manifully say 80, and ald in defecting his nomination, as was his plain duty to do!

We believe, as stated above that Young was in favor of Smith's nomination, until he allowed himself to become a tool of Piolizer & Co. We are prepared to prove that on Wednesday evening of last week, the "independent" candidate was closeted with several leading democrats, and there entered into an arrangement by which he was to become an independent candidate, with no hopes of an election, but for the sole purpose of gaining a few votes for Piolizer. The game is too thin, republicans will not be deceived by this bait, and on the 8th of October Mr. Young will find himself a defeated, dishonored in the find himself and the find himself a defeated, dishonored in the find himself and the find himself a defeated, dishonored in the find himself and hims
