CHEAP PAPER.—Our old friend, HERSEY WATEURS, has learned how to print a paper very cheap. In the last issue of his sprightly little sheet he says: "One dollar will place the Kansan in every home for one year.

A LARGE congregation, composed of members of the various churches in this place, listened to the very able and eloquent discourse delivered by Rev. J. S. STEWART, in the Presbyterian Church, on Thanksgiving Day. The sermon was replete with practical thoughts and suggestions for all classes. Prog. Sherwood's pupils, assisted by several amateur musicians, will give a concert in Temperance Hall, this Thursday even ing, commencing at 71 o'clock. These entertainments have become so popular, that i seems only necessary to call attention to the date of the occurrence in order to secure ar audience.

Rev. C. E. McIlvaise entered upon his duties as Rector of Christ Church, on Sunday last. It being Advent Sunday, he delivered an excellent discourse appropriate to the day and occasion. The interior of the Church edifice has been greatly improved, and gas introduced. The new Rector enters upon his work under the most flattering auspices, as the congrega tion give him a united and hearty welcome.

AT A meeting of the Ladies' Benevclent Association, held on Friday afternoon, Nov. 23, it was resolved that a vote of thanks be tendered to the congregation at the Presbyterian Church on Thanksgiving Day, for their generous contribution, amounting to $37.25; also, to our citizens for $9.51, deposited in the Post Office Box; also, to Powers & Co., for a liberal package of store goods. The Association appreciates the many favors conferred from time to time, the increasing interest manifested, and the support given them by the community in general; and trust all feel the assurance of the truth, that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

LERoy. -Mr. Editor: Well, everybody is reading the proposed Constitution although some one-horse newspapors and some one idea men, have raised their hands in dy rror to make the people believe the Constantional Convention wished to force the document upon the people without an opportunity to examine After a careful perusal of it, an comparing it with the present Constitutio, i is very evident it is a great improvement, Inought to receive the hearty approval of all. For the benefit of the wearers of Elizibethan roffs, we hant up a history of that fashiouable apper tage: The fashion of wearing raffs began about 1576, according to the Stowe; and under the fostering hands of starch an liferking stoks they were wern to the length eet a quarter of a yard. The belies were not the only ones who were adorned by these imin decisioningles, for the dandles of that day this assumed the ruff in its largest proportions, "cs all the portraits of the ancient cavaliers attest. This vast structure of gauze was styled on Lagland "the French roff;" but the French, in retain on, ha ned it "the English monster." Quean Elizabeth, whose turout was very wrinkle I and yellow with age, were the broadest and staffest roff of any one in Europe, excepting the Queen of Nagarre; and her ruffs were composed of the finest embreideries, enriched with gold and silver threads, and even precious stones were introduced into them. She employed, we the told, endless yards of cut work, and purple the lie work, lace, and lace of gold and of silver

Our Sunday-school has been very successful inder the superintendence of Mr. WM. PATTERson, the past season. We have been greatly favored by our school directors, they having remodeled our school-house this fall, and we new have the largest and most pleasant house in Sheshequin.

There is some scarcity of stamps, but we have an abundance of the good things of the earth. Crops were generally good the past season, and they are now all housed in excelent condition. The Elder's claim of $14 was promptly raised, and the occasion will long be remembered as one productive of much good, by all who had the pleasure of being in attendance. Our pastor's labors are also appreciated, and his "quarterage" was nearly paid. The citizens talk of giving him an old-fashioned donation. So be it.
