DEATH OF DR. MASON .--- Dr. E. H. MASON died at his residence in this place on 1'riday evening last. His health had not been mood for several years, but he was able to attend to business until about two weeks prior to his death. In his death the medical profession has lost one of its brightest ornaments, com munity a valuable and highly-esteemed citizen, and his family a kind and affectionate husband and father. LEWIS is convalescing. His brother, Mr. Monax LEWIS, of Towanda, came to see him a day or two since, and is now sick at the Dector's with the same complaint. The quarterly meeting of the M.E. Church is to be held in this place on Saturday and Sab- bath (D.Y.). Rev. P. R. Towers, of Camptown, is espected to preach for the presiding elder at On motion, the Sacretary was directed to presented to	Egypt, and Syris. Since his return he has loc- tured somewhat on Egypt and Syris. In the earlier part of his religious career he conducted, quite successfully, a monthly periodical called the Primitice Christian , and in 1854 a monthly called The Reviser , the former being rather inisceRaneous; the latter critical. The Doctor has frequently been upged to ac- copt responsible positions over institutions of learning, but has declined all but the presiden- first president. At the close of the first year he resigned his position; and is at present en-	too, by thoso who the capable of telling the H fruth, that Mr. STARK had obtained liquor of is during the summer at different times.
