LOCAL AND GENERAL.

As the Reector, Rev. Wm. McLean, was absent, there was no service in the Episcopal church on Sunday last.

Mr. Mai, W. H. H. Gore reported the 6th Reserves from this county in the Convention at Lock Haven last week.

To-day (Thursday) being Ascension Day, services will be held in the Episcopal church at 10 o'clock, A.M., and 5 p.m.

Mr. CLARENCE PIERCE, son of the Services Pierce, Esq., died of consumption at his mother's residence in Wellborough, 1, on Thursday last.

Rev. C. W. BENNETT delivered an able and sensible address to "Young People" at the M.E. Church on Sunday evening last. The same subject will be discussed on next Sunday evening.

Merchants, grocers and others selling the so-called "Price Cards," are under the ruling of the Commissioners of Internal Revenue, liable to pay a special tax of $10, as proprietors of "Gift Emporium."

We are pleased to notice that Gen. Jas. S. McLean, of New York, has been appointed Justice of the Supreme Court of Union.

A NEW FEATURE IN INSURANCE.—We notice that Messrs. Clark & VINEYARD are now issuing fire insurance policies which cover all damage by lightning to buildings, contents and live stock on the farm. This is a good feature for farmers, and they will do well to call their agent or agent's office.

BUSINESS CARDS.—Business men, when in want of business cards, should have them printed at the READER'S OFFICE. We have the latest style of type and guarantee our work to be equal to that of any other establishment.

Our prices are as low as the lowest, but we will not charge less than cost in order to get business.

An evening's entertainment will be given at the Methodist Hall on the 1st, for the benefit of the Episcopal church on Wednesday, June 8, 1870, when will be presented for the first time in TOWANDA, Mrs. JARBY's renowned Was Works, together with a series of talents, parlor chaffeur, vocal and instrumental music, &c.

NEWELL LEONARD, Esq., of South Creek, late graduate of the Law Department of Ann Arbor, Michigan, went on Tuesday to make his home in St. Louis, Mich., where he began the practice of law under favorable circumstances. We commend to the people of that place as a young man of unusual energy and integrity.—N.Y. Gazette.

LIN-TA HOSE COMPANY, No. 3, has fitted up their room in elegant style. A leather chair, a large desk, a piano, a chair, a sofa, a fine library table and chairs, a set of tables and easy chairs have also been provided for the use of the members. The walls have been decorated with beautiful chintzes and pictures.

F. W. BROWN, apothecary, has in connection with his superstore of drugs, chemicals, etc., a large lot of prime cigars and tobacco, to which he respectfully asks the attention of all "wealthy." He believes, on good authority, that satisfaction will be the result both to himself and to those who do not take him at his word.—Tribute, 4/1.

The numerous friends and patients of Dr. WARREN, will be glad to learn that he visits this country again for one day, Friday, June 10, to preach at the Ward Chapel, 11th Street, Philadelphia. His services, however, have made him too familiar to our readers that we need only announce the time of his visit.

DR. BULLOCK, of Smithfield, is writing a series of articles on the early settlement of this country. The last one he has written is as follows:

SOUTHWESTERN BRADFORD.—Mr. F. L. STANTON, an old friend of ours, in his article on the early settlement of this country, has written a history of the town, and we confidently assure that it is a most interesting and accurate history.

Admission at all times during the exercises will be free. But as the church is considerably in debt, as we hardly could suppose to be the case, it is to be observed, an opportunity to contribute to the support of the cause.
