MATCH GAME.—The Advertiser of Monday morning, says :

Townsday, Aug. 20, 1874.

Monday morning, says:

"The Athletics go to Townsda Wednesday to play the Winonas of that place. Last week they received an acceptance to their challenge, sent some weeks since, naming Wednesday next as the day for the game. The Winonas are noted as being one of the best amateur clube in Pennsylvania. In 1872, they ded the Amateurs of this city, who were then the pot club of Elmira. The Athletic tear placky, and generally in the habit of winning. Having somewhat reorganized their nine, they expect to do their best on that day. The Winonas have expended considerable in improving their grounds and preparing for the game. All who go may expect time sport and a good time, for the boys are always used well in Towands. If there is a sufficient number going, excursion rates may be had. Fare for the sport and the round trip $1.90."
