BUSINESS CARDS. TOHN DUNFEE, BLACKSMITH,

MONROETON, PA., pays particular attention to roning Buggies, Wagons, Sleighs, &c. Tire set and repairing done on short notice. Work and charges guaranteed satisfactory. 12,15,69. MOS PENNYPACKER, HAS A again established himself in the TAHOHING USINESS. Shop over Rockwell's Store. Work of every description done in the latest styles. Towards, April 21, 1870.—tf

S. RUSSELL'S

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENCY TOWANDA, PA.

|>

E

O

X

W. KINGSBURY,

Office, corner of Main and State Streets,

FIRE TRIED

SASH, DOORS, AND BLINDS.

March 13, 1872.

Towanda, July 19, 1871.

TO OUR PATRONS.

Companies represente

KE.

0

R

2

 I_{i}

J. E. FLEMMING, Box 511, Towards, Pa

TOWANDA, PA.

MERCHANTS. O. A. BLACK

ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, TOWARIA, PA.

H. J. MADILL, THE UNDERSIGNED ARCHI-

TECT AND BUILDER, wishes to inform the citizens of Towarda and vicinity, that he will give particular attention to drawing plans, designs and specifications for all manner of buildings, private and public. Superintendence given for reasonable compensation. Office at residence N. E. corner of Second and Flizabeth streets. TOHN W. MIX. AITORNEY-AT-LAW, TOWANDA, PA.

REAL ESTATE, LIFE, FIRE, & ACCIDENT INSURÂNCE AGENCY DECK & STREETER.

LAW OFFICE, TOWANDA, PA. W. A. PECK. [Jan. 15'74] H. STREETER. C. GRIDLEY,

I am prepared to furnish Kiln-dried Doors, Sash and Blinds of any style, size, or thickness, on short notice. Hand in your orders ten days before you want to use the articles, and be sure that you will get doors that will not shrink or swell. Terms cash ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, April 1, 1873. Towards, Ps.

TNSURANCE -The following reli-DR. D. D. SMITH, Dentist, has purchased G. H. Wood's property, between Mercur's Block and the Ewell House, where he has located his office. Teeth entracted without pain by use of cas. Towards, Oct. 20, 1870.—yr.

W. HEATH
Has established his business of Manufacturing and Repairing all kinds of MERCUR'S BLOCK. Apr 1'74. Towanda, Pa. EDGE TOOLS, MILL PICKS, MADE AND DRESSED He also makes the best STRAW CUTTER now isse. All orders filled promptly, at
MEANS, ROCK WELL & CO., TOWANDA, FA. CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. SUGAR RUN PA March 26, 1874-3m*.

Hotels.

GEO. H. WOOD & CO. * PHOTOGRAPHERS, DINING ROOMS TOWANDA, PA.

BEST STYLES AND VERY LOW PRICES.

FRAMES

All new patterns and tasteful styles, and fur uish them at a small advance from cost pri-May 14, 1873.

BARGAINS BARGAINS!

HURRAH! HURRAH!

for the next 20 days,

FRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING.

M. E. ROSENFIELD

the site Tracy's New Block; Store formerly field by Wickham & Black, has just received

MEN AND BOYS' WEAR,

Grateful for the generous patronage of the past year, would inform all wanting Pictures that we are still adding to our establishment IN CONNECTION WITH THE BAKERY, Near the Court House. We are prepared to feed the hungry at all times of the day and evening. Oysters and Ice Cream it their seasons.

March 30, 1870,

D. W. SCOTT & CO. NEW AND IMPROVED INSTRUMENTS, And adopting tried and approved modes o ELWELL HOUSE, TOWANDA FINER PHOTOGRAPHSTHAN HERETOFORE

JOHN C. WILSON made outside of the cities, and that we make Having leased this House, is now ready to accommodate the travelling public. No pains nor expense will be spared to give satisfaction to those who may give North side of the public square, east of Mercur's new block. We also endeavor to take all the time possible in making childrens pictures, so as to secure the best results.

We are constantly adding to our stock of RUMMERFIELD CREEK HO-Having purchased and thoroughly refitted this old and well-known stand, formerly kept by Sheriff Griff fis, at the mouth of Rummerfield Creek, is roady to give good accommodations and satisfactory treatment on all who may favor him with a call.

Dec. 23, 568—tf.

MEANS HOUSE, TOWANDA

COR. MAIN AND BRIDGE STREETS The Horges, Harness, &c. of all guests of this house, insured against loss by Fire, without any extra charge.

A superior quality of Old English Bass Ale, just received.

T. R. JORDAN.

Towands, Jan. 24.71. MANSION HOUSE, LERATSVILLE, PA. W. W. BROWNING, This House is conducted in strictly Temperan

Frinciples | Every effort will be made to mak guests comfortable. Good rooms and the table will always be supplied with the best the market at fords:

Nov. 1, 1871. RETHLEHEM, PA.

"OLD MORAVIAN SUN INN."

BUILT 1758.

Rich in historical interest, it is the only building in the country except Independence Hall, honored by the sejourn within its walls of Washington, LaFayette, Lee, Gates and other patricts of the revolution. This popular hotel has recently changed hands, been improved, entirely refurnished, and the proprietor cordially invites his friends and traveling public to give him a call—no pains will be spared to render their stay comfortable. People en route for Philadelphia will find it convenient to spend the night here, reaching the city about eight spend the night here, reaching the city about eight in the morning. A sample room on first floor for accommodation of commercial agents. A sample room of commercial agents.
C. T. SMITH, Than can be found in any other establishment of side the cities, at Lowes PRICES THAN EVES.

Sept 4, 1873.

AT THE FIRST WARD BAKERY. MRS. MARY E. KITTREDGE aving purchased the stock and fixtures of H.

NEW STOCK OF GOODS.

DISCUITS, BUSK, BOLLS, &C., DAILY. A mest and attractive ICE CREAM SALOON

MARY E. KITIREDGE.

Bradford

Reputter,

S. W. ALVORD, Publisher. REGARDLESS OF DENUNCIATION FROM ANY QUARTER.

TOWANDA, BRADFORD COUNTY, PA., JUNE 12, 1874.

$2 per Annum in Advance.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS. CMITH & MONTANYE, ATTO?

R. C. M. STANLEY, DENTIST successor to Dr. Weston. Office in Pation Block, up stairs, Main Street, To wanda, Pa. A kinds of plate work a specialty. Jan. 15'73 DR. S.M. WOODBURN, Physician and Surgeon, Office over Wickham & Black's rockery store. Towands, May 1, 1872.-1y* POYLE & McPHERSON, ATTOR A HETS-AT-LAW, Towards, Pa. Will give promy attention to all matters entrusted to their char corphant Court business a specialty.

R. T. B. JOHNSON, PHYBICIAN AND

VOLUME XXXV.

W. FOTLE. [may21'75] I. M'PHERSOR.

H. B. McKEAN, ATTORNEY W. PATRICK, ATTORNEY-AT the Express Office, Towards, Pa. July17,1873.

H. CARNOCHAN, ATTOR ford County), Troy, Pa. Collections made and prompt ly remitted. fab 15, '69-tf., WOOD & SANDERSON, IAMES WOOD. [may 27] JOHN F. SANDERSON W. B. KELLY, DENTIST.—Office V e over Wickham & Black's, Towards, Pa Teeth insorted on Gold, Silver, Bubber, and Alum nium base. Teeth extracted without pain. Oc23,7: MADILL & CALIFF, ATTORNEYS

Office in Wood's Block, first door south of First National Bank, up stairs. Jan. 8,73-1y OVERTON & ELSBREE, ATTOR-into copartnership, offer their professional services nto copartnership, offer their protessional to the public. Special attention given to business in the Orphan's and Register's Courts. spl14'70 N. C. ELSBRE

Special attention given it claims sgainst Insu ance Companies, Office, North side of Publ Square.

MR. D. L. DODSON, OPERATIVE AND MECHANICAL DENTIST, North Maine-st, opposite Episcopal Church, Towanda, Pa. All dental operations a speciality, TOCTOR O. EEWIS, A GRADU-New York city, Class 1943—8; gives exclusive stiention to the practice of his profession. Office and residence on the eastern stope of Orwell Hill, adjoining Henry Howe's. GEO. P CASH.

> DEET & DAVIES, ATTORNEYS-AT HALE & PATTON, AGENTS FOR

Office No. 3 Griffith & Patton's Block, Bridge Street P. A. QUICK, M. D., GRADUATE

> on meeting Richard Cragan next vice she gives you the mitten." at the rude assault.

tavern stand? "Yes."

Creek ? '

he brother of Katy-keeping, not yours."

ness of giving her the kiss of be- he had made improvements, until he for once had the truth when they short time before his father's death. and all the custom he could possibly love, and the mistake of Katy. A cloud that at first looked no attend to. larger than a man's hand now appeared in his sky. "Is this true that I've heard?"

alling like lead, for he unde

"Pshaw!" ejaculated Katy, in no amiable mood. "As good men as

The nuts he gathered when the year Fut on her gold and purple gear-Ah! how she took with simple grace, His humble gifts as homage due, And flashed across his dazzled face Her thankless eyes of sparkling blue !

The image of his girlish wife-The graceful shape, the beaming eye, The warm lips parted musingly, The white young arms upon her breast, Crossed in the guise of guileless rest-They weave a dream of other days :

Transcends the purport of a dream, And while he feels that death is kind To yeld such visions to his mind, His eyes with swift sweet wonder shine Their gaze no prison walls confine!

Miscellanous.

attached thereto; and to my other son, Jacob, the grist mill on Dart creek, and the residue of my landlord property." So the will read. A deep silence, and then a single word of dissatisfaction, which came from Jacob, the younger son of the deceased Richard Cragan. His brother looked up with then their eyes met. "This will is not to your mind," said Richard, gravely. with a hardness in singular contrast with his brother's gentle and sublued manner.

"You prefer the tavern stand?" "Of course I would," rejoined the Jacob's face was not the only one hat showed surprise. But as none present had any right to question Richard's decision, there was no renonstrance or deprecatory remarks. "Well, you are a precions fool," said Harry Glenn in an angry voice, day; "and if Kitty follows my ad-father leave you the 'Red Lion' "And you've given it to Jacob for

"Humph!"—contemptuously—"1 knew you were not remarkable for wit, but didn't imagine you were the tavern stand is worth forty times as much as the grist mill!" "Maybe so, and maybe not," re-plied Richard, with a flash of his eyes that was unusual to their blue

"Stop here, Harry," interposed step or two in surprise. "I never permit any one to meddle in my afairs, and you cannot be an exception. Katy has cast her lot with Its meaning he well understood. She was very dear to him.

farm or something else by which I could have made a living."

and disappointed. "I will never consent," he resix brothers. Four of them died and be, oh so much happier! As for me, I should have a restless, miserable, unhappy feeling all the time I "A tavern is a curse to all who may kept a tavern and sold drinks to have anything to do with it, and the the mill, you may count on that as again, but he only gets angry."

he world," said Richard. But you'll never put me into it," It's dreadful how he goes on somecried Katy, with a sudden passion in

"You are surely not in earnest, Katy," said Richard. "I surely am," she replied, tossing her head in such a way as to hurt and astonish the bewildered young man. Richard'Cragan sat quiet and still in a softer voice. for a long time. Then, rising slowly, and with a quiver of pain running thro' him, put out his hand to Katy. She let hers fall into his coldly, and returning by the slightest motion the pressure he gave. "Good-night, Katy!" Katy. She never would have known the voice as that of her lover. "Good-night!" Not a pulse of cry, but hearkened in vain. It was all over with Richard and school now for three weeks, and his "And I would prefer the mill; so minded girl who was incapable of the teacher is a cross old Lunk, and live as glowed in the hour of three weeks, and his father won't make him go back; says all can be satisfactorily adjusted," resuch love as glowed in the heart of not fit for the place. And now he this young man, broke off her en- goes idling about spending his time with a single draught from a cup gagement, and in less than a year in the barroom or with the stable that love had filled for her years ago, became the wife of his brother Jacob, boys. He'll go to ruin if something but which she had ruthlessly pushed who installed her mistress of the is n't done." aside for another 'Red Lion,' which had been fitted Richard looked very grave. There and wormwood.

The custom had more than don- and now they rarely met. bled since Jacob had become 'mine "The sooner this tavern-keeping host,' and the new lowner was begin- is broken up, the better," he said, ning to reap an abundant harvest after a long silence. "I can't help therefrom. that miserable old grist mill on Dart Richard. He was harder, more sel- consent." hesitation about trampling down comforted; and Richard had a weight morning broke, dark clouds hung with a ruthless foot whatever came of concern laid on his heart that was and threatened. in the way of his purpose. He had not to be shaken off. no tenderness toward his wife, and Later in the day Richard was sur-Not that he was unkind to her only at the mill for over two years. Jacob indifferent. There were no little wanted him to go on his note for confidences between them no con- three hundred dollars. cessions on his part to her wishes and comforts, but a silent self-asser- if you do n't do it,". he said, after a tion that left her wholly out of his hurried statement of his affairs and to have gone. But his work kept to that, will, in my opinion, be the him up. There was not many in the most fortunate thing that can hap-

"Not quite cast it yet," muttered "Better so," he would often say, in his brother's face, and Harry, as he turned away from Rich "than have the responsibility of all for a mean, selfish man. ard, whose ear caught the sentence. that "-meaning the tavern. "I take A sheriff's sale did not take place. no man's money without giving him But Jacob gave up his inheritance in On the evening of the same day what is good in return. My work a compromise with his sporting cred-have been brought in the Court of will not come back to curse me in itors—gamblers—and went off to a Common Pleas, he will not be perticed with a sudden chilliness about after years. No father or mother new place, two or three hundred mitted to recover more than the costs his heart a change in her manner. can ever say to me, 'Where is my miles distant, and set up another of one suit, although he himself may

The years went on. Jacob Cragan him, but got no answer. A lonely trothment. This happened only a had the finest mill in all the region told the story of his disappointed mill and earn my bread by useful used to be," said one and another of with the evils of tavern-keeping."

"In a steel to be," said one and another of said in a kind of bitter self-accusation, "it might have been so different the evils of tavern-keeping."

"Jacob is going to the dogs, I'm ent."

He started and listened. A voice

Richard's bachelor home stood sound of music in his soul! But the even haggard! What a wreck! ants in error What a transformation!

> Sobs choked the voice. "Hush, Katy." Then, "Where " Dead ?" "Yes." in a steadier voice. "How long since?" her before. Katy hid her face, sobbing and

"Dead."

"Yes-yes-that's just it. I can 't and-and cursing me! Oh, Richard! "I know. Tavern-keeping has been his ruin: I wish he were out of The words sent a chill through left, and were now with the husband's parents, who were low people it is for their father," Richard added and not fit to have charge of them. asked Katy. "If he gives up the "He'll never turn his hand to any-

A week later, and the last of anoththing else, you may be sure," replied or mortal life was closed. Dark and Judgment affirmed. stormy had been the years that pre- Abel Fairchild et al. vs. Casar Lu- success, no matter whether his game motto, A short life and a merry drew near the western hills the clouds "It may drive him to do worse broke suddenly, and golden rays Richard turned slowly away and swered Katy. "He's in with a dread- ening all the sir. All Richard Cra- they hold not in moieties, but in en-the teacher, and has been home from children." And, smiling in gratitude and for cutting down and carrying away calm content, the woman died-died

Richard Cragan kept his word to and was known for miles around as and his brother, that they had been the dying one. Katy's daughter and for a long time getting further apart/ grandchildren were taken to his home. There presence gave new life soul with sweetness once dreamed of you now, Katy, but when things come, but never tasted before. Katy had her horse and carriage, all to the worse I'll do the best I can . It was a pleasant sight to see them her fine clothes, her personal ease for you. If I had Jemmy all to my- all together in the waning summer and comfort; pride and vanity were self in the mill, I am sure I could afternoons gather about the mill gratified in many ways. Yet she make something of him. But as door, after the wheel was still, and was not so happy as she expected to things are, there's no use talking the air no longer jarred by the rumbe. Jacob was a different man from about that; Jacob would n't give his ble of machinery. There was peace and sweet content and hope for the

> BRADFORD COUNTY CASES ARGUEI AT THE SUPREME COURT

Ethan Baldwin vs. David Cash. W. & S. 427. In Error. The Act of the 29th of March tary to keep a docket in which all judgments shall be entered, does not mpose any penalty upon the officer for receiving the fee provided by the Act to be paid, before the service is performed. Baldwin, in propria persona.

ant in Error. Judgment affirmed. The Towanda Bank vs. O. P. Ballard 7. W. & S. 434.* In Error. anger. He shook his clenched fist If a plaintiff bring several suits be fore a justice of the peace, founded upon several causes of action, which in the aggregate exceed in amount $100. and for which one suit might > n error. Watkins, for defendant in error. Judgment reserved as regards the defendant in these suits. Ira H. Stephens, Sheriff of Bradford county, vs. the County of Brad-ford. 7. W. & S. 438. In Error. The expenses of removing one who is convicted of forgery to the Eastern Penitentiary, must be paid out of the State Treasury, by the provisions of

1. Barr, 168. In Error.

Case and Grenough, for plaintif Elwell and Williston, for defend de novo awarded. James H. Phinney vs. George Tracy. 1. Barr, 173.* In Error. A colourable assignment to make contrary appears. The assignor of a chose in action, my youngest child. You never saw a witness for the assignee on the tri- statement he may have made. support it by his own oath. In that > should be allowed to testify, or nei-Overton, for plaintiff in earpr. Elwell and Williston, for defendant in error.

ent Comte de Chastelellenx. Barr. 176.* In Error. things than he is doing now," an- came flooding the earth and bright- lands to husband and wife in fee, and that is all sufficient. left the house; but all the while as he went farther and farther away from her his ear hearkened for her voice breaking out into a replellant from the first of the house; but all the while as how find a dread-full the house; but all the while as full set of men—horse-jockies, and—gamblers, I'm afraid! Oh, which lay dying his early and only from her his ear hearkened for her voice breaking out into a replellant about Jemmy. He had trouble with the right of survivorship, the said.

After the publication of the lecture house your sent mey hold not in moieties, but in entirety of introduced the publication of the lecture house yourself, when your income tireties; each has an entirety of introduced and class and Your Katy shall be my Katy; and other. In such case, the husband the children out west shall be my may maintain in his own name, an > timber. Case, for plaintiffs in error. Elwell and Williston, for defendant in error.

Judgment affirmed Julius S. Holden vs. Francis Cole et al. 1. Barr, 303.* In Error. Without an order of the Quarter code of morals. But there is no ac- integrity? Sessions, supervisors of the high-private property, or to correct errors in the opening of an old one. Unless an exception be taken at pursuant to request made on the folowing day, is not a subject for the ed" literature of the day. Now, assignment of error.

Holden, in propria persona, Elwell, for defendants in error. Judgment affirmed. McDuffie vs. Bartlett. 3. Barr, 317.

In Error. & Co., and the other under C. & C., was left to the jury to decide that my code of morals, nor to that roue, fact. Where there is a judgment Charles Dickens, for rules to guide against M. J. & Co., and the creditor me in my intercourse with my fellow has a priority under an execution on men. the property of that firm, he retains it though he does not show his claim was on a partnership transaction, the presumption being that it was.

Overton, for plaintiff in error. Adams and Elwell, for defendant in error. Judgment affirmed.

Error. The approval of a bond to take the prothonotary, is intended for the ant." may waive the defect and maintain an action.

Baird and Elwell, for plaintiff in Watking for defendant in error. Judgment reversed, and venire de novo awarded. Edmund Sickler et al. vs. Edward Overton. 3. Barr, 325.* In Error. Venditioni exponas amendable by the precipe, by inserting the name of the defendants during the trial of an lican gives the following interesting ejectment under the sheriff's deed; account of some ruins recently dis- great multitude that no man can and a sale under such a writ passes the title.

Elwell, for plaintiffs in error.

Overton, for defendant in error. Judgment affirmed. Ramsdale vs. Horton. 3. Barr, 330* In Error. A. being the debtor of B. at his

But there came a time when things usual with him. His thoughts had shall have $500 each, out of the old bank note. Payment in counterfeit teen hundred feet in length. When one contemplates this heart-

A lien creditor, who neglects to of execution, and of the right to an Elwell and Williston, for defend-Judgment affirmed.

[For the REPORTER.] BEVIEW OF W. H. THOMPSON. Sense foils fury as the blowing whale fast. But worn at length comes up harpooned at MR. EDITOR: W. H. Thompson, Esq., seems to take it in high dud- however, is apparent, that this for which suit is brought, cannot be dares presume to call in question any ancestors of the Pimos, or some er before."

al of the cause, unless the assignRichard looked into the girl's face, ment were made in the usual course lofty heights, be gazed and wondered the Gila are another uncovered And he shuddered at the thought of such a thing.

"As you like," answered Katy, in a chilly voice. "But one thing is chestid, after a few minutes, looking at Richard with tearful, pleading the containt. I'm not going to be cooped at Richard with tearful, pleading to the containt notice at the time, of supporting the claim by the oath of the assignor. The will do him no good to get mad extensive ruins will be thoroughly "Dear child!" said the old man, legal presumption, which is adverse about it. If the little gnats do hum explored within the present year. whelming proof; not the slightest take the Presidential chair when > their bar-keeper, who broke her sity supposed to exist. Indeed, it present, for the sentiments advocation a premature disease, decay and heart and then deserted her. She should not be permitted that the ased; a few, a very few asked for its old age?

>
> was now dead. Three children were signor of a chose of action should publication in the Reporter.
>
> Can you afford to eat hastily, and support it by his own oath. In that And Mr. Thompson, who had been then rush to study or business, respect, the creditor and debtor waiting and watching for the first withdrawing the nervous energy from And Mr. Thompson, who had been > > and glisten with anxious expectation, a toad-fish, it is all the same to Mr. Under a deed of conveyance of Thompson-he's "cotched" a fish, After the publication of the lecture counting for taste. Men with no home. There presence gave new life to the old mill, and a new grace and charm to his dwelling that filled his soul with sweetness once dreamed of Mr. Thompson charges me by implication, with novel-reading-seems to think my reasoning would have the just service you owe Lim, even the trial, the president's charge, filed been better if I had not paid so much attention to the "yellow-cover- ing yourself a moral bankrupt?

Thompson knows this statement to be absolutely false. In the controverfers he himself was the advocate, the champion of the "yellow-covered" trash of the day, as the files of the and ever mean to be, an uncompro-

Well this whole controversy, Mr. Editor, is not worth the paper that is soiled in carrying it on, and while engaged in it I have often thought of the advice a father gave his son: and the bowls of pipes, apparently If you meet a certain animal (some-of soft soapstone. The teeh of the times he goes on four legs and sometimes on two) it is much the safest Wells vs. Bentley. 3. Barr. 324. In plan to give him all the road. If you conquer, the victory won't be much. and you may get a perfume that will benefit of the insolvent law by the be lasting, and not quite so pleas-benefit of creditors; and where it was | So I will stop, and in conclusion done by the deputy, and the party would ask Mr. Thompson, who was had been discharged from arrest, and Epi-cu-nius, to which reference is the bond subsequently forfeited, they several times made in his lecture? Was he a real personage, or is he a being of the imagination? Learncd(?) men men who aspire to be leaders-should "know" what they say, and be correct in their statements, as historians. What a fish a covered in Arizona: "A careful examination of some "A careful examination of some the Apocalypse, are the latter-day extensive ruins, found some miles incapables. They are immovable east of Florence, on the Gila river, sponges upon relatives, whom they has been made. Lieutenant Ward keep forever poor. They cannot keep was the first explorer who came upon a situation, and are barely competent the desolate remains of a once im- to sit at a gate and collect tickets of posing architectural pile. It has a thin stream of passers in. They request, promised to pay the amount been deserted for perhaps more than are the skeleton in nearly every of his indebtedness to C., who was a thousand years, and has crumbled household, and the abundant cause a creditor of B. C., cannot suo A., away in the wilderness. The Apache of heart-burnings and poverty every Elwell, for defendant in error.

> ANCIENT RUINS IN ARIZONA. A letter to the St. Louis Repub

Judgment affirmed.

Renben Park's Appeal. 1. Barr. 164.

D. P bequeathed as follows: "My sons, Joseph, Owen, and Warren, sons, Joseph, Owen, and Warren, shall have $500 each. out of the old which doubtless served the purpose of windows. On the inner sides of the wall of the palace, for such it doubtless was, there are yet perfectly distinct teachings of the image of the sun. There are two towers, at the southeast and southwest corners of the great enclosures still standing. one of which is twenty-six and the other thirty-one feet high. These have evidently been much higher, as

The ruins are situated in a small

CAN YOU AFFORD IT?

Can you afford to work hard all Now, Mr. Editor, in regard to the vagaries of soceity all night, thus ought in all justice to be placed on breeze of popular applause, jumped the digestive system to the brain precisely the same footing; both at the chance to spread his peacock and muscles, and thus inducing dyspepsia, in a few years at most, to He reminds one of a little boy fish- scourge and haunt and make you ing with a pin-hook—his eyes shine miserable, for years or for life? Can you afford to commit suicide and at the first nibble he hauls away through the indulgence of appetite with all his might, and glories in his and passion, adopting the fool's

Can you afford to indulge in fast living, dessing beyond your means. driving livery horses, or keeping a horse yourself, when your income is Can you afford to smoke and cliew twenty or thirty dollars a month, injuring your nervous system, and holic liquor? . Can you afford to make money at the expense of your manhood, your libertines of Greece and Rome for a health, your just respectability and Can you afford to rcb your mind in a bank beside the river, a catacomb of skeletons, supposed to be those of Indians of a remote age, a lost and forgotten race. The bodies exhumed were of a strange and remarkable formation. The skulls were nearly an inch in the femur being probably as great as eight or nine feet. Near their heads The bodies were found closely packed together, laid tier on tier, as it seemed. There was no discernible ingress or egress to the mound. The mystery is, who these giants were, to what race they belonged, to what ers, and how they came to be buried there. To these inquiries no answer has yet been made; and meantime the ruthless spade continues to cleave skull and body asunder, throwing up in mangled masses the bones of this heroic tribe. It is hoped that some effort will be made to preserve authentic and accurate accounts of these discoveries, and to throw some light, if possible, on the lost tribe whose bones are thus rudely disturbed from their sleep in the earth's Our IDLE CLASSES.—Like unto the

But there came a time when things what she meant.

"That you have given Jacob the indexone taxer stand your father left you, and taken that old grist live to business and more given to sporting and the company of sporting and the company of sporting men. A good customer at his own bar, the evil of his work cursed in the bad type of the strate with feel to do this?" said the maiden, with the maiden, with and the edge was crumbling all the beauty of her face flying out all the beauty of her face flying out mader the hot flashes of indignation.

"It is true," and the edge was crumbling and the company of sporting men. A good customer at his own bar, the evil of his work cursed him as well as others. His feet drew of the strate with feel long ago. Then he thought to do this?" said the maiden, with all the beauty of her face flying out all the beauty of her face flying out all the beauty of her face flying out "He hot flashes of indignation." The case was submitted without argument.

"It I had kept it and closed it," he said one and another of the flower of the court below is, therefore, affirmed.

But there came a time when things began to change—when the owner of the other, and strong to one of age.

If arm we now livo on, and $150 cach, farm we now livo on, and $150 cach, and freed my when they come of age.

If arm we now livo on, and $150 cach, and freed my were than thirty years, and the legatees out of the freathness and more given to the nettens of girlhood, stood between payable to the legatees out of the farm as a rull agone out of his control, back throw more than thirty years, and the legatees out of the freathness and more given to the freathness. If arm we now livo on, and $150 cach, are freed my were than the legatees out of the farm as a rull agone out of his work on the payable to the legatees out of the farm as a rull agone out of him store the rore. Adams, for defendant in error.

Adams, for defendant in error.

All

Also, a full line of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, NEW ARRANGEMENT Hats, Caps and silk Hats, all of the latest styles and novelties of the present season, which I am offering at the vent lowest prices, all bought direct from the manufacturer, therefore I will make it an object to all cash buyers to purchase clothing of me this Spring. All goods warranted as represented. Thanking you all for your kind and liberal: pat-ronage formerly extended, I respectfully ask a con-tinuance of the migh.

April 25, 74. Towands, Pa. TO THE CITIZENS OF PENN-SYLVANIA, Four attention is specially in-cited to the fact that the National Banks are now prepared to recaive subscriptions to the Capital Strk of the Centennial Board of Finance. The funds realized from this scource are to be employed to the erection of the buildings for the International Exhibition, and the expenses conventional Exhibitors, and the expenses connected with the state of the state of

M. E. BOSENFIELD,

FREDK. FRALEY, Treasurer, 904 Walnut St., Phil's. Sept 4, '73s TO THE PUBLIC.—Having had nearly fitteen years experience in boring round ble House and Lot on Fourth street, fifth pumpling, I offer my services to the public. Work attended to in any part of the county in short meter and satisfaction guaranteed.

CALVIN ALLEN,

New Albaur, March 23-11.

Towands. March 12: 74-11. Towands, March 12, 174-tf.

Selected Boetry.

THE PRISONER'S DREAM. Before his soul, as in a glass, A train of gentle phantoms past. O holy vision! In the dim Far down his mother smiles on him; He feels her bosom softly rice,

Her kisses on his lips and eyes: In her bright hair his dimpling hands, Unchided, twist the silken strands. While he, in rosy infant charms, Once more lies nestling in her arms. The greensward in the setting sun; And, when he kissed her, cried, 'Not fair!"

The cager play when school was done; The little girl who pulled his hair, Swift set her little buskin down, And pushed him from her with a frown, Yet smiled and blushed a moment after, O'errippling in coquettish laughter; To whom he used to shyly bring The earliest blossoms of the spring,

At length, most near, most like to life,

He could believe his loss a lie, So clear her fixed and loving gaze. Though something in the soft still beam

-Harper's Mayazine for June.

THE MILL AND THE TAVERN. "To my oldest son, Richard, the tavern stand known as the 'Red Lion,' and twenty acres of ground

"No it is not," answered Jacob, plied Richard, in a frank and cheer-

"What do you mean?" asked Richard, showing some resentment "Just what I say. Didn't your wit, but didn't imagine you were never seemed to regard her feelings, prised again—this time by a visit the toward stand is worth forty times comfort or wishes in what he did. from his brother, who had not been tranquility; "time will show. As for me, I am satisfied; and no one has a right to question any decision I may choose to make touching my own af-"I have a right," said Glenn, with omething offensive in his voice, "as Richard, in a voice so stern and inlignant that Glenn moved back a mine, and her happiness is in my doubted or repented.

He find loved her ever since he was led astray in your barroom! No— in which he had kept the Red Lion.' Years passed, and no certain news that no coldness on her part, no not a poison to consume body and from his brother and family came to flirting with other boys, or, as years | soul! went on, other young men, could diminish. She was pretty but way. grew rich; but alas! how many be- man, working on steadily and paward—the very opposite to Richard came poor and miserable that he tiently in his mill, the years crept Cragan, who was so quiet, reserved, and true of purpose. After a long series of vicisitudes, of pains and true of purpose and true of pains and thirty or forty acres of land attached sprinkling his hair with grey. He discouragements, of hopes and fears, thereto. His first work was to put was spoken of far and near as the he at last had the ineffable happi- it in g od order, and year after year old man at the mill; and the gossips

"What?" asked Richard, his heart with the rapid increase that marked and sighed without, feeling more afraid," was heard now and then, amiable mood. "As good men as half confidentially.

had faintly touched his ear. He appeal from the distribution of a inquisition and appraisement, is not all the works of art yet discovered. The voice came to him again, and or's land, cannot be relieved by this an execution may issue on a judg-vet to determine fully the extent and analy man and Copan, in Central America, are appeal from the distribution of a inquisition and appraisement, is not all the works of art yet discovered. No excavations have been made as an execution may issue on a judg-vet to determine fully the extent and "I have talked to him again and "It is n't too late for your boys,

"But what else can Jocob do?"

"I shall be sold out by the sheriff

Jacob started up all on fire with father?"

"I do n't set up as being better than any one, Katy," replied the young man, whose face had become young man, whose face had become recognized to see his brother's wife coming down the road. She was alone.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out to meet her, "what has brought you down here?"

"Why Katy!" he said, going out to meet her, "what has brought you away down here?"

"I do n't set up as being better than a low, answering voice. He his mill, was surprised to see his threw the door wide open, and let threw the door wide open, and let the was entitled to the money in continuous the light stream out. Then he saw two women, closely wrapped up, coming in from the road through the little do the days of grace.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out the gain, and or's land, cannot be relieved by this an execution may issue on a judg-court, though it clearly appear that his mill, was surprised to see his threw the door wide open, and let the was entitled to the money in continuous the day after the day fixed for payment, the light stream out. Then he saw two women, closely wrapped up, coming in from the road through the little down on the days of grace.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out the gain and court, though it clearly appear that his mill, was surprised to see his threw the door wide open, and let the was entitled to the money in continuous test.

Elwell, for appellant.

Decree affirmed.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out the gain and court, though it clearly appear that his ment (previously confessed) on the day after the day fixed for payment, the day after the day fixed for payment, the light stream out. Then he saw the was entitled to the money in continuous test.

Elwell, for appellant.

Decree affirmed.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out the light stream out. Then he saw the was entitled to the money in continuous test.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out the light stream out. Then he saw the day fixed for payment, the day after the day fixed for payment, the day of grace.

"Why Katy!" he said, going out the light str do. If I had not let my brother take away down here?" the 'Red Lion' it would have made | As he looked her in the face, he no difference to my future—I should saw she was having trouble. have sold it and put the money in a anything wrong?" he added. "Yes, everything is wrong,"

Katy bit her lips, looked angry sentence, "and I want to talk to sumed, "to bring up a family amid close to the mill, and he went in with face, when he looked into it, alas! in error. the baneful associations of a tavern. Katy. "What is it?" he asked, with how changed. Old, shrunken, faded Elwell There are only two of us left out of kindly interest. "O, Richard!" she choked and years ago—and it is better that they sobbed, and then, controlling herself, "I have come here to die, died. Oh, Katy, try to feel as I do. went on: "O, Richard, I am almost and. I have no right, but—" The mill has a good run of business. heart-broken. Things are going to I shall improve it in many ways, and rack and ruin; and if there is n't double its capacity. We shall get some chang, we will not have a house Jacob?" along well enough—trust me for that, over our heads in a year."

times!

it—if it is n't too late."

tavern we must starve."

"Necessity drives men great many things."

Katy's heart.

young men of our place—hurting all sooner you and your children are and doing good to none." out of it the better." And he shuddered at the thought settled." "I will have it done up new all over, and make it the nicest place in say a word without his flaring up, feeling beat in her tones.

up in the most attractive manner, was so little in common between him the best tavern in that section.

business affairs, while in all that the pressing need of money that was concerned her personally he seemed upon him. to feel little or no interest. No, Katy was not happy—far from trying to see, what it was best for it. And as the years rolled past, the him to do. desire of her heart was less satisfied. "Let the tavern go, Jacob," he Richard Cragan took possession of said at length. "It has cursed you his mill, and began refitting, improv- from the beginning, and will curse ing, and setting things in order. All you ten-fold in your boys, if you keep the light of his life seemed for awhile it. A sheriff's sale, if it must come neighborhood who did not call him pen to you." fool. But in his own mind he never in his brother's face, and cursed him

Richard. Once or twice he wrote to Twenty years had gone since Jacob The miller did not marry. Katy Cragan sold out the 'Red Lion' and had been his first and only love; his went away. One evening late in Noheart never opened to another. Year vember, Richard sat in his solitary after year he grew better off; but not home, while the wind and rain sobbed tle gate.

"Richard! ob, Richard!" one of them eried faintly, and tried to hurry Where an order to suspend pro-forward, but stumbled and fell on ceedings on an execution is based on the wet ground. In an instant she an arrangement between the prior she was lifted in his strong arms and and a subsequent judgment creditor, the carried into the house.

The voice—how like the old voice either of them, the priority of the replied, her voice choking with the carried into the house. that had been for all these years the first execution revives.

"I have come here to die, Rich

"Not long; a month. This is Katy, tenderly. The story that Richard heard that sons grew up to be miserable drunk- was no intention whatever entertain-

"There is room here for all," said Richard Cragan, when the sad history was told. He asked no particu- ther. lars about his brother's life and death, "Not so bad as that," said Richard. and Katy did not intrude them.

aside for another that had only gall fish, less scrupulous, and had little Poor Katy went home but little young lives over which, when their mpiled from the Pennsylvania Reports, by R. A. MERCUR. 827, which requires the prothono-Richard was silent for a long time, Williston and Elwell, for defend boys?—my poor, lost boy, that was tavern, but in a style far below that be liable to the officers for all the costs which accrued. Elwell and Williston, for plaintiff costs of the justice and prothonotary, so far as they can be charged to the > the Act of 23d April, 1829. Sanderson, for plaintiff in error.

therefore, affirmed.

David Cash's Appeal.

1. Barr, 166.

David Cash's Appeal.

1. Barr, 166.

David Cash's Appeal.

ants in error. Those marked with a star are leading cases.

Spouts, bleeds, and dyes the waves with avail: Years out the cable's length that makes h Judgment reversed, and a legal plaintiff a witness, does not geon, is very much offended—blows whole country was once peopled by divest his interest. Every assignant sports like a wounded whale, a race having a higher grade of civiliment is deemed colourable until the strikes at our boat with his tail—zation than is found among any of goes at another with his mouth wide the native tribes of the latter ages. open to chaw it up, because any one But whether this race were the

as he took her hand and kissed it to the admission of such testimony, and buzz about his ears occasionally, must be rebutted by the most over | ho will have to stand it. If he don't night was sad and sorrowful to the doubt should be suffered to remain, Gen. Grant goes out of office, he can last degree. Both of his brother's that at the time of the contract there well afford to wait till 1880 at least. day, and read, study, or court the ards, and died in the prime of man-hood. Her eldest daughter married of the assignor, nor any such necesplumes before the world.

so that neither can convey any part lic," of which Mr. T. speaks in his tobacco, thus spending from five to Many of our best, our oldest, and most experienced teachers in Brads thereby transmitting to your children ford county-men who will leave a a weakened constitution, making wholesome and lasting impression on them puny invalids for life? the minds of the rising generation, Can you afford to burn out your condemn Mr. Thompson's lecture at nervous system and demoralize your Ulster, as wrong in principle and whole character by the use of alcoatheistical in sentiment. Strange that any man, an educated (?) one at least, should go to the heathen and

Two creditors claiming the same REPORTER, published at the time, will fund, one as the creditor of M. J. C. show; and I was then, and am now there being evidence that they were mising opposer to anything of the composed of the same persons, and kind. I do not go to the heathen phiknown under the different names; it losophers of Greece and Rome for toad is, to be sure! G. W. S. ROME, PA.

the broken tops and the amount of debris near their base indicate. A ew copper implements, some small golden ornaments — one being an image of the sun a perforation in the middle — and some stone utensils, and two rudely carved stone vases, much like thise found at Zupetato yet to determine fully the extent and character of these ruins.

plain, elevated nearly two hundred feet above the bed of the Gila. Just west of the walls of the fortfication there is a beautiful stream of water having its source in the mountains. which crosses the plain, and by a series of cataracts falls into the Gila about two miles below. The fragments of pottery and polished stone reveal a condition of civilization among the builders of these ruins analogous to that of the ancient Peruvian, Central American and Mexican nations. The country in the vicinity of this burial palace is particularly wild, and unusually desolate. No clue to the builders of this great fortified palace, with its towers and most, has been or is likely ever to be discovered. One thing,

Can you afford to be tricky, and therefore defraud your employer of though you get your pay, thus mak-ANCIENT AMERICANS .-- The workmen engaged in opening a way for the sy on novel-reading, to which he re-fers, he himself was the advocate and Garrysburgh, N. C., struck, about a mile from the former place, > as those of cannibals, the enamel perfectly preserved; the bones were of wonderful length and strength, were sharp stone-arrows, some mortars in which their corn was brayed, skeletons are said to be as large as those of a horse.

thickness; the teeth were filed sharp number, whom St. John speaks of in