Standard Reporter.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.

S. W. ALVORD,
EDITOR.

P. O. GOODRICH,
PUBLISHER.

Thursday, Thursday, Nov. 18, 1869.

NEWS FROM ALL NATIONS

—Ned Buntline is said lecturing on temperance at Hartford, Conn.

—Lucky boy—went to—Cincinnati, and married a widow worth $100,000.

—Mrs. Myra Bradwell is the female lawyer of Chicago, who is said to be smart and pretty.

—Belle Boyd, the notorious Southern spy, occupies a cell in the Carleton, Mass., lunatic asylum.

—Old fashioned corn bluff, 2g bees worth it, is the motto of many farmers now.

—The petitioners of the Paris Reformé ask for only three months. It is believed that the Department of Congress will not accede to the request.

—The Empress Eugenie and Princess Clotilde are to visit Egypt next month.

—Bishop Rosecrans of Ohio, and brother of the late General Rosecrans, is a typical looking one of the noble kind.

—Mrs. Susan Ott, of Clyde, N. Y., is a strong woman for boisterous merry antics.

—Old fashioned corn bluff 2g bees worth it, is the motto of many farmers now.

—Hallie Boyd, the notorious Southern spy, occupies a cell in the Carleton, Mass., lunatic asylum.

—Mrs. Myra Bradwell is the female lawyer of Chicago, who is said to be smart and pretty.

—The petitioners of the Paris Reformé ask for only three months. It is believed that the Department of Congress will not accede to the request.

—Bishop Rosecrans of Ohio, and brother of the late General Rosecrans, is a typical looking one of the noble kind.

—Several Indians who are under sentence of death in the jail at Omaha, and are soon to be executed, have become converts to the Methodist faith.

—Vague, but great, intelligence of the death of Alboni has previously been announced. Probably Queen Victoria will be the saddest mourner of the whole.

—Thanksgiving has been decreed by the King of Prussia. Another victory is the occasion for the thanks.

—A political Convention in Maryland recently voted a resolution to restore the old-time Sabbath. Caused considerable feeling.

—Several Indians who are under sentence of death in the jail at Omaha, and are soon to be executed, have become converts to the Methodist faith.

—Vague, but great, intelligence of the death of Alboni has previously been announced. Probably Queen Victoria will be the saddest mourner of the whole.

—The Emperor Alexander and Princess Dagmar, both betrothed to be married.

—Thanksgiving has been decreed by the King of Prussia. Another victory is the occasion for the thanks.

—The Empress Eugenie and Princess Clotilde are to visit Egypt next month.

—Bishop Rosecrans of Ohio, and brother of the late General Rosecrans, is a typical looking one of the noble kind