VOLUMBOXXX property on his strong horizon and of his electrons of the TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., MARCH 10, 1870.

allows tensonler and their or estant of the section of the $2 per Annum in Advance.

or less.
'dministrator's and Executor's Notices,
Anditor's Notices,
Business Cards five lines, (per year).

Merchants and others, advertising their busi will be charged $25 per year. -They will be entitled

BUSINESS CARDS.

F RAYSVILLE MILLS!

campiown. July 12, 1869.

DLACKSMITHING!

MYERSBURG MILLS!

other wer Mason's Bank, Towanda, Pa. Jan. 20, 1862.

which to make collections.

Forwards, Oct. 1, 1866.

14219.3m

whole five Manuale wont good principles for igents wanted, to whom liberal inducement

NEW FALL & WINTER GOODS

MRS. E. J. PIERCE,

MILINERT GOODS

Counsisting of the latest imported styles of HATA, BONNETS, RIBBONS, &c. &

Has just returned from New York with a first and vicinity to give her a call before pur where. Work done in next and fashional of where. Work done in next and fashionable todon short notice. approximately store, opposite Powell's, Towards, Pa. September 30, 1869.

. AT MONROETON, PA.

TRACY & HOLLON,

reprises carefully compounded at all hours of the tax and make. Give us a call.

TRACY & HOLLON.
Mouroston, Pa., June 24, 1869—19.

IRELAND OR ENGLAND.

I THE COLD LINE OF STEAMSHIPS FROM OR TO

GEENSTOWN OR LIVERPOOL.

b thams a Guion's old "Black Star Line" of Liverson Packets, sailing every week.

scallow-tail Line of Packets from or to London, sailing twice a month.

Benutances to England, Ireland and Scotland payments of the control of the control particulars, apply to Williams & Opion,

G. F. MASON & CO., Bankers, Towanda, Pa.

S. PECK, MILLWRIGHT VI a AND MACHINET, Towards, Pa. Mills built end repaired. Engines and Boilers set in the best marker. I would call the attention of mill owners to

AS ONLY ORTEX WATER WHEEL.

Is can't any all the elements of a first-class mother, supporty of construction accessibility, great strength of parts, developing the greatest amount of power for years, developing the greatest amount of power for year, and can't present of parts, required, running under backwater with no detriment to power except diminution of heal, requiring no alteration in mill frames or addition to flume, will run under low head, and made of any dearest capacity. These wheels will be furnished that than one-half the cost of any other first-class wheel in market, and warranted to perform all that is claumed for them. These wheels will be made for delivery with or without cases, on short notice, of the best from market.

delivery with or without cases, on short notice, of the best from market.

For full particulars address or enquire of the under stand.

G. S. PECK, Towanda, Pa. P.S.—These whoels can be seen in operation a Mestra Horton & Wells' Mill, Towanda twp. The wheels are wholly composed of Iron as new made.

CHEAP PASSAGE FROM OR TO

YEW FIRM!

N. P. BOYER & CO., Publishers, will be change confined exclusively to their business to 's column, confined exclusively to their business with privilege of quarterly changes. PROFESSIONAL CARDS. ag- Advertising in all cases exclusive of subscrip-TAMES WOOD, ATTORNEY AND tion to the paper.

102 PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fance HENRY PEET, ATTORNEY AT colors, done with nestness and disputsh. Hearthilla. EDWARD OVERTON, JR., AT-TORKEY AT LAW, TOWARDA, Pa. Office formerly occupied by the late J. C. Adams. march 1, '69. f every variety and style, printed at the shortest tice. The REPORTER Office is well supplied with Forer Presses, a good assortment of new type, and everything in the Printing line can be seconted in GEORGE D. MONTANYE, AT-TORIET AT Law. Office—circus of Main and Pine Streets, opposite Porter's Drug Store. the most artistic manner and at the lowest rates
TERMS INVARIABLY CASH.

W. A. PECK, AFTORNEY AT

• Law Towards. Pa. Office over the Bakery. south of the Ward House, and opposite the Court House. P. WILLISTON, LEAVE WITH

The subscriber, having purchased the LaBayavilla wills, and refitted the same in good order, is new prepared to do good work, and to give general satisfaction.

M. J. FEUTCHET.

Leftayaville, Sept. 22, 1869.—19 ATTORNEY AT LAW, TOWANDA. South side of Mercurs New Block, up stairs. Dec. 1, '69—am W. H. THOMPSON, ATTORNEY DRICE LIST—CASCADE MILLS. VV e AT LAW. Towards. Pa. Office with W. C. Bogart. Esq., No. 5 Brick Row. All business entrusted to his care will be promptly attended to. July 1, 1869.

Best quality Winter Wheat Flour & cwt., $4 50,95 00
Best quality Ree Flour & cwt. 2 3.50 com Meal and Ree and Corn Feed. 2 2.5
tar margin allowed to dealers.
Sixtom grinding usually done at once, as the castacty of the mill is sufficient for a large amount of sork.
Convolution. July 12, 1869. W H. CARNOCHAN, ATTOR-ford Country. Troy, Pa. Collections made and prompt by remitted. TOHN N. CALIFF, ATTORNEY DATENT METALIC WHITE WIRE CLOTHES LINES.—Warranted not not wear tare, corrode or injure the finest fabric wear tare, corrode or injure the finest fabric wars up and ready for use. The weather do in the least affect it. It will last for 20 to are and costs but three cests per foot. I am to AT Law. Towanda, Pa. Particular attention given to Orphans' Court business Conveyancing and Collections. 23 Office at the Register and Receive office, south of the Court House.

Dec. 1, 1864.

PENJ. M. PECK. ATTORNEY at Law. Towarda, Pa. All business entrusted to his care will receive prompt attention. Office in the office intely accupied by Marsur & Morrow. south of Ward House, up stairs. july 16, '63. MERCUR & MORROW, ATTOR-

Having completed my new brick shop, near my oldence on Main-street I am now prepared to do work in all its branches. Particular attention paid Mill Icons and edice tools. Having sment many wars in this community, in this business. I travilli be a sufficient guarantee of my receiving a liber amount of the public patronson.

HENRY ESSENWINE. IVE WEYS AT LAW, Towanda, Pa. The undersigned having associated themselves together is the practice of Law, offer their professional services to the public. ULTRRES MERCUE. P. D. MOREOW. March 9, 1866. TOHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY AT Law, Towards, Bradford Co., Pa. GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT.

Particular atiention paid to Collections and Orphans' Court business. Office—Mercur's New Elock, north aide Public Square. The subscribers are now doing business in their tent of the BEST QUALITY at the MYERSBURG H. B. McKEAN, ATTORNEY What. Rye, and Buckwheat Flour, and Food con-cautiv on hand for sale at market vales. Sica a large quantity of GROUND PLASTER of superior quality from the old YAUGER BEFS. Mysrsburg, Dec. 20, 69. MYER & FROST. and Counsellon at Law, Towards, Pa. Par-r attention paid to business in the Orphans' july 20, '66. W T. DAVIES, ATTORNEY AT V e Law. Towards, Pa. Office with Wm. Wat-kins. Esq. Particular attention paid to Orphans' Court business and settlement of decedents' estates. YEW DYEING ESTABLISH B. KELLY, DENTIST. OF-

MENT.
The subscriber takes this method of informing the copie of Towarda and vicinity that he has opened a lyging Establishment in Col. Mrans' now build NO, 166 MAIN STREET, copposite Gen. Patton's), and that he is now prepared to do all work in his line, such as CLEANING and COLORING ladies' and gentlemen's garments, civitis, &c., in the nesteet manner and on the most reasonable terms. Give me a call and examine my work.

Sept. 23 1868. RRADFORD COUNTY

T B. JOHNSON, PHYSICIAN REAL ESTATE AGENCY. H. B. McKEAN, REAL ESTATE AGEST Valuable Farms, Mill Properties, City and Town deter for sale.

Parties having property for sale will find it to the alternate by leaving a description of the same, with true of sale at this agency, as parties are constant exquiring for farms. &c.

Real Estina Agent. DR. STEVENS, over Browns (late

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE Females. Office at his residence on State st., two doors east of Dr. Pratts. uov.11,69. They are prepared to draw Bills of Exchange, and DOCTOR O. LEWIS, A GRADUprious of the United Sistes, as also England, Ger-prious of the United Sistes, as also England, Ger-prany, and France. To loan money, receive deposits, and the do a general Banking business. If I Mason was une-of the late firm of Laporte, Mason at the coff the late firm of Laporte, Mason at the Towards, Pa., and his knowledge of the business men of Bradford and adjoining counties at I having been in the banking business for about Sifeco years, make this house a desirable one through which to make collections. G. F. MASON.

G. F. MASON, A. G. MASON. BOOKS POR FARMERS AND od Volumes of the AMERICAN STOCK JOUR

R FOWLER & CO., REAL ESposite Opers House, Chicago, Ill. Real Estate purchased and sold. Investments made and rooney loan-B. HOLLETT, MONROETON, Drill, Ithaca Wheel Bake, and Broadcast Sower for sowing Plaster and all kinds of Grain. Send for cirsurface A. B. B. Houter Morneton Brafford Co.

HAIR WORK OF ALL KINDS, A such as SWITCHES, CURLA, BRAIDS, FRIZ-ETTS, &c., made in the best manner and latest style, at the Ward House Barber Shop. Terms reasonable.

PRANCIS E. POST, PAINTER Towards, Pa., with ten years experience, is con-dent he can give the best satisfaction in Painting, 3raining, Staining, Glazing, Papering, &c.

$3. Particular attention point to jubbing in the country.

april 9, *66. the would respectfully invite the ladies of Towar

TOHN DUNFEE. BLACKSMITH, MONROETON, PA., pays particular attention to ironing Buggies, Wagons, Bleighs, &s. Tire set and repairing done on short notice. Work and charges guaranteed satisfactory. 12,15.69. OH YES! OH YES!—AUCTION!

A. B. MOE, Licensed Auctioneer. All calls promptly attended to and satisfaction guaranteed. Call or address, A. R. Mor. Monroeton Bradford county, Pa. oct.26, 69. NEW GOODS AND LOW PRICES! WANT SUPPLIED! actul I salers in Groceries and Provisions, Drugs a. I. Montines, Kerosane Oli, Lampa, Chimneys, Studes Live Stuffs, Paints, Olls, Varnish, Yankee Notons, Johacco, Cigars and Snuff. Pure Wines and Juness, of the best quality, for medicinal purposes only. All thools sold at the very lowest prices. Prescriptions carefully compounded at all hours of the data and roths Girenand.

The subscriber begs leave to inform the citizens of Towanda, that he is now prepared to FILE SAWS, SHARPEN AND REPAIR SCHSORS, and do other Jobs in that line, on short notice.

JOSEPH MARSHALL.

Orders may be left at the store of Marshall Bros.

& Co.

DATENTS!

J. N. DEXTER, Solicitor of Patents. 73 BROAD STREET, WAVERLY, N. Y.

ospic 18, 1803-tr

O W STEVENS, C' UNTY SURtal to his many employers for plant partonage, would respectfully inform the citizens of Bradford County that he is prepared to do any work in his line of busing disputed lines would do well to have their property accurately surveyed before allowing themselves to feel aggreed by their neighbors. All work warranto el correct, so far as the nature of the case will permit. All unpatented lands attended to as soon as warrants are obtained.

O. W. STEVENS.

WARD HOUSE, TOWANDA, PA On Main Street, near the Court House.

ELWELL HOUSE, TOWANDA

Having leased this House, is now ready to accommodate the travelling public. No pains nor expense will be spared to give astisfaction to these who may give him a call.

27 North side of the public square, east of Mercur's new block. GENUINE IMPORTED RUMMERFIELD CREEK HO DETER LANDMESSER.

it has been grown on every variety of soil, and in the state of the Union, with the 'most perfect weeks.

The grain is very large, plump and handsome, has the most be thin hunk, and ripens earlier than the common varieties.

The street when the common varieties.

The street was the most perfect weeks at the most perfect weeks.

The street was the most perfect weeks at the most of the common varieties.

The street was the most perfect weeks with the common varieties.

MEANS HOUSE, TOWANDA, P.A. JORDAY & HORTON, Proprietors. This popular Hotel having been thoroughly fitted and repaired, and furnished throughout with new and elegant Purniture, will be open for the reception of guests, on BATURDAY. MAY 1, 1868. Neither expense nor pains has been spared in readering this House a model hotel in all its arrangements. A superior quality Old Burton Ale, for invalids, just received.

April 28, 1869.

The flowers are dead in the wood, The mesdows are dresr and lone For under the maple, simple and rude, There leaned a carren stone,

And chill on her yellow beir. Her pale hands folded across. My beautiful heth asleep; And never again to weep.

Rerene, and forever at rest. While the storms above her rave; My heart lies broken and dead in my breas

Selected Story.

LOST IN THE POST-OFFICE.

The will lay upon the counter before me, and my eyes were riveted upon the large cover which contained it, and which bore the inscription. "R. Grey, Esq., Mitre Buildings, The Temple, London." Within it lay Kate's destiny and mine. Whether we were to be married or not, before our hair was gray, was the secret wrapped up in its folds.

which had been kindled in my breast | communication to the executor. numerous perquisites which at that was quite quenched by the visit from Slaney; it's on no account to be left Mr. Snape's face hungrily, as if it shook my head in reply.

come of £100 a year. Old Lawrence there it lay, a long narrow packet, old Lawrence's death!" exclaimed could see through the thick cover

As I was speaking an alarmed and fore I could leave them, after assist- mind. At two or three bounds I The anxiety which had been doyourfore I could leave them, after assisting to get my father to bed and sending for a doctor. As soon as I could however, I hastened to the poor solid how was in confusion and dismay. Some long as possible, and I said nothing into shame and terrior upon facing quitted myself so well that she shed on, and he was to all appearant to any one, my fashion, by sweep-interest to a wished to keep the affair quiet as summary fashion, by sweep-interest to a him the was now sharpened to a keep-int to wished to a keep-int to a possible, and I said nothing into shame and terrior upon facing quitted myself so well that she shed on, and the was to all appearant to any one, my substantial to myself to a keep-int to a possible, and I said nothing into shame and terrior upon facing quitted myself so well that she shed any should be exposited in the consequences of her action; but both Mr. Snape and I at the wish to keep the affair quiet as summary fashion, by sweep-interest to a wished to

When the hour for making up the mail arrived, I went down into the to him: He requested to see my fa- office, and made some slight inquiries as to how the clerks had managed the work the evening before. the mailcoach—there was no railway บลบลโ. But the return mail proved that everything had not gone off as well tenfold, a hundred fold greater now Lawrence's will, and I have brought as usual. Our mail, leaving Thorn-

Because there is landed property there appeared no reply to Mr.

Mr. Snape. I felt myself sinking in- the arrival of Mr. Grey or his reply, Postmaster, such as private letter bags, and the postage upon local letter bags, and the postage upon local letters. We had two under-clerks, and T B. CAMP, INSURANCE the duties were light; very different from what they have since become, as I am told. The penny postage had tis was provided for in it; for how since old Lawrence's death, but the old gentlemen of a past generation, often does a rich man leave his mon- wonder instead of dying out, was who liked to make his own and every ey to the poorest of his kindred? I growing greater every day. Why one's life as easy and agreeable as had nothing else to occupy my mind. did not the executor come to satisfy possible, and who had somewhat of more than two years. Only four My mother and sisters sat weeping the general curiosity, and set the an aristocratic contempt for the exyears before the stamp duty on news- in my father's darkened and silent general mind at ease? The mail-bags acting public-far less exacting then room. All the windows in our house reached Thornbury about midnight, than now. I received a cordial greetwildest Whig had not yet dreamed had the curtains drawn. At last it and were ordinarily deposited in the ing from him, was set down to a good

"Nover received it!" I repeated,

I hesitated a minute or two,

o. a penny paper. There were hours occurred to me that this was the last office to await the appointed hour dinner, and forbidden to speak of in our post office when our two subordinates were more than sufficient ey order account, which was made morning, which was considered quite over our wine. for all the work of the place, and my father's post was little else than a sinecure.

up quarterly, ought to be balanced early enough for the accommodation "Now, Harry, just tell me of the public. But upon this occaint, as shortly as possible," sinecure.

Clad of anything to work at, sine Mr Snape spent the evening Talbot; and I obeyed him. quiet office, where I picked out the "the will must be found, sir. The crony of my father's—both of hem I had just completed it, and folded London bag, opened it, took out the authorities insist upon it, and I will

"neither more nor less—that the will the will you expect him to come in "I should be a fool if I did," I an-

"A confounded fool," he added, to chancer, and the lawyers will get "Did you see it go into the bag the best pickings out of it. Come, Harry, we are old friends; I knew you when you were a baby, and your treasure. Don't you let her slip to feel the coldness and distrust of ing any offal he can pick up, and denot try to describe what she was, except by saying that I was in love do that than I would have dared to with her, and had been ever since I tease and arouse some deadly ser, inght. I remember it was the night "Thank you," I cried, grasping his

"Could anybody else know of its being in your office besides you and Strange to say—so strange that I as fickle fortune would permit it. yound should overhear her; yet I startimpossible for them to overlook it. revelation made by a flash of light-when that would be the most product with the sound of her Besides, we should have found it the ning, larid and blinding, came back phetic soul could not foretell; for our voice and the touch of her hand, and next day if it had been left behind, the position in which we stood, and er. "Do you think they have search- timating that the people of Thornshe was obliged to repeat her questions before I seemed to comprehend "That is your uncle's will," I answered.

In the last words I had uttered. The least words I had uttered. The last w Her eyes met mine, and there was questioned him in the morning. He that the impression must have been a strange look in them, such as I had would not positively swear to it, be for the time almost obliterated. It haste to get away. In the drawing partially recovered, was very low, and some, almost sly expression. She flurried over their work; but he was pulse stood still, and my heart sank dress and bonnet, come in to go a vals during the day. I found my a distant one—when old Lawrence had been crying until they were red, quite sure it must have gone, if it heavily. Katie had been there; Ka- wa king with my sisters, who luckily self, as usual, in the office about the died, would he leave Katie or her fa- and appeared smaller than usual un- had been on the counter as I des- tie had seen her uncle's will; I had had just started off before her arri- same hour in the evening as when ther any portion of his accumulated der their swolen lids. She dropped cribed. The other clerk, who had left her behind me in the office alone. wal. She advanced to meet me, with old Lawrence's will was brought in her eyelids hurriedly, and then whise taken it in, and knew it to be old I answered incoherently, stammer. Lawrence's will, had not made up ed, contradicted myself, and at last, with her usual frank, pleasant, calm just as I had finished and folded up "If there had been no will?"

the London bag, or would have for almost the only time in my life, smile upon her face. There was no the quarterly money-order account. I answered her as if that were a taken special notice of it, and would fairly burst into tears. Never did a long freely money-order account. Another quarter was ended, and I question, but afterwards it occurred have been able to swear to it. Still poor, weak wretch appear more guilto me that it was but an involuntary both of them were very positive that utterance of her wish.

"Your father would have been an it might bave got into the wrong her, and unworthy to lay my lips upon was truly my friend—urged me, implored of me, in vain, to confess all, her, feeling myself an unhappy, guilty than I did. My friend—for he ty than I did. My friend—for he and unworthy to lay my lips upon making up the account once again." The forms upon which they her, artists. the night before he and my maner had been trying some chemical exheir-at-law, Katie," I replied; "and bag, and then missent.

and make him the confident of my replied; "and bag, and then missent."

and make him the confident of my replied; "and bag, and then missent."

by anxiety, of which I was half ashamed. If he had died intestate sleep, which now and then seem to had been to the general post-office to ashamed. If he had died intestate sleep, which now and then seem to had been to the general post-office to gain my confidence, come into possession of the landed property and into a fourth part of property and into a fourth part of was in the house, and property and into a fourth part of size and the three persons within it.

The whole onus of the disappearance rested upon our last sentence he uttered, with unulast sentence he uttered and anxiety senten itself up n me, in spite of my father's inexpressibly soothing after any will any longer a secret. The relatives were ready to pull Mr. Grey to my office, even if my father kept his, can be no nearer heir, and if the will like a stroke of paralasys. in the town. Was it not shameful, ness at the time. ready dragged by, and no one knew and found Snape awaiting my return. how a quarter of a million of money Mr. Grey had gone back to London, I attempted again to impress upon "Nothing discovered vet?"

sional experience," he continued.

there were worrying inquiries made he had died intestate; all the world for Kate Lawrence, my disappointing significant tone, "all might be smothered over even now."

when he saw me, and I forced a smile died intestate. Every lawyer in after he arrives at maturity, his talto my own lips.

Thornbury had given some opinion, one and fangs show no signs of de-"All going on well down stairs, and received a fee for it, upon the cay, but after that he grows feeble, Harry?" he said.

"Why not?" I-answered evasively; why not? The work is simple tween Katie and me? said my father warmly, "a perfect comparably harder. She did not fail crawls about from place to place, eat-

I hesitated for a moment, but so in existence, to be discovered, perbriefly that he did not notice it.

I promised to do so, and made from headquarters. My father only misgiving that here lay the solution to her that, could the will be found no will--if chancery has any sense, berself, and all the relatives stood; thut she either could not understand it or would not believe it. it or would not believe it. If it came to the worst, she answered they one. He has not spoken since this near Thornbury then—had waited had been a will; he and the post-morning, when he heard of the sud-for them to complete their evening's master were executors; it had been ingly. "If there was, you'd have no would all agree to some arrangement need to come to me. I should be on-for the division of the property, and her father, being the eldest, and the post-more horizontal in appropriate of paralasses. Is it everything had gone as well as Lawrence's death, and nothing more by too glad to let you know."

it here with me, to consult with him about it. The other is Gray, of the Temple. Under these circumstances I suppose I must forward it to him; proved at Canterbury, and perhaps it is best; it must be proved at Canterbury, and he can see to it at once."

"Why at Canterbury?" I asked, eagerly.

"Barrone there is landed ground to the consult with me, to consult with him about 1 consult with him about 2 consult with him about 3 colock of the London office was besized, and the clerks plied with not turn up at all?".

"The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. Snape opened and read took the will obox her in the face and say: "Katie took the will?" Yet I could not for turn up at all?".

"The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. Shape of the will should be opened and read unturn up at all?".

"The very question all the relatives are asking," replied Snape. "Mr. Shape of the will dook her in the face and say: "Katie took the will shape of the will should dook the will?"

"The very question and took the will on turn up at all?".

"The very question and took swered; "I'll send it to Gray by tonight's mail."

"Well, my father can do nothing," I said, wondering all the time whether to the provisions of the will, so momentous to Katie and me.

"There was a will, however; that far was of which fell will hope to the provisions of which fell was a second with the will be nothing else for it, and on the course of a few weeks a will, however; that far while the solicitor addressed a second delay, but as if he was as eager to get the truth should become known to any one else. There will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be the will be nothing else for it, and on the will be the was as any person present. It was a short document, and did not take many minutes to read it. The provided beautiful to do not the will be truth should become the will be t severe judgments upon her crime.

It was not possible to keep the secret any longer from my father, when he became able to attend to business. a detective, came down to investigate the matter thoroughly; but they could learn no more than was already generally known. It was a severe frouble to my father, and serious consequences threatened him in spite of his plea of sudden and dangerous illness. The fact that he was one of the executors told against him with the strangers who were appointed to investigate the affair; for they appeared to argue that he might have aken possession of the will, though it was illegal to do so after it had once been posted, and for some reasou or other suppressed it, throwing the onus of the loss upon the postpoint; but nothing was clear and his teeth fail him, and he grows cub-certain. Those were the most miserable the tremenduous buffalo; he prowls three months that ever passed over around the cattle, crawls and snatchmy head. The changed faces of my es a lamb or a kid just as he did townsmen, the suspicion attaching to when he set out with his strength, me, and the near prospect of igno- nearly thirty years before. A woman tion of Katie's guilt, and my gradu- decline more and more, till the mighty through your fingers, Harry. By the my manner, and, being a girl of spir- spising not even so small an animal

Had she destroyed it? or was it still wandering Lashr. haps, at some future day, to work

There had been a semi-official letter "Poor Lawrence!" sighed my fath-in the morning from Mr. Talbot, in-were drawn out were kept in a small drawer in the counter, and I found them packed rather tightly, having with and it wares its wings on the side of the head."

drawer came out in my hand. I stooped to see what had fallen, and —you will have guessed already—there lay old Lawrence's will, boking practed as it had done what it lay on the counter before me, directed to "R. Grey, Eaq. Mitre Buildings, The Temple, London."

Love a creat short, which made I gave a great shout, which made ny father spring up from his deak, and I fell down on my knees before the empty space where the drawer had been, scarcely able to stretch out my hand to touch the will. How it had got there was plain enough to me. I had left it lying among the forms, which were not unlike it in shape and size, and the clerks coming in to their hurried and unaccustomed work, had cleared the counter after a summary fashion, by sweep-ing them all away together in the of the bitterest conflicts a man can suffer for it. When I looked round, with the will in my trembling hand, there stood my father and the two clerks from good will and congratulation, which now and then breaks out among the sympathizing public. Old Lawrence's relatives were not long behind their townspeople; they came in agitated numbers, Katie and her father among them, with Mr. Grey, who had been spending his me or spoke to me, and when my father invited all the relatives and Mr. Snape to go into the house, she passed nie, as I stood humbly at the door.

with averted head and a half-dignitestator's beloved neice, Cacharine Lawrence, on the sole condition that of his old friend, George Slaney. Postmaster of Thornbury. If otherwise it was to be divided equally among his brothers and sister. All that followed may easily beguessed. I had to make a thousand protestations of my love, and implove Katie again and again to consent to be my wife—a thing which we had both taken for granted years before old Lawrence's will was in the postoffice. My situation remained my own, until she relented, which she did not do until, by my father's advice. I confessed to her the reason which had caused my change of manner toward her; the painful suspi cions which had thrust themselves upon me, and the bitter sorrow they had produced. We were married at last, to the concealed disappointment and chagrin of her affectionate relatives : and I ceased to be among the number of post-office clerks.

THE LION IN HIS OLD AGE. When a young lion reaches the age of two bish. He is no longer a match for lion grows lean and mangy, and and dies, or is fallen on and slaughtered by a few cowardly hyenas, or is discovered unable to move, beneath Go Two.—"Young man, do you bein a future state of rewards and pun-

"Most assuredly; if I should cut nugs with a red-headed woman, I should expect my hat indented by the first broomstick she could lay her "Go to, young man, you are incor-rigible. Go to."

"Go to! If it wasn't for the law agin bigamy, blessed if I wouldn't go sa dozen. But who upposed, deacon, that a man of your years would give such advice to a person just starting

An almost obsolete beverage in the iouth—the cotton gin. A LITTLE girl lost in London streets on being questioned as to her parentage and place of birth, replied that she was the "child of sin" and was "born in wrath."

Note that the proper would respective that he is a specially infern the public that he is a special stand confusion. The drawer of the house—a public that he is a special stand confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the house—a specially infern the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer of the instant I resolved to lay haste and conf

NORWAY OATS. SAMPLES SENT FREE TO FARMERS.

From 100 to 130 bushels grown to the acre.— We the from 40 to 45 pounds to the bushel. This rate has been grown on every variety of soil, and to crery state of the Union, with the most perfect sucfeet high. We have both the White and Black Norway, both circulars and testimonals. Address all N. P. BOYER & CO., Parkesburg, Chester Co., Pa.

Belected Doeten.

DRAD. Oh! there under the rainy skies-

For the boughs are shaken bare -The clay is damp on her hidden eyes, Bafe from sorrow and sin and loss, *

To go back to the beginning. My futher had been the junior partner in the old bank of Fletcher & Slaney, of Thornbury, which had come to grief after an honorable and old-fashioned manner, paying off all its debt, according to the customs of forty years ago, at the expense of the firm, who thereupon became poor men. My father had many friends, and in those times, when political influence had its finger in the bestowal of all public offices worth having, the members of our Tory borough had little difficulty in procuring for the ex-banker the office of Postmaster, then vacant. The bank offices, occupying the particular stemion is called to Automorus as a base for artificial Teeth. Having used this material for the past four years. I can considently recommend it as being far superior to Rubber. Please call and examine specimens.

AP Chloroform administered when desired.

The bank offices, occupying the ground floor of our residence, were altered somewhat to suit the new pulliposes to which they were put. The public business room became a DR. H. WESTON, DENTIST.— office in Patton's Block, over Gore's Drug and private apartment the stamping and janl. '68.

sorting place for the letters. The sorting place for the letters. The upper portion of the partition wall was thrown down, but left at sufficient height to screen the inner room DR. H. A. BARTLETT, Physician from the observation of any person in the observation of any person All and Surgeon, Sugar Run, Bradford Cemby, Pa.
Office at residence formerly occupied by Dr. Ely.
ang.10,1859.tf in either part, unless intentionally DR. STEVENS, over Browns (late Gonzal) Trug Store, Pattons's Block, in offices lately occupied bs Dr. Madill and Dr. Weston. 11-59.

of a few years my father appointed

U. BEACH, M. D., Physician me his head clerk, upon the promo-

EWIS RHEBEIN, Fashionable only just come in; postage stamps of the future, and money cycles had only just come in; postage stamps were still an institution of the future, and money cycles had and money orders had been a recognized branch of the establishment no papers had been 31d apiece, and the sinecure. One of the boroughmen who had comfortable berth for us, was a old myself steadily to the task.

pensive style he had been used to in post his master's letter. kindred lived about the town, all here with ordinary letters. It's old would reflect and disclose what he moderately well off, and more or less next eldest to himself, who, having of it." higher promotion in it than a poor ately, and placed before me on the scarcely passed. treated him with a kind of fretful, ir- not over large or bulky, yet contain- Mr. Snape at length; "he knows swered, stammering; for this phase ritable brotherliness, which was but | ing the whole of Katie's future and | nothing about his will—has never | of my position had not failed to ocpoorly plastered over by a yearly mine.

gift, grudgingly given, of another all the kindred were specially affec- my eyes riveted upon it as if they my oath it went from this office." ionate to old Lawrence. His niece, Kate Lawrence, the cu- and read the momentous lines with yourself?" asked Mr. Snape. rate's daughter, was-well! I shall in. I never touched it with my finwith ner, and nad been ever since I lease and arouse some nearly ser, ingut. I remember it was the night "Thank you," I cried, grasping his had first seen her in Church, listening with a beaming and loving face, into the shadow of an idea of opening all the work alone, while I was more to tell. I swear I know nothto her father preaching one of his it ever crossed my mind. At last I watching beside my father; but I ing more about the will than you do." prosiest sermons. Everybody knew lelt a warm, smooth little hand laid recalled also the exact spot where I upon mine, and Katie's voice whisp- had left the will on the counter, no secret of it; and Kattie was just | ered close to my ear: "What is it as simple and frankly in love with you're staring at, Harry?" me, and made no secret of it either. Yet I am not sure I had ever asked into this inner office from the house, safely, why not the other?

ment I had altogether forgotten, or her in so many words, if she would and Katie had stolen in several times "No," I answered after a long it had been kept back from recurring her in so many words, if she would and Katie had stolen in several times be my wife; but we were tacitly, before, when I was alone, and had alwithout pledge or promise given, en | ways spoken in the lowest of whisgaged to marry one another as soon pers, lest the clerks in the office be- the work that evening. It would be voice called to me. Like some vivid avish household expenditure at home which had not been materially reduced upon the failure of the bank, swallowed up the united income of my swered. father and myself; while my three sisters were portionless, did not seem

Six or seven years had passed with- pered again: out any brightening of our prospects, ing old Lawrence's housekeeper rushed in with the news that she had found her master dead in bed. Only he night before he and my father er was so violent that he was insenin a fair way to make eligible settlements. There was only one chance, tie's father, genuine tears of sorrow blinding his eyes.

The excitement, once awakened, did not seem likely to slumber again till curiosity was satisfied. It was plain that the old man had died from natural causes; but as soon as the town was assured of that, the question upon every tongue was, "has he made a will?" or, "How has he left by anxiety, of which I was half ashamed. If he had died intestate by anxiety, of which I was half ashamed. If he had died intestate by market with a head of the curiosity of a woman the most deep's interested in its contents. Yet who asserted that deep's interested in its contents. Yet where Mir. Stape returned, accompanied by accurately?" no one!" she cried, lifting up her the curiosity of a woman the most deep's interested in its contents. Yet when Mir. Stape returned, accompanied by my stater would have everything the deep's interested in its contents. Yet kate was so good, so good, so good, so good, so simple-minded, here was not will be forced to into the curiosity? I should to stape with the outer office, who as tribute of the curiosity? I should be too strong into possession of your uncle's more middenty? No one!" No one!" she cried, li

During the course of the afternoon old Lawrence's solicitor, Mr. Snape, was announced, and I went to speak ther, with a very impatient tone and expression of countenance.

"It is impossible," I answered. "quite impossible; he can't see any anything I can do?"

"No, no," replied Mr. Snape; "your father is one of the executors of Mr.

I went down stairs to the inner office with me, and when the mail arrived been most active in procuring this found the necessary forms, and set he and I went down alone into the Lawrence's will, I guess. By George! was reading. The letter was brief, successful in life, except the brother I only wish that my name was inside but he read it over twice. It seemed is in your possession. They say you entered the Church, end gained no It was brought in to me immediately it I suppose three minutes had only daughter, and by keeping back curacy in his native town, with an in- counter. I did not touch it, but "He says he has never heard of possession of all the property."

> received it!" I cannot say how long I sat before reared up against the folded money

There was, of course, an entrance acknowledged. If one had gone mail," said Mr. Snape.

scandalous, that a fortnight had al--for rumors said the old man's wealth was no less-had been be- in Thornbury. They had been late, of course; but queathed? With real reluctance Grey made known the facts. There was known about it.

The excitement in the town was in three different dioceses," he answered; "I'll send it to Gray by tonight's mail."

In three different dioceses, he answered; "I'll send it to Gray by tonight's mail."

In three different dioceses, he answered; all the world into the property in the London authorities, to which had been enclosed with the legal right to touch a penny of his professional deliberation and will, and in which he desired to be supposition. The affair was of such property." which had been enclosed with the supposition. The affair was of such property."

will, and in which he desired to be supposition. The affair was of such property."

"Will it be thrown into chancery?"

About five weeks after old Lawrence's death I received a summons

"Now, Harry, just tell me all about "But this is a deuce of a mess! be exclaimed, when I had finished a very long pause of suspense to me, are going to marry Parson Lawrence's your clerks?" asked Mr. Talbot.

order account, which had been duly marveled at it myself—until that mo-ment I had altogether forgotten, or pause; "I took it in and left it here to my memory, that Katie had been on the counter; but the clerks did with me when my mother's agonized never seen before; an uneasy, trouble- cause they had been hurried and returned all the keener now, and my room I found Katie, in her mourning my mother and sisters cried a. inter-no harsher a name. It was impossi- of remonstrance. specchless after his consciousness had me from the interior of the house—a of the importance of the document; Katie, though as I came to think and on the instant I resolved to lay haste and confusion. The drawer apparently returned. Of course, my voice so proper and stresses to make the confusion of the importance of house itself I found every one of the very close friendship, which had relatives who lived in the town, including two younger brothers and a married sister of the deceased; and by the side of the dead man sat Kape it is father, genuine tears of sorrow whole of that long night I never left who is a solution of the constitution of the deceased; and being once warned to keep it to be once with being once warned to keep it to be once with being once warned to keep it to be once

I rode homeward, wretched enough, she added, half gaily.

Very heavy indeed grew my heart. after staying no more than a few days her the position in which her father,

"It beats everything in my profes- heir-at-law, would receive the largest ional experience," he continued.

share. She would be an heiress, and field carriage.

"That's no satisfaction to me," I why should I fret myself about a paltenfold, a hundred fold greater now than on the occasion of the testator's said, in a testy tone; "the question try place in the post-office?

I could not, for the very life of me, the will should be opened and read the will should be opened and will should here with me, to consult with him bury at 8 P. M., reached the London sudden death. Our post-office was is, what is to be done if the will does you. But, I ask them, what proof yet which every day was growing have you that Mr. Henry Slaney has colder towards her, and more full of abstracted this document? The abstraction of any letter or packet from Expectation was dying away in the the post-office is felony, such letter town, and hope was almost dead withor packet being the property of the nime. Postmaster General during its transit, and the penalty is penal servitude or transportation. But how can the felony be proved? There may be A London surveyor, accompanied by good grounds for suspicion, strong presumptive evidence—his own adnission of having received the document, and a sufficient motive; but there is no positive proof, unless it was found in his possession, or in the possession of some individual who could only have received it from him." "It is a pleasant position to be in," said I, biting my nails viciously, which is no habit of mine, but which seem-it, as shortly as possible," said Mr. ed to come naturally to me in these circumstances. "If the will could only be found," answered Mr. Snape, with a provok-

the onus of the loss upon the post-office, was a bachelor, and continued to live very much in the simple and inexpensive style he hed here is much longer and silence in the one of here is much longer delay. There was a dead silence in the consequences if the onus of the loss upon the post-office, and continued to live tention. They belonged to one of the one of ting room. My father had that morn- meeting to consult upon what was to years, he is able to pull down a horse hour and place; only the clock tick- sternation to anger, and then into ing been pronounced well enough to be done. But it was not very clear poorer days. His money had grown by lucky speculations and careful you take this one straight in to Mr. Was not very clear or an ox, and so he continues to grow or an ox, and the law would permit them to law that the law would permit them to look here, he said; "I was to see in grow or an ox, and the law would permit them to law the law would permit them to look here, he said; "I was to see in ox and the law would permit them to law the law the law would permit the law would permit them to law the law the law would permit the law woul the fire, with a faint smile upon his was not one of them who would not one, teeth and mane are perfect, and "They say just this," he continued, sunken face, which grew stronger have agreed to proceed as if he had he grows no more. For twenty years enough." He was easily satisfied about that, but not so easily about myself. What had I been over to Mr. Talbot about? What made me look so pale and anx- miniously losing my post, were hard or a child at night shares the same hundred., I need scarcely say that it, fascinated, perfectly spell-bound; "not received it! But I could take drily; "the estate will be thrown in- lous? Was there any coldness be- to bear. But the deepening convic- fate. His strength and sight now "She is a girl after my own heart," ally decreasing love for her, were in-> by, now we are alone, tell me how it, she did not fail to mark the change as the field mouse, and he starves poor Lawrence made his will, and by a corresponding change in herwhat he has done for Katie—some- self. I pondered over such questions thing handsome, I hope? Your moth- as these: "How was the will made?" er would not let me speak of it, for and "What had she done with it?" a tree, and knocked in head by some fear of excitement." •

"The will cannot be found," I said. a just judgment upon her? How-"Not found!" he repeated. ever it might be, I knew that my Ka-"Not found!" he repeated. ever it might be, I knew that my Ka-"Yes," I continued, hurriedly, "but tie was lost to me forever; yet not very search is being made for it. for worlds would I throw upon her executed a few months ago, but all ily upon me. he knows of its contents is that you The last day of the year came and Mr. Grey are the executors."

The last day of the year came There had been a semi-official letter rosy with my kiss.

"Harry!" she murmured, in a tone

Snape is positive that there was a will the suspicion which weighed so heav-things ready. ishments?"

same hour in the evening as when lileve in a future state?" "In course I does; and what's more. I intend to enter into it as soon as Betsey gets her wedding "You mistake me; do you believe handa on."

Josh Billings says: "The mewl is