1=3 A very shocking circumstance ably received, I send it to you for the satisfaction of my home friends in castern, Bradford, secured on Friday, the 23d of Septomber, in ar quet little town of Alba. An only son of Micavill Harrington, about ten years old, was found by his mother at a back stable sussuded with a rope around his neck, and to all appearance lifeless. The frightened mother stantly flew to the boy and relieved him from the rope, and immediately made the alarm, when Dr. Wilson, who lives on the other side of the street, soon came to her assistance Through his energy and good medical skill the boy was recusitated, and is now able to be about town. It is not known how the boy got nto the noose-he cannot tell.

We mean, of course, the Galaxy. In the good sense of the world it has shown more of the spirit and enterprise of "Young America" than any other of the monthlies. It has refused the aid of the old and well-known writers, but it has never hesitated to give its imprint to articles of orientality ted to give its imprint to articles of originality and merit from those who had to make their reputation through the Galitzy. It violated all the old magazine precedents by publishing the names of contributors, thereby offering fresh ames of contributors, thereby offering fresh incentives to young writers and enlarging its list of "available" articles by absolving itself from full responsibility. The reform which it thus began its contemporaries have been forced, one by one, to adopt mone way or another. Its editors have also shown their enterprise in procuring articles on fresh and timely topics. The Galaxy his thus had something of the fresh and lively interest of the newspaper. Lately it has brought about the discussion of important historical and political questions by men of high official standing, and thus, in another way, enlarged its interest. Such contributions as those lately furnished by Mr. Thurlow Weed, ex-Secretary Welles, ex-Attorney-General Black, and ex-Postmaster-General King, have been striking and valuable novelties King, have been striking and valuable novelt in our magazine literature; while such artic ad notabilities have been equally, in as attributing its continued prosperity to this cause, says:

"Any one would suppose that such a bank, so long established and so widely known, might will its bills and drafts, and obtain collections nough to satisfy any reasonable ambition without a dollar of outlay for advertising. And so it might be said of Mesars. Brown Bros. & Co., Duncan, Sherman & Co., and other leading bankers, whose advertisements appear all the year in our columns. Messrs, A. T. Brewart & Co., who are more extensively known than any other house on this continent, pay us more other house on this continent, pay us mor money for advertising their business than an of their would-be rivals. If a house is not wel known it should become so by liberal advertis of their would-be rivals. If a house is not well known it should become so by liberal advertis-ing; and the better it becomes known and the larger its business, and the more independent it would seem to be, the better still does it pay to advertise it. wet, changeable seasons of fall and winter, when throat and lung diseases are so frequent persons should bear in mind the importance of promptly arresting their progress by using the proper remedies. The thousands who die annually of consumption were first attacked with what they thought to be only a slight cough or cold on the breast, and crroncously leaving it would wear itself off, neglected the proper remtion and death.

Hasson's Compound Syrup of Tar never fails in curing the worst cases of coughs, colds, oarseness, catarrh on the breast, sore throat and asthma. It is an infallible remedy for

The course pursued by the Cascade Mills, of selling good flour at the low est possible prices, is productive of numerou advantages. It makes a ready market for the superior wheat of our vicinity; supplies con sumers with a chesp and wholesome article of freely ground flours and as a numerous insultante fresh ground flour, and as a natural result makes active business for the Mills. War in Europe, drouth, and short crops, are having the effect to raise prices; but this Mill at all times sell at minimum prices.
