THE VERDICT.

Gen. HARTRANFT has passed brough the firey ordeal, and comes out unscathed. Every calumny and slander which could be devised by the develish spirit of jealousy and hate was resorted to by those who had professed to be Republicans, but who had been unable to use this incorraptible officer to cover up their nefarious schemes and corruptions." The memory of Gen. HARTRANT will be remembered and revered when JOHNAW. FORNEY, ALEX McClube, and their satalites are forgotten by the party they have betrayed and deserted in a time of screet trial. The Republican party is well rid of these disorganizing carping fault-finders, and we trust will never again be cursed with them, until they show indisputable evidence of repentence.

The decrease of the national debt through the month of September was $10,327,343,09. The total reduction from the 1st of March, 1869, to the 1st instant amounts to the sum of $358,468,582,55. years. It has been the Republican party which saved the country. It has been the Republican party that reconstructed the South. . It has been the Republican party that has announced its intention of paying off the debt. But, after all, what of this? The Democrats have acknowledged that we are right, for they have given up their principles, have adopted ours, and have nominated the publisher of what once was the greatest Republican paper in the country for their candidate. It is a mistake to suppose that they were ever opposed to us. The fact is they nave been behind, us all the time, and out of breath trying to catch up with us. After re-enacting the Missouri compromise in 1850, the Democratic party met in convention at Baltimore in 1852, and pledged themselves to accept the legislation of 1850 as a finality, and never to reopen the question. In 1854 they tore the whole thing up in the Kansas and Nebraska Bill, and admitted slavery there because it was Federal Territory. Let me suggest that if platform in 1852, they may be just they were so false to their Baltimore as false to their Baltimore platform in 1872. Upon the question of slavery in the Territories in 1856 they beat us, and the question came np again in 1860. Then they said the South had a right to secede. In 1864 they found out that the South had no right to secede, and that we were right in flogging them back is we could. But then they said we had tried and failed. Next year, however, they found they were wrong again. From year to year these gentlemen have been converted by fragments, until to-day they stand thoroughly penitent, confessing that they were wrong throughout, and taking a Republican for their leader. The fact is, they have constantly been moving into Republican camps, but always four years behind, and in 1876 nothing will remain for them but to nominate General Grant for
