J. W. VAN TUYL. Towands, Oct. 5, 1871. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, DRON-CHITIS, ASTUMA AND CONSUMPTION

The few compositions, which have won the conong not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever socure lars call at the store, one door cast of Mercur's so wide a reputation or maintained it so long at ATER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, which have won for it a worth of American Sewing Machines, it affords confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It still makes the most aston shing and effectual cures of Coughs, Calds, Consumptio that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the CHERRY PECTORAL LAS really robbed those danger ons diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, which is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their close for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect
