LETTER FROM CHESTER COUNTY

Mr. Entron-

The western part of Chester county is fringed by a range of hills just high, wild and romantic enough to rouse to memory the above lines from Childe Harold. Although we are con scious that a much more picturesque and rugged country inspired the poet to give utterance to this idea, we are well satisfied from persons experience that driving over this comparatively wild yet beautiful country, in an open buggy, on a delightful summer morning, refreshed by a lively breeze after fifteen years of confine ment to the school-room, the study and the office, is not only quite sufficient to enable one to recall every lively little thought he ever had, but is virtually transforming him, mens et coe pus, from the dull, wearisome, life-corroding world to a terrestrial elvsium.

THE SUPREME JUDGE. In an able article on the subject of he Supreme Judge, the Germantown Telegraph points ont some of the reasons why Judge Mrnous should be chosen. Here in Bradford, where Mr. Mencua is known, it is unneccasary to speak of his peculiar qualifications, as they are known and ap-

> At the ensuing October election in the State of Pennsylvania a Justice of the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth will be chosen to succeed Chief Justice Thompson, whose term of lifteen years will expire. Judge Thompson is a candidate for re-election, and the Republican candidate is Judge Ulyssos Mercur, one of the abbest justed and best publicity conceally that candidate is Judge Ulyssos Mercut, one of the ablest jurist, and best publicists generally the Commonwealth has produced. Judge Thompson when elected was in the prime life, and he is now advanced in vests, and the chances are that even could he live to fill of another long term of fifteen years, which doubtful, the most of it would be when I would no longer be possessed of the ment and bodily vigor to do justice to so ardue a post. When Judge Thompson was clee of the entire banch was Democratic. The Whi the entire bench was Democratic. The Whe could not obtain a single seat on the ber notwithstanding that the Democrats, who the so resolutely excluded them from all posts, are now so clamorous to be allowed a representation themselves. And notwithstand-ing that the Republicans have ruled Pennsyl-rania since 1860 it has only within a few years been able to elect a majority of the Supreme Court. Now, if these judges did not carry their partizan views upon the bench the people gen-erally would not care whether they were Democrats elected the whole bench and gave t Whige no representation at all. The theory of our Government is that the people are the source of power. The powers of the Supreme Court, then, are derived from the people, and when that tribunal does wrong so scriously it may and should be overhauled for it. There is, then, no wrong in calling Judge Thompson to account for his decisions. The people being the highest Court of Appeals may review and reverse the errencous decisions of their tribunals, and in Judge Thompsons of their tribunals, and in Judge Thompsons The official returns from North Carolina show that the Republican State Ticket has been elected by masmall democratic majority on joint lone of their tribunals and in Judge Thompions of their tribunals, and in Judge Thompson's case neither he nor his friends have any right to complain of it! He was chosen Judge by popular vote, and by the same authority he should be displaced. It is bad enough to have errors committed by a responsible Legislature, but to have legislation of an outrageous ceharacter performed or assumed by a body that has no legislative powers or authority whatever, is acter performed or assumed by a body that has no legislative powers or authority whatever, is a usurpation that dught to be corrected and rebuked. It is a little extraordinary that men who pretend to be particularly strict constitutionists with regard to the laws, organic and statute, should be able to find for themselves powers that the Constitution does not contain, and which have been continued purely on sufferance. In the case of the Supreme Court of the United States it has been submitted to simply because there was no power to appeal The evidence accumulates of the utter unworthiness of Charles R.
