LISTEN.

ple you know? If so, learn to listen. But first, learn what listening isor it is not merely the exercise of the sense of hearing. The stupidest of us all can keep ears open and mouth shuz. To listen properly, means to make other people talk properly. That is a social definition. if it is not a Websterian one. The good listener is a cause of talking in others, and by a proper exercise of makes the diffident say what they think and the verbose think what they say. For the greatest talkers are careful when they find they have a good listener. They know that they may not often be so fortunate, and they talk their best. The adept in listening may sometimes hear more prosing than he likes, but if he be skillful this will not often happen. When it is impossible to get anything interesting or useful out of a man, he need be listened to no lonto that But it is astonishing how. many good things some very unpromising persons will say if they be properly and conscientiously listened

To be sure, it is very hard for some persons to listen. They liave a gift or talking, and they like to exercise it. But these are the very persons vho should do a great deal of listening. They know what a luxury it is .* rotation of crops. A season of listening is often a most excellent preparation for a season of talk.

It is often supposed that if a man has a good thing to say, he will say case. Very often he never says it, chance. He don't want to waste his speech on fools, and the smart Yolks want him to content himself with hearing what they have to say. This
