Political demagogues are continually attempting to create a rivalry between capital and labor. In truth, there is no antagonism between the capitalist and laborer. The one is necessary to the other, and work together and cannot do otherwise. The following article from Blackwood's Magazine contains much truth :

If we were to express their union invidiously, we would say that they both combine together against 'the consumer. If he can get his article sold at a profit, it is all one to the capitalist how much of the price of WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.-Secretary producing it goes in wages and la
