The principle embraced in the claim is said to be any character or pipe sunk with-out digging in the earth, so that cider straws and ground squirrel holes must be infringements. The youngsters keep "pretty dark" with their straws, and every chip squirrel is said to have taken to his hole and pulled it in after him during this terrible visitation. We have no idea whether this claim is sound or not, but think from the terrible vengeance with which the man shook the dust from his feet as he left town that some of our promi-

We would congratulate Bradford county on the fact that she has a son who has succeeded in bringing to light some historical facts unknown to the writers of ancient history, viz., that there are eight wonders in the world. PHILANTHROPY UNADULTERATED.—We beg leave to call the attention of coal consumers of Towanda and vicinity to the Special Notice of Mr. R. M. Welles in your last week's issue, wherein Mr. W. assures the jublic that he is selling his coal at actual cost. Such extreme liberality justly entitles Mr. Welles to rank as a philanthropist of the "Pea"-ixedy order (no pun intended, because Mr. W. has just introduced "Pea" coal).

We sincerely trust that the public—always generous at such times—will extend to Mr. Welles the sympathy and patronage his liberality demands; more especially from the fact (as he states) that his prices are made in "self defence," and that he thus sells "unrullingly," We would cheerfully assist Mr. Welles by dividing the market with him, but we are compelled to make our coal business self-sustaining. This explanation is due to the public generally.

Towands, Feb. 10, 1870.

Prices of Coal.—I am selling best PRICES OF COAL—I am Selling best Anthracite coals at cars and yard as follows:
Pea coal, $3 25; Chestmut, $4 00; Stove and Egg, $4 25. These prices are at actual cost, therefore I cannot pay bridge toll; also. In selling at cost I do it in self defence and unwillingly. I believe that it is the interest of the consumer that the dealer has a reasonable living profit. This explanation is due to coal dealers in other parts of Bradford, whose business is injured by these prices.

DREMIUM CHESTER Dr. Clark examines and explains your dises without saking any questions. If he understan your case you know it, and cannot be descrived, he cannot tell your disease and how you feel without without asking any questions. If he understands your case you know it, and cannot be deceived. It he cannot tell your disease and how you feel without asking questions, he does not consider himself competent to treat your case. This is the criterion to go or, and patients should not be astisfied with any other. This is the only direct and positive evidence of my shility as a scientific physician, and by this standard I am willing to be judged.

Dr. Clark treats no cases unless conscienciously of the opinion that it can be cured or permanently benefitted.

Dr. Clark will treat no Chronic Disease unless he can describe the disease and its symptoms without interrogating his patient.

Dr. Clark will treat no Chronic Disease unless he can explain its character to the complete and perfect satisfaction of the patient examined. And the Dr. would here most positively state, that he desires no patient to take treatments from him, unless they are mily and completely satisfied with his consultations and examinations, which are made free from charge. Dr. Clark bases his practice upon the incontreventible law of Nature. First.—That every cause has an effect. Second.—That diseases are causes producing effects er symptoms, and that every disease has its own peculiar effects er symptoms, which if properly or throughly understood by the examination, which are made free from charge.
