CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM. The great decline in the integrity, capacity and fidelity of our law-makers has prompted Hon. A. K. McClure to give his views to the public in the form of a letter, setting forth the grievous wrongs which are perpetrated in the Legislarure, and proposing certain measures as a remedy for the evil. In his judgment, the only remedy for this hideous and growing cancer upon the body politic is a Convention to revise the Constitution of the State. The reforms most needed, which can only be attained by a Convention, are: tional regulations would not exceed dollars per month, without in any the cost of our present Legislatures. way disturbing the loan market, and In all States where there are large that it can at any time pay out thirty legislative bodies, corruption has millions of dollars without losing a never gained the ascendency. We should think, says an exchange, that ne'n would do for an answer. by our late Legislature have been private bills. Sixty days would be ample time for the consideration of all public measures.

Seventh. All legislators elect should be required in qualifying as members to swear or affirm that they have not, directly or indirectly, paid or. promised anything of value to influence votes to elect them; and that they have not received, and will not eceive, anything of value in consideration of any official act.

Eighth. The State Treasurer should be elected by the people for a term of years, and the public funds placed beyond the reach of private speculation.

proposed constitution amendments will readily recommend themselves to the people, from their self-evident necessity and fairness As to the utility of the first, there will probably be a wide difference of opinion. There are many, who with Mr. McClere, believe that the greater the number of persons composing the Legislature, the less will be the opportunity and occasion for corruption. We think it is hardly proven to be so, by the experience of the New England States. We see make a great stir among Napoleon's Catholic no reason why a Pennsylvania Leg-

THE DEAD STATEMENT FOR AUGUST. The most striking feature official statement of the public debt y Secretary Bourwal, is the large crease in the aggregate amount luring the last month, $17.035,124. Since March 1st, 1870, or during the first five months of President GRANT'S econd year, the current receipts of the treasury have exceeded by $69, 001,001 the expenditures; and that mount has been applied to the re-rate of $13,800,000 per month, or $165,600,000 per annum; and making due allowances for the large receipts n the spring months, indicates a obable reduction of the debt at the rate of $132,000,000 per annum, so ong as the present tax system lasts, and at the rate of nearly $60,000,000 per annum after the remissions enacted by the last session of Congress shall take effect.

The amount of gold in the Treasu v on Monday was $102,930,206, less by $9,845,843 than a month ago; but he amount of interest due and accrued has been diminished in July by $15,967,661, while the certificates payable in coin on demand have increased only $4,233,360, so that the gold reserve, the property of the nearly two millions of dollars more

The currency balance in the Treasry has been increased during the month from $28,946,067 to $38,068,-623-a much larger sum than Mr. Boutwell has ever held in this form before, and more than five times as large as he held in April or for the greater part of the year preceding. The object of this accumulation of paper money is doubtless to be ready to redeem the three per cent, certificates as fast as they can be presented under the new currency law. At present the prospect of their return in large amounts is distant, First. Major General of the army telegraphs to the Minister of the Interior: After a series of engagements, in which the enemy brought heavy forces on the field, Marshal McMahon was forced to fall back from his first line.

The corps of General Frosard and o fight yesterday from 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with the entire army of the enemy, having held his position until 6 o'clock. He ordered a retreat, which was made in good or-Details of our losses are wanting

Our troops are full of elan. The situation is not compromised, but the enemy is on our territory, and a serious effort is necessary. A battle appears imminent. In the presence of this grave news our duty is plain. energy of all. The Chambers have been convoked. We are placing Paris, with all possible haste, in a state of defense, in order to facilitate the execution of the military preparations. We declare the capital in a faintheartedness-no divisions. Our sue the struggle without flinching, and the country will be saved.
