Some of the Democratic papers have been congratulating themselves that Harper's Weekly was preparing to bolt the Republican party. A lengthy, able article in this journal of last week does not look much like such a course. We append a portion of it:

"The fear that the Republican party has fallen hopelessly under the control of unfit leaders and disastrous counsels is not justified by the facts. We do not say, of course, that it has wholly escaped them, or that there is not a conflict with them proceeding at this time. Indeed that is just what we do say. But the encouraging sign to those who know that in free countries government must be carried on by parties, and that there is now no great divided issue in our politics, is that the Republican party has healthy vigor enough to wrestle with its own evils and abuses, and that events show willingness and a wish among its members for purification and reform If it be said that the truth is, the party is sinking, and is therefore merely throwing over its contraband freight, we reply that that is the very breathings come to cool, to calm, and thing which other parties have not done nor attempted to do. The Free to caress .- Atlantic Weekly Review. soil Democrats in 1848, the Douglas Democrats in 1857, tried to persuade the Democratic party to lighten ship and they were themselves thrown overboard for their pains. And if to-day, as will not be denied, the best Republicans in the country have the memory of Charles Sumner to more heart and hope than for many day, and Music Hall was crowded, as months before, it is because they see
