

National Republican Ticket. FOR PRESIDENT, GEN. ULYSSES S. GRANT. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, HON. HENRY WILSON.

Republican State Ticket. FOR GOVERNOR, GEN. JOHN F. HARTGRANT. FOR SENATE, HON. ULYSSES MERCUR.

THE CAMPAIGN REPORTER. We direct special attention to the prospectus for the Campaign Reporter in another column. We hope every subscriber will interest himself enough to secure at least one new name, and forward us the money.

It is very generally conceded that the vacant position for Congressman at Large on the Republican State ticket, will be tendered to Hon. W. W. KETCHUM, of Luzerne county, and he will accept. Mr. Ketchum is one of the ablest men in the State, and has always been an unflinching Republican.

The New York Nation, a Democratic paper which has heretofore been strenuous in opposition to Grant remarks: We disliked much that the Administration had done, more that the Republican majority in the Senate and House had done and left undone, and we earnestly supported the Cincinnati movement first in the hope of influencing the party afterwards in the much more dubious hope that it might result in the formation of a new party of reform, and even a party that should be successful at once.

A BIT OF HISTORY.—Ever since CHAS. ADAMS didn't get to be Collector of the Port of New York, his pen has teemed with the lowest and vilest slanders against the Administration. As an answer to these base calumnies, we publish on the first page of this paper, an extract from the "Life of ULYSSES S. GRANT," by CHAS. A. DANA and J. H. WILSON, which was written in 1868.

A rumor which originated with the Press to the effect that Gen. HENRY WHITE will resign the nomination for Congressman at Large, is still going the rounds of our exchanges. We do not believe there is any foundation for the report. Gen. White is eminently qualified for the position, and if elected will prove an honor to the State. He is eloquent, experienced in legislative matters, a man of wonderful application, known as a hard worker, and is well adapted for the office, as he is imbued with the wants and necessities of every part of the Commonwealth.

MR. GREZLEY, THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE. As was expected, the nomination of the Baltimore convention was conferred upon HORACE GREZLEY. In order to present a little show of consistency, the convention decided to nominate instead of endorse Mr. GREZLEY, so that he is now fairly and squarely the democratic candidate.

These are reasons why General GRANT and HARTGRANT are not now on the stump; confounding their adversaries, answering and explaining the charges and insinuations made against them. They are in office—have duties to perform—and feel a modest disinclination to speak in their own defense.

There are other nominees who can talk, and from whom the people would like to hear. For over thirty years, HENRY WILSON has been almost continually on the stump. He must rejoice at the prospect of four years of comparative rest.

While the Democratic press boasts loudly over the fact that a few Republican papers have come out in support of GREZLEY, as the Democratic candidate, they carefully conceal the fact that many of their own organs refuse to support the old Philosopher.

As between the two—GRANT and GREZLEY—it is not difficult to determine the drift of popular feeling. Be his faults many or few GRANT has done something that is practical. When GREZLEY was growing and hurrying at home GRANT was delivering the nation from the grasp of the treason GRANT invoked. Elected to the Presidency, he has reduced the debt and inaugurated an era of widespread prosperity.

Those who are willing to risk the return of such a party to power may vote for GREZLEY because of some personal and selfish end; they are to gain by his election; but any man of common sense and common honesty who has nothing to gain by it, but yet advocates his election, seems to us to be under a delusion the most lamentable, or an infatuation little short of insanity.

HON. ULYSSES MERCUR.—There is no better man for the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court than the Hon. Ulysses Mercur, who has been nominated for the place. Possessing natural talents of a high order, he has cultivated them by study and trained them by experience, until he ranks second to no man in our State.

The democratic press throughout the country is rejoicing over the fact that one ROCKWELL, a collector of Internal Revenue at Green's Falls, N. Y., has resigned, and declared his intention to support GREZLEY. The honest GREZLEY organs, forget, however to state, that under the late act of Congress constituting certain districts, Mr. R. would have been legislated out of office on the first of October.

INTERESTING.—To see men who have always been Republicans, and who have professed to believe in the principles of the party, cheek-by-jowl with the leaders of the party who opposed the war, and are now as hostile to the principles of Republicanism as ever they were.

NOT FORGOTTEN GRANT. The finest declamation of mankind are not usually the masterly works in any department. This is a general truth, and every student of oratory might be reminded of it.

In America, WASHINGTON, JACKSON, TAYLOR, GRANT, HARTGRANT, are among our ablest generals; who, advanced into public life by office, had no talent to amuse, or to arouse crowds by their eloquence. Brave they had—great and many soldiers they were—and are—they could lead men fearlessly into the very jaws of death—but oratory was not their gift.

There are other nominees who can talk, and from whom the people would like to hear. For over thirty years, HENRY WILSON has been almost continually on the stump. He must rejoice at the prospect of four years of comparative rest.

While the Democratic press boasts loudly over the fact that a few Republican papers have come out in support of GREZLEY, as the Democratic candidate, they carefully conceal the fact that many of their own organs refuse to support the old Philosopher.

As between the two—GRANT and GREZLEY—it is not difficult to determine the drift of popular feeling. Be his faults many or few GRANT has done something that is practical. When GREZLEY was growing and hurrying at home GRANT was delivering the nation from the grasp of the treason GRANT invoked.

Those who are willing to risk the return of such a party to power may vote for GREZLEY because of some personal and selfish end; they are to gain by his election; but any man of common sense and common honesty who has nothing to gain by it, but yet advocates his election, seems to us to be under a delusion the most lamentable, or an infatuation little short of insanity.

HON. ULYSSES MERCUR.—There is no better man for the important office of Judge of the Supreme Court than the Hon. Ulysses Mercur, who has been nominated for the place. Possessing natural talents of a high order, he has cultivated them by study and trained them by experience, until he ranks second to no man in our State.

The democratic press throughout the country is rejoicing over the fact that one ROCKWELL, a collector of Internal Revenue at Green's Falls, N. Y., has resigned, and declared his intention to support GREZLEY. The honest GREZLEY organs, forget, however to state, that under the late act of Congress constituting certain districts, Mr. R. would have been legislated out of office on the first of October.

INTERESTING.—To see men who have always been Republicans, and who have professed to believe in the principles of the party, cheek-by-jowl with the leaders of the party who opposed the war, and are now as hostile to the principles of Republicanism as ever they were.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. The Republican who support Grant, although they justify themselves in the name of the party, they have not been in the Republican party, and that they have been acknowledged as such. We admit all this, but what has been made of it? There is no difference, what is now made of it? Those who have read the Tribune for the past few years will readily recognize the following quotations from Mr. GREZLEY. Will any honest, candid man say that he has not changed?

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM FOR 1872. THE DEMOCRATIC LIBERAL AMERICAN PARTY, in its platform, resolution, and policy, is in opposition to the policy of the Republican party, and is in support of the policy of the Democratic party.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

GRANT'S POLICY. Grant's policy was to restore the Union, and to preserve the peace. He was not a politician, but a statesman. He was not a soldier, but a general. He was not a man of letters, but a man of action.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. SIGN OF THE BIG BONNET ON MAIN STREET. CONSISTING IN PART OF IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC DRY GOODS.

YANKEE NOTIONS, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, FANCY SHAWLS, PARASOLS, GLOVES, HOSIERY, MILLINERY GOODS, NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON.

EVANS & HILDRETH. DRY GOODS! Look at the following low prices. JAPANESE SILKS, 50 to 75c. JAPANESE CLOTHS, 25 to 47 1/2c.

BLACK SILKS, All prices. An immense stock of DRESS GOODS. Stripe and Figured Grenadines.

GRASS CLOTHS. DRESS LINENS, ALL SHADES. WHITE DRESS GOODS. PAISLEY AND WOOL SHAWLS.

SHAWLS. WHITE GRENADINE, BAIREGE, AND KNIT SHAWLS. PAISLEY AND WOOL SHAWLS.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN OF 1872. The Bradford Reporter FROM JULY 11th TO DECEMBER 1st FOR 50 CENTS.

MISS GRIFFIN'S MILLINERY ESTABLISHMENT. NEW STOCK OF MILLINERY GOODS. JUST RECEIVED, which she offers at the lowest prices.

EVANS & HILDRETH. YOUNG WARRIOR MOWER. CHAS. PERRIGO & CO. THE YOUNG WARRIOR. THE AIKENS PLOW.

Miscellaneous. TOWANDA MARKETS. WHOLESALE PRICES. Groceries, Flour, Sugar, Coffee, Tea, Spices, etc.