There dre'only two townships named in what is now the county of Bradford-Wysidising, extending up to Towanda, and the other, named Tioga, extending from there to the State line. On viewing this map, I could not avoid confrasting the condition of this region at that early day with what it is now. Then what is now Brad- ford county was almost entirely a howling wil- derness, inhabited by bears, wolves, and other wild animals; now it is spread over with bean- iful and productive farms, dotted all over with the animals is now the farms, dotted all over with | Complete assortment of the colebrated H.S.H.G., at TATLOR & Co.E.
