FATAL ACCIDENT:—A sad accident took place in Granville township on Friday afternoon, which resulted in the death of Elizabeth frances on those who visit the more fashionable watering places, not to gain health, but to display their waterbeth, a young woman aged 26 years. Her father was busy drawing in wheat, and wanting a hand to load, was going to send off after a young gentleman, in charge of the office. The hand to load, was going to send off after a man, but she insisted that she could load as well as any one. She was permitted to do this, and after the wheat was loaded drove the team down a slope, and in holding back the lorses. down a slope, and in holding back the horses, slid off with several bundles under the heels of the horses, which started to run. The wagon passed over her, injuring her very badly, though she thought her injuries were not much. A doctor was called and decided that she was very dangerously hurt, which proved to be the case, as she lingered in life but a few hours. She was buried at the M. E. Church, in the "Windfall," on Sunday last .- Northern Tier Gazette. We learn that a most fiendish and diabolical outrage was committed Saturday afternoon last at Hatch Hill, in Albany township. Two groceries, it seems, are maintained at that point for the accommodation of berrypickers,-one of them owned by Schurler Horr, and the other by a young man named WALTMAN. On Saturday afternoon, Mr. W.'s place was entered by six ruffians, armed, who declared in a boisterous manner that they intended to have what they pleased without paying for it. The proprietor, in attempting to protect his property, called upon his clerk and Mr. Horr and his clerk. The assaulting party used knives and clubs, severely if not fatally injuring Mr. HOYT. Mr. WALTMAN was also badly cut. The two clerks escaped with less seriradoes were arrested and permitted to give scedlings.

B. P. GOODMAN, Sec'y, Towands June 30. 1874. Towanda June 30, 1874. MINNEOUA -- We most cordially enforce the following notice of Minnequa Springs, copied from POMEROY'S Democrat, New York:

People will have to be more careful leaving their premises unprotected.

There is no doubt that, among our social obligations, that of influencing others to right conduct should rank very high. We have not fuifilled our whole duty to our fellow-men when we have accorded them liberty of action, have secured their natural rights, and removed all impediments to their onward progress; we also owe them a direct and positive influence for good.

Repensance begins in the humiliation of the heart, and ends in the reformation of the life. How difficult it is, with the very best intentions, for a woman who lives in the world to steer entirely clear of suspicion or misinterpretation, unless there exists between her and her husband a frank and cordial understanding.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN, BY A SOJOURN. ER.—SUMMER RESORTS—A HINT TO MY LITTLE LADY WHO SNEEDS AT A PLAIN LOVER, ETC .-Ninety-five millions of dollars are spent by the American pleasure-seekers during the summer mouths, say the papers. We wonder how much nore enjoyment they find than we do, in our jog-trot of duties that leave us no pause for ecreation. To us it comes a rich, sweet, everrecurring surprise, in the gaps when the twilight breezes steal in over our closing daily cares, and in the roornings when the sunlight orightens the leaves, and sets the birds singing. O this beautiful, green-clad earth, that leaves us no longings for heaven. We do not wonder that poor imprisoned men and women rush out to her verdant uplands for refreshment and relaxation, as famished little ones fly to a mother's arms. If only she could do it all. If only her beautiful presentations and holy teachings might fall on hearts and lives that were not so seared and enclosed in worldliness, that her best ministrations are almost lost. Nature, in her softest and most picturesque beauty, or in her most startling grandeur, can do but little for us, when we go to her with our burdening selfishness and ambition, for some fresh intellectual stimulus, or the mere impulse of a new sensation. This old mother of ours is a careful cultivator, and like the sower in the parable, she wants good soil for her

Ninety-five millions of dollars spent by Americans at Summer resorts! Oh! these magnificent dollars, and the brilliant train of friends, and service, they bring to their fortunate possessors! How they brighten faces, and broaden smiles, and multiply professions, from the son. craping landlord up to the fellow millionaire; and the most beautiful beauty of the whole thing is, that it is all accepted as a genuine tribute of genuine regard for genuine merit. One forgets, in the march of success, how this flatterer snubbed him, aforetime, and how that sycophant looked past him, in the days when friends and means were scant: but then whose business is it? Not ours, surely, for we have more than we can attend to properly, now. It isn't for us to wonder and complain at the unequal distributions of life, we suppose, C. M. During the past few months, manufacturers and jobbers have been so anxious to sell that they have been willing to trade on a very small margin, and McCabe & Edwards know that a "nimble sixpence is better than a slow shilling," consequently they offer greater inducements to cash buyers for everything in the grocery line than any other establishment in the county. They deal in the very best brands of family groceries and flour. We take pleasure in calling attention of our readers to the advertisement o M.E. Bosenvield in another column. Mr. R. has justly earned the envisble reputation of being one of our most reliable business men, and his long experience in the clothing business enables him to make and offer better bargains than those who are engaged in the business, You can buy everything in but who have not availed themselves of the opportunities for purchasing which he possess ier, and the cherries, and the thoughtful words at McCanz & Edwards than any other place in es. A Teachers' Class will be organized at commencement of the term. The Principal will conduct the erectises of this class chiefly, and aid all teachers who prove themselves worthy and competent in securing positions. Effort will be made by devoting more time and using the increased facilities of apparatus, to make the instruction in this class more profitable than eyer before.

At a considerable additional expense, instruction in Drawing and Yocal Music has been made free to members of the school. These two studies, if paid for as extras, as in usually the case, would nearly cover the coat of tuition. Provision is also made for individual instruction in vocal music. Mrs. Baldwin's ability to teach yocal music is too well known to need comment. A new laboratory is being fitted up and the collection of Philosophical apparatus enlarged. The grounds are being graded, fine croquet grounds are prepared and effort made to meet the physical as well as the intellectual wants of the students.

Tuition from $4 to $10 per term. Board, including furnished room, lights, washing, &c. $4 per week. Expenses per year in English studies, $192; in classical, $204.
