LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Several letters intended for this issue are unavoidably crowded out, but shall appear next week.

Mrs. BUTLER, an account of whose illness was noticed a few weeks since, died on Monday evening last.

The pews in the Episcopal Church were sold on Monday, the 15th instant. The prices ranged from thirty to one hundred dollars.

Let your children learn to sing. It will be seen by referring to the notice in another column, that two singing schools for children will be opened in this place soon. Prof. Fessenden, a most highly recommended and Miss Kinn's reputation as a thorough teacher is too well established to need any word of commendation from us.

Bishop Stevens will visit Christ Church in this place, on Sunday next. In the morning, Mr. F. B. Bartlett will be ordained a deacon in the Protestant Episcopal Church. In the evening the Bishop will preach and administer the rite of confirmation.

Towanda passengers on the westward bound Erie train, on Saturday evening last, were compelled to alight at the station of Towanda, Pa., where they remained several hours, the train being several hours late, the Towanda cars did not wait for it.

Rev. S. F. COLE, D.D., delivered an interesting and able discourse before the Y.M.C.A. in the Presbyterian Church, on Sunday evening last, on the evils of indulging in the pleasures of the world to the exclusion of the worship of God. The sermon was attentively listened to by a large and intelligent audience.

We notice by our Rhine exchanges that Mr. M. M. Brown, of that place, is becoming quite popular as a preacher. He makes a specialty of charitable discourses of all kinds, and thus far has met with great success. He is a native of this county, and his many friends here will be delighted to know of his success.

Mr. D. D. FASSETT, of South Creek township, is authorized to receive subscriptions for the Rhine Exchange. He will call on the course of a few weeks make a canvass of the townships of South Creek, Ridgebury, and Wells. Will our Republican friends in those townships aid him in securing large lists of subscribers for the Rhine?

A young man named G. W. Niles, employed in the Tankery at Greenwood, was arrested on Monday last on a charge of attempting to poison some of his fellow workmen. He was examined and was held in $1,000 bonds for his appearance at Court in September. We learn that the young man had heretofore sustained a good character, and has been well educated.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—Mr. E. R. Dutton, of North Towanda, has our thanks for a quantity of beautiful ripe white currants and a beautiful supply of early garden "sauce."

RECENT DEATHS.—Shelburne, has also placed us under obligations by leaving on our table a head of lettuce which measures twenty inches in circumference, and is as tender and palatable as any we ever ate. It is the best head we have.

We find the following notice of the Rhine in a late communication from this place to the Bradford Reporter:

EXTRACTS.—In this column I may state that the BRADFORD REPORTER, of this place, will appear in a complete new garb. This is mainly due to the efforts of the publishers, Messrs. A. & C. Watson. The Reporter is now justly the best of its kind in this section, and its circulation is rapidly increasing. It is the only paper in this section that is so well informed in regard to local and general news, and its price is so low that it is a pleasure to read it.

THE MCDUFFY CASE.—The case of the McDuffey was brought to a close on Wednesday morning of last week, by the jury coming in with a verdict in favor of sustaining the will. The Court was occupied for fifteen days in the trial of the case, and much interest was manifested in the result. We learn that the jury stood eleven for sustaining the will, to one for breaking it, on the first ballot. They were very agreeable, and all were out less than one hour. The defendants made application for a new trial, and the question will be argued at September term. This case involved the largest amount of property ever tried in this County, the real and personal estate derived in the will of Mr. McDuffey amounting to nearly $75,000. Everything bearing upon the case was brought out by one side or the other, and the counsel on either side displayed much skill and tact in managing it throughout.

EDITOR OF THE BRADFORD REPORTER.—Our ox roast and picnic went off gallantly on the 13th. The Lafayette band arrived in due time. The procession marched through town with good temper in the regalia, then to the grove. Services were held by prayer by Rev. R. T. Toward, then a eloquent address by Rev. S. F. COLE, to whom we are indebted for the report. Then Wm. Thompson gave a spicy speech on temperance, and the picnic closed with the Glee Club giving a patriotic address. We again listened to the band, and then marched to the table, which was beautifully filled, and all satisfied.

Amidst cheering of horses and booming of cannon, no accidents occurred, and all went off as happy.

PROTESTANT EPISCOPALIAN.—The 15th of the Church, who are not subscribing for any religious journal, or who desire to make change for the better, may be interested to know something of a valuable work called The Churchman. It is very ably conducted, and is the largest Episcopal weekly in this country. As a rule, it is an abode of that testimony, which so often obscures the religious press, that it advocates with no uncertain sound a continuance in the old paths of Gospel Truth and Order. It is thoroughly Episcopal and thoroughly Protestant. The fact that it has a constant clergyman among its contributors speaks much in its favor.

Besides editorial matter, it contains a large amount of domestic and foreign news, and much of the most interesting and valuable material in the religious press. It is a pleasure to read it, and its price is $1.50 per year, or 85 cents if sent in advance.

Address: M. H. MALLORY, or G. B. AUSTIN, Street, Hartford, Conn. Specimen copies sent free on application.

PERSONAL.—WALKER, the newly-arrived Governor of Virginia, was formerly a citizen of Lexington, New York. His friends there fired a salute, on receipt of the news of his arrival.

LOCALITY.—EUGENE, son of N. C. EUGENE, top of this place, has passed an examination at Cornell University as a student.

Brannan and wife celebrated the wedding of their daughter, Miss Brannan, on the 15th inst. by marrying her to a young man of the name of Brannan, who was a native of this place.
