position and contiguity to the conti-nent, has been called, will be crossed TERMS OF PUBLICATION. Reparter. TELEVIS OF CONTRACT IS Published every THE BRADFORD REPORTER is published every Thursday Morning by S. W. ALVORD at Two Dollars per annum in advance. BY Advertising in all cases exclusive of subscrip-tion to the paper. SPECIAL NOTICES inserted at FIFTEEN CENTS per line for first insertion, and Five CENTS per line for subsequent insertions. LOCAL NOTICES, same style as reading matter, Radford and re-crossed by railways; and, as the Japanese are a deft and skillful MAP people, manufactures and commerce will grow rapidly along the lines. Telegraph lines there are already between Yokohama, Sinagawa and ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted according to the following table of rates : Yeddo, and the Japanese have been very busy of late constructing arse-1w [ 4w | 2m | 3m | 6m | 1yr. nals and building a navy and mer-chant marine. This vast change 1$1.60 | 3.00 | 5.00 | 6.00 | 10.00 | $ 15 linches | 2.00 | 5.00 | 8.00 | 10.00 | 15.00 | 20.00 from the state of things described Sinches | 2.50 | 7.00 | 10.00 | 13.00 | 20.00 | 30.00 even by recent travelers, is perhaps S. W. ALVORD, Publisher. #2 per Annum in Advance. 4 inches | 3.00 | 8.50 | 14.00 | 18.25 | 25.00 | $5.00 REGARDLERS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER. partly due to the concentration of s column | 5.00 | 12.00 | 18.00 | 22.00 | 30.00 | 45.00 power, ecclesiastical and political, in column | 16,00 | 20.00 | 30.00 | 40.00 | 55.00 | 75.00 the hands of a single ruler, instead of eotumn | 20.00 | 40.00 | 60.00 | 80.00 | $100 | $150 TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., OCTOBER 24, 1872. NUMBER 21 VOLUME XXXIII. its division into the priestly sover-1 entrann 20.00 40.00 60.00 e0.00 eignty of the tycoon, and the feudallike local sovereignty of the various with fire and brimstone," and raising or drive up and down Fifth Avenua more into these matters than I have ANEODOTES OF PETER CART-Miscellaneous. PROFESSIONAL CARDS. daimios, or grandees. These are Griginal Poetry with the finest span of horses I ever been doing. Mr. Wilder will help my voice I added, "I smell sulphur WRIGHT. now all centred in the hands of the JAMES WOOD, ATTORNEY AND J. O. FROST & SONS, COUNSELLOR AT LAW, TOWARDA, PA. now. wished to see. All this sort of thing you." Of the venerable Methodist preachmikado, who compelled the tycoon consumed money, and no small I expressed my willingness. Baker amount either. Whenever I went to ran over the leaves of his ledger till I called to the people to see for restors and Deaths, ercoeding five lines, are chalged rist centrs per line. The Reporter having a larger circulation than all The Reporter having a larger circulation than all the papers in the county combined, makes it the best theorising medium in Northern Pennsylvania. Jobs PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fancy Jobs PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fancy Jobs PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fancy Jobs PRINTING of every kind, in Plain and Fancy Jobs, done with neaturess and dispatch. Handbills, Colors, done with context and style proves the second very trainely and style, printed at the shortest of every variety and style, printed at the shortest of every theorem of the printing line can be executed in he most artistic manner and at the lowest rates. FERMS INVARIABLY CASH. WHEN THIS OLD HAT WAS NEW. er, Peter Cartwright, who lately died, to abdicate, and pensioned off the themselves. They saw, and cursed Sargent, for a vile imposter. We HENRY PEET, ATTORNEY AT Law, Towanda, Pa. June 27, '66. OF "When this old hat was new," many anecdotes are told and those daimios in compensation for the loss the theatre, Baker was there in a pri- he came; to Stephens & Co.'s page, Brooks broke Charles Summer's head, of their political power. of a most eccentric character. were troubled no more with his brim-SMITH & MONTANYE, ATTO '-NETS AT LAW. Office-corter of Main and Pine Streets, opposite Porter's Drug Store. vate box, with ladies, and he fre and then said : FURNITURE And soon the awful criminal Cartwright's plain narrative of his stone angels. "Examine the accounts for your-Was numbered with the dead. quently came out of some large store father's journey from Amherst, Va., Our ware-rooms at all times contain an A THRILLING SOENE. self." But what strange changes time doth bring, on Canal street with large parcels. to Lincoln county, Ky., is thrilling in the simplicity of its horrible de-DR. H. WESTON, DENTIST.-Chemical Store. Date: Block, over Gore's Drug and ian 1, '68. It was all right. The account BOBUST ENJOYMENTS. UNRIVALED ASSORTMENT OF CHAMBER SETS Alas! how sad it looks-One day-it was the first of the A few years ago I was in company Charles Sumner, now in foreign lands, were checked up to a nicety, and Ba-Of all styles and prices, combining with the Rich and Elepant, the Medium Prices, suitable for all, and so cheep that any can afford to have them. Also the finest and most month-I went into his office to retails. One dark night, the compa-The sun sets at 6 o'clock. with a gentleman who had just re-The Is dead as bully Brooks! ceive my salary, and, while there ker said : ny, consisting of two hundred famifurned from New England. He said evenings are growing long, and AVID W. SMITH, ATTONNEY-AT-LAW, Towands, Pa. Office on 2d floor under George H. Woed's Photograph Gallery. my30,72 some one called him; he stepped out "Are you through? Mr. Dobson, to see who it was. I glanced at an I do not need any assistance from "When this old hat was new," lies and one hundred young men, he put up at the hotel, and for a BUSINESS CARDS. around a myriad glowing lamps chilhalted at a place called "Camp De-FASHIONABLE BLACK WALNTT PARLOR AND George Landon was the man halted at a place called "Camp De-feat," where a number of emigrant ly to con the lessons of the morrow. time he took his seat in the bar-room. entry he had just made : "Thomas | this young man." WALLACE REELER That boldly fought for negroes' rights LIBRARY FURNITURE. DR. T. B. JOHNSON, PHYSICIAN AND SUBGEON, Office over Dr. H. C. Porter Son The door opened suddenly, and a W. "How do you account for this Baker, one month's salary, $125." Against the rebel clan; families had been murdered by the Many, a difficult, construction will STRGEON, Office over Dr. H. C. Porter Son & Co.'s Drug Store. woman stepped in. She was the Of new and original designs and of the most su perb style and finish. Also a choice assortment of "He can't live on that, with the stub in your check-book, Mr. Baker?" HOUSE, SIGN AND FRESCO PAINTEE. But disappointment sored his head, savages. It was a solemn, gloomy puzzle the brain of the diligent Latin very picture of agony; her dress way in which he spends his money," said Mr. Dobson; "and this-and And Fenton made him worse; DR. C. K. LADD, PHYSICIAN time ; every heart quaked with fear. Lowands. Sept. 15, 1870-yr TABLES, WARDROBES, DRESS scholar. Cicero will seem to talk negligent, her eye unsteady. She I said to myself. "He must have a this-Stephens & Co., over and over J and Surgeon, Towanda, Pa. Office one door north of Day, Huddell & Sanderson's coal office. jauls'72 He sold his principles for gain-The young men were placed as sentinonsense, and Virgil absurdity. Ma-ING CASES, SIDE BOARDS, LIBRARY seemed to besitate at first, but at W. DIALAUOCK, Dealer in all Views for Roofing Slates, Towands, Pa. All views for Roofing promptly attended to Particular iteration given to Cottage and French Roofing. W. DIMMOCK, Dealer in all Is like a putrid corpse. again, bills for flour which we never private income." nels all round the camp, and the ny a tough algebraic equation will AND BOOK-CASES. length gathering courage, she moved I never gave this subject any fur- got-which they themselves declare F. G. MORROW, PHYSICIAN AND STRAEDON, Offers his professional services to the citizens of Warren and vicinity. Resident store, Warren first house north of J. F. Cooper's Store, Warren Cratte, Pa. spli8'72.1y BEDSTEADS, BUREAUS, CHAIRS heads of families were placed around defy solution, and yield only after up to the bar and said : "When this old hat was new," ther thought after that day, but went [ to be forgeries? Since you cannot ontside of the women and children, long and repeated and persistent at-The Iribane was our guide, " Landlord, don't sell my husband to learn book-keeping. I applied explain these figures, I pronounce and some were ordered to take their tacks. The thread of the argument any more rum. You have already R. FOWLER, REAL ESTATE DEALER, NO. 278 South Water Street, Chi-con, Illinois, Real Estate purchased and sold. In-timents mailcand Money Loaued. May 10, '70. Republican in principle, myself to it diligentiy, and at the you a scoundrel and a swindler." stand outside still, in the edge of the | will part as the weary brain loses | ruined us. You know that before It was the nation's pride. Baker turned pale as death, and But Greeley turned a Democrat, end of six months I could manage s brush. Among the outside sentinels the clue, and the lesson in logic or he came to your bar he was a sober DR. S.M. WOODBURN, Physician And bailed the traitorous imp ; set of books as readily as a compeleaned heavily on his desk, and then was Cartwright's father. Shortly af- analogy promise a failure. But, no ; man. He was as kind a husband as TABLES, MIRRORS, That noble paper, once our pride, looked at Mr. Dobson with a terrible tent book-keeper. I plodded faithand Surgeon, Office northwest corner Maine and Pine Streets, up stairs. Towauda, May 1, 1872.-19* ter he took his stand he heard some with the morning light, with refresh any woman ever had. We had a FEATHER PILLOWS, fully along in my position, hoping eye. He sprang to the safe and Will soon become extinct. GAYLORD BROS:, General Fire thing approaching him, grunting like ed faculties, with renewed courage, good home, a good farm and every MATRESSES, & SPRING BEDS, A HAD DIRON, Policies covering and damage caused by lightning, in Wroming, it other reliable companies, without, additional procession, May 23, 71, S. C. GAYLORD, grasped a knife which lay there, and When this old hat was new," swine. Cartwright fired and killed tangle will disappear from construct comfort. But you sold him liquor that some day or other I should be L. P. WILLISTON ATTORNEY AT LAW, TOWANDA. looked at me, hissing between his Of every description, and in fact everything to b found in a First Class Furniture Store, come a book-keeper. an Indian, who was found with a Ohl where was Buckalew? tions, solutions will grow clear, and until he had no money to pay. Un-One day Mr. Everett, of the firm teeth : South side of Mercur's New Block, up stairs. April 21, '70-tf. A sympathiser with the Southrifle in one hand and a tomahawk in the logical chain shine in unbroken known to me you got a mortgage on of Everett & Co., stood near my desk, "You cursed imp, you told it! take CHEAPER THAN THE CHEAPEST Despised the boys in blue. the other, the ball having pierced links in the delighted mind of the his farm ; you sold it and turned me TOFN DUNFEE, BLACKSMITH, talking to Mr. Dobson. I overheard | that!" H. STREETER, But thirty thousand gallant men We pay Case for Lumber, or will take Lumber in in exchange for Furniture. Also a large stock of the centre of his forehead. student. And then what joy is his and my helpless children out of The NHOLTON, PA., pays particular attention to ribin. Buymes, Wagons, Neighs, &c. Tire set and spatian done on short notice. Work and charges Peter was converted in 1801. The if, by his own unaided exertion, he doors! My husband lost his health, change was very sudden. He had has worked his way "from darkness his character and his reputation: He All loyal to the core. He made a plunge at me with the unintentionally, a portion of the cou-ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Have buried Buckalew so deep knife, but I stepped aside with such quickness that it did no damage. Mr. versation. • COFFINS . . That he will rise ho more! canteed satisfactory. 12,15,69. "Mr. Dobson, what do you pay may39, 72. TOWANDA, PA. been to a wedding about five miles up to light." Thus, though in great- became cross and abusive to me, A MOS PENNYPACKER, HAS arch established himself in the TULORING CUNYSS. Shop over Rockwell's Store. Work of very description done in the latest styles. Towards, April 21, 1970.-tf Of every description from the most common to the finest Rosewood, always on hand. We are solu agents for Dobson leaped upon him : he then H. B. MCK-EAN, ATTORNEY . AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, TOWARDA, PA. Par-ticular ationtion paid to business in the Orphans' Court. july 20, '66. your book-keeper?" from home, and danced until a late er measure, felt Columbus, when the whom he once tenderly loved. He You Democrats and you Sortheads! turned the knife upon himself, and "Fifteen hundred a year." hour. Soon after his return home, joyful cry of "Land! land!" was beats me and my children cruelly, You fought and did your best; plunged it into his heart. It was a while he was pacing the floor, re-"Has he power of attorney?" A cept the situation now, heard from the Pinta; thus felt New- and threatens to murder us! Oh, sickening sight. I hid my face from flecting on the manner in which he ton when, after years of the most don't let him have any more liquor! FISK'S METALIC BURIAL CASES, "Yes; he signs our checks, and And let our country rest. K ELLY & STANLEY, DENTISTS. Office over Wickham & Black's Store, Towan-da, Pa. Gas for extracting tech. W. B. Kfllr. [mar.2072] C. M. STANLET. Which are now conceeded by all parties to be far the best Metalic Case in use. We have the T ERAYSVILLE WOOLEN MILL Such prace and such prosperity, has complete charge of our finances. had spent the day and evening, all of wearisome calculation, he finally And the tears gushed from her eyes, "That winds up the affair," said You never had before, Why do you ask?" a sudden blood rushed to his head, The undersigned would respectfully annih PINEST HEARSE And General Grant--God's chosen one-"Because I thought his salary was Mr. Dobson, as he looked upon the public that he knows constantly on hand Woolen the, Cassimeres, Flannels, Yarns, and all kinds at his heart palpitated, and in a few In this section of country, and will furnish any-thing in the UNDERTAINING line AS LOW as the same quality of goods can be got at ANY PLACE. either in Towands or elsewhere, and from our large EXPERIENCE and thorough sequaiptance with the business, we can save persons many annogances to which they are always subject when dealing with incompetent parties. W. H. CARNOCHAN, ATTOR-STT AT LAW (District Attorney for Brad-ford County), Trey, Pa. Collections made and prompt-by windted. feb 15, 69-4f. ery large, judging from the way he prostrate form. Will lead us four year - more. minutes he turned blind. He imag- b cale and retail. HAIGH & BROADDEY, Aug.10, 70. Proprietor is spending money. I think he spends The whole establishment had now Joux Burn ined himself about to die, and cried tunes and many years' labor, there with the vacant stare of an inebriate, Proprietor thronged fo the scene, and, business being disarranged for the day, the store was closed. Ined himself about to die, and cried for mercy, and promised to serve the Lord, if spared. After recovering from the attack, he sold his race in the track of the day is the sold his race in the sold her sold wrought in the sold wrought in the sold her so East Smithfield, Oct. 14, 1872. a great deal more than you give him. CLINTON HOUSE, DR. L. U. BEACH, PHYSICIAN AND Take my advice, Mr. Dobson, and HIHACA, N.S. examine your books." D. SUBGEON, Permanently 'heated at TownsDa. Pa. Particular attention paid to all Chronic Diseas-is. Cancers and Tumors removed without pain and althout use of the kinfe. Office at his residence on State street, two doors east of Dr. Pratt's. Attend-ance in office Mondays and Saturdays. May 16, 72. Miscellaneons. S. D. THOMPSON, Propr. Before I left the store the two The rest I did not hear, as I was horse, burned his pack of cards, and the glow, the fervor, the intensity of bar, and -with one hand against his STORE 167 MAIN STREET. called to another part of the store. partners took me aside and told me; the bas a the Department of the Report if I was capable, I could take Baker's About a week after the conversa-M reft 6 4872 Su

O SRUSSELL'S

GENERAL AT LAW, Towanda, Pa. Particular attention giv-en. to Orphans' Court Business, Conveyancing and oliections. ar Office in Wood's new block, south INSURANČE AGENCY f the First National Bank, up stairs. TOWANDA._PA. Feb. 1, 1871. niay23'70-ti

OVERTON & ELSBREE, ATTOR-SET'S AT LAW, TOWARDA, Pa., having entered into copartnership, offer their professional services to the public. Special attention given to business in the orphan's and Register's Courts. apl 14'70 E. OVERTON JR. S. C. ELSBRE. THE UNDERSIGNED ARCHI-L. TECT AND EPILLIER, wishes to inform the treens of Towanda and valuaty, that he will give at cular attention to drawn, replaced designs and , stores for all manner of buillings Superintendènce given apensation, Office at residence N, F. conner of a land Ehrabeth streets.

 J. D. FL, MMING 19771 hey 511, i weaka, Pa. NEW FARLOR OF FUSHION.

MERCUR & DAVIES, ATTOR-baying associated themselves together in the prefet of Law, off r their professional service site the public, EUNSES WIPOUR W. T. DAVIES PLYSSES MERCUE . W. T. DAVIES. March 9, 1870.

.

TOHN N. CALIFF, ATTORNEY

THE BOOK-KEEPER'S FRAUD. 23- Ho not forget the place. A CLERE'S STORY. J. O. FROST & SONS. Towanda, April 2, 1872 I. William Wilder, was in cestaies. I danced and jumped as if I accounts and papers?" \* was a lunatic; and well I might, for DHOTOGRAPHY! \* I had been out of employment for stand book-keeping," I replied, think- everything in order, so that we may The understaned would inform the public that they have purchased the GALLERY OF ART,  $* \begin{bmatrix} a & \text{position as confector for Douson} \\ & & & & \\ & & & & & \\ & & & & &$ of \* mission merchants, which would pay

HARDING & GUSTIN,

.

* over a year, and now I had received ing I was about to be elevated, and leasily examide your books for refer-* a position as collector for Dobson wishing sto let him know what I ence when necessary." I thanked them, and said I would "Well, I am very glad; come * me a salary of fifty dollars a month. down here after dinner, this evening books in order.

tion recorded above, Mr. Dobson place.

" Perfectly, sir ; and I also under-

"Wilder, are you able to run over | conducting the business, we will

came to my desk and said :

" If we see that you are capable of give you a yearly salary of two thousund dollars. We wish you to keep demonstated the theory of universal while the landlord stood speechless. gravitation; thus felt Cyrus Field In the midst of these entreaties a when, after sinking two or three for- | man stepped into the bar-room, and took to reading the Testament. One delight over conquests such as these breast and the other stretched out day, while in anguish over his sinful how feeble the pleasures of voluptud imploringly to the dandlord, she past, it appeared to him that he ous-gratification, of pecuniary acqui- said ray, heard a voice from heaven, saying, sition, of political success! How ut-"Peter, look at me!" His sins, how-terly weak, contemptible, and un-You'll break my heart!" and burstever were not forgiven until some worthy seem the languid enjoyments ing with agony, she turned to the time after, when he received a heav- of idleness, self-indulgence and vice. landlord and said : enly intimation to that effect. Pe- Nothing heightens the pleasure of .... Oh, don't let him have it! don't ter commenced to attend camp meet- conquest so much as recounting the don't.

difficulties that were overcome before And while this scene was passing, At one of my appointments in 1804, the day was won. After wrestling the landlord walked - deliberately use my best endeavors to keep the he says, there were two very finely and wringing with disaster and de- from behind the counter, and taking dressed, fashionable ladies, attended feat, after groping in darkness thro' the woman rudely by the arm, said * me a salary of fitty dollars a month. Standard Eak, and mean by the ablaton of every in-the haoth of the first doer south of the first * Standard Eak, and mean by the ablaton of every in-the haoth and have a few dollars for the the month and have a few dollars for to bus mean of the store that evening the ablaton of every in-the haoth and have a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes and more intermoney. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes and more intermoney. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the makes a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the make a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the make a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the make a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the make a few dollars for pocket money. * a deter the make a few dollars for * a deter the make a few dollars for * a deter the make a few dollars for * a deter the make a few dollars for * a deter the make a few dollars for * a and attengon to the making of	DOCKEL BIOLIEV.	time to che diunci. I found all.	numical to take we into number	near where I stoud. I was unwell,	This joy it is in the power of every	agamst her.

SHAMPODING, and HA	IR 155154	W A. & B. M. PECK'S LAW	*	My desk stood in the front part of	Dobson there before me.	bromiaed to take me into hatthet-	and had a phial of peppermint in my	student to win for himself and wear	The wretched inchriste staggered
1. the Latest Style Also Catter Laboration Chapter Style Also Catter - La Festivation Chapter Style Chapter Sty	a grad a lar 1976 s. Jacob Hill a state	T TF • DECIL	* IVORYTYPES, *	he store, and when my pen was not	"I want to make an examination	Buth next Jean	pocket. Before I commenced preach-	Is the lesson hard? buckle down to	unfand drank his dram placing a.
the start and Frizzing.		then latter be a state that and House, Towanda, Pa.	* PAINTINGS IN OIL AND WATER COLORS, *	calloping along the lines of my paper,	of Mr. Baker's books ; I am not ac-	This, reader as my simple booljy	ing. I took ont my phial and swal-	it with tireless application; is the	niece of money mon the counter :
<ul> <li>(1)12/10/12 Z T120.H</li> </ul>	• •	0 E a ta 1	* As well as PENCELING in INDIA INK. *	or flashing up formidable columns of	quainted with book-keeping. I watch-		lowed a little of the perpermint. The	task onerous? there will be merit in	the lendling with a lit of completed t
N PHERA, Main Street, Town	and Pa			formes which told the story of profits	ed you, and found you to be very en-		congregation way multed into tage	task onerous : there will be merit in	the anguora wiped it on complatent.
C. M. 57 (1972).		A A. KEENEY, COUNTY SU-	* Particular attention given to the enlarging	the Labor to Charles had a corr fine	eractic and saw Mr Baker often		congregation with mented into sears,	conquering it; does the mind sink	ly into the drawer, and the drunk-
TET W RINGSBUL	17	• K • DERINFENDENE, Terrar has the Word House	* of petures, and to the finishing of all kinds *	the state portion of the struct	calling on you for assistance. A	Bakur committed spicide	and both the young ladies took the		ard passed out, maddened by the
	ι ι 1 ς 11	Value of the effective list Sparday of endpring in the	# of work, so as to occure the liest results, and * as much time as possible given to making	riew of that portion of the street	camag ou you for assistance. A	Daker commerced buildings.	jerks.	return again to the charge.	draught, to renew the brutal attacks
รี่งเราะหน่ายนการณณ์	inter internet in	to but all other times where not called an even high-	<ul> <li>Legatives of small children.</li> <li>There wanting pictures will please give us</li> </ul>	fronting the store. One rainy day 1	friend of mine has convinced me that	······································	A man warned me, as I dismissed	"Impossible " said Napoleon "is	upon his idefenseless wife and chil-
		(a) or the feat with the SuperAsplet (y) All lefters (b) (b) (b) (b) (b) a blocked (b) above (c) dro.179	a tool and we took that they will be satis. *	and nothing to do-collectors never	I should keep track of my own busi-	THE SENSATION OF HANGING.	the assembly, that the brothers had	a word found only in the dictionary	dren.
, IMUURANCE A	GENCY	······································		to on rainy days - I had scribbled	ness Baker is in the office now.	Inconsation of Handing.	sworn they would horsewhin me for	of fools." "Desperate courage makes	(
(T)	1	DR J. W. LYMAN,	GEO. H. WOOD & CO. *	my name on scraps of paper lying	He cume inchere just as I was turn-	The number of persons who hav-	might their cicture the targe of want	1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
a market of Maria and a	state street		· · · · · * * * (* * * * * * * * * *	a sole man and har low deal green.	ling the corner. I do not know what	ing been hanged, have subsequently	but to the nonnet mon and ernetu	one a majority." Not to the shrink-	COURTING IN SIBERIA When Joneo
	TOWNNES	1 First TAX ND SUBARON		and a William William William	Line on him had I can him onton	ing been nangeu, nave subsequenciy	out to the young men and exposu-	ing, the undecided, the half-hearted,	the young bern among the Korakas
		lence corner frm and 2nd street a		equine vinan vincer, vinan	The second secon	found themselves in a position to	lated. Une said he had seen me	are victories given; they know no-
CASIF/POORS, AND	BLINDS	Terrarda, June 22, 1871	I Z ROSENFIELD'S	Wheer, Esq., and " Mr. Wheer, in	Will a frain Now I wish to see	give an account of their sensations	take out a phial, in which I carried	thing of the calm, pure, high atmos-	becomes infatuated, he makes known
		TOHN W. MIX, ATTORNEY AT	1 E 1	everv sivle of Dennialishin. I had	$\{w_{13}, u_{0,15}, a_{0,10}, u_{0,10}, u_{0,$	iduring the process is exceedingly (	some truck that gave his sisters the		his passion to the father of his affini-
<ul> <li>constant of the ministry of the second s</li></ul>	ndre i Doors, Sash tha krass an shart i	Lavz, Tewanda, Fradford Cole Pa		last bunded nev ben mee me me to	function solidy and we will go back and	Small, and their experiences should.	ierks As quick as thought it came	in marchine much from mouth and the	ty, and expresses his desire to strive
Feller te te	in days before you	GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT	· .	write "William," with a scientific					for her hand. A kind of contract is
(a) Set is an Discussion of the set of th	sare that you will a	Turb Limiter ton padto C. Det (nead Or far (	CLOTHING EMPORIUM!	fourish, when I heard the voice of	We entered noiselessly. All was	correspondent of the Gaulois, moved	whinding and pulling the phial out.	strength. He that	immigliately entered into, by which
(1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1) (1)	energi Terme casu K	bent forsmess, Office-Merent's New Die L. Loth	onormine maronic	toy enables er calling the from his pri-	dark and gloomy, save a single gas	by private affliction, once tried to	Loried . "Voe if I gave your sig-	"On with toil of heart and knees and hands;	the young man binds himself to the
1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 - 1 -	GEO. P. CASH.			vate office. I was surprised at this	heht in the book-keeper's office We	hang himself, but, after remaining	tong the instea I'll give them to your '	Thro' the long gorge to the far light, has won'"	father as a servant, for a term of
T COTON HE BI	ROTHER,	DOCTOR O. LEWIS, A GRADU-	OPTOSITIL THE MEANS HOUSE,	as ha had borrar done this hafara.	approached the office the door was	suspended for some time, he was for-		His path upward, and prevailed,	-years, at the expiration of which
		■ ab of the College of Physicans and Surgeons."		as he had hever done this broke,	multing and me board the follow	suspended for some time, he was for-	I moved toward him. He backed. I	Shall tind the toppling crags of duty scaled
· Look optim	5	t 3 practice of his profession. Office and residence	• •	could it be that I was about to be	party open and we neard mo tonow.	tunately cut down before life became	advanced, and he wheeled and ran,	Are close upon the shining table-lands,	time in can have the pleasure of
A FA INDES, PEI	LTS CALE.	p D - astern -i po přičrvel Hili adjanny Henry		discharged? What he had to say	ing conversation :	extinct, and has committed to paper	warning me not to come near him,	To which our God Himself is moon and sun."	learning whether the daughser will
a' - 7452 FTRS, 8	C	1 17 S Jun 14, 196		was said quickly. I was elevated to	"I must have money, Baker; you	a full relation of his adventure Hav-	or he would kill me. It raised the	The very conditions of our lives	have him or not. In this manner, if
		T.R. D. D. SMITH, Deutset, has		a higher position and salary. 'I	promised it to me the first. If it is	ing resolved to put an end to a life	laugh on him, and I escaped the	have any ment and stangals; conflict	the father be the happy possessor of is push at all times.	1) put has a G. He Woyd's property, between	"The royal prowth of T wanda requires the expan-	could not find words to express my	not paid I will see the firm."	which was po longer endurable, he	whinning +'		a beautiful daughter, he may have
	. 40 1981	We can's block and the lined House, where he has ended his office. Froth extracted without pain by	sion of basiness, and the understand, realizing this	gratitude, but I muttered something	"Can't you wait till the first o	f drove a nail into the wall of his	While on the Hockhocking Cir-	and labor. The sinews of our souls	helf a doton men to do his hidding TOWANDA, PA.	Towarda, Oct. 20, 1870.—yr.	stant of the comparison of the the	and went back to my desk. It sat	next month?"	chamber attached a looped cord	anit Continnight man disturbed one	must be strengthened by excretse, by	1 sh and time. When the terms of any
				there for some time building air-	"No, I will not."	thorato stood mon a show and	Sundar moming at come master	toil, by trial, if we are to be victors	vitude expires, one of the women, arm-
$\mathbf{x} = \mathbf{W} + \mathbf{R} \mathbf{M}^{*}$	1	Hotels.			"Well I will give you the monor	thereto, stood upon a chair, and	bundary morning, at camp-meeting,	in the great battle of life. To ac-	al with thial stials and many of
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	• • • • • • • • • • •		READY MAYE CLOTHING LINE	castles, and my mind was soon con-	have it a check for four har 1 1 1			complish this we cultivate whatever
	$(PI:ICESI)_{-1}$	DINING ROOMS		insed.	nere is a check for joar hundred dol	critical moment he confesses that he	When he was about half through his	is immortal within its, by the multi-	lesser mongs, is men sumonen in the
	P. 1	AZ IN CONTRIBUTION WITH THE BARFINS.	1.1.1.	"Lannigan & Co.! three cases	mrs. nero-receipt your bill, and	had some notion of taking his head	discourse, two young men entered,	plied resources of science, art and ro-	pologs suspended around the room.
	,	Near the sheart Rote and	His open at a new store in Beidleman's Block, instantly as upford by H. Jacobs, and is now, pre-	hams!" was suddenly bawled re-	make yourself scarce."	out, and getting off the chair. But	finley dressed, with loaded whips, and	ligion. The boy who unaided finds IOI 25 CE & HOI	LLON I	We are property to the little butshy at all these of	parel to effer to his old customers and the public	morselessly into my cars, and my	The man went out, followed by	y "l'amour propre vis-a-vis luimeme"	began to laugh and talk to the work	ingion. The boy who unarried infus	clad in skin garments; followed by
i - district - and	ii Dru + j	the day of investing. Opening and the Columnia	penerally, a better stenk of	brain worked itself back to business.	Baker who unlocked and locked the	e sustained him, and he very slowly	men. Cartwright ordered them to	the value of x in a difficult problem,	her lover, when a race ensues around
	Let to name to	Marker (1879) IV W. SCOTT & CO.		Attintervals, however, and through	doors. He returned again to the of	- kicked away the chair. The immedi-	desist and called for a Magistrate	or digs out his Greek and Latin	the enclosure, the contestants dodg-
ه کې تا دي. د در د در د د د د د د د د د د د د د د	Wites and -			the day. I was conscious of a disturb-	fice, lit another burner and wrote fo	r ate consequent sensation was, he	The officers of the law wore afreid to	100ts without the aid of any menuis	ing about among the pologs. To win a state for a	e e la purples e c	PLWELL HOUSE, TOWANDA,	MENS' AND BOYS' CLOTHING	at a solition of role local attrassic ra	some minutes. He soon got through	, states, "very strange." From the	interfore and Continuight advanced	is stump-puner, is in a way to solve the	his bride he must overtake her, and
<ul> <li>A set of the set of</li></ul>	at interest the	JULY DOUS CONDENS		Two thinks of the next multier	thut a cover in a spindle and an	t soles of his feet to the crown of his	interiere, and Cartwright advanced	a social problems that ask solution of	leave the paint of his nail upon her
		Having based that Heave as they really transmission		The start of the sear Transford	that hundre in the cafe clomming i	t head "a sort of general mixing up of	on the rumans. What followed is	our mightiest thinkers, and tunnel	person, before she can be rescued by 19 Y C 19 11987 - 6	dato the true of negotidation. Negotives to protect with how you with the rate satisfication to the overlaph to the protect with	This es, be ferned in any other establishment out-	never would be clevated to that post	with a draft wing poing	the fluids of the body "ensued. Sud-		his way to a lasting and honorable	person, before she can be rescued by
	. •	the sulface of the su		never would be clevated to that post	- Whith a designing noise.	the huids of the body chsued. Sud-	One of them made a pass at my		the woman, who, during the race, in-
$\sim (1 - 10) \sim 10$ $\mu XM$	• 2	LET N III C. 1 of the part of spirit wat of Mer-	My stork has a clean purchased from the manu- factorers these as more that I have no old stock to	tiod, as I did not know the first thing	1 am through with him, anynow	; denly there flashed before his eves a	head with his whip, but I closed in	hands hang down let them he rais-	pedes the lover as much as possible gets 1-1.1 e.c.ht af heb prive. I have a full line	THE FILLE FILLE FILLE A FILLE T THEFE FILLE	the subscription of the second states
	1	RUMMERFIELD CREEK HO-		it? The thought gave me courage	, things on file.	which he finds it difficult to describe, but in which blue and a sombre red	seat. I threw him down, and held	be strong! A diligent and feithful	him, and by seizing his logs as he
5 5 1 1 N E S S M	1 VE E R, 1	ELTER LANIOT. SSLIG		and I determined to enter a busines	s = V e heard him say these words t	o but in which blue and a sombre red	him fast Hadwind his hast to get	be setong. It angele and interim	I rushes by . The advantage is all with
	1 :							luse of the long winter evenings in	Tranco and the second
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		Have struct and and abort only related the of l		college and harn the art. I told my	himself. In another minute the ga	s predominated. Presently the flash-	loose. I told him to be quiet, or I	use of the long winter evenings in	the girl, and if she does not wish to and we choose stude to there hept by the off other	GENTS FURNISHING GOODS	is how the bank concr whele both	- 1 Was furbed oil, and he went out.	ing light concentrated at a single to-		be strong! A diligent and faithful use of the long winter evenings in the acquisition of vigorous mental	the girl, and if she does not wish to and a start of the st		and we show a stend, to never hept by sile this for a for at the month of Rathmanneld Creek os to als for averages accommodat, as and sile fact systematicants	GEVIS TERVISITVO (100D9	plans to the book Keeper, who laugh	-) was burned on, and he went out.	ing light concentrated at a single 10-	would pound his chest well. The	habits and information intrinsically	the girl, and if she does not wish to
	: ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( )	and we choose study to show hept by sthere for a four the month of Hammerneld Creek. So really to get the second commodate searched in fact systematic that whe may favor from with a call.		plans to the book kceper, who laugh ed at me. He was eashier and book	- Was turned on, and he went out. - We waited a few moments, t	o cus, and thence spread away into	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On
	: ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( )	and we choose stude to serve hept by sthere there for a the month of Hammenneld Crock is real to record second shares and shares to student to all who may favor from with a call. Theor. 23, SaSe times		plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had be n with them from	- We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas	ung light concentrated at a single fo- cus, and thence spread away into a, space in ripples such as are made in a nond when a stone is cast into its	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she
	: ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( ) ( )	and we choose study to show hept by sthere for a four the ment of Hammerneld Creek. So $r_{\rm eff}$ for geven set as a minorality searches in fact systematic interact a value has may favor from with a call.	of the ghost opining and latest styles, which I am	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from on early day and had charge of all	We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas a land were soon ready for work.	ung light concentrated at a single fo- cus, and thence spread away into a, space in ripples such as are made in s, a pond when a stone is cast into it.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits.	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known and we shown should require high lowest rule one found the method for the model (res), is rule of the rule when any favor from with a Call. Test 22, SaSe u The ANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, Fra.	of the floc-topulity and latest styles, which I am of the floc-topulity and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures	plans to the book scoper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu f Dubson had duplicate keys of the	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits.	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursner, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who
		and we choose stude to serve hept by sthere there for a the month of Hammenneld Crock is real to record second shares and shares to student to all who may favor from with a call. Theor. 23, SaSe times	of the ghost opining and latest styles, which I am	plans to the book scoper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu f Dubson had duplicate keys of the	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits.	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding
- Massimum and Mars		and we shown should require high lowest rule one found the method for the model (res), is rule of the rule when any favor from with a Call. Test 22, SaSe u The ANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, Fra.	of the floc-topulity and latest styles, which I am of the floc-topulity and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the office business and finances of	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mi Dobson had duplicate keys of the loafs, so he soon had the books on	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- tion as it his templas were tightly	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits.	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover
		and we shown should require high lowest rule one found the method for the model (res), is rule of the rule when any favor from with a Call. Test 22, SaSe u The ANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, Fra.	of the floc-topulity and latest styles, which I am of the floc-topulity and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied the neuch. There was a certain re-	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return a then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me I Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t, sion as if his temples were tightly belowed in a ring of iron. His heads	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away A friend, at my request, relieved me	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN.	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursner, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, sho manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after
- Massimum and Mars		and we show a stand to support high low show the state for at the mean of Harman and Creek, is a set of that the mean of Harman and Creek, is a set of that who may favor from with a call. Terre 20, solve the weather of the set (1997) and (1998) the state of the set (1997) and (1998) the show of the set (1997) and (1998) and (1997) and (1998) the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) and (1998) (1998) and (1998) an	of the fite-topiand, and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures, with the old stand, and when	plans to the book sceper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concetu. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the d safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill m with the check-book. He opened the	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t. sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursner, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father
The Astronomic States of the S	Hul-MENT	and we show a stead it experies hept by the set of Gra- for the ment of Hammanneld Gradues is reach- tent to a common data as an additional states of the to all who may favor from with a call. Terr, 20, 1988 to FEANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, From the State She marked as the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set to a provide state of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the terr of the set of the set of the set to a provide state of the set of the set to a provide state of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set of the set of the set of the set to a set of the set to a set of the set to a set of the set of t	of the fluct opinitic and latest styles, which I am offering at low fluctors REMEMBER ! Line - no connection with the old stand, and when you want anyther on the default line for years of	plans to the book sceper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the conceau. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill in with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nee- l: dies. Needles without number seem-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the other point him by the college	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival awang the Japanese in the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father
The second secon	Hals I MENT	<ul> <li>and we show a stead it sugar hop hyself of the set of a flat mean of the first set of the set of the</li></ul>	of the fluct opminic and latest styles, which I unoffering at low figures.       REMEMBER !       Lings - no connections with the old stand, and when you want anything in the definition for body, call on moon Beideman's Block.	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had office chilled me, and he was extremely "infied no" with his lofty position	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill in with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said What does this mean? Here	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it At the same time a fearful weight so pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- les. Needles without number seem- s ed to pass out of the ends of his fin-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period
The Astronomic States of the S	Hals I MENT	<ul> <li>and we show a stead it sugar hop hyself of the set of a flat mean of the first set of the set of the</li></ul>	of the file-topmlife and latest styles, which I un offering at low figures. REMEMBER ! They are connection with the old states or years its or lows, call on me in Bedlemat's Hock. M. E. ROSENTIBLE.	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely "puffed up" with his lofty position	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu above the soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t, sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and fect were full of pins and nec- lie dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away A friend, at my request, relieved mo of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an
The AMERICAN STATES	Hand	and we show a should require high by off or dense for it the month of Harman midd Groch is redshift that when any favor from with a call. Test 20, SaSe it MEANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, Four a rest structure of middle to the struc- ing of rest structure of middle to the struc- ment of structure of the intervention of the structure of the structure of the structure. A structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure to the structure of the structure of the structure. The structure of the structure to optime quality of of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure. The structure of the st	of the file-topmatic and latest styles, which I am of the file-topmatic and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures. REMEMBER ! I have no connect, is with the old stand, an I when you want anything in the definite for years it, or logs, call on me in Bodiemat's flock. M. E. ROSENTIFILD, Towards, March 28, 1-72.	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "paffed ap" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. My Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t, sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
The second secon	Hand	<ul> <li>and we show a stead it sugar hop hyself of the set of a flat mean of the first set of the set of the</li></ul>	of the file-topmatic and latest styles, which I amodering at low figures.         REMEMBER !         I have no connection with the old stand, and when I amodering at low figures.         M. E. ROSENTIFILD.         Towards. March 28, 1-72.         T. FICSIPE LATABUES & MODERS	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted	We waited on and he went out. We waited on few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu I bobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light the check he gave that man a chered Stephene & Co the same	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t, sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nee- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- and, sion. Then came the terrible snap-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be aquiet or I would pound him well.	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June the first Japa	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
MUS ONDERNS CASERN USTM CASERN USTM CONTRACTOR	Habalf MENT	<ul> <li>and we show a study to end to end when the three the form and of Ramarined Creeks is reaching the second second statement of the first systematical transfer and the first systematical statement of the</li></ul>	of the file-topmatic and latest styles, which I amodering at low figures.         REMEMBER !         I have no connection with the old stand, and when I amodering at low figures.         M. E. ROSENTIFILD.         Towards. March 28, 1-72.         T. FUSCION I. AWARD S. MODDELS	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted	We waited on and he went out. We waited on few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu I bobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light the check he gave that man a chered Stephene & Co the same	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t, sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nee- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- and, sion. Then came the terrible snap-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be aquiet or I would pound him well.	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June the first Japa	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
The second secon	Hand	and we show a should require high by off or dense for it the month of Harman midd Groch is redshift that when any favor from with a call. Test 20, SaSe it MEANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, Four a rest structure of middle to the struc- ing of rest structure of middle to the struc- ment of structure of the intervention of the structure of the structure of the structure. A structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure to the structure of the structure of the structure. The structure of the structure to optime quality of of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure of the structure. The structure of the st	of the file-topmatic and latest styles, which I amodering at low figures.         REMEMBER !         I have no connection with the old stand, and when I amodering at low figures.         M. E. ROSENTIFILD.         Towards. March 28, 1-72.         T. FUSCION I. AWARD S. MODDELS	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I offen assister him in making c-leulations or addim- in the colutions of figures which he	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What dates this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- l just the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co, the sam e amounttheir bill for fifty barrels of	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- is dt o pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- n, sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and point along his spine there passed a wrig-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be aquiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursner, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
MUS ONDERNS ASERN ESTAT STATES	High > If MIENT	<ul> <li>and we show a study to end to end when the three the form and of Ramarined Creeks is reaching the second second statement of the first systematical transfer and the first systematical statement of the</li></ul>	of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I amodering at low flagfox.         REMEMBER !         1 have no connection with the old stand, and which you want anything in the elethnic inc. for yourself, or hows, edition in the elethnic inc. for yourself, or hows, edition in the elethnic inc. for yourself, or hows, edition in the elethnic inc. for yourself, or hows, edition in the elethnic inc. for yourself, or how and at March 28, 1872.         M. E. ROSENTIFIED, Towards, March 28, 1872.         M. E. ROSENTIFIED, Towards, March 28, 1872.         M. ESSRS & AZARUS & MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydrogay, coss.,	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I offen assisted him in making c-leulations or addima- tion the columns of figures which he logage me, and for such service he	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- l just the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam e amounttheir bill for fifty barrels o e flour. This is impossible; I have	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- n, sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- the sing (fretillement) which he can	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
The second secon	High > If MIENT	<ul> <li>and we show a study to end to end the definition of the method of harmen and the first system is a state of the method of the first system is a state of the first system is a system is a state of the first system.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Olering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>This she connect, is with the old stand, an I when you want anything in the clefthing inter for yourself, or hogs, edition in in Boddeman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBLD,</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBLE,</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBL</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I offen assister him in making c-leulations or addim- up the colutions of figures which he yave me, and for such service he would reward me with a bunch of cl	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th what dees this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- l just the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amounttheir bill for fifty barrels o e flour. This is impossible; I have	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- ion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he cam	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be aquiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scena as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station must have	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
CANERY! CONFEC	The solution of the solution o	<ul> <li>and we show a should reach which we'r of one for it the method for human did Creek is a relation of the method Creek is shown.</li> <li>MEANS HOUSE. TOWANDA, The shown of the method Creek is the method of the method creek is a relation of the method Creek is the method creek</li></ul>	of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am offering at low flights.	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "pafied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I offen assiste- him in making c-bulations or adding up the colutions of figures which h yeave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldon	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- ly a stub for four hundred dollars- charged Stephens & Co. the sam charged Stephens & Co. the sam amounttheir bill for fifty barrels o thour. This is impossible; I have bought a barrel of flour from the this month, and I am certain that	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its r. At the same time a' fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- n, sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he cam " compare only to a small serpent at lorging a process along the vertebre"	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be ajuict or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
MUS ONDERNS ASERN ESTAT STATES	The solution of the solution o	<ul> <li>and we show a should require high by other if the product of harmonial dependence of the formula of the product of the second should be factory to the first second seco</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I amodering at low figures.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>This - no connection with the old state, and when you want anything in the docking lite for yourself, or hope, call on me in Boddenan's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIGID.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIGID.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIGID.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIGID.</li> <li>DETICIANS ANGLE ULISTS, Hydrode, Coss., Here with a view transitie information for domains from the docking of the statestific information of the statestific information.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or adding in the colutions of figures which his gave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ch- parettes. But even them he seldon said a word to me	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- here a stub for four hundred dollars- charged Stephens & Co. the sam e anount-their bill for fifty barrels of the four. This is impossible; I have booght a barrel of flour from the this month, and I am certain the Mr. Morrissey has not."	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its r. At the same time a' fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- n, sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he cam " compare only to a small serpent at lorging a process along the vertebre"	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be ajuict or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
CANERY! CONFEC	The solution of the solution o	<ul> <li>and we show a should require high by other if the operation of harmonial transmission and the should be related to the base of th</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I amodering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>This - no connection with the old stand, and when yop want anything on the definity latestory sparse it, or hogs, call on more the definity latestory sparse it. M. E. ROSENTIGED, M. E. ROSEN</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clorks. I often assisted him in making colculations or adding up the colutans of figures which he would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mu Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- harged Stephens & Co. the sam charged Stephens & Co. the sam auounttheir bill for fifty barrels o flour. This is impossible; I have bought a barrel of flour from the this month, and I am certain the Mr. Morrissey has not."	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nee- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can " compare only to a small serpent at forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute and shoulder-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
CANERY! CONFEC	The stimulation of the state of	<ul> <li>and we show a study to ensure high low of a set for a first the ment of a first merind of Grobus is reaching the set of the ment of a study of the set of th</li></ul>	of the floct opinitic and latest styles, which I am Offering at low figures.	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concetu. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille 1 me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addim- ing the colutions of figures which by yave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i his office have me with familia	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- ly use the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam charged Stephens & Co, the sam amounttheir bill for fifty barrels of this month, and I am certain the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he cam "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be aquiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth.	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scena as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors:	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
CREETING CALERY ISTA CALERY ISTA CALENT INCOME CALENT INTOME CALENT INCOME CALENT INTOME CALENT INTOME	TENDERY!! TENES! CTIONERY!! ES:	<ul> <li>and we show a should require high by other if the operation of harmonic definition of the transmister is the first second scale of the should be defined as a second scale of the weak of the transmister is a second scale.</li> <li>The second second scale of the scale of the</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Offering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>This - no connection with the old stand, and when you want anything on the definity late for yourself, or hope, call on more the definity late for yourself.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED.</li> <li>M. A. CHAMBERLIN.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille 1 me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addim- ing the colutions of figures which by yave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i his office Hacking and learned that h	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had, the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- ly us the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of this month, and I am certain the Mr. Morrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har e touched a bill of flour from Stephen	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its At the same time a' fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he cam "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute bades, and finally came a state of part effect unconsciousness, upon recov	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Xokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the feight area made no of your	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
MARKERY CONFECT	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to ensure here by the set of the set of the first of the method. It is an include the set of the first of the method of the set of the s</li></ul>	<ul> <li>GriAATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Offering at low flagfox.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>This she connection with the old stand, and which you want anything in the definition for yourself, or hops, call on me in Boddenau's fibes.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>M. ESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronau, coss., Hive with a view transitile intreasing doubled for their statestice.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisten him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutans of figures which he yave me, and for such service he would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i his office Fiscence somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that he head full hower of attorney for the	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- hy book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- hy inst the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of the does the supersible; I have bought a barrel of flour from the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my have touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- t. sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov h. ering from which he was not unnat-	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Xokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives who grinned from	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
CREETING CALERY ISTA CALERY ISTA CALENT INCOME CALENT INTOME CALENT INCOME CALENT INTOME CALENT INTOME	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a study to ensure heat by the set of the method of Harmon and Crock is study to the transfer and the set of the method set of the set</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Othering at loss digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This choicement in with the old stand, and when you want anything in the clothing late for yourself, or hope, call on me in Boddman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIGED.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>M. ESSRS &amp; AZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICLANS, ANEOCULISTS, Hydronob, coss., Here with a view to mast the increasing demonstory to it.</li> <li>CLEDRATED PERFECTED SPECTACLES also due to the state of the state of the set of the set</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisten him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutans of figures which he yave me, and for such service he would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Fiscence somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that he had full power of attorney for the heat full power of attorney for the	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- hy book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- hy inst the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of the does the sourt from the hy book and, having found it my ham touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said, "reg	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- tion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One da	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Xokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowd	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial.
CONFERNATION CONFE	TEN CONTRACT CONTRACT OF CONTRACT CO	<ul> <li>and we show a should reache high by effect of the second of harmonial frequences become of the first second effect of the second second effect of the second second effect of the second effe</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Griadis F CRAISHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Othering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>I have no connection with the old state, and which you want anything in the electric latest for yourself, or how, editor in Beadleman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1-72.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>OPTICLANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronau, coss., Here with a view transitifie increasing demonds for their constructions.</li> <li>GUEDRATED FERFECTED SPECTACLES algorithm.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Maker and Jewel r. dealer in Swiss and Armonium Watches.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisten him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutans of figures which he yave me, and for such service he would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Fiscence somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that he had full power of attorney for the heat full power of attorney for the	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the ga- and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- hy a stub for four hundred dollars- ing charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount-their bill for fifty barrels of the does the same of flour from the book and having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg-	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ing at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he da been at	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms of plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that th
MUSCORPTHNS ACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN C	The solution of the solution o	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to entry her to well of the method of harmonic deficiency of the transmethal to fact any of the first standard of the fir</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Othering at loss figures.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have near anything in the old stain, and when you want anything in the old man's files.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFILD.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFILD.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFILD.</li> <li>OPTICLANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydroney, coss.,</li> <li>Hive with a very topics title increasing domains for the results of the result of the state of the increasing domain of the results.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> <li>Watch Matches,</li> <li>TOWANDA, PA,</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille 1 me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making colculations or addim- up the colutions of figures which by gave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i his office I became somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the ga- and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- hy a stub for four hundred dollars- ing charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount-their bill for fifty barrels of the does the same of flour from the book and having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg-	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ing at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he da been at	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be ajuict or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashyille Gen. Jackson entered the church	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun-	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms of plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the
MUSCORPTHNS ACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CACEBN C	TEN CONTRACT CONTRACT OF CONTRACT CO	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to entry her to well of the method of harmonic deficiency of the transmethal to fact any of the first standard of the fir</li></ul>	<ul> <li>GriAATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Offering at low flags(s).</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This show of the club with the old state, and which you want anything in the club humb interform yourself, or hops, call on me in Boddenan's flock.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED, M. E. ROSENTIFIED, Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronau, Coss., Here with a view transitifie increasing denoid of the results of the results of the results of the results.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Matches, TOWANDA, PA., 1000000000000000000000000000000000000</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had office chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the colutions of figures which h by are me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even then the seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Theorem somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for the house, signed the firm's name t bank checks and other importan documents. The two partners Messre	We waited an few moments, the We waited a few moments, the make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had, the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- here are the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co, the same charged Stephens & Co, the same anount-their bill for fifty barrels of this month, and I am certain the Mr. Morrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my hare touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted."	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ing at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he da been at	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to eventures the marged Among the pas	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms of plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow
MANNERY CONFERNATION AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to use whether show the set of the model of the method. To use whether the set of the method of the method of the method. The set of the method is a start of the method of the method</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Griadis F CRAISHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Othering at low flagtes.</li> <li>REMEMBER !</li> <li>I have not connection with the old stain, and which you want anything in the electric interval of yourself, or hope, call on me in Boddenan's fibes.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD, Towanda, March 28, 1-72.</li> <li>M. ESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OFTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronas, coss., Here with a view transitile increasing demonded for their statestic increasing demonded for the statestic increasing demonded for t</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had office chille I may abd he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutions of figures which h yave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ci- garettes. But even then the seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i his office Hoceane somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other importan- documents. The two partners Messre Dalson and Morrisery, were mener	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gai and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- here a stub for four hundred dollars- the charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo- of them," said Mr. Dobson.	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ing at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come i	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque 'in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crower of their swarthy, square-faced count trymen, assembled in multitudes the witness the marvel. Among the pas a sengers were doimos and high offi	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms of plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we seem any speciment
CREEKS CREEKS	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to use whether show the set of the model of the method. To use whether the set of the method of the method of the method. The set of the method is a start of the method of the method</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri ATS FURNISHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-stephtic and latest styles, which I am offering at low flagtes.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have no connection with the old stand, and which you want anything in the elethnic base for yourself, or hops, call on me in Boddenan's fibes.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD, Towanda, March 28, 1-72.</li> <li>M. ESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OFTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronas, coss., Hive with a vight rease tile increasing denied block of their standard of the rease of the rease tile increasing denied block.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Maker and Jewel r. dealer to Swiss and American Watches.</li> <li>TOWANDA, PA.,</li> <li>Solv As in me this Leasing. They have taken care to grave all not dimensional base confidence.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had office chille I me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the coluians of figures which h yave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ci- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i his office Hoceane somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for th house, signed the tim's name t bank checks and other importan- documents. The two partners Messre Dolson and Morrisery, were mener	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gai and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- hue the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible ; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson.	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nee- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I partied the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and junped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crower of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- ciels: indeed his avcelleter the priper	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin
MUSERY: CONFEC GROCER WEERY: CONFEC GROCER Contractor of the Contractor of the Cont	ELY couple. CTIONERY !! CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! ES : ROCERIES AI THE LOWEST Large beside of mail anything in this line	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to use whether show the set of the model of the method. To use whether the set of the method of the method of the method. The set of the method is a start of the method of the method</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Othering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have no contraction with the old stand, and which you want anything in the electric latest for yourself, or how, which is in Boddeman's files?.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD, Towanda, March 28, 1-72.</li> <li>M. ESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OFTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronas, coss., Hydrowath a view transitile increasing domasilities for the results of the results of the results.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Maker and Jewel r. dealer to Swiss and American Watches.</li> <li>Solv Asent in this Leastry. They have taken care to give allow dut infructions, and have confidence in the ability of their agent to mark the requirements of all conformations. An apportunity will be stated with a set the market the requirements of all conformations. An apportunity will be stated with the statest and have confidence.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had office chille I me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the coluians of figures which h yave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ci- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i his office Hoceane somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for th house, signed the tim's name 't bank checks and other importan documents. The two partners Messre Dobson and Morrisery, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myste- ries of book-keeping. They ha	We waited an few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gai- and were soon ready for work. Me bobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible ; I have booght a barrel of flour from the this month, and I am certain the Mr. Morrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill d of that firm, and entries in the chec	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- ion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can " compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I partied the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and junped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crower of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- ciels: indeed his avcelleter the priper	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin
CREEKS CREEKS	ELY couple. CTIONERY !! CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! ES : ROCERIES AI THE LOWEST Large beside of mail anything in this line	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to encode high by effect of the second of Harmon and Crock as a standard strandship for the standard standard strandship for the straight of the weak standard strandship for the straight of the standard straight of the standard straight of the straighto straight of the straight of the str</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Offering at low flagtes.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This she connection with the old stand, and which is programmed in the definition for yoars of the basis.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydronau, coss., Here with a vight transitile infrasting double light of the standard of the</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely "puffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-clulations or addin- ing the colutions of figures which h yave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Hoceme somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for th house, signed the tim's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messre Dobson and Morrisery, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small iscale	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of the does he soon the study of the study is month, and I am certain the Mr. Morrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the chec- book to correspond	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its At the same time a' fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he cam " compare only to a small scrpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I partied the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and junped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blor in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly: "Who is Ger	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms of plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predominate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of the day become so in the evening of the evening of the day beco
MARANTIE SÁT	THE STATES AND STATES AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to use whether show the set of the model of the method. To use whether the set of the method of the method of the method. The set of the method is a start of the method of the method</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Othering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have no contraction with the old stand, and which you want anything in the electric latest for yourself, or how, which is in Boddeman's files?.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD, Towanda, March 28, 1-72.</li> <li>M. ESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OFTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronas, coss., Hydrowath a view transitile increasing domasilities for the results of the results of the results.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Maker and Jewel r. dealer to Swiss and American Watches.</li> <li>Solv Asent in this Leastry. They have taken care to give allow dut infructions, and have confidence in the ability of their agent to mark the requirements of all conformations. An apportunity will be stated with a set the market the requirements of all conformations. An apportunity will be stated with the statest and have confidence.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addim- ing the colutions of figures which h yeare me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ei- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occusional sojourns i his office Hacquine somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name 't bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messre Dabson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small iseaf-	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I havn this month, and I am certain the book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill d of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "The so hills are frauds." said M	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its At the same time a' fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small scrpent" forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blor in the car, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly: "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his son	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the during the the night. But if the during the the inght. But if the
MUSERY: CONFEC GROCER WEERY: CONFEC GROCER Contractor of the Contractor of the Cont	THE STATES AND STATES AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to use whether of the standard standard of the model of the standard of the stand</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am Offering at low flagtes.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This she connection with the old stand, and which is programmed in the definition for yoars of the basis.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydronau, coss., Here with a vight transitile infrasting double light of the standard of the</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille 1 me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addim- ing the colutions of figures which by gave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i has office I been somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messre Dabson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small iscal- with a small capital, keeping m	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had, the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- lipst the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible ; I havn this month, and I am certain the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "Dobson "To-morrow I shall s	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock need down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a litti loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Gen Jackson? If he don't get his son converted. God will damn him a	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun- trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun-	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossons, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many speciment which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons and the blossons and the blossons and the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons and the blossons and the blossons and the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons and the day become so in the evening of the day become so in the evening of the day become so in the evening of the day become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the
MILES OTHER MANYS A FRANCESTM A FRANCESTM A FRANCESTM A FRANCESTM A FRANCESTM A FRANCESTM A FRANCESTM FRANCE FRANCESTM FRA	TEN 1 TEN 1 (MENT 1.4) SI (MENT 1	and we show a stand to entry here by the set of the set of the method for a marked at the method. If fact a graduate the set of the first set of the first set of the	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Ollering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have no connect, in with the old stand, and when you want anything in the clething inter for yourself, or hope, edition in in Boddeman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBLE, Towards, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydrone, coss., Here with a view to mast the increasing domails for the state of the s</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who haugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concetu. I had never funcied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille 1 me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making colculations or addim- ing the colutions of figures which by gave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i has office I became somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messre Dabson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small iscaf- with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer treat imposed to such a wird of a site of	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- lipst the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam charged Stephens & Co, the sam charged Stephens & Co, the sam charged Stephens & Co, the sam booght a barrel of flour from the book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said Mi Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s w Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock need down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashyille Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a litti loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Gen Jackson? If he don't get his son converted. God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro.	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun- trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun- in person, but, being delayed by af- fairs of state, was unceremonions!	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many speciment which are scarcely fragrant during the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons and the odors emitted by the blossons and the day, become so in the evening of during the the north; the re-
MANTHE STUDIES MANTINE TRUPPLN'S ANERY CONFERNMENT CON	THE AND STATES TO A STATE STATES AND A STATE	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to use whether of the standard standard of the model of the standard of the stand</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Ollering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have no connect, in with the old stand, and when you want anything in the clething inter for yourself, or hope, edition in in Boddeman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBLE, Towards, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydrone, coss., Here with a view to mast the increasing domails for the state of the s</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille 1 me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making colculations or addim- up the colutions of figures which he yave me, and for such service he would reward me with a bunch of cl- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i has office I became somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h house, signed the tirm's name the bash checks and other important documents. The two partners Messre Dobson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scafe with a small capital, keeping m books. But ther business in a fee years increased to such a great er the that ther found it invossible	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co, the sam amounttheir bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible ; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Go, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo- of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the chec- book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said Ms Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co, and unearth th- do evilty. Why, it never struck n	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its pressed upon his head—a compres- tion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit.	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock need down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and 'knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the car, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashyille Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Gen Jackson ? If he don't get his son converted_God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a inondescrip	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun- trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions! left behind. The abrill whistle mad	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many speciment which are searcely fragrant during the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the divide. Plants with
MANTEE SCORE CONTRACTOR	TEN 1 TEN 1 MENT Laboration	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to entry held by effect of the second of home much from with a call.</li> <li>The second commendation of the well a call.</li> <li>The second commendation of the second commendation of the second commendation of the second commence of</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri.ATS FURALSHIAG GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Ollering at low fights.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is not anything in the obthing interform yourself, or hope, each on me in Boddenan's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydrogae, coss., Hive with a vight transitifie increasing denoised for the result of the state of the stat</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chilled me, and he was extremely "puffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i has office Fiscenne somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name th bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messr Debson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small scaff with a small capital, keeping m books. But ther business in a fer years increased to such a great en-	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, tr make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th hook, and giancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- ing the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of the does and, and I am certain the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my han touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s to devilty. Why, it never struck no we that the thing could be worked	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourcess.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at in them and we make a jest of their	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Gen Jackson? If he don't get his son converted. God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a mondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun- trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas- sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun- fairs of state, was unceremonions. Her behind. The shrill whistle mad her behind. The shrill whistle mad	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen , which are iscarcely fragrant during the day, become so in the erening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons and more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants with the observe and the glands. Plants with the mean the sence are stated in the sence are proved by the blossons are more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence
MUSE ORDEPHNIS ACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CONTRACTORY CONFERN CON	ENDERIES VI THE LOWEST AND THE LOWEST	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to entry held by effect of the second of Hammer and Crock is redshown of the flat member of the base of the standard by the standard of the second of the s</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri ATS TELEVISION GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Ollering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is not obtained to the obtained in a latest styles, which I in Ollering at low digits.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBLE</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydroday, coss., Hive with a view transitile increasing denoid 1 for their control of the styles.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydroday, coss., Hive with a view transitile increasing denoid 1 for their control of the styles.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Statest and American distributions of the statest and styles. Toy Watches.</li> <li>Sole Acent in this Level it, dealer in Swiss and American Watches.</li> <li>Sole Acent in this Level it. They have taken care to prive all needing of their spectrates the ordinatest within a distribution. Spectratest with a distribution of the statest strengthening and Preservation Qualities. Too much cannot be said as to the statest qualities. They are not the statest with the ordinate presenter of the sight, distribution, the presenter of the sight, distribution, the presenter of the statest on the statest strengthening and Preservation of the present of the states, they are solution and pleasant, causing a feeling of relef to the wearm, and preducing a clear and distinct vision as in the natural, healthy sight.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee chille I me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i has office Fiscence somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other importan documents. The two partners Messr Debson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myste- ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small scaf- with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer tears increased to such a great en- tent that they found it impossible t dispense with a book-keeper; so the meansed the carries of Mr. Betwo	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and giancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- hy a stub for four hundred dollars- hy as the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of them. This is impossible; I have bought a barrel of flour from the much book and, having found it my have touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck m that the thing could be worked this style. The fellow has be	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourcess.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections: we make a failures and imperfections: we make	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and junped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in -Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Gen Jackson ? If he don't get his sor converted, God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af- fairs of state, was unceremonionsi left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant during the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an more frequent with essenced
MUSE ORDEPHNIS ACEBN ESTM CACEBN ESTM CONTRACTORY CONFERN CON	TEN 1 TEN 1 MENT Laboration	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under high by effect of the first descent show and to under high discovery of the high sector o</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Gri ATS TELEVISION GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Ollering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is not obtained to the obtained in a latest styles, which I in Ollering at low digits.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIBLE</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydroday, coss., Hive with a view transitile increasing denoid 1 for their control of the styles.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydroday, coss., Hive with a view transitile increasing denoid 1 for their control of the styles.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN, Watch Statest and American distributions of the statest and styles. Toy Watches.</li> <li>Sole Acent in this Level it, dealer in Swiss and American Watches.</li> <li>Sole Acent in this Level it. They have taken care to prive all needing of their spectrates the ordinatest within a distribution. Spectratest with a distribution of the statest strengthening and Preservation Qualities. Too much cannot be said as to the statest qualities. They are not the statest with the ordinate presenter of the sight, distribution, the presenter of the sight, distribution, the presenter of the statest on the statest strengthening and Preservation of the present of the states, they are solution and pleasant, causing a feeling of relef to the wearm, and preducing a clear and distinct vision as in the natural, healthy sight.</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee chille I me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the colutans of figures which I by are me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i his office Hoceane somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for the house, signed the tirm's name to bark checks and other importan documents. The two partners Messr Dabson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scal- with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer years increased to such a great en- tent that they found it impossible to dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake when a the the services of Mr. Bake	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the ga- and were soon ready for work. Mi Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- ing charged Stephens & Co. the same charged Stephens & Co. the same amount—their bill for fifty barrels of the does and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said Mi Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck m that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has bet	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourcess.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, froin serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make a in a ostentatious use of our power	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashylle Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson ? If he don't get his son converted, God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro-	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af- fairs of state, was unceremonions! the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin of the engine rather stagered thei	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towars the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms and more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, and wood penetrated with essential of a constrain for a constrain fruits, and so and the fath extends.
MANTIE SAT AND STRIPTINS AND STRIPTINS AND STRIPTINS STRIPTING AND STRIPTING	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under high by effect of the second of Hammerick Deficiency of the first second of the standard of the second of the standard of the second of the second</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Grinner M. S. FURNISHING GOODS</li> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I imodering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is how digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is how digits.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFILD</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS,</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydronau, coss.,</li> <li>Have with a vigot rease tife increasing denical floct.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> <li>Watch Matches, and Jewel r. dealer in Swiss and Amorania Matches, and have confidence, in Swiss and Amorania Matches, and participation of their statement of the rease the ordinate statement of the statement, wavening of the statement of the statement, and presented to the statement of the statement, and presented the statement, and statement of the lease statement when the presented construction of the lease statement when the presented the present statement of the lease statement when the present the statement of the lease statement when the present the statement of the lease statement when a statement and present statement of the lease statement when the present the presease work.</li> </ul>	plans to the book Keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancied him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had office chilled me, and he was extremely "puffied up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even them the seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Thecame somewhat familia with his duties, and hearned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the firm's name t bank checks and other importan documents. The two partners Messr Dalson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small scaf- with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer years increased to such a great en- tent that they found it impossible t dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recommend of a define finding thinds rathe	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the ga- and were soon ready for work. Mi Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- hue the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam charged Stephens & Co. the sam amounttheir bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck no that the thing could be worked to this style. The fellow has be the stealing thousands from us. Had	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebra." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discoursess.—This is a very com- mon sin amony us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an ostentatious use of our power are over them; we comped them to feel—	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashyille Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his son converted. God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro-	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af- fairs of state, was unceremonions! Het behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin of the engine rather staggered their equanimits. The cars were after	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the two powerful action of light and hea is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of the day become so and the sesnetial of are scarcely found except in warm of the top the scarcely found except in warm of the top the the scarcely found except in warm of the top the the scarcely found except in warm of the top the the scarcely found except in warm of the top the top the scarcely found except in warm of the top the top the scarcely found except in warm of the top the top the top the top the top the top the
MANTIE STUDIES MANTIE STUDIES AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to super here by the set of the first second set of manuar and Crock is a standard second se</li></ul>	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have been connection with the old stand, and when you want anything on the clothing late for yourself, or hope, call on more the definition latest styles.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydroney, coss., Hrise with a vertext and the interasting domain to the standard styles.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydroney, coss., Hrise with a vertext and the interasting domains to the first of the standard styles.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> <li>Watch Matter and Jewel r. dealer in Swiss and Anneous Watches.</li> <li>TOWANDA, PA.,</li> <li>Sole As into in this Leastly. They have taken care to give all contours. An apportunity will be this of their agent to meet the requirements of all contours. An apportunity will be the standard process and as to they support only over the ordinary plases worn. There is the other all times and plases worn. There is the other all times, to and a storage standard to the ordinary plases worn. There is the other all the ordinary plases worn. There is the other agent to include the least strained be standard before the present and plagsant, causing a feeling of relief to the warr, and preducing a clear addition for the prefet construction of the least a distingt the stend of the present solution, be standard to the contrary, from the perfect construction of the least a distingt to the warr, and preducing a clear addition to the only spectrate the only spectrate the changes the best as well as a solution of the parts and plassing and presents the shear to the warr, and plasses worn. There is the only spectrate the the neutral healthy sight. They are the only spectrate the changest because the best is haven be adding a present on the perfect construction of the least a standard to the spectrum of the sight disting the spectrum of the spectrum of the sight disting the spresent without change be added to the spresent as wel</li></ul>	plans to the book Keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee chille I me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the colutions of figures which I lyave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even then the seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Theorem somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for the house, signed the tirm's name to bark checks and other important documents. The two partners Messry Dobson and Morrisery, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scale with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer years increased to such a great en- tent that they found it impossible to dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recommen- ed, and, after finding things rathe cornered by proceeded to works.	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gar and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- just the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg larly receipted." "I had been looking for the bill of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck n that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has be is no don't but we would a near the to been for our envestropping, the is no don't but we would a near the stealing thousands from us. Had is not been for our envestropping, the is no don't but we would near the is no don't but we would a near the is no don't but we would a near the is no don't but we would rever bar.	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourses.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an ostentatious use of our power over them; we compet them to feel- over them; we compet them to feel- and we do it intentionally—that we	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in -Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted, God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro, In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and converse with angels. One Sunday night, a	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions! left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin- of the engine rather staggered thei- equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of flight and hea- ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates.
MANTIE STUDIES MANTIE STUDIES AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND	TIONERY !! CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! CTIONERY !! ES : CTIONERY !! CTIONERY !	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under held by the stand to not the intermediate behavior of the intermediate of the intermedia</li></ul>	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am offering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This - he connection with the old stand, and when you want anything on the chemic line for yourself, or hepse, call on m. in Boddeman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFILD.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydrone, Coss., Hive with a vefect ratest the increasing domails for the result of the result o</li></ul>	plans to the book Keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee chille I me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the colutions of figures which I lyave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even then the seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Theorem somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h head full power of attorney for the house, signed the tirm's name to bark checks and other important documents. The two partners Messry Dobson and Morrisery, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scale with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer years increased to such a great en- tent that they found it impossible to dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recommen- ed, and, after finding things rathe cornered by proceeded to works.	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gar and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- just the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg larly receipted." "I had been looking for the bill of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck n that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has be is no don't but we would a near the to been for our envestropping, the is no don't but we would a near the stealing thousands from us. Had is not been for our envestropping, the is no don't but we would near the is no don't but we would a near the is no don't but we would a near the is no don't but we would rever bar.	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourses.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an ostentatious use of our power over them; we compet them to feel- over them; we compet them to feel- and we do it intentionally—that we	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in -Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted, God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro, In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and converse with angels. One Sunday night, a	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions! left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin- of the engine rather staggered thei- equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of flight and hea- ers, and we see many specimen which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates.
MANTIE SATA AND STRIPTINS AND STRIPTINS AND STRIPTINS STRIPTING STRIPTING FWAR BURERY: CONFECT GROCERY STRIPTING	THE AND STATES AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under high by effect of the second of Hammerick Deficiency of the first second of the standard of the second of the standard of the second of the second</li></ul>	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am offering at low figures.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have been connection with the old stand, and when you want anything on the clothing late for yourself, or hope, call on more the definition latest styles.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFIED.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydroney, coss., Hrise with a vertext and the interasting domain to the standard styles.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydroney, coss., Hrise with a vertext and the interasting domains to the first of the standard styles.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> <li>Watch Matter and Jewel r. dealer in Swiss and Anneous Watches.</li> <li>TOWANDA, PA.,</li> <li>Sole As into in this Leastly. They have taken care to give all contours. An apportunity will be this of their agent to meet the requirements of all contours. An apportunity will be the standard process and as to they support only over the ordinary plases worn. There is the other all times and plases worn. There is the other all times, to and a storage standard to the ordinary plases worn. There is the other all the ordinary plases worn. There is the other agent to include the least strained be standard before the present and plagsant, causing a feeling of relief to the warr, and preducing a clear addition for the prefet construction of the least a distingt the stend of the present solution, be standard to the contrary, from the perfect construction of the least a distingt to the warr, and preducing a clear addition to the only spectrate the only spectrate the changes the best as well as a solution of the parts and plassing and presents the shear to the warr, and plasses worn. There is the only spectrate the the neutral healthy sight. They are the only spectrate the changest because the best is haven be adding a present on the perfect construction of the least a standard to the spectrum of the sight disting the spectrum of the spectrum of the sight disting the spresent without change be added to the spresent as wel</li></ul>	plans to the book Keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concetu. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee chille I me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or addin- ing the colutions of figures which I lyave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of et gare thes. But even then the seldor said a word to me Through my occasional sojourns i has office Theorem somewhat familia with his duties, and tearned that h head full power of attorney for the house, signed the tirm's name to bark checks and other important documents. The two partners Messrs Dobson and Morrisery, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster ries of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scale with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer tears increased to such a great en- tent that they found it impossible to dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recommen- ed, and, after finding things rathe confused, he proceeded to make theorements. The proceeded to make	We waited on and he went out. We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gar and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- just the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I have book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg larly receipted." "I had been looking for the bill of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck n that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has be a not been for our eavesdropping, the a is no doubt but we would never has a discovered these frauds as he he	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov- ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourses.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of them failures and imperfections; we make an ostentatious use of our power over them; we compet them to feel- and we do it intentionally—that we as attach not the slightest value to	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quict or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blor in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One da when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come i Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted, God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro, In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and converse with angels. One Sunday night, a a Methodist camp-meeting, Sarger	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions! left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin of the engine rather staggered their equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages, divided into compartments of first	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms. predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of flight and hea- se which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates.
MANTIE SATA AND STRIPTINS AND STRIPTINS AND STRIPTINS STRIPTING STRIPTING FWAR BURERY: CONFECT GROCERY STRIPTING	THE AND	and we show a stand to entry held by the eff (in the inertial of home much a transmedial for a standard of the inertial of the inertis in the inertial of the inertial of the inertial of the	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am oldering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This chooseneet, is with the old states and which is prevail on the definition in the definition is the prevail of basis.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>Towanda, March 28, 1872.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydrogay, coss., Have with a view transitile increasing denical life that.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANEOCULISTS, Hydrogay, coss., Have with a view transitile increasing denical life that.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> <li>Watch Matches, Towanda, PERFECTED SPECTACLES algorithe increasing denical life that.</li> <li>Sole Assent in this Legislay. They have taken care topics allowed the analysis and have confidence. Towand a difference of their agent to increase the solid of their agent to increase the mean of all customers. An apportunity will be thus afforded to preture at all times, Spectacles the sign of the in agent to mate the requirements of all customers. An apportunity will be the sign of the or allower, and prevention of the Lenses, they are solution, and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the water, and appediation, the end is a distingt of the appreciate the prevention of the lenses, they are soluting and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the water, and appediate a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, as a soluting and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the water, and appediate beaust as well as assisting ways lasting many years without chance being freeessary. CAUTIOS.</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> </ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concetu. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offee chille 1 me, and he was extremely "puffiel up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I often assisted him in making c-leulations or adding up the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of el- garettes. But even them he seldor said a word to me. Through my occasional sojourns i has office Fiscenne somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messr Dabson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the mysteries of book-keeping. They ha started in business on a small scafe with a small capital, keeping m books. But ther business in a fer teart that they found it impossible t dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recommen- ed, and, after finding things rathe confused, he proceeded to make thorough reconstruction. In a fer months he presented to the we	We waited a few moments, the make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Me Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- ing the check he gave that man charged Stephens & Co. the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of flour. This is impossible; I have booght a barrel of flour from the much book and, having found it my have touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "reg larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the check book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has been here is no doubt but we would never have any that the thing could be worked reading thousands from us. Had not been for our eavesdropping, the sis no doubt but we would never have discovered these frauds as he h managed everything with referen	ing light concentrated at a single to- eus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it. At the same time a fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dies. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- blades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discourses.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an ostentatious use of our power over them; we compet them to feel- and we do it intentionally—that we have their judgment; and that we have	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a block in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in -Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted, God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro, In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and converse with angels. One Sunday night, a a Methodist camp-meeting, Sarger got some powder and lit a cigar, an	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors; but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced coun trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions! left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin of the engine rather staggered their equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages, divided into compartments of first second and third class; so, while the	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms. predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of flight and hea- se which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates.
MANNELLY CONFERENCES AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND	THE AND AND A COWLES.	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under high by chord of the first the model of Hammerich Berneth Shows and the stand of the high standard by the standard by th</li></ul>	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I am offering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>I have been connection with the old stand, and when you want anything on the definity latest styles, which I am you want anything on the definity latest styles.</li> <li>I have been connection with the old stand, and when you want anything on the definity latest styles, which I am you want on Boddeman's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENTIFILD.</li> <li>MESSRS LAZARUS &amp; MORRIS, OPTICIANS ANFOCULISTS, Hydroney, coss., Hrise with a vertex tase the increasing domails for the result of t</li></ul>	plans to the book Reeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clerks. I offen assisted him in making c-leulations or adding inp the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ci- garettes. But even them he selor said a word to me. Through my occusional sojourns i his office Hecquine somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messre Dabson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster rises of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scale with a small capital, keeping in books. But their business in a great en- tent that they found it impossible t dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recommend ed, and, after finding things rathe confused, he proceeded to make thorough reconstruction. In a fer months he presented to the we	We waited a few moments, t We waited a few moments, t make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mi Dobson had duplicate keys of th safe, so he soon had, the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened th book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of this month, and I am certain the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." We soon discovered several bil- of them, "said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bil- of them, "said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bil- of the firm, and entries in the chec- book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said M- books of the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has be- stealing thousands from us. Had not been for our eavesdropping, the a is no doubt but we would never har managed everything with referen- te conterent events."	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was 'not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discoursess.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an 'ostentatious use of our power over them; we compel them to feel— and we do it intentionally—that we attach not the slightest value to their judgment; and that we have no desire to give them pleasure	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted. God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and convers with angels. One Sunday night, a a Methodist camp-meeting, Sarger got some powder and lit a cigar, an then walked down to the bank of th	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque 'in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced count trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin of the engine rather staggered their equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages, at divided into compartments of first second and third class; so, while the raties in the dates; so, while the the fashion of English "carriages, at divided into compartments of first second and third class; so, while the raties of the gap areas areas and the puffin of the engine rather staggered their equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages, and the fashion of English "carriages, and th	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many speciment which are scarcely fragrant during the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons as more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates.
MANNELLY CONFERENCES AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND	THE AND AND A COWLES.	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under high by the stand of the method of the method of the method of the standard of the stand</li></ul>	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Olering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is here of the intermediate of population in the obthing inter-topy sparse it or heye, each on me in Boddemat's Block.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>M. E. ROSENFIELD.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANEDCULISTS, Hydronau, coss.,</li> <li>Have with a very transitile increasing denoid for the it.</li> <li>OPTICIANS ANEDCULISTS, Hydronau, coss.,</li> <li>Have with a very transitile increasing denoid for the it.</li> <li>CLEIBRATH D PERFECTED SPECT VELES algorithe?</li> <li>W. A. CHAMBERLIN,</li> <li>Watch Maker and Jewel r. dealer in Swiss and American Watches.</li> <li>TOWANDA, PA.,</li> <li>Sole Agent in this Level ty. They have taken care topics allowed to preture at all times, and have confidence in the ability of their spectra call times. Spectrates United ability of their strengthening and Preservation Qualities. Too much cannot be said as to the spectra cuber indicating and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the weater, and producing a clear and distinct trainers, and pleasant, causing a feeling of relief to the weater, and producing a clear and distinct trainers, and presenter as wheat a size the set of the spectral cubit and present construction of the Leasest the set of the spectral preserve as wheat as a size the set of the weater, and preducing a clear and distinct trainers, and preducing a clear and distinct trainers</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clorks. I offen assisted him in making c-leulations or adding in the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ci- garettes. But even them he selor said a word to me. Through my occusional sojourns i his office Hoegane somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messr- Dolson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster rises of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scaft with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer years increased to such a great er tent that they found it impossible t dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recomments ed, and, after finding things rathe confused, he proceeded to make thorough reconstruction. In a fer months he presented to the we pleased eyes of Dobson & Co,	We waited a few moments, the weak out. We waited a few moments, the make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mit Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had, the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here y a stub for four hundred dollars- light of the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of floar. This is impossible; I havn this month, and I am certain the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stephen & Co, dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo- of them, "said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the chec- book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said Mi Dobson. "To-morrow I shall s Stephens & Co., and unearth the deviltry. Why, it never struck no that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has been stealing thousands from us. Had not been for our eavesdropping, the a is no doubt but we would never har discovered these frauds as he h managed everything with referen a to external scrutiny."	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into it; At the same time a' fearful weight pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent" His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discoursess.—This is a very com- mon sin amony us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an ostentatious use of our power over them; we compel them to feel- and we do it intentionally—that we attach not the slightest value to their judgment; and that we have no desire to give them pleasure	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come i Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted. God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and convers with angels. One Sunday night, a a Methodist camp-meeting, Sarger got some powder and lit a cigar, an then walked down to the bank of th r.ver, one hundred rods, where stoo	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque 'in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced count trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pass sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af- fairs of state, was unceremonions! left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin- of the engine rather staggered their equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages, at divided into compartments of first second and third class; so, while the English are gravely considering the expediency of changing their syster	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, whe then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen , which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons are more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates. SAVE A LITTLE.—Every man who obliged to work for his living shoul make a point to lay up a little more
A FRA ASTAL A FRA	THE AND	<ul> <li>and we show a stand to under high by chord of the first the model of Hammerich Berneth Shows and the stand of the high standard by the standard by th</li></ul>	<ul> <li>of the file-topiality and latest styles, which I in Olering at low digits.</li> <li>REMEMBER!</li> <li>This is here of the intermediate of years of the base of the main in the definition into the program of the definition in the definition is the definition in the definit definition in the definiting in the set of the definit defin</li></ul>	plans to the book keeper, who hugh ed at me. He was eashier and book keeper; he had retained the position for years—had been with them from an early day, and had charge of al the office business and finances of the concern. I had never fancies him much. There was a certain re- serve in his manner which had offer chille I me, and he was extremely "paffed up" with his lofty position rarely deigning to notice me or an of the other clorks. I offen assisted him in making c-leulations or adding in the colutans of figures which h igave me, and for such service h would reward me with a bunch of ci- garettes. But even them he selor said a word to me. Through my occusional sojourns i his office Hoegane somewhat familia with his duties, and learned that h had full power of attorney for th house, signed the tirm's name t bank checks and other important documents. The two partners Messr- Dolson and Morrissey, were mener tirely unacquainted with the myster rises of book-keeping. They has started in business on a small scaft with a small capital, keeping m books. But their business in a fer years increased to such a great er tent that they found it impossible t dispense with a book-keeper; so the secured the services of Mr. Bake who came to them well recomments ed, and, after finding things rathe confused, he proceeded to make thorough reconstruction. In a fer months he presented to the we pleased eyes of Dobson & Co,	We waited a few moments, the weak out. We waited a few moments, the make sure that he would not return then entered the office, lit the gas and were soon ready for work. Mit Dobson had duplicate keys of the safe, so he soon had, the books ou I suggested to him to check the bill with the check-book. He opened the book, and glancing at the stubs, said "What does this mean? Here a stub for four hundred dollars- ing the check he gave that may charged Stephens & Co, the sam amount—their bill for fifty barrels of the and the book here are an inter- tion. This is impossible; I have this month, and I am certain the Mr. Merrissey has not." I had been looking for the bill book and, having found it my har touched a bill of flour from Stepher & Co., dated the first of the mont "Here's the bill," I said. "regi- larly receipted." "Let us see if there are any mo- of them," said Mr. Dobson. We soon discovered several bill of that firm, and entries in the chec- book to correspond. "These bills are frauds," said Mi- books of correspond. "These bills are frauds," said Mi- books of the form of the here are that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has been that the thing could be worked r, this style. The fellow has been to been for our cavesdropping, the is no doubt but we would never har discovered these frauds as he his managed everything with referen to external scrutiny."	ing light concentrated at a single to- cus, and thence spread away into space in ripples such as are made in a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its a pond when a stone is cast into its pressed upon his head—a compres- sion as if his temples were tightly bound in a ring of iron. His hands and feet were full of pins and nec- dles. Needles without number seem- ed to pass out of the ends of his fin- gers by a process of continual expul- sion. Then came the terrible snap- ping at the nape of the neck; and along his spine there passed a wrig- gling (fretillement) which he can "compare only to a small serpent forcing a passage along the vertebrae." His last sensation was one of acute pain at the throat and shoulder- bades, and finally came a state of perfect unconsciousness, upon recov ering from which he was 'not unnat- urally surprised to find himself still in a world which he had been at such pains to quit. Discoursess.—This is a very com- mon sin among us, and it arises, principally, from serious defects in our life. We speak to men harshly we are becoming domineering; we wound their feelings; we sneer at them and we make a jest of their failures and imperfections; we make an 'ostentatious use of our power over them; we compel them to feel— and we do it intentionally—that we attach not the slightest value to their judgment; and that we have no desire to give them pleasure	would pound his chest well. The mob rushed to the rescue of the prisoner, and a drunken magistrate ordered me to release him. I refused and he swore he would knock me down. I told him to knock away. A friend, at my request, relieved me of my prisoner. The drunken justice made a pass at me. I parried the stroke, seized him by the collar brought him to the ground and jumped on him. I told him to be quiet or I would pound him well. The mob. rushed up and knocked down several preachers. I gave my prisoner to another, and the ring leader and I met. He made three passes at me, and I gave him a blow in the ear, and dropped him to the earth. 3 Cartwright, though not an Aboli tionist, had very swelling views of the equality of mankind. One day when he was preaching in Nashville Gen. Jackson entered the church Another preacher whispered a littl loud, "Gen. Jackson has come in Gen. Jackson has come in." Cart wright said audibly : "Who is Ger Jackson? If he don't get his sor converted. God will damn him a quick as he would a. Guinea negro. In Marietta was a nondescrip preacher named A. Sargent, wit numerous followers. He called him self a millenial messenger, and pro- fessed to see visions and convers with angels. One Sunday night, a a Methodist camp-meeting, Sarger got some powder and lit a cigar, an then walked down to the bank of th river, one hundred rods, where stoo a large stump. He put his powde	habits and information intrinsically valuable, will be recompensed by the most robust enjoyments and the most lasting benefits. PROGRESS IN JAPAN. If any one doubts the astonishing revival among the Japanese, in the direction of accepting the conditions of Western civilization, let him be convinced by the fact that on the 12th day of last June, the first Jap- anese railway was opened between Yokohama and Sinagawa. The scene as the first train moved smoothly out of the Yokohama station, must have been picturesque 'in the extreme Englishmen worked the engine, and managed the train as conductors but the freight was made up of ven- turous natives, who grinned from every window on the gaping crowed of their swarthy, square-faced count trymen, assembled in multitudes to witness the marvel. Among the pas sengers were daimios and high offi- cials; indeed, his excellency the prim- minister, had intended to mark the event by making the perilous jaun in person, but, being delayed by af fairs of state, was unceremonions left behind. The shrill whistle mad the Japanese gazers laugh, while the rattle of the wheels and the puffin of the engine rather staggered their equanimity. The cars were, after the fashion of English "carriages, at divided into compartments of first second and third class; so, while the expediency of changing their syster for the American, the Japanese mus	the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes him, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes: the lover is desperately smitten, and just after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of an other trial. PLANTS.—Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms o plants are more apt to be fragran than those which are highly colored Pale and white blossoms, predomi- nate in the northern regions. W may therefore conclude that the rela- tive number of odorous flowers i greater toward the pole than towar the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and hea- is opposed to the emanation of flow ers, and we see many specimen , which are scarcely fragrant durin the day, become so in the evening of during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossons an more frequent in the north; the re- verse is the case with the essence enclosed in the glands. Plants wit fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, an wood penetrated with essential of are scarcely found except in warm of tropical climates. SAVE A LITTLE.—Every man who obliged to work for his living shoul make a point to lay up a little more for that "rainy day" which we a leave the print of his nail upon her person, before she can be rescued by pedes the lover as much as possible," by beating him with sticks, tripping him, and by seizing his legs as he rushes by. The advantage is all with the girl, and if she does not wish to become the wife of the pursuer, she can avoid him without difficulty. On the contrary, if she likes hinr, she manages to stumble, or make known her wishes to the old woman, who then only makes a show of impeding her pursuer. Sometimes the lover is desperately smitten, and just-after being foiled, he returns to the father and binds himself for another period of years to have the privilege of another trial. PLANTS .- Probably all florists have observed that the white blossoms of plants are more apt to be fragrant than those which are highly colored. Pale and white blossonis, predomi nate in the northern regions. We may therefore conclude that the relative number of odorous flowers is greater toward the pole than toward the equator. It would seem that the too powerful action of light and heat is opposed to the emanation of flowers, and we see many specimens which are scarcely fragrant during the day, become so in the evening or during the the night. But if the odors emitted by the blossoms are more frequents in the north; the reverse is the case with the essences enclosed in the glands. Plants with fragrant leaves, aromatic fruits, and wood penetrated with essential oil, are scarcely found except in warm or

SAVE A LITTLE .- Every man who is' obliged to work for his living should make a point to lay up a little money for that "rainy day" which we are all liable to encounter when least up a carefully arranged balance-sheet forgerics. The writting was exactly of the pain and annoyance which his eigar. The light of the powder ly inferior English method. The Ja- expected. The best way to do this is TEMPLE OF FASHION CELEBRATED INMAN LIN A NCHOR LINE STEAMERS ike their bill clerk's ; the bill-heads they inflict on others by this treatment was seen by many at the camp. Sar-vere theirs. Of Beamer always on known
 (b) Construction of the same always on known
 (b) Construction of the same always on known
 (b) Construction
 Of Steamers always on head MENS AND BOYS' CLOTHING. 5079 * • • •