> TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR. and hereditary predisposition, all turn the hair gray; either of them disposes it to fall of prematurely, and either effect is unsightly and unpleasant to behold. Dr. Aven's consummate skill has produced an antidote for these deformities, which has won grafitude for him from multitudes of women and men. His Hain Vicon sometimes reproduces lost hair; and slways restores to faded and gray hair its natural color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The comparatively few bald and gray heads that we now see, are those who have not yet discov ered the virtues of AYER's HAIR VIGOR for renewing the bair.
