JAMES H. WEBB.

By referring to the proceedings of the Representative Conference which met in this place on Saturday last to fill the vacancy in the Republican ticket caused by the death of Mr. ACKLEY, one of the nominees for Representative, it will be seen that Hon. James H. Webb was unanamously nominated-Mr. LORAH, of Sullivan county, declining to permit his name to go before the conference. This action of the conferees meets the hearty approval of Republicans that warmed their bodies and manunot only in this district, but throughout the entire State. His course in the ring of coal speculators, his influthe Legislature for the past three winters has been such as to gain for both political friends and opponents. His return to the House of Representatives will be hailed with delight by all who desire to see a stop put to the trickery and corruption of that body. Mr. Webb's ability, shrewdness and sterling integrity, give him a power and influence among his fellow members which few men have ever exerted. Mr. Loran in yielding to the almost

What has the falsely-called Democratic party ever done for the poor man and the cause of labor? We reply, NOTHING.

THE Democratic papers all over the State are parading before their readers the account of an interview between a correspondent of the N. Y Sun and their candidate for Governor. It is one of the best Republican electioneering documents of the campaign. PACKER-THE EIGHT HOUR LAW. -Mechanics and laboring men remember that Packer declined to give a direct answer to the question "Are you in favor of the Eight Hour Law?" That Law was passed by a Republican Congress, and enforced in all the National Workshops by President Grant. If Packer had been in favor of it he would have said so. As he equivocated he must be set down as opposed to it, notwithstanding his profession of friendship for the workingmen. Don't trust him, sons of toil; his professions are delusive—he is a "snake in the grass."

A SMALL GAME, BUT JUST WHAT WE MUST EXPECT.—The friends of Judge PACKER, in different portions of the State, are seeking to make political capital by reporting that certain well known Republicans favor his election For instance, along the canal, it is asserted by these worthies, that that staunch and uncompromising friend of the Republican cause. Mr. Sydney CLAYWELL, is dissatisfied, and will vote for PACKER. We are authorized to give this statement a flat denial. The same story is told of Mr. Pardee. Mr. LEISDNRING, and other prominent Republican rule. Our Democratic Republicans of this vicinity, but we are assured that it is without the least shadow of truth. The circulation of such falsehoods demonstrates the hopelessness with which the Democracy regard their cause in this campaign. - Mruch Chunk Gazetle.
