We recret to notice that our Tunkbannock cotemporaries have gotten by the ears. In the reported proceedings of court last week, we notice that in the case of the Commonwealth vs. A. Day, of the Democrat, turned a verdict of not guilty, but defendant to pay costs. We don't believe in such verdicts. If DAY was guilty, he should have been punished. If not guilty, the jury had no right to mulch him in the costs. At the same court, the grand jury returned a true bill against P. MARCY, late of the Republican, for libel, A. DAY

EDITOR REPORTER: Much is being said and written on the new temperance movement, or "crusade," as it is termed; and with regard to it conflicting views are held and expressed through our county papers. This, perhaps, should surprise no one, as it is ever so with all great moral and religous questions, when by say means they are so brought before the mind of an intelligent comunity that immediate action upon them is falt-to be a necessity. But when any publicly-expressed individual view has a tendency to migrepresent or place in a false light the action of any body or sociey, however unintentional y on the part of the indiridual, it seems that a plain, unvarpished statemen of facts should be given to correct the error. Hence what I am about to write. The Christian women who inaugurated this crusade in Towanda, came toor daily prayer-meetings, where they might unitedly
