NEWS FROM ALL NATIONS.

The new Berks County Railros -A Wayne county factory turns out over 50,000 clothes pins a day. -English car builders admit the

_In 1865 Pithole had over 1,000 pumping wells. Now it has two. -In 1863 Philadelphia got rid Philadelphia's dead last year Connecticut has succeeded in making a very good mitation hen's egg. The number of inquests held in Allegueny county in December was twenty-

_A resident of Luzerne has remembered his physician with a turkey twee-eight Christmases. Nearly 1,300,000 tons of coal were shipped by the Wilker-Barre coal and iron

_A Landlord of Fayette county -A lemon grown in a Williamsport greenhouse measures cleren inches by Sharedia the other day for a 1,000 pound for. The largest stern wheel steamer in the world is receiving its machinery in

-The cheese factory at New

-George Labar, aged 112 years,

The Ohio Agricultural Medianical College announces the re-opening for the winter term on the 7th of January. -Fdward Wales, of Chicago, and his sister, will share $3,000,000, recently lef them by the death of an uncle in Scotland.

old Indian sign, indicates a "spell" of wet wear —An exchange says: "George Francis Train beging to show hard wear." And the Boston Commercial Bulletin asks: "Do they mean that he is a Grate blower?"

-Mr. Jiditst is a gentleman quite prominent in Cleveland commercial circles, and vet, 15378 an exchange, his name is seldem

—A California paper says that resteral Fremont has cancer of the stomach, had has been told by his physician that he cannot live a year. -Cargoes of silkworms from Japan are slapped through California across the country in cars fitted up for their carriage without injury from change of climate.

-Green zephyr almost killed Pittsburg lady recently. The fabric containe polson, which worked itself into the system of coal mines, Venango county, have received no pay for two months, and their families are said to cuffering for food. -The Fruit Growers' Society

Pennsylvania will hold its fifteenth annual meeting at Chambersburg, on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd of January.

-President Grant assisted in the ecicliration of the silver weeding of his pastor, the Revally, Tillany, in Washington last week.

-A car load of wild animals from the Rocky Mountains, for the Zoological Garden in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, passed through Omaha on Monday on its way East. York last week, for participation in the "ring" fraud, while Mayor of that city, and was acquitted. He was careless rather than ent of the New York Iribuae, who went to Cub-lie write up the Virginius affair, is mis--In a recent raid by the New York Tokes on a disorderly dance house, they captured no less than 320 prisorers—250 males and 70 females. -An old woman in Durham,

-Air. Ralph Keeler, a correspond

England, claims Brigham Young as her long-lost husband. He descried her and came to America forty years ago. A party of burglars at Yonkers,

N. V. were recently tracked by the feotprints left by them in the snow, and the whole arrested with the plunder in their possession. -Toledo, moved by jealousy no doubt, langus at the claim of Chicago that two hundred and thirty million dollars' worth of good have been cold there during the year. -The defense of Portsmouth, N.

H., are to be enlarged and hurried to comple-tion when spring opens, and, several guns of a very heavy calibre will be placed in position.

-Poor Spain -Spain's annual deficit in revenue, as compared with receipts, is thirty-five millions of dollars, and she has added three bundred and cleven millions to that quite's number of the members of the late Constitutional convention are showing a desire, through their friends, to become candidates for -Harrisburg has the meanest inequiries of boys we now read about. On Christmas day, two of them robbed little girls of candles that had been given to them at Sunday school.

-Poor North Carolina is in a miscrable plight. Everybody feels poor except the political thicves. Property is depreciating, and the taxes are a grievous barden. The State is Democratic. The annual statement of the tions and grain trade of Buffalo shows a great intecase. 101,662,120 bushels of grain passed

-The absconding cashier of the State Bank of New Brunswick was met a few days, ago in Paris so destitute of means as not to be able to pay big passage home. What a -General Charles P. Stone and General William W. Loring, American officers in the corrice of the Khedive of Egypt, have each been advanced to the grade of Major. General in the Egyptian army.

The second-floor of a house of ill lepute in Buffalo gave way, on Christmas night, precipitating the inmates into the cellar. A girl ramed Jennie Griffin was killed and

Rev. John Chambers was recently presented by his congregation with a box containing eventy-six gold dollars, each bearing the date of 1876. They were coined at the mint under the direction of ex-Governor Pol-

-Among the list of the lost in the late occan disaster is the name of Miss Eugenie Casilia, who had resided for more than two years in the family of Mr. Ario Pardee, of

-A proposition is pending before

Bradford Reporter

Towarda, Thursday, Jan. 8, 1874

. o. GOODRICH. S. W. ALVORD THE NEW CONSTITUTION AND TH

The man who furnishes the edito rials for the Argus presumes too much upon the ignerance of the people, in parading before the readers the democratic party the credit of the great reform which it is hoped the new constitution will inaugurate in the management of the affairs of the State. He seems to forget that it was a republican legislature that called the convention to form the new constitution, and that a majority of that body were republicans: that with but few exceptions the republi-A shooting match took place at can press of the State advocated the adoption of the constitution. It is true, some prominent republicans of the Stafe and in this county opposed it, and we believe conscientiously, because no one denies the fact that there are very grave blunders in the instrument, which will have to be remedied. But did not the demo-The new moon, according to the county, as a rule, in the strong re- controls scores of men, he is a railpublican districts, but little opposition was manifested. have adhered to the principles upon which the party was organized-honesty and economy in the administration of the government. When the republican party came into power in this State, it received as a bequest from the defunct democratic party. which had ruled the State for years. a State debt of over forty millions o dollars. Less than twenty years of republican rule has reduced the debt to about twenty millions. besides The miners at the Cranberry having accumulated a sinking fund of ten millions, which will be applied toward the liquidation of the debt. the republican party, while the extrataxes are nothing compared with those of democratic counties adjoining us, and the expenses of the county are not nearly so great now, in county, as they were under demothan cratic rule thirty years ago.

> ceople, and the Argus greatly underrates their intelligence and judgment corruption and ruin.

THE attempt of Col. Forney to arrogate to himself and the Press all the credit of the adoption of the new probation of the friends of the meas- his deluded followers: the throughout the State. Neither Nigh to a railroad newly made, will his ungentlemanly and cowardly attack on Senator Cameron and others who were honestly opposed to the The number of hogs fatened new constitution, add anything to this year in filinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, lowa, Tennessee, Kansas, Missouri and Indiana, is eight and one-tenth per cent, less than for otic and unselfish devotion to the interests of the country, and his triumphant vindication by the people at the last Gubernatorial election are matters of history, and all that the -We learn from our exchanges Press may say against him will not injure his good reputation with in telligent men. That the General has faults and that he has committed er- But Ill gather them in. I'll gather them ip. rors, we do not deny, but Col. For- But a grung politician by that way strayed. NEY'S political record is not above He was o grain pocket-book, flat and thin, suspicion; indeed, it is more than And to told the Granger he'd labor for him, suspected that many of the frauds in the city elections of which he complains, were inaugurated by himself in the campaign of 1856, when, thro'

> We doubt not Gen. Camenon, Sen ator Scort, Judge Mercur, R. W. MACKEY, and other gentlemen, were as conscientious in their opposition H. STERRESS, in Congress, on the to the new constitution as Col. For- salary bill, as follows: ner was in advocating it. They are all gentlemen of the highest intelligence and undoubted integrity, and stole a a meeting house, and, while he was a hauling it away, fell from the fact that they differed with a ma- the steeple just as a half-uttered oath jority of the voters of the State does was escapang his lips. The fall innot in the least militate against their jured his brain, and he lived in a honesty or patriotism.

fraudulently carried for James Buthe Democratic persuasion from fore. If the first fall knocked the Maryland. He set the House in a roar the other day by describing very had intervened between the first acgravely his feelings when he heard cident and the last, he jumped briskthat the salary bill had passed Con- ly to his feet and completed the oath gress. "It was upon the night of that he had left unfinished years bethe 3d of March, or rather early on Mr. Alexander H. Stephens' speech the Ohio Constitutional Convention, now sitting in Cincinnati, making it a penal offence for any member of the Legislature, judge, or other elected or appointed officer to receive, where in office, any employment, free pass, gift, or other be nefit from any reflected company or officer While it had been pending, we had the contract of the startling news was brought to me.

While it had been pending, we had the pending in Congress fourteen the startling in Congress fourteen. been taught at home to regard it as ped speaking in Congress fourteen Apropos of the death of Mr. another scheme of the Republican rupted by a passing thunder storm, same strain. it was passed by Democratic votes The Virginius survivors have [and probably when he found also The Virginius survivors have forwarded a memorial to President Grant, expressing their heartful thanks for the energetic measures taken for their timely resone and telivery from death, or the chain gang, or a speaker, that I was, so to speak, or the Juniata.

Speaker, that I was, so to speak, staggered as it were, and I came to staggered as it were, and I came to $200 to assist poor families in the

THE CRAFGERS. organization of a grange in The Pike has been followed by one in Wysox, with Col. V. E. Proller as its chief officer.

These farmers organizations when conducted upon the principles laid down in the platform, will undoubtedly inure to the benefit of the illers of the soil, but if they are to fall into the hands of such scheming, unscrupnlong and corrupt politicans, as Col. PIGILET thier history will be a brief one, and those who join them from Rev. A Read, of St. George's, Hyde, of that sheet articles claiming for themselves betrayed and disgraced.

honest motives will very soon find to which you have called my atten-themselves betrayed and disgraced tion. I need hardly tell you that The history of the Wysox Grange the statement of this slanderous intends to manage the movement in applied the word 'residuum' to the' this County. A gentleman in that workingmen of England'-if I had this County. A gentleman in that to be a township, who happens to be a republican, wrote to Mr. Buck ask-much time and labor, and many ing him to visit Wysox and organ- years' of my life, to procure for them ize a grange, and that gentleman replied, accepting the invitation of their industry, and the right to replied accepting the invitation vote that they might share in the and giving some, suggestions about government of their country? I do the preliminary steps. The matter not remember the time when, or he commanded his fugleman Buck 'residuum,' or I would refer you to to take up his first appointment and appoint the meeting on annother construction which Mr. Read has evening and in another place more put upon it. I do not know what convenient to the residence of the Mr. Read is in his pulpit, but I would railroad farmer. The command was advise him to stay there, where he crats oppose it, too? We could name implicitly obeyed, and when the cannot be contradicted crats oppose it, too? We could name implicitly obeyed, and when the platform he is, what is not uncommon several in this county who did, and first party who had applied for a in the hot, partisan priest, ignorant in the State some of the most promi- charter met, no deputy was present and scurrilous, and a guide whom nent members of that party exerted to assist them in oranzing. While no sensible man would wish to fola'l their influence against it. In this Con Promet owns many acres and low. His congregation should pray road monopolist of the worst type.

He is a director of the Pa. & N. Y. The truth is, the great mass of the R. R. Co., and took advantage of republican party are honest and his position as Superintendent of construction to cheat and deceive the farmers along the line of the public works all his life, and at the attempted, that we were defeated in same time has been a most untiring ing about the morality of endeavorand wiley aspirant for political honing to deceive their readers and bad that he could hardly scenre rec- watchmen crying all is well, when -There is more carpeting made All this has been accomplished by ognition. The farmers' movement the city is on fire! opens up to him a new field for poordinary expenses incident to the litical advancement, and he will enwar were met, and State taxes on deavor to ride into power as the to claim a victory. The Prince of real estate and nearly all personal special champion of the farmers. Liars was too wise to tell a lie which and titles and to the partaking of property abolished. Did ever a par—That he will fail in his nicely-laid nobody would believe, and he exsundry bottles of champagne invited his broomell, of East Marlborough. Chester

The farm
All is not lost the mass and to the partaking of nobody would believe, and he exsundry bottles of champagne invited his lordship. As the wine began to A little boy ten years old, son of ty make a prouder record? In the plans, we have no doubt. The farm.

These Breenell, of East Marlborough, Chester management of our county affairs ers of Bradford county are too intel-will and courage never to submit or lie also, and soon left him far astern. the same wisdom, prudence and strict ligent to be hoodwinked by such an yield.", Some people have Satan's Cape Island reached, an omnibus economy have been manifest. Our unprincipled demagogue. Many of propensity to lie, without his shrewd- would have been derogatory to the since he was laboring with the legis-Oakey Hall was tried in New comparison with the growth of the permitting the abandonment of the tice of monarchial governments, and Massey." Soon it was whispered canal, in order that the railroad company, of which he is a heavy stock-These facts are all known to the holder and director, might profit thereby at the expense of the farmers, who are now compelled to pay f it believes they will over again con- an extra dollar per ton for coal, besent to place in power the party cause it is more expensive transportwho record in county, state and ing it by rail than canal. No, no, national affairs is one of extravagance, Colonel, your game is too transparent, and will never aid you in gaining a seat in Congress. The following lines so aptly illustrate what the Colonel's experience in managing a Grange will be, that constitution, does not meet the ap- we append them for the benefit of

> A farmer leaned on his earth-worn spade His taxes were high and his crops were thin, And high freights were making great trouble him.
> He gazed at the trains with a scowl so grim "I'll gather them in; I'll gather them in. "I'll gather them in, for I solemnly swow The railroad I'll circumvent some way or how I'll get up a law, by the great horned owl.

That'll cut down their freights, that'll make For little of nothing I'll ship from the bin My hoarded corn, for I'll gather them in." I'll get up a party, we'll organize, And down with the freights, shall be our Cries;

Shall assist me this burden to take from my bac

"And I'll get my boots," he thought with a gri

That "I'll gather you in-I'll gather you in."

Twenty-five trains where they used to have one. his manipulation this State was In the ditch by the track, there he is careless ragged old Granger, stark and cold,

And a fat office holder, with chuckle and grip, Says, "I reped in that Granger—I gathered him in!" THE Inter-Ocean remarks, in reference to the recent speech of Mr. A

A Weiter in the Atlantic, some years ago, told a story of a man who state of imbecility for many years. Finally, as he was riding one day on a load of hay, the wagon upset, and O'BRIEN is a new Congressman of he fell again, striking his head as be-brains out of him, the second knock

An intelligent western clergy—man, being in poor health, instead of visiting.

Europe went to the Bocky mountains and resumed the purple went to the Bocky mountains and resumed the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with used fluction than helf or the pulpit went with the stantill pushed to purchase bread and other articles for distribution.

"Like the best of Indian brakes,"
That gently fans the wounds she makes." That gently fans the wounds the makes."

NECROLOGY OF 1873.

NANT STATESMAN. The Hyde and Denton Chronicle Below we subjoin a list of the dis published the following reply from ed dead of 1878: Mr. Bright to a gentleman who had Louis Napoleon, ex-emperor sent him the report of a speech in which his reference to "the residuum" was assumed to have a very comprehensive application: BOCHDALE, Dec. 9. Prince Joseph Poniatowski; Abd-e

A SHARPPLETTER PROM AN INDIG-

"Dear Sir: I thank you for send-ing me a copy of the Hyde and Den-Kader: Lord Wellesley: ex-Lord hancellor of Great Britain; Evelin Denison, for fifteen mons: Count von Bernstorff; Odillion Barrot Francesco Domenio Gnerazzi: Urbano Rattazzi; Governor Geary; The history of the Wysox Grange clergyman is false, and that, if he is may throw a little light upon the not a singularly ignorant person, he manner in which the District deputy must know it to be false. If I had Kennedy Salmon P. Chasa. A O. and Republican rule in our State George N. Sanders; William M. Mer-Kennedy: Salmon P. Chase; A. O. Zabriskie, ex-chancellor of New Jersey; the Hon. Stephen Lushington; ebro; Lewis Gaylord Clark; Charles Knight; Amedee Thierre; F. A. St. the right to live by the free exchange Marc Girardin; Clara Mondt; (Bonise Muhlbach); Sir Henry Holland; coming to the ears of Col. Proller the speech in which, I used the word head; Alessandro Manzoni; John and real estate relieved of all tax-Bean Hickmam: Thornton Hunt. Philarete Charles; G. B. Donati (the astronomer): Adam Sedgwick: Matthew F. Maury; Baron Leibg; Dr. Auguste Nelaton; Sir Edwin Landseer; Hiram Powers; Rinaldo Rinalli. William C. Macready James W. Wallack, Earl Hardwicke, Samuel Wilberforce, bishop of Winchester; Rev. Baptist W. Nool, Vicar General Starrs, Rev. Thomas Guthrie. Mrs. Harrison Gray Otis, Gen. Canby, Lewis Tappan, Oakes Ames, Laura "I am very truly yours." JOHN BRIGHT. Todd, Rev Richard Storrs, Rev. Gar-

[For the Reporter]. OUR DEFEAT.

The truth is always better than lie. There is not a particle of use in works He has been employed on denying, as some of our papers have the elections this fall. To say nothors. Many years ago he was honored hiding the extent of our defeat, it is with a seat in the State legislature, extremely bad policy. We cannot and his suspicious connection with a expect people to rectify mistakes unless they are convinced that mistakes certain divorce bill has not been for have been made; or induce Republigotten. In other official positions he cans to attend the elections next fall disappointed the expectations of his by telling them that they did just as friends. Of late years his standing well by staying at home this fall, that in the democratic party has been so the political skies are clear and everything going on right. at is like Satan, according to John Milton, when addressing his shattered legions after their defeat, knew better than them think his zeal for their inter- ness to tell the truth, when it would dignity of two such distinguished inbetter.

lature to secure the passage of a bill of the late war, imitating the prac- and I not be outdone wrote "Lord great military disasters as long as started as a Lord and I was bound possible from the people; but it was to keep the thing up. soon found to be a mistake. A gov-its support, must confide in them if it would have their confidence. If we wish the Republicans to regain their lost ground, they should be made acquainted with the extent defeat, discuss its causes, suggest its remedy, and then we may safely of New York, Ohio and Winconsin, er barely elected, and the majorities of the others nothing like the oldfashioned majorities to which they were entitled. It is no satisfactory explanation of this state of things to say that it is the "off year." Why should there be an off year? Is there a large number in the party who exhaust themselves so completely during the The democrats exhibit no such symptoms standing. toms of general debility.

The cause of the off year, in my opinion, is this: many of our members of Congress and political leaders, having secured the election of a Republican President and got the offices they desired, or the appointmen on the watch-tower and sound the alarm while the enemy are sapfortunate in getting gorged with

The people thus deserted by their accustomed leaders forget that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, that there can be no truce in moral warfare, that the most self-evident truths, the plainest maxims of right, and the purest principles of justice must be battled for continually, if we would have them prevail.

CASTELAR.

THE Virginius has fitly ended about as disreputable a career as falls to the lot of any vessel in these being towed to New York Block-Frederick Dent, the father of Mrs. Grant, it is told that his grandfather suffered during the party to plunder the country, and like only to plunder the country, and all of the intervening years were of poetical justice in her fate. With people. lievolution by having his house burned at the mouth of the Potenac and his lather had his burned in the Democratic party had no burned in the same place during the war of lot or part in it. But when I found off, and finishes his speech in the threatening crisis, and let us hope amounted in the same place during the war of lot or part in it. But when I found off, and finishes his speech in the threatening crisis, and let us hope amounted all

I twenty minutes any time."

REDUCING THE STATE DEST.-ACcording to a proclamation from Gov. HARTBARFT, Pennsylvania has paid off a million and a half of her State debt the past year. This is a very good answer to the persistent French; the dowage empress of Brazil; good answer to the persistent the Empress Caroline Augusta of Chargers against the financial Austria; the King of Sweden; King management of our State affairs. of Saxony; the dowager queen of Crimination and blind charges may Prussia; the ex-Duke of Brunswick; be good ammunition for demagogues Crimination and blind charges may VER-WARE and office-seekers to be firing at the management of our State affairs, but years such facts as the above are a good speaker of the British house of com- deal more weighty among citizens whose desire is the true welfare of the State rather than the defeat of men of opposite politics. A word of shows how much superior the latter is to the former. When the Demoex-Judge Samuel Nelson; Judge crats were in power they were con-J. Sheridan Le Fann; Caroline Chess- until the figures reached nearly forty SORTMENT OF millions. All this time, too, real estate was licavily taxed. Since the Republicans have come into power James Brooks; John Romeyn Brod- the debt has been steadily lessened, ation! This simple fact is worth

Keene: F. A Pollard, Bishop McII- just before the holiday recess, Mr. vaine, Countess Guiccioll, Rev. John Hale, of New York, and Mr. Wilson, diner Spring, Bishop Randall, John P. Hale, Senator Yates, Professor

A gentleman who has figured quite conspicuously of late in the southern part of the State as Lord Massey, recently delivered a lecture in West Chester in which he explained his motives in practicing the good education, but a natural adven- Governor's Message next week. turer. He was working for a farmer in Chester county until the warm weather last season made such exersise a burden, when he concluded to go to a watering place, and chos Cape May. Here is what he says of his visit there:

On the steamer to Cape May he met a young man from Baltimore, who in many words told of his wealth ests, of recent birth. Only two years answer their purpose a great deal dividuals, and in two carriages we rode to Congress Hall. Upon the Our government at the beginning hotel register he wrote Captain Brown fearing the depressing influence it about that a Lord had arrived and might have, attempted to conceal all eyes were bent on me. I had

As I paced the porch numerous aternment deriving its powers from the tempts to scrape acquaintance were people and dependent upon them for made, but I was reserved. At last me for the honor done his house wanted to introduce me to the prominent guests. Soon it was "my lord" here of their loss. We should admit our to dine, sup and lunch poured in. leave the result to Providence and the people. We have lost the States infra dig. The belle of the island our majorities are everywhere great- tude her admirer from Philadelphia: ly reduced, and, in this county one of our candidates is defeated, anothpaled in attractions beside those of steam yacht I invited all to go on yacht ever been in the Delaware.' presidential campaign, that they have ey to get home, and I have repaid him. not strength enough left to drag Beyond this I did not raise a cent, themselves to the polls the next year? all stories to the contrary notwith-

THE DEAN OF CANTERBURY ON OPEN COMMUNIOR. - The Dean of Canterbury was one of the speakers at a ments they asked for, sit down like of the 16th at Exter Hall, London, glutted lions too lazy to hunt, and to receive reports from delegates refail to perform the duties of watch cently returned from the Conference of Christians from all Nations, held ping the foundations of the citadel, in New York. The Dean said since some leaders who have not been so he came home he had been somewhat abused, though not more than his presidential pottage—soured, cha-grined and disappointed,—retire to excellent predecessor, the late Dr. heir dens, not coming out again ex- Alford, had been. He had been cept to do mischief for a year or two. charged with breaking law, but there was no such law, and in being presnone was broken. In England, per-Lord's Supper than to turn it into a days, by going to the bottom while act of love for Dr. Stoughton and ade-runner, filibuster, and bearer of him as for him to take it with them, a fraudulent register, her history be- [Cheers]. The whole proceedings of gins and ends with deceit and viol- the Conference had been a surprise ence. The blood of the men mur- to him, and he had been most cordidered at Santiago de Cuba would ally treated. He believed he might have clung to her name and her re- have stayed a twelvemonth, travellcord, even under a new registry and ing and visiting at no expense. Amera more creditable occupation, and ica was a grand and noble country, there are many who will see a kind and inhabited by a grand and noble

I shall be happy to keep you down Artemus Ward in which every man was a brigandier-general.

DEAL DIAMOND RINGS volumes of stuff in the way of vituby Democratic papers.

CERTAIN members of Congress seem anxious to again introduce the "chivalry" scenes which were witnessed in the days of southern supremacy. without the physical courage to engage in mortal combat. One day. just before the holiday recess. Mr. of Indians, applied to each other such euphoneous epithets as "dirty dog." A proper respect for the dignity of the House should have impelled the Speaker to administer a severe reprimind to those worthies

THE Legislature met on Tuesday last, Mr. Strang, of Tiogo, was elected Speaker of the Senate, and Mr. McCormics, of Alleghany, Speaker of deception. He is an Englishman of the House. We shall publish the New Advertisements.

HEADQUARTERS WATCHES, JEWELRY SILVERWARES Has opened a IEW JEWELRY STORE, ON BRIDGE STREET In the building formerly occupied by Young & fitts, with a large assortment of Gold and Silver American and Swiss Watches, Fine Gold Jewelry, Gold Sets CHAINS AND RINGS. CHAIN BRACELETS.

the proprietor came up and thanking and "my lord" there and invitations A magnificent team for $2200 was next morning purchased, as to go smiled her sweetest and left to solicoronet. Never was a man more ionized, but too much champagne brought on the denouement. In my picnic, and said my yacht lay at the Breakwater. Thither Col. Cake, of &c., Congress Hall, telegraphed and the answer came too soon, "no such A gentleman loaned me enough mon-

CODDING, RUSSELL & Co., At CHAMBERLIN'S WATCHES $10 TO $300 At CHAMBERLIN'S AN ENDLESS VARIETY OF SIL- POWELLY & Co. TOWANDA, PA., At CHAMBERLIN'S BEAUTIFUL GOLD RINGS At CHAMBERLIN'S Would say to their customers that, although there has been no change in price with manufottness, that they have made considerable reductions in the prices of several patterns of stores, so that buyers will always commit thir own interests by purchasing of them. They sell the If you are looking for a beautifu Christmas present, examine the stock O AL CHAMBERLIN'S cen. Great bargains, now,offering in each of their Peckham; Edward Bulwer Lytton; tinually running our State in debt THE LARGEST AND BEST AS TRIBUNE JEWELBY. MAGIC SHIELD. WATCHES, CLOCKS. SOLID AND PLATED GOODS ROYAL ARCH EVER EXHIBITED IN peration daily and weekly hashed up TOWANDA, ARE NOW OFFRED DIRECTOR W. A. CHAMCERLIN'S. REAT BARGAINS I AMERICAN. DRESS GOODS. MERRY CHRISTMAS. MONITOR. EXCELSIOR RANGE CABINET RANGE. SPEARS ANTI CLINKER ARGAND. AMERICAN BASE BURNER REAT BARGAINS IN FAVORITE, CLOTHS & CASSIMERES. HOLIDAY GOODS GLOBE. TAYLOR & CO'S ILLUMINATOR EVERY FAMILY INTERESTED TAYLOR & CO. AMERICAN PARLOR PARLOR HEATERS, DESTRABLE AND SEASONABLE GOODS. BALTIMORE HEATERS. ENORMOUSLY LOW PRICES! SPECIAL BARGAINS IN FLANNELS. These me the leading stoves of the day; beside LANKEI SHIRTINGS, SHEETINGS. GINGHAMS REYNOLDS. CARPETS DRESS GOODS. CALICOES SHAWLS. Brat Dabgains in ORIENTAL KNIT GOODS, FURS, SHEETINGS. GLOVES. AND - HOSIERY BLEACHED NOTIONS BUTTONS, PINS, &c. &c. &c. &c UNDERWEAR. MUSLINS BOYNTON A full line of south sitven and plated ware. CLOTHS AND CASSIMERES. AND FLANNELS SPECTACLES AND EYE GLASSES HEATERS. mers will find this opportunity one selder to buy Goods at the present low prices. TAYLOR & CO. Cornells She lers Towanda, Dec. 18, 1873.

Powell & Co.

New Advertisements.

New Advertisement

Of all kinds-Gold, Silver and Steel. CLOCKS From the cheapest to the best, and many other sticles too numerous to mention, but to be seen by calling.

M. HENDELMAN. N. B. Watches, Clocks and Jewelry repaired by ractical workmen, and warrante Towanda, Nov, 10. '73. BARGAINS IN STOVES! TINWARE. HARDWARE. TRON AND NAILS, GLASS. CARPENTERS' TOOLS. Given to all purchasers for Cash, a H. T. JUNE'S HARDWARE STORE TOWANDA, PA. Eec, 17, '73. A NEW HAND AT THE BELLOWS.

public meeting held on the evening ent at the communion in New York haps, the attachment to the State Church had its disadvantages; all was not gain. But in America there was no established church. [Great cheering]. He believed that there was no stronger profanation of the test of the community to which all belonged. It was just as great an others to take the communion with her departs the last traces of a once threatening crisis, and let us hope that with her may be entombed all possibility of a renewal of such a Church are to be immediately ordan-cause of quarrel.

Under the best State of improvements, the balance, 25 acres Timber. Good water, two Large Orchards, one Grainery, and other Cut-Buildings, this Land is Located finely, and is of the best in the Country. Possessibility of a renewal of such a Church are to be immediately ordain-ther particulars address Total Country.

Cause of quarrel.

Under the best State of improvements, the balance, 25 acres Timber. Good water, two Large Orchards, one Grainery, and other Cut-Buildings, this Land is Located finely, and is of the best in the Country. Possessibility of a renewal of such a Church are to be immediately ordain-ther particulars address.

Cause of quarrel.

Atheus, Bradford Co., Pa. cause of quarrel.

ed in order to avoid all danger of the loss by the new Church of the six The other day when some question was under debate in the House, Cox sent a note to the Speak Church two are already bishops. If

Dec'T2

Athens, Bradford Co., Pa.

TARM FOR SALE.—The subscrite in the specific succession. Of the six cherry for sale his farm in Sheshequin twp. The farm contains 106 acres, 80 acres under good state of cultivation. Good buildings, will be sold cheap for cash. For further information apply to that the undersigned.

Sheshequin, Dec. 17, 73. er, saying: "Put me down for twen-this thing goes on its ministry will JOHN W. MIX, ty minutes." Blaine, in reply, said: resemble the company raised by Special attention given to claims against Insurance Companies, Office, North side of Public Square. [Dec 1873.

BENJ. KUYKENDALL S. Cast, and will keep a good supply of YER'S CATHARTIC PILLS. WILKES-BARRE Curing Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach and Breath, Ery sipelas, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Eruptions Always on hahd, at the LOWEST PRICES. Towanda, Nov 5, 1873. ropsy, Tetters, Tumors and Salt Rheum, Worms NTOTICE.-TO ALL WHOM IT ut, Neuralgia, as a Dinner Pill, and Purifying the MAY CONCERN, THAT Their effects abundantly show how much they exce M. O. MODDY & CO, but powerful in cure. They purge out the foul humors of the blood; they stimulate the aluggish or Have rented the old AGRICULTURAL SHOP, are now prepared to do all kinds of sordered organ into action; and they impart healt BLACKSMITHING. nd tone to the whole being. They cure not only the every day complaints of every body, but formid HORSESHOEING DONE WITH GREAT CARE. ble and dangerous diseases. Most akliful physi-All SORE-FOOTED HORSES MADE TO cians, most eminent clergymen, and our best citizens, send certificates of cures performed and of All work done prouperty, and at moderate price invite one and all to come and iry our work. They are the safest and best physic for children, be ALL WORK WARRANTED. cause mild as well as offectual. Being sugar coated they are easy to take; and being pure'y vegetable hey are entirely harmless. Towanda, Dec. 24, 1873 DR. J. C. AYEB & &O., LOWELL, MASS., FRUIT TREES Practical and Analytical Chemists. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine August 28

I shall during the Winter take orders in this County for all first-class Nursery stock at fair prices, fur mishing small fruits at one-third the usual rates, an Trees as follows:— HATS, Apple, Standard, 5 to 7 ft.
Pear, "5 to 6 ft.
Cherry, 4 to 5 ft.
Pium, 4 to 5 ft.
Peach, "3 to 5 ft. ddress GEO. H. HAHN, For further particulars add: Lime Hill, Bradford Co., Pa. RARM FOR SALE.—The Sub-transport of the same of his farm known as the Davidson Farm in Sheshequin Town-ahip, two miles from Ulster Depot 175 acres, under the best State of improvements, the balance, 8:00 8:10 8:30 9:10 9:30 9:50 10:20 11:10 ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

HONEST PRICES!

ALLENTOWN LIME. COPLAY CEMENT. PREAT BARGAINS IN FURS The best in use KEROSENE LAMPS. CHIMNEYS, WOODEN WARE

GREAT BARGAINS IN

SHAWLS AND CLOAKS

MRS. WOODRUFF, AND BONNETS FLOUNCES.

Booms, corner of Main and Bridge Streets, over M.J. Long's Store. Entrance on Main St., 3d door from corner. Towards Dec 4 '73 TVIME TABLE OF THE SULLI VAN & ERIE RAILEOAD Taking effect of Monday, Nov. 11, 1872. DESTRUCTO BARCLAY JUNCTION

P. M. 4:00 3:50 3:30 2:45 2:25 2:05 1:30 12:30 P. M. Towanda Nov. 19 1873. B. F. GOODMAN, Gon'l Passenger Agent.

COPPER KETTLES. POWELL & Co. Gas Pipe Plumbing, Tin work, an all kinds of repairing on short notice CODDING, RUSSELL & Co

Towands, Nov. 12, '73.

Blood's Shellers,

CHAFFEE

FEED CUTTERS

PARKER'S SHOT GUNS.

REVOLVERS.

COAL HODS.

POKERS.

LANTERNS,

CLOTHES WRINGERS

POLISHING BRICK,

BRASS KETTLES.

DEXTER.

RIFLES.

Iron Sheller

AND GALE

CARTRIDGES.