TERMS OF PUBLICATION. THE BRADFORD REPORTER IS published every precisy Mouning by S. W. ALVORD at Two Thursday Mothing by H. W. Alvand at 240 pollars per annum, in advance, 23° Advartising in all cases exclusive of subscription to the paper.

SPECIAL NOTICES inserted at FIFTEEN CENTE per go of first insertion, and FIVE CENTE per line for court insertions. absoquent insertions.

LOCAL NOTICES, same style as reading matter, MESTICENTS a line.
ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted according to the following table of rates:

| lw | 4w | 2m | 3m | 6m | 1yr. | $1.50 | - 3.00 | 5.00 | 6.00 | 10.00 | $ 15

2 inches | 2.00 | 5.00 | 8.00 | 10.00 | 15.00 | 20.00 2.50 | 7.00 | 10.00 | 18.00 | 20.00 | 80.00 4 inches | 3.00 | 8.50 | 14.00 | 18.25 | 28.00 | 85.00 column | 5.00 | 12.00 | 18.00 | 22.00 | 30.00 | 45.00 olumn | 10.00 | 20.00 | 30.00 | 40.00 | 65.00 | 75.00 Administrator's and Executor's Notices, $2; Auditor's Notices, $2 50; Business Cards, five lines, (per set of the starting of the set of the se Jumn | 20.00 | 40.00 | 60.90 | 80.00 | $100 | $150 itages and Deaths, exceeding five lines, are charged INC CENTS per line. The Reputten having a larger circulation than all the spares in the county combined, makes it the best advertising medium in Korthern Penneylvania. JOH FRINTING of every kind, in Piain and Fance or or, done with neatness and dispatch. Handbills, Bluths, Cards. Painphiets, Billheads, Statements, &c. every variety and style, printed at the shortest in ties. The Herourem Office is well supplied with 1 were Presses, a good assortment of new type, and exerthing in the Printing line jeen be executed in events of the printing line jeen be executed in events of the supplied with the printing line jeen be executed in events which is the lowest rates.

BUSINESS CARDS.

M. TINGLEY, Licensed Auc • tioneer, Rome, Pa. All calls promptly attend
May 9.1870 BLACK, General Fire, Life BLACK, Grineria 200. Office at J. office at WALLACE KEELER Hol SE. SIGN AND FRESCO PAINTER.

I marda, Sept. 15, 1870-yr CAMP & VINCENT, INSURANCE H. CARNOCHAN, ATTOR-ford County), Troy, Pa. Collections made and prompt ly remitted. feb 15, '69-4f. JOHN N. CALIFF, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Towarda, Pz. Particular attention given to Orphany Court business Conveyancing and Collections. 52 Office at the Bogister and Recorder's office south of the Court House. FOWLER, REAL ESTATE o p'ALER No. 160 Washington Street be Laselband Wells Streets, Chicago, Illinois V-tate purchased and sold. Investments made May Loaned. May 10, 70.

DRESS - MAKING, PATTERN (UTTIN) AND FITING in all fashionable with short notice. ROOMS in Mercur's New Mannet, over Porter & Kirby's Drug Story. IRS. H. E. GARVIN. Fanda, Pa., April 13, 1870. HAIR WORK OF ALL KINDS such as SWITCHES, CURLS, BRAIDS, FRIZ-ke, made in the best manner and latest style, TT & &c., made in the nest manner and message of the Ward House Barber Shop. Terms reasonable Towarda, Dec. 1, 1869.

Towards, Pa. with ten years experience is con-the can give the best satisfaction in Painting sunng, Staining, Glazing, Papering, &c TOHN DUNFEE, BLACKSMITH MONROETON, PA., pays particular attention to the Buggies, Warons, Sleighs, &c., Tire set and disting done on ghort notice. Work and charges armitted satisfactory. 12,15,60. 5

DRANCIS E. POST, PAINTER

MOS PENNYPACKER, HAS A scain established himself in the TAILORING ISINESS. Shop over Rockwell's Store. Work of our description done in the latest styles. Towarda, April 21, 1870—1f FERAYSVILLE WOOLEN MILL the understaned would respectfully announce to public that he keeps constantly on hand Woolen this. Cossumeres, Flauncie, Vans, and all kinds at bloods and retail. HAIGH & BROADLEY, 1970. Proprietor. OH YES! OH YES! AUCTION! 1 E. MOE, Licensed Auctioneer,

It calls promptly attended to and satisfaction acousted. Call or address, A. R. Mor, Morroston, oct. 24 county, Pa. oct.26, 69. GIFFORD'S NATIONAL PAIN I kiver and Lafe Oil, are the Great Family who but find a welcome in every home as a serial flemedy for more of the semmon ills of this any other medicine in the market. Sold also in the include medicine menerally, Manufactured the any other memorine of the state of the s

S RUSSELL'S to the practice of his profession. Office an on the castern slope of Orwell Hill, adjoint . GENERAL $\mathbb{C}^{n} \times U \otimes A \overset{\circ}{N} C \overset{\circ}{E} \otimes A \overset{\circ}{G} \overset{\circ}{E} \overset{\circ}{N} \overset{\circ}{C} \overset{\circ}{Y},$ (COD) TEMPLARS MUFUAL PROGRAMMENT ASSOCIATION OF TO SECURE ADDRESS \$2,000 S10 60

13. Stor for the curve account of the control of th TY DE CONTINENTAL LIFE ÍN

REENWOOD COTTAGE.—This well-known house, liaving recently been refitted and supplied with new furniture, will be found a pleasuri retreat for pleasure seekers. Board by the week or month on reasonable terms.

E. W. NEAL, Prop'r. Openwood, April 20, 1870.—11 state Communic of Heritord, Comm. Pay to the legitudes of insorance to be made a School selften M. wist, Towarda. WILLIAM BRACKEN, 100,750 (April) DESCRIMITHING!

to the our Manistre L Lain vow prepared to do not in that translates a furtherlar attention paid to from any other tools. Having spent many to be the comment to be this business I trust be a sufficient not antice of toy recovering a literation wint of the paid to partonage.

HENRY PSSENWINE. E DINING ROOMS

1 N. Degrett, Solicitor of Patents, $\frac{1}{2}$ TORROAD STREET, WAVERLY, N. Y.

TORROAD STREET, WAVERLY, W 1 15, 15 00-11

DATTON & BROTHER, the stage of

"OOL, HIDES, PELTS, CALF- RUMMERFIELD CREEK HO-SKINS, FURS, &C 1 Twin 8 the highest cush price is paid at all times that and M. E. Rosenfield's Store, Main-st., A DATION,)

5. DAYESH, CROV.14.70 TOWANDA, PA.

() W. STEVENS, COUNTY SUR-W. SIEVENS, Of Co. Pa. Thank-vition, Camptown, Bradt and Co., Pa. Thank-vition, a impleyers for post patronage, would be tally inform the citizens of Bradford County or over d to do any work in his line of business. Cilly inform the citizens of Bradford County proper of to do any work in his line of busing thing be entructed to him. Those having themselves to the county to well to have their property cally surrough sorrow, a leader allgoing themselves to the cill their neighbors. All work warranted, so for as the native of the case will persue the county of the case will persue of the case will be considered to as soon as the county of the county.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE opened a Bunking Ho ise in Towanda, under the eff. G. P. MASON & CO.

Toy are prepared to draw Bulls of Exchange, and all nous of the United State as a see England, Gerryuy, and France. To loan money, receive deposits, and of the United State and the State and the Community of the Community of the State and the Community of the State and Toward State and S

F. Mason was one of the late firm of Laporte before the control of RADFORD COUNTY NEW PLANING MILL!

HEAL U-TATE AGENCY, H. P. McKEAN, Run. Estate Agent. school I ams, Mall Properties, City and Town

Father's cong properly for sale will find it to their change to leaving a description of the same, with costs sale at this agency, as parties are constactly suring for farms, &c.

Real_Estate Agent. Real Estate

TOW FIRM! TENGOODS AND LOW PRICES!

AT MONADETON, PA. 69 TRACY & HOLLON,

McLEAN & HOOPER,

S. W. ALVORD, Publisher.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

TAMES WOOD, ATTORNEY AND

HENRY PEET, ATTORNEY AT 1 LAW, TOWARDA, Pa. june 27, '06.

CEORGE D. MONTANYE, AT TORNEY AT LAW. Office—corner of Main and inc Streets, opposite Porter's Drug Store.

W. B. KELLY, DENTIST. OF

VV • fice over Wickham & Black's, Towards, Pa. May 2d, '70.

DR. H. WESTON, DENTIST.— Chemical Store. Dentist of General Store. Dentist of Jan 1, '68.

ATTOBNEY AT LAW, TOWANDA.

M. WARNER. Physician and

U. BEACH, M. D., Physician

1 de and Surgeon. Towanda Pa. Particular atten tion paid to al Chronic Diseases, and Biseases e Females. Office at his residence on Weston street east of D'A. Overton's.

VERTON & ELSBREE, AttorNEY'S AT LAW, Towanda, Pa., having entered into copartnerable, offer their professional services to the public. Special attention given to business in the Orphan's and Register's Courts. ap114'70
E. OVERTON, JR. S. C. ELEBREE.

MERCUR & DAVIES, ATTOR-Baving associated themselves together in the practice of Law, offer their professional services to the public. ULYSSES MERCUR. W. T. DAVIES.

Main street, opposite the Court House, Towards, Ps

PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON.

alusing and vicinity. Office and residence at A. T. Lloyd's, Church stree. Aug:10, 70

Law, Towarda, Bradford Co., Pa.
GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT.

GENERAL INDUBATION

Particular attention paid to Collections and Orphans' Court business, Office—Mercur's New Block porth side Public Square.

apr. 1, '50,

DR. DUSENBERRY, would announce that in compliance with the request of his numerous friends, he is now prepared to admin-ster Nitreus Oxide, or Laughing Gas, for the pain-ess extraction at tach

TOCTOR O. LEWIS, A GRADUate of the College of "Physicians and Surgeons, New York city, Class 1843—4, gives exclusive strentic to the practice of his profession. Office and residence

DR. D. D. SMITH, Dentist, has

D purchased G. H. Wood's property, between Merror's Bluck and the Ewell House, where he has located his office. Teeth extracted without pain by use of mas Toyanda, Oct 20 1870.—yr.

WARD HOUSE, TOWANDA, PA

NEMPERANCE HOTEL!—Situa ted on the north-west corner of Main and Elizible th streets, opposite Bryant's Carriage Factory.
Jurymen and others attending court will especially fluid it to their advantage to patronize the Temperance Rotel.

S. M. BROWN, Propr.

The model In 12 1878 187

IN CONNECTION WITH THE BAKERY

Near the Court House.

We are proposed to feed the bungry at all times of the day and evening. Oysters and Ice Cream in their reasons.

March 30, 1870, D. W. SCOTT & CO.

ELWELL HOUSE, TOWANDA

JOHN C. WILSON
Having leased this House, is now ready to accommo date the travelling public. No pains nor expense will be spared to give satisfaction to those who may give him a call.

nin a call.

An North side of the public square, east of Mercur's new block.

PETER LANDMESSER,
Having purchased and thoroughly refitted this ol and well-known stand, formerly kept by Sheriff Gri s, at the mouth of Rummerfield Creek, is ready t give good accommodations and satisfactory treatment to all who may favor him with a call.

Dec. 23, 868—4f.

MEANS HOUSE, TOWANDA

PARTY THOMAS B. JORDAN Proprietor. This popular Hotel having been thoroughly fitted and repaired, and furnished throughout with new and elegant Furniture, will be open for the reception of guests, on SATUIDAY, MAY I, 1899. Neither expense nor pains has been spared in rendering this House a model hotel in all its arrangements. A superior quality Old Burton Ale, for invalids, just received. April 28, 1869.

AMERICAN HOTEL,

BRIDGE STREET, TOWANDA, PA.

H. G. GOFF. Proprietor.

This Hotel having been leased by the subscribe has been repainted, papered, and refurnished throughout, with new Furniture, Bedding, &c. His Table will be supplied with the best the market of fords, and the Bar with choleest brands of Liquors. This house new offers the comforts of a home at and notice now oners the comforts of a home somenate prices. Jurymen and others attendin Court, will find this house a cheap and comfortab place to stop. Good stabling attached. aug,10,77

MATCHING, RE-SAWING, MOULDINGS, &c.

At the old stand of H. B. Ingham's Woolen Factor; and Savmill, in CAMPTOWN, PENN'A.

MACHINE

GOOD JOB EVERY TIME.

From the recent enlargement of this water power work can be done at all seasons of the year and so

Towarda, Jan. 12, 1870,—1y,

On Main Street, near the Court House. C. T. SMITH, Proprietor.

less extraction of teeth. LeRaysville, May 3, 1870,—ly

TOHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY AT

BEN. MOODY, M.D.,

A. & B. M. PECK'S LAW

South side of Mercur's-New Block, up stairs. April 21, '70-tf.

r - P. WILLISTON.

Dec. 1, 1864.

Sept. 15, 1870.-yr

Oct. 27, 70.

ERGARDLESS OF BURGLESSON FROM ANY QUARTER AND RESERVED.

#2 per Annum in Advance.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., DECEMBER 1, 1870.

Original Poetry

A REMINISCENCE. DEDICATED TO MY BELOVED PUPILS. Often in my dreams at night-time-W. H. FOYLE, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Towards, Pa., Office with Elbanan Smith, south side Mercur's Block. April 14, 70 In my reveries in the day-time While I work with busy fingers At my sewing, memory lingers At the threshold, calling funder— Calling up the forms and faces Of those smiling, happy children, That would wait for me at school-time, And with open arms would meet me! Then with loving kisses greet me! With their beaming eyes upon me, They would tell how well they loved me I shall ne'er forget those faces! In my heart, their youthful graces Are forever mirrored there! Often in my midnight dreaming Comes that troop of laughing children, H. B. McKEAN, ATTORNEY ticular attention paid to business in the Orphans' court.

And surrounds me as of yore. How they throng me! how they press me! How with gentle force caress me Then in triumph Lead me to the school-room door. I see them now: the graceful flitting! And hear their merry voices, flinging Echoes back from wood and grove: While, anon, their glad notes trilling, Every neek and valley filling With their joyous melody. And I hear again the hummin Of the lessons they are conning, With such cheerful industry.

I will tell you what their names are, If you'll listen, modest stranger: There were gentle "Kate," and "Carric," And "Ella," sprightly as a fairy; Bright "Amy Bell," and "Alico" gay, And trusting "Eva," sweet as May; Fair " Ida," with the look serene, And "Martha," peerless as a queen Modest "Lettie," too, and "Adah," With the meek and quiet "Sarah." And tripping e'er the greensward lightly, "Bell" and "Lucy," blushing brightly! Now, half shyly—half demurely— Charming "Maggie," too, is there-'Maggie" with the soft brown hair; And with a smile, so glad and winning, Noble "Faunie" greets my coming! "Chattie," with the modest mien, And cheerful "Connie"—ever seen With the sunshine on her brow!

But where is "Jessie ?"—where is Mary? Did their infant feet grow weary Of life's pilgrimage so soon? Yes, they're sleeping in the valley! For the Saviour called them carly, Ere they felt sin's withering blight They were winning, lovely children! And I trust that I shall meet them In that land of fadeless light!

Then I had a group of maidens Rivalling those in ancient fables, Sung by bards of heathen lore— Modest, lovely and respectful, Of their duties ne'er forgetful, I shall see their like no more In the schoolhouse by the brookside Where delighted boys, at noontide, Came to me those youths and maidens. With an earnestness that gladdens Even now my lonely hours. Noble youths, of manly bearing, Kindness in their faces wearing. Gathered in the old brown schoolho Where of yore their sires had gathered Sat mon the very benches-Whittled at the same old notches Their progenitors indented; With their jack-knives years before Every generation whittled At the luckless desk before him, Till, at length, the board was severed

Into sundry, shapeless pieces! (Judge not, blame not, too severely These were sons of Yankee fathers!) Then they built a pretty cottage-In a grove across the wayside. And invited us to enter, At the heralding of winter.

And one bright November morning, While will gems the trees adorning, Pendent hung from leaf and bough, Troops of merry, laughing children, And a score of youths and maidens, Issued from the old brown schoolh To the red one o'er the way. Then what bright and joyous faces! As they gathered in their places In that new and pleasant cottage, Nextled 'neath the waving branches

Of a magrant hickory grove. I could tell you of their patience-Of their industry and neatness; How they kept the shining counters Free from mark, or stain, or notches Had you time to hear my story, I could tell you more about them-I could call them all by name. -But if you would know them better, You should see them all together-You should see them as they were.

In a quiet, sheltered valley (Sheltered from the blasts of winte By two rugged mountain ranges), Stretching north from classic Troy Near the village of the Wilsons-In the district of the Manleys, You may find them, you may see them-You may see them as they are! For it saddens me to tell you, They are little ones no longer! While my youths and maidens lovely Have to men and matrons grown! (?) 'And to-day may scarce remember With a tenderness so yearning! Forms and faces of my loved ones, I shall see you nevermore! Shall we meet beyond the "river"?-

Meet in heaven, no more to sever?

Grant it. Father! that an entrance

To those holy realms be given us,

Through the merits of Thy Son!

L. S. G. OSTRANDER. Miscellaneous.

ESSAYS.

WHAT SHALL WE DO?

Read at Teachers' Association held at Frenchtown, Sept. 9 and 10, 1870, by Lettie C. Tax-Lon, of Rome. in charge of an experienced Mechanic and builder, the public may expect a The human mind has been compared to a farmer's storehouse, where each thought, or class of thoughts, are gathered together, and like the as sent in. In connection with the saw-mill we are able to furnish bills of sawed lumber to order.

STEWART BOSWORTH.

Camptown, May 23, 1870.—1y various grains, are carefully arranged in different compartments, where and so absorbed is she in feeding on they are to remain till the seed-time the scene before her, that she sits

Some of the neighbors are anxious day, but she must make herself sociable, or else she is proud and over-think more effectual than to use se-

Another says, "If my children need rod and give them a 'respectable hopes to find rest. The head reclines rience the first day. Oh dear! I hope sleep will refresh me, and better pre-

"Let us, then, be up and deing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labor and to wait."

den grain," or one ingredient, is composed of the daily experience in a teacher's life, and thus we will proceed till we find perhaps other grains which will help to complete this loat. The teacher's life! what is it? Is it a life of continued pleasure and ease, where nothing occurs to ruffle the even tenor of the disposition, or even to injure the feelings of the sensitive teacher?

It is so considered by many. They say, Well, what lazy lives the teachers lead! they are compelled to work only six hours a day, and all the rest of the time they have to themselves.

of the time they have to themselves. turned the teacher had finished her After school they have to themselves, the table that the teacher had innihed her after school they have the pleasure repast, and was making her way from the table. If you had known her worthy residence, where they enjoy thoughts just then, it would have so bountifully the rich repast placed been an eulogy on the tea question. before them; they also have the exquisite pleasure of sitting in the best to see the new leacher, and after tea room, and of occupying the best bed. come in to make her acquaintance. Of course, how easy it must be to She is tired with the duties of the visit from house to house, having nothing in particular to care for, nothing to worry about, nothing but bearing. During the conversation to sit down amidst the smiles and they refer to their children. "My kind hospitalities of the worthy pat-children are real good at home. I never punish them and think you will find no occasion to at school; This may all seem very true and agreeable to those who do not know but if you do, I rather you would punby actual experience. Now let us ish in any other way than by using look a little into a teacher's life—the the rod. There are many ways of first day's experience, for instance. correcting that are preferable, and I The earnest teacher leaves home with feelings better imagined than express- vere means." ed-feelings that none can know but those that try the realities of teach- correcting, I prefer you to take the

They are aware that a great responsibility is resting upon them. As they go forth daily dispensing knowledge, also of stamping those great or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears, or even to shake them, I shall or ears. features of intelligence and moral dig-find fault." Thus they talk on till nity on those tender minds in such a the hour of ten arrives. She is glad manner as shall prove pleasing as to seek her own room, where she well as lasting. The true teacher is early at the on the downy pillow, and her mind post of duty, where perhaps fifty or reflects on her day's work. Thus she more different pupils have already soliloquizes: "And this is my expeassembled, enjoying their sports Suddenly they discover the teacher coming, and quietness now reigns su- pare me for the duties of another new instructress, eagerly watching last thought as "tired nature's sweet of sighs.

The teacher at once is reminded of | - Only a teacher! But remember you the responsibility of the position oc- are following the footsteps of Him cupied, and thus the first care com- whose great mission on earth was ing around, and wonders where she care, and their example, whether good will be invited to tarry during the or evil, has its influence on those easinight. The pupils pass out one by ly impressed minds. There are many one till all are gone, not ones think- who are trying to rise in the scale of ing, perhaps, but what she has a home education, whose chief aim is to seof her own to which she may resort. cure a certificate, and their greatest No one has given her a friendly ambition seems to be in procuring invitation to go home with them. one, not once thinking of the respon-She despairs and discouragingly says, s bility that awaits them in the schoolroom, going she hardly knows whith- degrade the dignity of our calling by er, till she finds herself approaching being immoral, or unjust in the least a fine-looking residence, and she vendof our duties? Teachers should be now, and would prefer you to come not teachers be strictly moral pernext week. Go to the next house sons? for where there is a lack of and they, I think, will keep you.". With a new pang sent to the heart already full to bursting, she leaves for the place directed. After a walk of a few minutes, arrives. The lady has been washing, and several little children cluster around her, seeming-couragingly; so she lays her "sundown" aside, and then tries to lall future frightens; and that our feet may not stumble upon "the dark mountains," we must first act (in accordance with the golden principles of morality) toward others as we would wish others to act toward us. In whatever station of life we are placed there is always something to do, and we should never lose an op-portunity of making ourselves useful. developed capacities, the conscious partly transferred, with all

The day is passed and the hour for more responsible position than that dismissing has come; then she belief of each individual is a lattle, we gins to realize the pleasures of board
That of a teacher. Was the teacher than that dismissing has come; then she belief of each individual is a lattle, we good luck, and the saying that rose must remember also that the balle is bush pruned on St. John's Day will "ENGAGEMEN"

"ENGAGEMEN" to those who fight with faith and un- bloom again in the autumn. The descairing devotion.

[For the Reforem.]

"I have failed in making a pleasing room. Are such persons capable of impression to day; here I am left all assuming the title of teacher? Are such persons capable of assuming the title of teacher? Are allude to the vast number of newsagainst nose-bleeding, and indeed all alone." The tears begin to fall, when they duly prepared to enter upon so one little girl comes running in. "Now delicate a mission, whose principal she has come to invite me home with object is to obtain a certificate where the paper correspondents that have suddenly sprang up in our midst. Like la in Westphalia, runs thus: "Abek, but along the paper correspondents that have suddenly sprang up in our midst. Like la in Westphalia, runs thus: "Abek, but along the paper correspondents that have suddenly sprang up in our midst. Like la in Westphalia, runs thus: "Abek, but along the paper correspondents that have suddenly sprang up in our midst. Like la in Westphalia, runs thus: "Abek, but along the paper correspondents that have suddenly sprang up in our midst. Like la in Westphalia, runs thus: "Abek, sprang up in our midst." Wabek, Fabek: in Christ's garden for her dinner-basket. After awhile, with weary brain and body, she dons her "sundown," leaves the school the ladder of existence; and shall we lead to musureoms on a loggy sum- with us, and has placed us high in the ladder of existence; and shall we lead to musureoms on a loggy sum- with water of logical that consume every green thing, so they as voraciously devour all the third for the angel Gabriel. instead of moving on, like the abovementioned insects, to localities bet-The lady speaks coolly: "I suppose this to be our teacher. I would be glad to see you at almost any other or time, but I am cleaning house or through all coming time. Should be glad to see you at almost any other through all coming time. Should be glad to see you at almost any other through all coming time. Should be glad to see you at almost any other through all coming time. Should be glad to see you at almost any other through all coming time. Should be glad to see you at almost any other through all coming time. Should striply more through all coming time. as perfect as any class of beings in

NOTIFICANTALE ALERT ARTICLE

done your duty; so rest in peace. NONINIS UMBRA.

THE ROSE-LEGENDS CONNECTED THEREWITH. has imparted to latent powers an im- vorite flower of the maternal goddess petus that made some shrinking soul Holds, who, as we have before seen, expand with the sense of its own un- was often called "Frau Rose." It was ness of what it might achieve, the presidence of what it would become.

Oh! who can tell the power of a schen." Mary, it is said, dries her other kind word or look? These little acts | veil on a rose bush, which thenceand little words may seem but triftes forth bears no more roses. But there to us; but trifles make perfection, and has been a tendency to associate the to us; but trifles make perfection, and perfection is no small trifle. Small white rose particularly with the Virthings are all-important for they gin Mary, that being chiefly chosen make up the mass of great things; for her fete days, while the warmer they form the bulk of the incidents of our lives; they are the starting with "Frau Rose, and still representations connected to the superstitions connected to seed on the superstitions connected to seed on the little ones into bed, and so set; got the little ones into bed, and as best she could, has worn away the long hours of the evening in silence and loneliness. Should a thought of his selfish injustice cross the mind of the husband, he responds with self-complaisancy. I require relaxational triples are all into bed, and as best she could, has worn away the long hours of the evening in silence and loneliness. Should a thought of his selfish injustice cross the mind of the husband, he responds with self-complaisancy. I require relaxation to the incidents as best she could, has worn away the long hours of the evening in silence and loneliness. Should a thought of his selfish injustice cross the mind of the husband, he responds with self-complaisancy. I require relaxation to the little ones into bed, and low necked dressing, which is the result of the imitation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certain style of French women not necked of the initiation of a certai point from which great events begin ed in the superstitions connected self-complaisancy, "I require relaxather course. The life of each indi-with the red rose. If a white rose tion and must see my friends." The with the red rose. If a white rose tion and must see my friends." The bloom in autumn it denotes an early its many trials with true patience and fortitude.

We find many obstacles in our path, and how many times do we feel the need of a saving power we cannot be hold yet know exists, and then if but perfect trues is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now the seems of the same or greating the need of a saving power we cannot be hold yet know exists, and then if but perfect trues is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now now the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now now that to the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now now the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now now the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now now the long day—a day's work with a lover true. In Thuringia, she who is the long day—a day's work with a lover true is borne, how narrow has several lovers may now now now the lover true is borne. coming, and quietness now reigns superme. All eyes are turned to the new instructress, eagerly watching every look and motion:

pare me for the duties of another day." "I am only a teacher," is the leaves after them and scatter I sighs.

Let us ever "do with our might that of her truest lover, or predestin-Only a teacher! But remember you are following the footsteps of Him whose great mission on earth was that of a teacher. Was there ever a that of a teacher. The footsteps of this to fa teacher. Was there ever a that of a teacher. The footsteps of this tions concerning the rose in Germany are singular; as for instance, the custom found in some places of throw to obey an iron will, was walking to who are the life of every company which they enter dull, silent, uninrelation of the flower to blood is widely believed. Thus one may find in France and Italy, as well as Ger-FROM WYALUSING.

WYLLYSING, Nov. 21, 1870.

Mr. Editor: No stronger evidence

Mr. Editor: No stronger eviden

so they as voraciously devour all the the third for the angel Gabriel: Everthing, then, points to the very locals and interesting items, and then, blood, I pray you cease to flow!" In greatest care and caution being exer-Swabia it is said: "On our Lord Jesus' grave sprang three roses—the scribbling way, are purely non-combatants. But they should not be blamed for this; for genius should ri, a German named Stretger last the sick babe to sleep while the mother is arranging the teatable. During the mother's absence the children take the liberty to make considerable.

Still acmeving, and pursuing, the pursuing, the pursuing the victims.

Learn to labor and to wait."

Let us, as a band of teachers, look upward for Divine assistance to pursuing the teatable. During the mother's absence the children to make considerable assistance to pursuing the teatable. There is, by corrie, much esteemed "Jay Bee" to the way, in the same legend, as it or the member our interests and advances ignially appears in the Edda of Same and the mother's absence the children to labor and to wait."

The same true prince, to whom the safety of the prince, noise, and she steps into an adjoin- positions we occupy; and may we ments in the columns of the Bran- mund, a curious remembrance of the something grand as well as sad in about to befall us that earth has no noise, and she steps into an adjoing room, where she indulges the hope of being unmolested and alone with her thoughts. Here she finds a very pleasantly arranged room, neather laying the taste of the housekeeper, scattered here and there. The raises the curtain and seats herself by the curtain and seats herself by the curtain and seats herself by the swindow, and what a lovely prospect meets her admiring gaze! I reminds her of home, and of her absorbed is she in feeding on the first one something grand as well as sad in positions we occupy; and may we compy; and may we compy in which connects the death of attumn. The spring in which nature so beautifully and gloriously develops herself—through their long winter's eleep, and the story of her trance in these words: and arouses Brynhilda, she tells the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: and arouses Brynhilda, she tells the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: and arouses Brynhilda, she tells the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: and arouses Brynhilda, she tells the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: and arouses Brynhilda, she tells the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: and arouses Brynhilda, she tells the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: and arouse representation of the number of the buds, leaves, blossoms and flow-story of her trance in these words: arouse representation of a summer foliage that "Shoo Fly" was noticing us in never again be victorious, and should flower, bud, and leaf, shines as beauthe local items of the Argus. Then be hereafter wedded.—M. D. Conway tiful then as when its mild rays in weary day, occar tolling with lamin, of a newspaper, especially work and vexatious care till her head paper, is more interesting and profit-is aching, and foot, and hand, and labe to its readers than the advertising columns. tea is dispatched, silently very likely,

The Catholic "rosary," which the Germans call Rozenkranz, or rose- als he has had during the day, or the wreath, suggests that originally the badness of the times; and then the We find all along our life-path many worshipers may have, counted their evening paper is taken in hand and full of coarse double entendre, nudity who need our aid. Let us "lend a hand to help them." "A cup of cold water may be given," a kind word spoken which may rouse a despond-But this was the case in Germany sleep. Or, if he be not weary enough for that, lie seizes his hat, and rushes drama in the language performed by ing soul and inspire it with a new en-before the introduction of Christiani-ergy. A word of kind encouragement ty. The rose was held to be the fa-for the reading room, or more probably for that lounging place where such as he do congregate; there with a fragment of segar in his hand and pretensions to position and refinedesultory talk from his lips, he lingers until the noise of the closing hutters warns him to leave. He goes home again because he can go nowhere else. Meanwhile the wife has, with heavy heavy heart and tired and in the ball room,—you see an amount of artificialty nowder room. step, got the little ones into bed, and

"ENGAGEMENTS." We-think "eggagements" should both, let them first provide for their be considered more in their true light own household. Ireland exports as periods of probation merely on beef and wheat, and lives on potaboth sides, inasmuch as it is better toes; and they fare as poorly who rethat fifty engagements should come to naught than one unhappy maringe should be celebrated. Too home consumption. It is better to much stress and indignation are often expressed at the contemptible reasons assigned in the Court. The reasons assigned in the Court. The strangers or amuse friends. A silent fact is, generally speaking, there is no definite reason that can be propple, a place from which they will estimate the court. erly assigned, save the all-important one of "incompatibility of temper," and this is rarely brought forward. danger. If the good sense and affections of a Pomeroy was one day in his sanctum ter calculated to subsist their intel- first is Hope, the second Patience, girl lead her to the choice she is making, she stands a fair chance of he was visited by a Baptist clergysecuring a good husband. If her man, who had just returned from an choice proves to be wrong, and she has been deceived by the one she trusted, or should he find he cannot love her as he ought to, it is more duced a fine crimson blis'er on his moral principle the loftiest efforts of the mind lose their purity. The talents of the immoral teacher may shine like the stars in the firmament, and thus exercise a vast amount of influence, but is it not sad to think the possessors of these shining intellects are uninfluenced by morality, casting a shadow over their brilliant talents. honorable that he should declare it;

If frightened to see a stranger. She says, "I am not prepared for company, having had an extra amount of work to sol; besides, my little base is seeder acts upon the moral nature; and has hindered me with my work." She then for the first time looks at the despairing face of the teacher, and her heart is moved with sympathy. "You may stay if you are willing to put up with all incogramences. It will be incorrectly on the wave which ceases not till it requiremences. It will not be very pleasant, but I will try and do the best I can; we are glad to see you, and hope you will enjoy being among us. However, I would like to have had my house a nittle more orderly and that sterning. The last sentence sounds more encouraged by the sup and tasteful."

The last sentence sounds more encouraged to the course graingly; so she lays her "sundown" aside, and then tries to inlit the sixt so fall which sheat it is right all; its efforts will only be removed to the stranger of the same nature.

The last sentence sounds more encouraged by the and the heart is right all; its efforts will only the principles of mere and the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred and the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred that the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred that the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred that the blood will cease to flow." I have somewhere met with a "legred that the blood will cease to flow." I have some will the the cost of the sand advancements of the child." Who, then, can the poisson of the common and with a heavy thud on the third the cost of the sacher and the blood will cease to flow." I have some fall the the cost of the sacher and the blood will cease to flow." I have some of the child." Who, then the sacher and the b humanity is so blind, weak and sel-which all who approached perished, ly bought experience does not enable painful and awful suspense, while we fish, that some of our citizens actual-save the true prince, to whom the them this time to bring their prize feel death is with us, that we are save the true prince, to whom the them this time to bring their prize powerless, and he all-powerful, and thorns were all roses, through which safely to land.—Young Ladies' Jour- the last faint pulsation here, is but THE Dring AUTUMN.—There is

Make A HOLDA,

| Mother than the section of the sec

ers, while to-day we are snuffing the frost-freighted winds. It seems as but yesterday we were wandering in the valley, following some serpentine rivulet to the mountain's base, cool-ing our heated brows and wetting our parched lips from the gualing waters of some cold spring beneath the giant roots of the sturdy oak.

A PARMER said the other day, "I like your paper, but you print too many advertisements." And this is the complaint of many. He, we found, read at least a few of those same advertisements. He had a Meadow King Mower, of which he first learned by the notice in this pa-per; his wife had a sewing machine. has drawn; and people have fed upon the bread till they have become tired of the sameness and long for lease of sameness and long for lease of sameness has been sameness and long for sameness has perplexed in the long through the latter little fellows and safetions, and such that little fellows and such that little fellows and such that little fellows and such that the latter is the long through the latter and the gloom and darkness which has end the sameness to regard the long through to her notice by an "adver."

Trusting that you have keen appears and with trull, justice and a perfect intellectual digestion, I will present for your enters a since of from the teacher's it think it is an an appear of the difficult steeps of life, and it is the difficult steeps of life, and the will same the long through the latter and the difficult steeps of life, and the will same the latter what in ground steeps and the control of the sameness in a summary of the sameness and long for in the latter little whether we get in the rear, who are envying him his she will also the difficult steeps of life, and the will same the latter little whether we get in the rear, who are envying him his she latter in the rear, who are envying him his she will same the latter little whether we get in the rear, who are envying him his latter in the rear, who are envying him his latter in the rear, who are envying him his latter in the rear, who are envying him h In life's great work-shop all is accomplish nothing, we can accomplish nothing, we can fulfib nothing, without working. You may still be able to carve fulfib nothing, without working in their columns. A sweetness and amiability. He may have no pleasant word, may take his place moodily at the table, but his wife's words must be affectionate, and his wife's looks full only of glad-avertisements must be inserted. Were the subject better to composing fortune, not to want of general may succeed in they attempt do withdress, in countenance, in word, all sweetness and amiability. He may have no pleasant word, may take his place moodily at the table, but his wife's words must be affectionate, and his wife's looks full only of glad-avertisements must be inserted. Were the subject better. ture generations do not pick it up for ness. What, he thinks, has she to preservation, 'twill be engulfed in obtained and his wife s looks unit only of gladar accordance we feel certain that there could be poor wife has, through a long and an grumbling about it. No portion weary day, been toiling with family of a newspaper, especially a home

It is a shocking commentary upon the public taste that an indecent play and licentiousness, should actually attract more people and pay better as a theatricul venture than the finest the same persons. It shows a horrible craying in the minds of the masses, and even among people with some ment for the vilest and grossest performances. Unfortunately the ten-dency to this kind of thing is not confined to the stage. Go where youamount of artificialty, powder, rouge, and cultivate a freedom and abandon which they enter, dull, silent, uninteresting at home among the chil-dren. If they have no mental activity and mental stores sufficient for ocean voyage. The clergyman had lost the most of his hair, and the sun reflecting on the salt-water had made his face of a scarlet color, and pro-

the prelude of endless life, we feel in the midst of the stunning calamity

"Man wants but little here belo,