TERMS OF FUELICATION. THE BRADFORD REPORTER is published eve Thursday Morning, by 8. W. ALVORD and E. J. CLAUSON, at Two Dollars per annum, in advance. ADVERTISEMENTS. exceeding Fifteen Lines are userted at THE CENTS per line for first insertion, and IVF CENTS per line for subsequent insertions .....

Special Notices inserted before Marriages and the, will be charged FIFTKEN CENTS per line for each insertion. All Resolutions of As Communications of limited or individual interes and notices of Marriages and Deaths, exceeding fi lines, are charged Tax can's per line. 3 Mot. $40 25

 1 Tesr.
 6 Mos.

 One Columni,
 $100
 $60

 Half
 60
 $50

 One Square,
 15
 10
 Letray, Caution, Lost and Found, and other adventurements, not exceeding Ten lines, three weeks

Merchants and others, advertising their busines will be charged $25 per year. They will be entitle To 4 column, confined exclusively to their busines with privilege of quarterly changes. Advortising in all eases exclusive of subscrip-

t on to the paper. JOB PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fand

o ora, done with noatness and dispatch. Handbilli Blanks, Cards, Pamphlois, Billhends, Statements, & it every variety and style, printed at the shorte tor. The REPORTER Office is well supplied with itowar Prosses, a good assoriment of new type, an verything in the Printing line can be executed in nner and at the lowest r the most artistic ma TERMS INVARIABLY CASH.

BUSINESS CARDS.

EWIS RHEBINE, Fashionable J Tailer. Rooms over Aspinwall's Store, Towan Pa. Dct.5, 69. FOWLER & CO., REAL ES-ROWLER & CO., REAL ES-trans Dratana, No. 70 Washington Street, op-trans House, Chicago, III. Real Estats pur-based and sold. Investments made and money loan-peouver participation of the strength of the sold investments of the sold investments and and money loan-ter of the sold investments made and money loan-peouver participation of the sold investment of the R. FOWLER, S. LIND. April 21, 1859. B. HOLLETT, MONROETON, Pa. agent for the Hubbard Mover, Empire tert, that Wheel Rake, and Broadcast Sower for cature Plastor and all binds of Grain. Send for cir-citare be B. B. Hollstr, Menroeton, Bradford Co., cr's office, so Dec. 1, 1864. juno 24, '69-ir. DATENTS! J. N. DEXTER; Solicitor of Patents, 73 BROAD STREET, WAVERLT, N. Y. Propiers drawings, specifications and all paper optical in making and properly conducting Appli-ations for PATEXTS in the UNITED STATES and FOR LIGN COUNTRIES. NO CHARGES IN UNI USES AND NO ATTORNEY'S FRE TO PAY UNTIL PATER VEW WHEAT FLOUR Side Public Square. Side Public Square. Sept. 16, 1869-tf AT THE TOWANDA STEAM FLOURING MILLS! ÷., CROBAUH, FULLER & CO. Sec. 15.69. WYERSBURG MILLS! - absorbers, having purchased of Mr. Barne as of set in the Myersburg Mills, will carry on the bus ness of Milling, and guarantics all work done by them to be of the very best quality. Wheat, Hye and Buckwhest Flour, and Feed, contantly on hand and for sale at the lowest cash price Mysreburg, Sept. 24, '68. MYER & FROST. DRICE LIST-CASCADE MILLS T B. JOHNSON, PHYSICIAN

L • AND SUBGEON, Towanda, Pa. Office with W B. Kelly, over Wickham & Black. Residence at th Means House. spr 16, '68. DR. H. A. BARTLETT, Physician Camptown, July 12, 1869. flice at residence aug. 10, 1859, tf FRAYSVILLE MILLS! The subscriber, having purchased the LoRayeville Mills, and refited the same in good order, is now prepared to do good work, and to give general satis-faction. M. J. FRUTCHEY, STEVENS, M.D., PHYSICIAN AND SUBJEON. Residence at N. Tidd's, Esq. or of Second and College Streets. Office over well's Store, opposite Means House. Rockwell's Sto LeRayaville, Sept. 22, 1862.-1y Towanda, May 25, 1869-4f. MIULING DOCTOR O. LEWIS, A GRADU-

"I've the subscribers having purchased the Grist Mill use, the month of Towanda Creek, generally called Hale's Mill, have thoroughly replayed the same, and we now nelly to do all kinds of Custom grinding sub disputch. They will deliver Flour, Feed, Meal, Statism Flour, or anything else in their line in any uset at the sublace. L<sup>0</sup> atc of the Collego of "Physicians and Surgeons New York city. Class 1843-4, gives archusivo attonti to the practice of his profession. Office and resider on the castern glope of Orwell Hill, adjuduing Har is the reliance of the second July 22, 1869.

•

الجوجيد والمدور الترجي وا

Still menaced these, the Georgia braves With rifles and with daggers ; "Your peace we hate! We curse the State Go back, ye carpet-baggers! Your books and gospels we conferm ! Your sures they are but braggers! And as for truce it was a ruse Go back! ye carpet-baggers !"

Forth-drove they then these peacoful men Across their fields of story ; The children mock them as they go. In scom the women glory.

But, reverent, the nogroes come To say : "Our freedom faded Since died the dea voll of your drum; O. stay. Fravel-jaded.

"Stay, till the ballot we have found, B. CAMP, INSURANCE Or ye and we may perish ; AGENT.-Office formerly occupied by Mercur t Morrow, one door south of Ward House. Right neighboriy the grateful ground Together we will chorish, B. FORD, LICENSED AUC And deeper shall our plawshares g • TIONEER, Towanda, Pa., will attend prompti all business entrusted to him. Charges moderat Than treason's threats or daggors-Fill peace and freed in stalwart grow We hall all carpet-baggers." FRANCIS E. POST, PAINTER Towarda, Pa., with ten years experience, is con nt he can give the best satisfaction in Painting ining, Staining, Glazing, Papering, &c.

spr 16, '68

ining Hennian 14. '69.

i Surgeon, Sugar Run, Bradford County, Pa residence formerly occupied by Dr. Ely.

TOWANDA, BRADEORD COUNTY, PA., NOVEMBER 4, 1869. that blood away had a tool and lady prepar of the bryo author calls for his masterpiece, any rate, something is the matter, and receives what? A cold, unfeel-ing, selfish "Very good," and is told about us, warning the world as he in office; Franklin Pierce, 12; James tohanan, 7; Abraham Lincoln died in office. - N.Y. Evening Telegram. that, when he has nothing else to do, would trespassers in forbidden orchit would be well for him to improve ards, "beware of the dog for he bites," A SCHOOL-GIRL OF THE PERIOD. it would be well for him to improve arus, beward of the dog for he place, his time in writing, as it would do him no harm anyhow ! There is no need of any further il-lustrations; it cannot be denied that those used are truthful ones, and if the truthful ones, and if oorraphy? Yes, there's a lesson each day, But it's awfully hard to remember. We've been in South Africa nearly a month : Parhaps wo'll go north by November. What History have well. It's quite a big book

ELECTION NEWS.

Without any pictures the bother life all Fo-day I was told I'd sustained a defeat In the battle of somnthing or other! Arithmetiol Ob, it's the bane of my life! No matter how hard I may study, Loss as My knowledge of dividends, fractions and rul Continues unchangeably muddy. Yours, waiting an apalogy. Proficient in spelling? - I hope that I am,

Though I white less as writer than talker ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL And don't mind confersing how often I use A pocket edition of Walker. 18 . Not a great while ago an Irishman was employed in a village, where he was well known to dig a well, pro write compositions? Of course, once a week We've such a dall subject to-morrow ! nanage to spin out a page and a-half, bono-publico. The contract was made

Though lots of girls copy and borrow. that he was to be paid a certain sum per foot, and warrant u free supply of water. At it he went with a will, You ask me which lesson of all I profer? You'll think my reply quite alarming ; n French we're a genlleman teachur, you knot And somehow it's perfectly charming [ -EDAAB FAWOFT, in Harper's Magazine for deep down in the earth, full of confidence in the speedy completion of

> . [For the Repoures.] FROM GEN. PATTON.

twenty-five feet and soon expected to "strike water." Early in the morn MESSES. ALVORD & CLAUSON: In ing Pat returned to the scene of his recent issue, I perceive you have abors, and horrible to tell, t had published, with comments, an editocaved in and was nearly full. He rial article from the Argus, in which gazed with ruefal visage upon the the editor authoritatively contradict-wreck, and thought of the additional ed the report that I was going to vote labor the accident would cause him. for Governor Geary, which I had thought of doing, in the early part of every day and every hour! Encour- earnestly around and saw no one was the campaign, on account of his idenstirring, then quickly divesting himi-self of his hat and coat he carefully and inferentially, charge ine with inand, inferentially, charge me with in consistency, hypocrisy, and a design to influence Republicans to vote against the nominees of their party The plain english of which is that you regard us as so much of a politilage. Here, hid among the undergrowth, he quietly awaited the proal partisan, that whatever my pro-As the morning wore on the in fessions might be, I could not be inhabitants began to arouse and stir duced. on any account, to vote against row path. Encouragement for those out. Several were attracted to the the candidates of the democratic parwho, lifting up their voices against well, thinking that as Pat's coat and ty; and then you follow up these wrong and wickcdness, are subjects hat were there he was below, of charges with insinuations that I am of the coldest charity because the course, at work. Soon the alarm was in favor of prostituting the temperfrosts of years have not ripened into raised that the well had caved in and ance cause to political purposes, and fuller maturity their experience of that Pat was in it. A crowd collect- expatiate at some length on its danlife and its ways. Warm, hearty, ear- ed and stood horrified at the fate of gerous tendencies. You say you are hie and its ways. Warm, nearly, ear-nest encouragement, this is what is poor Pat: A brief consultation was opposed to making the temperance wanted; and who will be so unkind, held, and soon spades and other im-who will be so selfish, as to refuse to plements were brought to dig out the claim that I ought to have voted for remains of the unfortunate man. To Governor Geary, as a temperative Christian pastor, remember, as yon | work they went with a will; when one | man, because he belougs to the order stand within the sacred desk, and so set became wearied with the unusual of Good Templars, and hence the

and honest." eloquently deliver yourself of a "Ser- labor a dozen ready hands grasped charge of inconsistency." I admit mon to Young Men," that a few kind cheering words, whispered earnestly quietly looked on from his retreat on been' a docided political partisan; in the ear of any one of our young the ominence, while the whole village but, in these tin se of wi An English traveler on our western

an immense

the debt. Elegrn from the highest authority in his forthcoming meaner Fritonik ArotherE to Congress the President will recommend that the internal retenue and tariff laws be left undisturbed for one year. After that time it is believed that the finances of the country will be in such a shape as to admit of a general letting down of taxes, internal and external. Whether this will meet with the views of Congress remains to be seen. The President, however, will support his BEGARDLESS OF DESURCIATION FROM ANY OUNTER. In the state of the state proposition with such facts and reasonings as, it is believed, will overcome any preconceived opinions that may have been formed by Congress-NUMBER 24 men on this subject. ers eye, the words of hopeless sor row burst from the lips of the kneel-The following compact sketch of this famous financial strategist from Harpers' Weekly is of considerable interest :

JAMES FISK, JR.

Three years ago the subject of our sketch was comparatively unknown. Now there are few men/in our city fisst; and now to say the familiar that commands so large a share of prayer, and leave her father out! No wonder that the new thoughts seempublic notice. He is a man of large wealth, and is the center of attraction in Wall street, in theatrical circles, and in the law courts. Perhaps he has not genins; his education may be deficient, but his practical shrewdness, his almost reckless boldness, and his unparalleled effrontery, make up for the absence of these qualifications .----He is known as a man who may be a friend to-day, and an enemy to-morow, as one who comes to his conclu-sions rapidly, and almost by instinct, ways does, and my stricken heart and as a man whose hostility cannot be provoked with impunity. Having said this, what more could be said a regards his peculiar characteristics James Fisk, Jr., is the son of a Vermont peddler. At the age of seventeen he obtained employment of a

THE PROFESSOR IN A FIX. very humble character in Van Am-Some students in one of our collburgh's menagerie, his occupation eges being frequently annoyed by being to assist in the erection of tents and to sweep out and keep clean the of a professor, who suspected them of around the table in the attitude of the United States, the Canadas and card-playing, waiting patiently for Europe-a service extending over the the well known step of the professor. period of eight years. Leaving Van Amburgh at twenty forthwith filled with hasty pudding, pursue the calling of his father, and and all were seated as before As returned to his native State of Versoon as the Professor had opened the mont for that purpose. He commencdoor, the student who was loaded ed his career as a peddler, by selling with the mush made a sudden sweep small articles, such as pencils, pens, over the table with his hand, as if to etc.; on the sidewalks of the different gather up the cards; and with anoth- towns of the State. In this way, by er motion apparently put them into dint of perseverance, he saved a little the pocket containing the mush. money, and having succeeded in rais-These movements could not help be-ing a small additional suin, he pur-ing noticed, as they were intended to 'chased a horse and wagon, and made' be, by the professor, who, consider- a fresh start in life as a peddler of ing them as a pretty strong evi- dry goods. He visited all the prindence of guilt, broke out with the ciple towns and villages in Vermont, following: "Well, young gentlemen, I've caught you at it at last, have I?" and succeeded in gaining so large a custom in places to which he traveled "Why, yes, sir, we are all here." that his hundle one horse wagon was "So I see you are, and you have no longer capacious chough for the een playing cards, too."

conveyance (1 his goods. He discardcd it, therefore, and invested in a It isn't ha! , What have you got in | much larger one drawn by four horses By-and by he extended his field of

"Hot hasty pudding, sir." cherations, and traveled through Massachusetts and Connecticut, as "Hot hasty pudding, tha! hasty pudding, have you ?. I'll hasty Jud- | well as Vermont, and finally the gross ling you," said the professor, at the | meant of his sales attracted the atsame time thrusting his hand half- tention of a Boston firm from whom way to the ellipticity the list lines. e was in the habit of buying goods nudding.

Co., of Boster.

leave the firm.

fingers, the groaning and capers of ted, and Jas. Fisk, Jr., became a part-

In 1860 they made proposals to him to join their house, to which he assen-

But the firm do not appear to be so well pleased with James Fisk the partner as James Fisk the peddler,

. It so happened that at this time

some parties in Boston were anxious to purchase the Stonington line of steamships, then owned by Mr. Daniel Drow, James Fisk was aware of this circumstance, and thinking he could turn this knowledge to good account, he came in 1863 to New troduction to Wall street.

Fisk now commenced to operate on his own account-he entered into a variety of speculative transactions in government stocks, gold and other securities in Wall street, as it had done when peddling through the country, the greater number of his speculations were disastrous in their

Daniel Drew, who, in 1865, assisted for the purpose of carrying on the business of stockbrokers, and gave them the substantial aid by putting business into their hands and employing them as brokers in many large

In 1867 Mr. Fisk, in connection with Mr. Jay Gould, succeeded in making a large sum of money by operations in Erie stock. They got control over stock to the amount of $10,-

000,000, and were thus able to depress

Mr. Fisk's next operation was to purchase the whole of the block of which Pike's Opera House forms a transaction was a highly profitable one. He leased to the Eric Railway Company a small portion of the prop-

a very handsome return on the gross

amount invested in the whole prop-

Irma and a French troupe of opera

With his more recent operations, including the proprietorship of the French theatre in this city, our readers are well acquainted. Mr. Fisk is new about thirty-nine years of age.

AN INCORBIGIBLE loafer being taken

The BIELE is worth more than all transactions.

ing child....." I cannot pray for father any more !" Since her little hips had been able to form the dear name, she Ma. Eouros.) We desire, through the Reporter, to address our Repub-lican friends of the county upon cer-tain usages and abuses that have had prayed for a blessing upon it; it had followed close after mother's name, for he had said that must come crept in among us." And what we say is in Mndness, for we have no ill will to gratify, nor personal ends to serve. We regard it as an unplea-sant duty, to enter our protest against ed too much for the childish mind to the action of so able a body as our receive. last Republican County Convention. I waited for some moments, that But we must meet the facts. It is she might conquer her emotion, and plain to any one looking at the elec-tion returns of the county, that the then urged her to go on. Her pleading eyes met mine, and with a vice that faltered too much almost for utpeople were not satisfied with all the

Juny F. Thirot should have been AWTUD STSANDAT DISASTER.

are all adred to the drive of Barr Latiture to stewarth all compare and grow ticket. We are come going fragment hominations. It was not Mr. Vaugin's ternnce, she said, "O, mother, I can-once! so I can still go on and keep him in my prayers." And so she alvention. We take it that the Republican party cannot afford to a simlearned a lesson from the loving ingenuity of my child. Remember to thank God for mercies past, as well civil, any more than an individual

[For the REPORTER.]

REPUBLICAN REFORM,

can. In taking the vote for County Treasurer, had the motion "first made" been "first put," as required as to ask for blessings for the future. by parliamontary usage, and Mr. Vaughn been defeated, he would have found no sympathy as an independent. candidate, nor would be have run as such. We expect Mr. Ladd will make the nocturnal and inquisitorial visits a good officer, and hold the pursestrings tightly carses and each of a professor, who suspected them of cages of the animals. His employer, playing cards, one evening prepared noticing his capacity, promoted him a kettle of mush, otherwise called to the situation of ticket collector. histy pudding, and, by the time it In this capacity he traveled with Van was boiled, had seated themselves Amburgh in his various tours through ty cannot afford to use any but first It was no sooner heard than a large quality of timber. Of this we have plenty. We cannot help the past; outside pocket of one of them was five years of age he determined to the second second let us learn wisdom for the future. Had J: F. Dodge, of Terry, been nominated for Commissioner, seventeen hundred of our best republicans would not have felt called upon to vote for a man who during the rebellion gave "aid and comfort " to the enemy, and opposed the voling of our "boys in blue." I'e couldn't swal-low such a pill. But Mr. Dodge was not an office-seeker, and had no politicians to "wire" for him,""He received but few votes as a consequence. We may be a little antiquated, but

Malo Mart

The dolorous looks, the shaking of hold that the following rules will do to "go by" in a political convention: 1. Give every candidate named strict, impartial justice, or "fair play. 2. Give no man a nomination be sir, it is not so." cause politicians have promised him dur pocket, voung man?"

-3, Nominate no man not "capable 4. Name no second-rute man. Oct. 26, 1869. REPUBLICAN

PRAYERS IN THE OARS.

... In regard to County Commissioner, we know nothing against Mr. Hinds, but the "verdict of the jury" declares he was not the man. The office of Commissioner is a very responsible one, and the Republican par-news of the Mill, entered in said book, will be answer +1 C. HORTON. Sept. 1, 1862.--2m* H. W. WELLS. Feb. 13, 1868 NEW DYEING ESTABLISH-A V NENT. The subscriber takes this method of informing the benetic of Towanda and vicinity that he has opened all sing Establishment in Col. MEANS' new build-

NO. 165 MAIN STREET.

to to fe Gen. Patton's), and, that he is now pre-points for all work in his line, such as CLEANING and CHORING ladies' and gentlemen's garments, hot's we, in the neatest manner and on the most is yushe terms. Give me scall and examine my work HENRY REDDING. • AND BULDER. All kinds of Architectural De signs furnished. Ornamental work in Stone, Iron and Wood. Office on Main Strict, over the Post-of free. Attention given to Rural Architecture, such a laying out of grounds, &a., &c. apr. 1, '67-1y ****k ***pt 33, 1869,** A.

BRADFORD COUNTY REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

H B. MCKEAN, REAL ESTATE AGENT.

simulable Farms, Mill Properties, City and Town best for side. For the shearing property for sale will find it to their alter the baring property for sale will find it to their alter the by leaving a description of the same, with temps of sale at this agency, as parties are constantly en puring for farms, &c. H. B. McKEAN, Real Estatic Agent, Unive over Mason's Bank, Towanda, Pa. Leaving 1867

ININ UNDERSIGNED HAYE tend a Banking House in Towands, under the of G. F. MASON & CO. are prepared to draw Bills of Exchange, and (a) F. MASON & CO.
(a) prepared to draw Bills of Exchange, and
(b) exchange in New York, Philadelphia, and all
(c) exchange in New York, Philadelphia, and all
(c) exchange in the States, as also England, Gar (c) exchange in the banking business for about the exchange in the state in the state in the state in the one through
(c) exchange in the banking business for about the exchange in the interval in the interval in the exchange in the interval interv

TTENTION THIS WAY! N. KINNEY & CO.,

WAVERLY, N.Y.,

Have on hand for the Spring trade, the largest as BUGGIES AND PLATFORM WAGON found in this part of the country, which they will at the most reasonable prices, and warran a work. All that doubt need but call and examine twork to the wise is sufficient.

April 1, 1869-6m.
N. KINNEY & CO.

MRS. E. J. PIERCE,

his oust returned from New York with a first-class

Juilinery Goods :

signing of the latest imported styles of HILS. BONNETS, RIBBONS, &c. &c would respectfully invite the ladies of Towan a 11 vichnity to give her a call before purchasin work not. Work done in neat and fashionable styl a 1 m short notice. gpRooms over M. E. Rosen 501 - 511 - 510 - 500 -

NEW FIRM!

NEWGOODS AND LOW PRICES! AT MONBORTON, PA.

TRACY & HOLLON,

b) Deders in Groceries and Provisions, Druge Heukanes, Kerosene Oil, Lamps, Chimneys, et s. 19 a Stuffs, Paints, Oils, Varnish, Yankee No in Tohace, Chars and Snuff. Pure Wines and extern of the best quality, for medicinal purposes all Gouls sold at the very lowest prices. Pre-ried one executive compounded at all hours of the Math method divenue and the set of the State S as and ugent. Give us a call. TRACY & HOLLON. H mrot in, Fa., June 24, 1869-17.

( 'HEAP PASSAGE FROM OR TO

IRELAND OR ENGLAND. ALLIAN CLY VAL DAVOLDARD. 134 CO. & LIXE OF STRAMMINES FROM OR TO OUTESSDWY OB LIVERFOOL. Alliams & Guion's old "Black Star Line" of Liv-repol Packets, sulling very week. Statiowital Line of Packets from or to London, Nucle twees a month

Stallow-tail Line of Packets from on stall Miley twice a month. Remitances to England, Ireland and Scotland pay-able on deniand. F - further particulars, apply to Williams & Guion, or solvery, New York, or G. F. MASON & CO., Bankers, C. J. 1960. Towanda, Pa.

S. PECK, MILLWRIGHT

G. S. PECK, MILLIN ASSOCIATION AND MALE AND MACHINEST. Towards, Pa. Mills built to particule. Encloses and Bollers set in the best fourt. I would call the attention of mill owners to about ng all the elements of a first-class motier, 'ty of sumarus ton, accessibility, great strength is developing the greatest amount of power for used, easily repaired, running under backwater <sup>10</sup> bed, easily repaired, running under backwater as detainent to power except diminution of "righting no attraction in mill frames or addi-to finn, will run under low head, and made of a tran out-balf the cost of any other first-class in market and warranted to perform all that into the first and warranted to perform all that is the first han fluxes wheads will be made for "Y will or without cases, on short notice, of the From in market." A J. LANG, A.M. Determined of Iron as now male.

NEW VORTEX WATER WHILEL.

Miscellaneons.

Framing, Stating, Wazing, Separating, ec. CD_Particular attention paul to jobbing in the sountry. april 9, '66. K. VAUGHAN, ARCHITECT WANTED .... ENCOURAGEMENT. As this seems to be the age, from he multitude of reformers in the field, in which the world is to be set W. AYRES' MARBLE SHOP. to rights generally, we have been moved to say a few words for those

ELMIRA, N.Y. You will find Granits Monuments, both Quincy and Concord, Marble and Slate Mantles, and Coal Grater to fit. A large assortment constantly on hand, cheap as the cheapest. Ang. 10, 1868-19. We come with an appeal for round

O. W. STEVENS, COUNTY SURfuture burdens of Church and State. It is one of the most lamentable facts, that an immense number of the young

W. SIEVENS, COUNTI SUIT-VETOR, Camptown, Bradford Co., Pa. Thak-ful to his many employars for past patronage, would respectfully inform the clizens of Bradford County that he is prepared to do any work in his line of bud-ness that may be entrusted to him. Those having disputed lines would do well to have their property accurately surveyed before allowing themselves to feel aggrieved by their neighbors. All work warrant-ed correct, so far as the nature of the case will per-mit. All unpatented lands attended to as soon as warrants are obtained. O. W. STEVENS. reb. 24, 1860-17. men of this land are annually swept

reb. 24, 1869-1<sub>7</sub>. V. DOOLITTLE, PRACTICAL V. DUOLLIT'FLE, PRACTICAL ford and surrounding Counties, that he has opened a new Jewelry Store in Canton, where will be found constantly on hand a nicely-selected stock of goods in his line, consisting of Ladics' and Gents' Gold and Silver Watches, of American, English, and Swias manufacture, Clocks, Jewelry, Gold Pens, and Silvas matufacture, Clocks, Jewelry, Gold Pens, and sli the articles uyually found in a first-class Jowelry Store. All goods sold as reasonable as in any of the sur-rounding cities, and warranted as represented. Re-pairing and jobbing done on short notice, and on the most favorable terms. A liberal share of patronage is respectfully solicited.

respectfully solicited. Troy Street, Canton, Pa., May 12, 1869.

Hotels. A MERICAN HOTEL, CORNER

A of Bridge and Water Streets, Towanda, Pa. M. 3. CALKINS, Proprietor, assisted by L. T. Royan, ormerly of "Boyse House," Burlington, Pa. Feb. 24, 1869-tf WARD HOUSE, TOWANDA, PA

On Main Street, near the Court House YEW FALL & WINTER GOODS C. T. SMITH, Proprietor Oct. 8, 1866. A MERICAN_HOTEL, EAST

A BATATATION PA. The ubscriber having leased this house, lately occupied by A. C. Bentley, and thoroughly repaired and refitted if, is now ready is accommodate the travelling publis. Every endeavour will be made to satisfy these who may favor him will a call. Each 1 1000 for A. G. REYNOLDS.

Feb. 1, 1869-6m* ELWELL HOUSE, TOWANDA

JOHN C. WILSON Having leased this House, is now ready to accommo-date the travelling public. No pairs nor expense will be spared to give satisfaction to those who may give im a call.

AP North side of the public square, east of Mercur's new block. RUMMERFIELD CREEK HO

PETER LANDMESSER,

Having purchased and thoroughly refitted this of and well-known stand, formerly kept by Sheriff Grif fis, at the month of Rummerfield Creek, is ready to give good accommodations and satisfactory treatmen to all who may favor him with a call. Dec. 23, 1863-47.

MEANS HOUSE, TOWANDA, P.A., JOBDAN & HORTOS, Proprietors. This popular Hotel having been thoroughly fitted and re-paired, and furnished throughout with new and ele-gant Furniture, will be open for the reception of guests, on SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1862. Neither expenses nor pains has been spared in rendering this House a model hotel in all its arrangements. A superior quality Old Burton Ale, for invalids, just received. April 28, 1869.

WAVERLY INSTITUTE. The Forty-eighth Term of this Institute oper August 18th, 1869, under the charge of A. J. Lass

a. M. It is one of the best LUERDER INSTITUTIONS of the country, accessible from all parts, and is situated a WAVERLY, TIOGA CO., N.Y.

The departments are complete. The "Class subtraces all those studies required for admissi our best Colleges. Also, a thorough drill it Modern Languages.

Modern Languages. Then a contrage that in the Modern Languages. The English Course comprehends both the com-mon branches singht in Elementary Schools, an many of the higher branches manaly pursued in the Colleges. In the Commercial Course the instruction is as thorough and complete as in our most success fol Course with House.

is as thorough and complete as in our most success ful Commercial Colleges. Instruction upon the Piano and Organ by the old method; also by "Robb ms New American Method," by which pupils can acquire a knowledge of music in one-third the time which it hitherto required. The rates of tuition are very moderate. Board ob-tained at reasonable prices : a limited number of pu-pils can be accounted ated in the families of the In-structure. However, has proceeding the which students tors. Rooms can be procured in which stude board themselves and lessen the expenses o hearers, accompanied by the warm heer his soul, and do him a hundred- bravely on.

give it?

are humbly endeavoring to walk steadily forward in the straight and nar-

for whom we feel a special interest.

MEN, the nation's rising hope-those upon whose shoulders will rest the round you.

FEMININE MODESTY.

An indignant lady writes as follows

into eternity through the influence ind practice of dissipated and wicked habits. And it is an equally sad fact that this vast multitude comes not from the offscourings and refuse of she made her hat. I will wager the from the offscourings and refuse of she made her hat, I will wager the society, but is composed to an alarm- best batch of cream griddle cakes over " orth that sounded very much like ing extent of the best young life of tasted that eight out of a dozen would the republic. It has been said that inform you she bought the frame and the same can be said of vice and im-morality. The wily enemy of souls is most careful in setting his foul snares where there is a prospect of well we don't tall all and it remains among the monuments well we don't tall all and it remains among the monuments dollars, while the real cost of hers is snares where there is a prospect of | --well, we don't tell all we know-a entrapping a valuable prize. Upon mere trifle in comparison, and looks

free Government under which we live. no matter if we buy nothing else we Shall this state of affairs continue? | call it shopping, and the ignoramus Must it coutinue? Can nothing be wonders how we can be satisfied to Pone to stay this awful tide of des- spend so much time in shopping. truction? We think there is a reme-Would you like to see my bonnet dy which, if industriously applied, I attend Mr. Beecher's church and and Thomas Jefferson, deceased while sures were officially sanctioned and will at least mitigate the evil. Let sit in the third seat from the front, the hope of the future—the young in the gallery; it is what many would men of the land—be more zealously, kindly watched over, cared for, and sume if the young man who sits just encouraged to move steadily and irrr-behind me were asked the probable president Jackson. But the fifth continued existence of our Republisistibly onward in the path of right. cost he would more than double the For the want of this encouragement, real value; that is if he is a good years before the fourth, James Madi-

very many valuable young lives are wasted. We are aware that young men are talked to, preached to, lec-remonstrated with in regard to their The little bud which lies gracefully inter season in the little bud which lies gracefully identifies and inter season in the little bud which lies be supprised. The sixth President, John Quincy Adams, lived until 1848, and died when James K. Polk (the tenth Pres-ident) was in office. "short-comings," their "fast-goings," over one side, as if just drooping, is their growing evil habits and their to cover a good sized darn. The light Andrew Jackson, died three years wrong doings generally, as well as silk, trimmed with like flounces, just before his predecessor, the sixth Pres-loved and prayed for; but when they across the aisle, has a little history, ident, viz., in 1845. strive to the best of their ability to too. It has been lying for years, The eighth, Martin Van Buren, strive to the best of their ability to too. It has been lying for years, The eighth, Martin Van Buren, straighten their crooked ways and awaiting a resurrection. The main died in 1866, when Andrew Johnson walk in the paths of virtue and so- skirt is a remnant bought at Stew- was in office. briety, how many words of warm, art's for a song, and if the upper skirt hearty encouragement are whispered like angel greetings in their welcome ears? Ab, yes! how many! For the one word of approbation the stu-silk. The blac silk was pressed and within three months after leaving the dent receives from his dignified su- cut into strips, and the same young office, in May, 1849. perior, he receives, perchance, ten lady and the writer spent all of one words of rebuke, censure or sarcas- morning in a front basement, ham- dent, died in office, in July, 1850.

tic ridicule. For the ninety-nine mering away upon a pinking-iron, to Gen. Franklin Pierce, the twelfth scoldings, fault-findings and wither- produce and effect which it seems is President, has just deceased, being ing rebukes, the poor, struggling, going to help to doom us to old maid- the last survivor of the ex-Presidents. miserably-paid clerk receives at the -because we are extravagant. "Young men are positively afraid departed this life in June of last year, end of the year five dollars for Christmas, and the promise of a petty in- to marry." "Daughters must con- being the thirteenth President. sider they are born into the world for Abraham Lincoln, the fourteenth crease in salary for the next year.

After long and tedious hours of night some other purpose than to lead a President, as is well known, was as-labor ver some humble literary ef- butterfly life." This to us, who are sassinated in April, 1865, being the fort, the modest youth, struggling to willing to share sorrow and adversity second month of his second term. improve his mind, and despite the at any time, with those we love. Is The following table shows the numhinderances of poverty, secure a place our extravagance the true cause of so ber of years each President lived afof merit among the wise and good, many young ladies being without af-and thereby be enabled to do some financed husbands, or is it because good to others as they together trav-there are so many more wemen in el life's pathway, respectfully hands New York State than men that there being the spathway, respectfully hands is the source of the spath state his work to the Rev. Mr. So-and-So, 187 a man apiecer remays the 17; sames manuson, 0; s, we duams, a gentleman of position and learning young man's habits may have some-with the request that he hads uncleased the thing to do with it, as cigars and kindness, has been more successful in getting After the lapse of some days the cur-the good ones have all been taken; at ter expiration of office; Z. Taylor died on her finger.

stood arou d the well, and watched ruption, when the political leaders of pressure of your friendly hand, will with breathless suspense the work go both parties make politics a trade for railroads gives the following account the sake of the offices, I more fully of an exercise quite unusual, we vent-fold more good than all your furnish- As the diggers approached the bot- realize the wisdom and warnings of ure to say, in our country as in his ed pulpit cloquence. Thriving man of business, you whose ledger shows you to have reaped a good reward for your toils during the past year, drop an occasional kind word of hope and where to that to due diggets upprovaled the bot you to have reaped a good reward for an occasional kind word of hope and was dury away and when the bottom was dury away and when the bottom cheer to that toiling young man who was dug away, and when the bottom mixed ticket. Last year I voted for attends so faithfully to your every in- was at length reached no Pat was to two of your, Republican candidates tcrest. They will fall like the gentle be found. The crowd before so anx-, Mr. Chamberlain for the Legislature, dew of heaven upon his often sad and ious gradually relaxed into a broad and Mr. Loomis for County Commisweary heart; and rest assured, your grin, which broke forth in uproarious sioner-because I knew them both to sleep will be none the less sweet, and merriment when the venerable Pat be good men and sincere friends of men of different callings from all your conscience none the less peace-walked up with a smiling counte-the temperance cause, and for that ful when the last dark shadows sur-nance and addressed the creat-fallen reason, alone; I voted for them; and diggers, who now stood weary and I should have voted for Mr. Chamsoiled with their labors. rick Fagan, sure, that is much obleeghis labors.

gress of events.

Oh!

He had reached the depth of abou berlain again, and also for Mr. Webb, who has since joined the Good Tem-" Be jabers, gintlemen, and it's Patplars, had they no. voted for the Hered to yees for doin' that nice little die bill, which was a partisan assault job of work!" upon the independence of the judi-constituents were directly interested ' sold." in it; and which was afterwards ju-

Through the kindly aid of his fellow citizens Pat soon finished his well. by Governor Geary in indecent haste, and both of which were passed in utter contempt of the known will of the -There have been fifteen persons people. The former, as expressed in every side strong young manhood is falling victim to the destroyer; is the price of the model. You would and not only is this true, but vice, bow down to the pavement with huimmorality and corruption stalk glar-ingly through our halls of public leg-islation, and their vile influences, ex-tend through the city, State and we must find the cheapest place! If general governments, and are really an article is high priced we leave the sucking the life blood of the great purchase of it for another day, when still living. This is extraordinary while men; and when everybody of ordinary intelligence knows that if mortality. The first + resident, Gen. George that Fifteenth Amendment had been Washington, died while the second left to a vote of the people, it would have been rejected by President was in office. The second and third, John Adams majority. And both of these mea-

the sixth President was in office. approved by Governor Geary; meason, and the fifth, James Monroe, ex- ular government, and which I regard President, James Monroe, died five can government : because the very people; and when the potency of their voice is stifled by the throttling hands of treacherous rulers, we have little to hope for the perpetuity of our lib-erties handed down to us through the valor and patriotism of our fore-fathers. "The price of liberty is eter-nal vigilance," and so help me God! temperance or no temperance, I will not vote for any man of any party for any office, who will not respect the known will of a majority of the neonle.

The ninth, General Harrison, expeople. So far from making the temperaneo people.

organization a political party, I have, on all proper occasions, strendously opposed it. When the subject was brought before the Grand Lodge of General Taylor, the eleventh Presilent, died in office, in July, 1850. Good Templars at Williamsport, I Gan. Franklin Pierce, the twelfth made a speech against it, and against identifying, ourselves, as temperance men, with any political party; and, His successor, James' Buchanan,

W. PATTON. ----

As Irish post-boy, having driven a day, and pray for care through the arpedient, however, that any reduc-coming night: then as usual, came tion of the taxes shall be made at the the carnest "Gell bless dear mother, approaching session of Congress, be-the professor, belong to the sphere of har in the fine of Jordan, Marsh & imagination, not description. "I WISH I HAD CAPITAL." As this must necessarily be a brief summary, I will only give one out of several instances of this apparent pi-ety of American laborers which came We concluded that he wanted prac-lam the other day. So we heard a great strapping We concluded that he wanted pracunder my notice. I was in a car on tical advice, and we shall give it to the Union Pacific Railway with a him. large number of soldiers and working-You want capital, do you ? And suppose you had what you call cap-ital, what would you do with it? parts of the Union. They were bound, the former for the different forts Haven't you hands, feet, muscle, along the line, and the laborers for bone, brains, health, and don't you along the line, and the laborers for the company's new workshops at Cheyenne and Laramie. They were a rough-looking lot, as borderers mostly are, every man of them being armed to the teeth, as it is necessary armed to the teeth, as it is necessary to be when savages, both red and from you. Don't you know how to negotiation for the sale of the steam-white, are on the war-path, and lives use them? If you don't, it's time ers. In this he was eminently sucwhite, are on the war-path, and nyes, use, then it you not to not to the same ers. In this ne was eminenely suc-and pockets may at any moment de-pend upon a quick load and a clean plow, or hoe, or jackplane, or broad-shot. It was early morning, and sev-shot. It was early morning, and sev-shot. The sale was completed en-ax, and go to work. Your capital the ability and shrewdness which Fisk snot it was carry morning, and sore will then, in due time, yield you a had displayed throughout the negoin it; and which was afterwards ju-dicially declared unconstitutional; amusing lienselves as the train rat-and for the Fifteenth Amendment, the along, shooting prairie dogs which was also passed and approved from the carriage windows. Besides the workmen there were several ex- play gentleman and speculate, and cursionists, and I was changing end by playing the vagabond.

morning salutations: with some of Or you want a farm, with plenty of these who had left the sleeping car hands upon it to do the work, while later than I had, when one of the you run over the country and dissi party (a quiet-looking gentleman who pate; or you want to marry some kept a store in Chicago) rose, and ad- rich girl who may be foelish enough dressing all present, said, "Silence, if to take you for your good looks, that you please, ladies and gentlemen, for she may support you.

you please, ladies and gentiemen, for the may support you. the Word of God." Instantly, every rough head was uncovered, every ri-to work with the capital you have. He had, however, a friend in Mr. fie dropped into its place, and revol-ver belted, as the quiet looking man proceeded to read a few verses from as you need, and make you feel like for the purpose of carrying on the proceeded to read a rew verses from as you need, and make you reel and the Bible; appropriately selected for our position as travelers. The con-ductor, who just then entered the car to look at our tickets, removed his cap and took the nearest seat, and to use bone, muscle and brains, you everybody was as orderly and rever- would not know how to use gold; ent as if the car had been a church. you would only know how to waste The reading over, another of the ex-

Then don't stand about idle, cursionists prayed for about ten minutes, in plain, simple language, in great helpless boy, waiting for some which any man could have mentally thing to "turn up," but go to work thing to "turn up," but go to work. can government ; occause in a solong as he believed in the exist-pedestal upon which the pillars of joined, whether Unristan or a matter, our Republic rest, is the will of the ence of a God. After the prayer, a Take the first work you can find, no matter what it is, so that you do it 721 to 35. Mr. Fisk's share of the well; always do your best; if you profits resulting from these opera-manage the capital you already have, tions, amounted, it is said, to $1,300,hymn-which I noticed most of those you will soon have plenty more to 000. present were able to join in-was sung, and the service came to an end. manage; but if you can not or will Such a scene would have been imposnot manage the capital God has givsible in England; but nobody appearen you, you will never have any other to manage. Do you hear, young part, for the sum of $820,000. This ed to think it an out-of-the-way proceeding in America. I scanned the man? faces of my fellow-worshipers to see if I could detect an irreverent. smile REDUCTION OF GOVERNMENT EXPENSor sheepish look, such as would have ES.-The Washington correspondent rental of the New York Herald telegraphed rental of $76,000. This was in itself been observed under similar circumstances at home, but every man, solon Thursday as follows: dier and civilian, alike looked digni-The Administration is giving a good deal of attention to the question self the Opera House, all the largefied and grave.

A LOVELY INCIDENT. -- What parent, on reading the annexed extract, can ditures and the management of the bouses.'- He also bought the property on reading the annexed extract, can fail to reflect on the lesson it sug-gests half and the management of the parent has departed, the example left behind them may be such as the child ca. Bethankful for to To watch men, with any pointical party: and, in my temperance lectures. I took the same grounds. Relying on your usual courtesy and sense of justice, I request the publi-cation of the above in your paper. Yours trily. "out of the mouth of babes ind suckmembers of the Cabinet are desirous as soon as possible, to lighten the lings" strength hath been ordained. What could give greater strength to burdens of taxation, so that at least tha widowed heart than such a scene with her little daughter ! articles which enter into daily conwith her little daughter! She knelt at the necessaries of life, shall be entire-to thank God for the increase of the ly free of taxes. It is not thought

