THE CROPS.—The work of harvestng-the most toilsome labor to the farmer of all the year-is about over, with the exception of late oats. The heavy showers and high winds that prevailed at times during the summer, had the effect of breaking down the straw, thus rendering the crop more difficult, as well as more expensive, to harvest. Still it is represented as being more than an average yield, and the farmer is thus repaid for his additional labor. The wheat in the Eastern States may be regarded HOPPMAN, is paying a visit to Mr. HENRY WARD | as a failure, and the supply of the whole country will fall much below the usual standard. It is not easy to repress the The township sketches are, for the most part, defective and very unsatisfactory, and contain misstatements of fact, of dates, &c. There are also numerous grammatical and rhetorical detects which would sadly mar the printed page. Altogether, while Mr. Taxion has laid a foundation, and gathered some valuable material, the work has by no means reached that state of completeness which ought to be dignified by the history of Bradford county. Could the MS. be unrehased for a reasonable consideration. rough canvass of the entire county has een made, and complete statistics of all the Sabbath-schools have been gathered.
