In the 10th inning, by an over-pitch of SCUDprn's, the Winonas made two runs, (one coming in previously) and won the game. Scriptural prodigaL The Winonas found it very difficult to hit

Scuppen's pitching, while the Athletics were in her. We wish there were more women that unable to bat SUTTON's without knocking fly balls. PHELAN, STINE, and Fox, distinguished themselves by their fice fielding,-PRELAN assisting in three double-plays. OsBORNE, CAR-MAN and Disnnow made the best batting. The Athletics, without any exception, played a most splendid game, making but few errors. The game was the best one ever played here. The following was the score :

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN, BY A SOJOURN-ER. -THE KIND OF STORIES THAT MAKE MEN CAT-AND THE NECESSITY OF BRINGING ABOUT A "BALANCE OF POWER."-A few Sundays ago we had the pleasure of listening to a stranger who occupied a pulpit in this town. His sermon was somewhat emotional, and was illustrated and story telling, and butting up of old com-tage of powers and intersting appreciated by the many who fared so well at their hands. An interesting speech. One of the most interesting events of the day, was the speech made by the venerable a tention, was that of a couple who lived in a New York town, not a thousand miles from As might naturally be supposed, the necessi-ty of, supporting the family devolved upon the wife, to which duty she devolted her sorrowing

tion, and we owed them a great debt of grati-tude. He was eighty years of age, but he was in favor of receiving the rebels as bretbren and her torgue, -- a fact that established this feat treating them as such, but if they rebelled he to be of possible attainment to the sex. It was was in favor of taking them by the throat and stated furthermore, that she prayed, but punishing them severely.

A HANDSOME FRAME. A HANDSOME FRAME. After dinner, there was displayed on the stand a very handsome frame, capable of hold-ing thirty-one photographs, with two large ones in the centre. It was made by L. S. Smth, Commander of Post 77, and with a jack-knife. not made known. In the meanwhile the nice t contains ten thousand pieces dove-tailed together. There was a proposition to dispose of is at fifty cents a ticket, the proceeds to be given to the charity fund of Post 77.

THE AFTERNOON MEETING. At the afternoon meeting letters were read from Lieutenant Governor Robinson, General nent, ornament, utility, or anything else, unless it were as the medium of a little farther extended and more specific discipline for the woman in the New York town. Well, after he had reached this state of affairs, he began with true manly wisdom, to think of home, and thitherward he bent his steps. We are not informed which side of the river his domicil was located upon, but he did not enter it rashly. He hung around, and fingur-ed and new York town. Well, after the sourcest. He was followed by Col. Overton, of Towanda, who made one of the most interest-ing addresses of the day. Rev. W. H. Rumisey, Chaplain of Gilmour Post, Ulster, Pa., was next heard with much pleasure. After the speeches, the company enjoyed themselves with various sports, dancing being ed, and peeked at the windows, and finally got a friend to support him through the doorway he had so shabbily descried.

After the speeches, the company chlored themselves with various sports, dancing being the chief amušement. For this the arrange-ments were good, the platform affording room for eight quadrilles at one time. Indeed all of the arrangements are to be commended,—the booths for the sale of ice cream, beer and ci-gars, the large platform, built as af to stay, and the seats, from which could be seen the speaker's stand. The ladies for the assistance they have rendered the Post, deserve some-thing more than compliment or a vote of The good woman, notwithstanding the burden of all those sorrow-freighted, humiliating years, met him with a cordial, loving unreproving smile of recognition, the description of which almost distanced the welcome of the thing more than compliment or a vote of thanks.

Now this was just beautiful. We admire THE CAMP FIRE. would wash, and iron, and pray, until the children were all grown up, and fed and clothed,

THE CAMP FIRE. At half-past five the camp fires were lit, the camp-kettles strung on their poles and the beans cooked in regulation manner. The camp was on a hill sonth-east of the village, and when in full blast presented a very attractive spectacle. The usual services followed, stories, songs, speeches and great fun, mingled with much destruction of the rations provided. Among those present in the evening, were Com. G. L. Smith and J. S. Ware, of this city, and Adjutant Geo. Stratton, and S. V. C. Gur-don Pendleton, of Owego. The receipts of the day were estimated at something in the neighborhood of eight hunand disposed of, and then take home_the old male absconder, and nurse him down the de clining years. But we did n't cry, because we were so taken up with the furtive outdrawing of masculine handkerchiefs in our vicinity. It is unusual for men to weep, but they can do it with telling effusion, it seems, on a suitable something in the neighborhood of eight hun-dred dollars. At twelve o'clock the gathering broke up, and worthy occasion. This species of emotion contains withal a promise of better adjusted relations between the sexes. Inasmuch as womankind is devel-oping an undue desire to push the limits of what has heretofore been ascribed her as her proper sphere, almost to the extent of en-

out license.
