing Committee, the High Church party exhibiting a strong disposition to throw Dr. NEWTON, and I regret to say the Bishop HARBISBURG, MAY 13 .- Judge Pierby a "Johnson man" some two years since on, this morning, sitting in the Court of Common Pleas for the decision o ommonwealth cases, decided two suits of general interest. The cases were against the Delaware, Lacka wanna and Western Railroad Com pany, and the Lackawanna and Bloomsburg Railroad Company. The claim of the companies was that their bonds, on which a tax was imposed, were mostly held by residents of New York and other States, and that Pennsylvania could not tax the property of citizens of other States The Court decided that if the proper ty was protected by Pennsylvania. should be made to pay its share of taxation. Judgement was rendered against the former company for $22. 000 and against the later company for $23,000.

When the four Harper brothers, of New York, formed their part nership, they agreed that no son of them should be admitted into it while the firm lasted. By the recent death of James, the firm is dissolved and the numerous young Harpers who have been waiting in the position o salaried clerks will doubtless be taken into the campany, when the great
